The spring style of mosquitoes is about the same as last year, only this year's crop will carry jig saws with which to cut bias.

A contemporary speaks of the cotton strike in England. Shouldn't think cotton could strike very hard.

The man who could do all the business he wanted to do without advertising, has been compelled to advertise at last.

At Smithville. The target firing at Smithville was in progress at the time we were obliged to close.

Quarterly Meeting. Rev. L. S. Burkhead, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District, Methodist E. Church, South, has made the following appointments to complete his second round of quarterly meetings:

Smothered. Chas. Wesley, a colored child about two years old, was found dead this morning in a house in the locality known as Dickinson's Hill, North of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R.

Carolina. Total revenue receipts in Raleigh on Tuesday $527.57. The colored Episcopal minister in Charlotte is about to resign his charge.

Encampment of the Second Regiment. The Charlotte Observer says that the passage of the bill by Congress giving to North Carolina her quota of tents and other accoutrements for camping, makes the talk of encampment of the Second regiment a certainty.

City Court. An old offender in the person of Mary Eliza Lively was interviewed by His Honor the Mayor this morning at his regular morning levee.

House Moving. The excitement on Third street, near Mulberry, is the removal, bodily, of a two story frame house from its old position near the corner of Third and Walnut streets.

The Light Infantry. There was a very pleasant party collected on board the steamer Underhill this morning as she steamed down the river with the Wilmington Light Infantry and their invited guests on board.

The Thermometer.

From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:

EDITOR REVIEW: It is very gratifying to notice through the press of the State that the grand old Democratic party is making fine selections in its County and State nominations.

Conservative. The Raleigh News: Last Saturday night, at Salem, Wash Troy and Lindsey Thomas, two negroes, got into a difficulty, in which the latter was badly, if not fatally, stabbed in four different places.

Charlotte Observer: Threshing wheat has commenced in the county. The crop is not turning out well, the stand generally having been thin, but the quality of the grain is good.

Raleigh Observer: Mr. B. F. Long, of Graham, is the orator of the Washington Literary Society at the University of Virginia. This is a high honor, won by great labor and always hotly contested.

Durham Plant: We learn that Hon. Curtis H. Brogden, M O from the 2nd District, is out in a circular denying the charge made against him in the Plant some months since. The charge was that he boarded in Washington with a negro. The publication was made upon the authority of a gentleman who had been in Washington, and we are informed that a prominent Radical of Wayne says Curtis need not deny it.

Raleigh Observer: On Saturday night a daring burglary was attempted in Chapel Hill. The lady of the house was aroused by the noise of some one breaking in her front door. She ran to the window and called for assistance from Mr. Mallett, who lived next door.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.

J. JAWETT—Look. BRIMSBERGER—New Novel. MUNSON—Only One Day More. THOS. H. HOWEY—Boots and Shoes. FRED HILL LONDON—Notice.

Several private Sound parties are in projection for to-morrow.

To-day is a decided improvement upon any of its predecessors this week

Experience may be a dear teacher, but she isn't any dearer than a pretty school-ma'am.

A young lady in this town says the assertion that "man proposes," was undoubtedly meant for some other clime.

The demolition of the venerable building on North Front street, which is to make way for a handsome wooden structure, is going forward rapidly.

In the bright lexicon of American youth there is no such word as fail. A man merely becomes embarrassed, and compromises with his creditors for thirty cents.

The prettiest white morning wrappers are made with a deep square yoke entirely of open needlework, wide embroideries down the front, a Watteau pleat in the back, and the sleeves and deep Spanish flounces also embroidered.

The tobacco man who wanted a novel advertisement had his name embroidered on scarlet stockings, and then distributed them among the pretty girls. It wasn't long before all the young men in the neighborhood were running after his brand of cigars.

Thirty-two hundred pounds of whale bones were brought to this market a few days ago, from Bogue Inlet. The bones were those of two whales, which were captured near Bogue and were bought by Mr. B. F. Nolan, of this city. He will be pleased to show them to the citizens of Wilmington.

If a cat doth meet a cat upon a garden wall, and if a cat doth greet a cat, O need they both to squall? Every Tommy has his Tabby waiting on the wall, and yet he welcomes her approach always with a yawl.

Knights of Pythias. Directly on the adjournment this evening of the regular meeting of Germania Lodge No. 4, K. of P., of this city, the Endowment rank of the order will be instituted by the election of officers, examination of applicants, &c. It will prove an interesting occasion to the uninitiated. It is said that there are now over 1,100 sections instituted, with a membership of upwards of 40,000.

House Moving. The excitement on Third street, near Mulberry, is the removal, bodily, of a two story frame house from its old position near the corner of Third and Walnut streets, to a site on the corner of Mulberry and Second. The building has stood as it is, incomplete, for many years, and has now been purchased by Col. Roger Moore, who will make the necessary improvements and alterations and turn out a handsome dwelling house for somebody's occupation next Fall.

The Light Infantry. There was a very pleasant party collected on board the steamer Underhill this morning as she steamed down the river with the Wilmington Light Infantry and their invited guests on board. There were numbers of ladies, a pretty full company, members of the Veteran Corps W. L. I., with their new caps and badges, and various staff officers in full uniform. We refer elsewhere to special dispatches to the REVIEW from Smithville relative to the target shooting at that point.
