Piedmont to Smithville, on Friday next leaving Market wharf at 8 o'clock. Tickets

Fire This Morning.
The alarm of fire this morning, about 4 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a small frame building owned by Dr. J.
F. King and situated on Tenth, between Ann and Nun streets. The house was unoccupied but it is thought some one was sleeping in it. We could not ascertain the origin of the fire.

Unmailable Letters.
The following is a list of unmailable letters remaining in the city post office, June 26th:
Mrs. John Jones, care of Mr. Strause, Baltimore, Md.; Owen McKoy, Little Sugar Loaf, N. C.; L. A. Bridgman, Campbell Bridge, S. C.

Cotton Blooms and Corn Silks.
We have upon our table a tall stalk of cotton in the blooms and a ear of corn of this year's growth with silk projecting.
They were sent to us by a colored man and a good farmer, Jesse Hill, of Spring Garden, near Rocky Point. They grew upon his farm and he tells us that he has many more of the same sort. This is creditable to Jesse, especially as there are so many idlers and drones of his color, consuming all they can get and producing nothing, and thus injuring society, and adding to the general suffering and distress. It always affords us pleasure to chronicle evidence of the enterprise, skill, and success in business of our colored population. Many idlers of both colors in town could find employment upon the farms in the country.

Puffs.—One quart of flour, one tablespoonful of butter, salt, two or more tablespoonfuls white sugar, two eggs, three teaspoonfuls DOOLEY'S YEAST POW-DER, and one pint sweet milk. Beat the eggs separately, adding the whites last.
Bake in gem pans in a hot oven.

Excursion To-morrow.
The steamer Underhill is bound for salt water to-morrow with an excursion party to go down under the management of Capt. Lippitt. There will be music dancing and refreshments on board, the latter to be furnished at the usual city prices. Those who are longing for a little fresh air will have an excellent opportunity for obtaining it.

Badly Burned.
Last evening, during the progress of the Calisthenic Exercises at Misses Burr & James' School Rooms, a cry of fire and distress startled every one. It came from one of the servant's houses on the premises of Mrs. Wm. A. Wright, on Third street, just south of St. James' Church, and was caused by the attempt of a colored woman, Susan McBae by name, to fill with oil a lighted kerosene lamp. The woman, herself, was badly burned, and her child, only a few years old, fearfully so. It is thought that the latter cannot recover.

Destructive Fire.
The store and stock of goods belonging to Messrs. J. A. Buxton & Co., of Jackson, Northampton county, N. C., were destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock on the night of the 23d inst. The fire is thought to have been set by an incendiary, and the supposed incendiary was traced on horseback to one of General Ransom's farms.
Messrs. Buxton & Co. claim to have lost $9,000. They had insurance for $6,000, $5,000 of which was with Messrs.
Jno. W. Gordon & Bro., of this city, in the North Carolina Home, Pamlico and Seaboard Insurance Companies.

Magistrate's Court.

Douglas Simmons, colored, who was arrested by a policeman at the instigation of Mr. Thos. H. Beck, for obtaining goods under false pretences, was tried yesterday afternoon by Justice Harris, and bound over to the Criminal Court in the sum of $100—in default of which he was committed to jail.

More Cotton Blooms.

Since the article published elsewhere recording the arrival of cotton blooms and corn silks was written, we have received two other cotton blooms from the line of the W. C. & A. R. R. sent in to us by a subscriber, Mr. B. T.
Barden, of Fair Pluff. They were plucked from the fields of Messrs. Adam C. Olive and Aaron Oliver, of White House township, Robeson county, and are the first which come to us this year from that section.

The "Devil"

Our proof-reader is not "dead" yet as one of our venerable readers inquired this morning but the "devil" got into an article yesterday on the fourth page relative to an assault on a lady on Greenville Sound. The proof-reader marked an error which was magnified and made much worse in the correction. That "take" was "the devil's" and our Foreman took that take and took that "devil" to task this morning. There was the appropriate weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth for a half hour or so afterwards.

Board of Trade.

Three or four years ago the Board of Trade of the city of Wilmington was established for the mutual protection of the merchants. Since then much good has accrued to them through this method of business protection and the Board of Trade has been the means of raising a revenue for the city. At the last annual meeting, held on Monday, the Secretary's report showed the organization was in a good condition and in all probability its membership will be increased in the next month or two. The following gentlemen were elected for the ensuing term: President—R. M. McIntire.
First Vice-President—E. T. Hancock.
Second Vice-President—J. C. Stevenson.
Secretary and Treasurer—J. C. Munds.

Not Nichols.

It is now thought that the person who, on Sunday last, attacked and cut a lady residing on Greenville Sound, an account of which appeared in yesterday's REVIEW, is a sailor. Since the attack was made another person was has been with the villain.
Yesterday dogs discovered the two men in a swamp near the head of Hewlett's Creek, and chased them out. The men are prowling about between Bradley's and Hewlett's Creek, stealing whatever they can lay their hands on.

Persons living in the vicinity are considerably alarmed for fear of the men setting fire to buildings or committing depredations of some kind. They look like deep-dyed villains, so we have been told.
One of them came out in the road yesterday just in front of a horse and cart which was being driven to town, but for some reason took to the woods again before the driver could get up to him.

County Commissioners.

A called meeting of the Board of County Commissioners was held yesterday afternoon.
On application, it was ordered that W.
H. Walker, a blind man, belonging to Wilmington Township, be exempted from paying poll tax.

It was ordered that the Street Railway be assessed at $2,500.
Ordered, that the Chairman of the Board be instructed to discharge from the County Poor House, from time to time, any such inmates whom he thinks fit subjects for discharge.

A report from S. VanAmringe, Clerk of the Auditing Committee, covering a State warrant for $100, for the support of certain insane persons, was ordered received and turned over to the County Treasurer.

Matters in regard to certain sections of the Revenue and Machinery Acts were discussed by the Board, and a committee appointed to confer with counsel in relation thereto and report at a subsequent meeting.
The Board then adjourned subject to the call of the Chairman.

A contract was made yesterday by the New Compress Company with Messrs.
Wood and Sidbury for the erection of the warehouse at the foot of Red Cross Street.

Calisthenic Exercises.

The calisthenic exercises last evening surpassed in interest and precision those of any previous session, by the scholars of Messrs. Burr and James' school. For the most part the figures were new, intricate and more graceful. Since we last saw the young ladies going through this most healthy and necessary exercise, Indian clubs, balls and wands have been provided for them, which they handled with ease. The instrumental music was rendered by the youngest of Mrs. Cushing's pupils who reflected much credit upon themselves and proficient precep-tress. The duets by Misses Annie Von-Glabn and Minnie Allen, and Master G. C.
Worth and Solo by little Katie Volders were very fine. Their little fingers ran nimble over the keys and at the conclusion of their pieces the youthful performers were heartily and justly encored.
By request the young ladies sang Carolina and in response to a prolonged applause they sang Homeward Bound and the audience separated well pleased with the exercises. To-morrow evening the regular soiree and closing exercises of the school session will take place.

Interesting Decision.

The readers of the REVIEW have not forgotten the suit instituted last year by Geo. W. Price, Jr., against Capt. H. C.
Brock, to recover from him the position of Chief of Police, to which Price claimed to have been elected. The case was tried before the lower court last Summer.
Judge McKoy, we think, presiding, and a decision rendered for defendant, whereupon, Price appealed. It was argued last week in the Supreme Court and on Monday Justice Faircloth delivered the opinion in the case, confirming the judgment of the Court below. The status of the case is fully explained in the decision which we publish herewith. Justice Faircloth says: The question in this case arises under an act for the government of the city of Wilmington. (Private Laws 1868-69, chap. 5 sec. 9.) The Board of Aldermen consists of ten members, and all of them were present when the sixth ballot was taken under which plaintiff asserts his title. The clerk counted the ballots and announced that the plaintiff, having received a majority of the votes cast, was elected. Some of the Aldermen immediately expressed the opinion that plaintiff was elected and should be so declared, but others contended that there had been no election. It was then proposed to strike out the ballot just taken and vote again which was adopted by the Board.

Held, No result of the sixth ballot having been declared by the Board, the plaintiff was not elected, and would not have been even if each member had voted for him. The Board alone could ascertain the result and declare the party elected, either by doing so themselves or by adopting the result declared by their clerk.

Light Wanted.

Considering the vague rumors floating around, it is desirable to ask a few questions with the hope that those who have the information will enlighten the tax payers.

Which, if any, of the late city officials have been found to be in default to any extent?

If so, was he, or were they, bonded officers?

In whose possession are these bonds?

The public are entitled to know when any one of its servants has betrayed his trust; and not being able to see in what respect the interests of the city can be jeopardized in any rumored case, we demand the facts.

add that we refer to the Colonnade Hotel

The School Question.

ASHETON, N. C., June 24th, 1878, To the Editor of the Daily Review:— Your subscribers in this section have read, with proper interest, the communication of "B." from Burgaw, as published in your paper on Saturday last. They agree with him as to the merits, decided ability and very extensive influence and increasing popularity of the DAILY REVIEW and WEEKLY JOURNAL. The people hereaabouts also endorse this statement as to these two papers, so ably conducted by you as the orthodox Democratic newspapers of this lower portion of the State.
They also agree with us in the statement that Miss Laura Gill is entitled to all the praise bestowed upon her by your venable correspondent, "B." aforesaid, in his allusions to her as a recent teacher in this community. None but words of commendation are ever spoken of this successful teacher, since she has so well shown in this neighborhood her fine capacity to teach.
But there are certain other portions of this communication from Burgaw that the people generally unite with us in objecting to.
We allude more particularly to the statement that a new school house will be built for her to teach in here and in time for her next session, in October next.
Now, Mr. Editor, for our reason, and that reason is why such an unnecessary movement does not meet the general favor here and will not be liberal nor conducive to the best interests of education here.

There is already a very desirable and very roomy and comfortable school building erected expressly for an academy here and now and for some time past unoccupied. It was built by the liberal hearted citizens and true friends of education in this immediate vicinity for both private and public schools, and all will admit that, situated directly at Asheton station, on the railroad, it is central in the white school district here and in the very place where it is needed and where it will best accommodate the greatest number of scholars and will best subserve the school wants and necessities of the patrons of education at and near to Asheton. The prejudices of a very few aside, and this is the universal sentiment here. Plum Grove Academy is very inconvenient for a very large portion of the pupils here and hereabouts. Miss Gill is welcome to this school house at Asheton, or any other teacher who may teach in this neighborhood is welcome to teach in it.
The public school money for the white children of this school district ought to be expended upon a teacher who teaches in this house. The continuance of Plum Grove Academy or a new school house near by will surely be disastrous upon the prospects of a school in the school building at Asheton. So much is this true that if the proposed movement succeeds it will cut off at least fifteen school children on the west side of the railroad from attending school, and in various ways will impair the cause of education here. We have no selfish ends to gain in presenting these views. We are only contending for the greatest good of the greatest number, and objecting to a discrimination for a few against the rights, feelings, wishes and interests of the many.
Miss Gill is, of course, competent to teach all pupils here between six and twenty-one years of age, and is no doubt ready to do it. The neighborhood cannot support two white schools. It will be sucidal to attempt it as the public school committeemen and our citizens all know.
If we can all agree to lay self aside, abandon prejudice, and come together in union and harmony and concentrate upon a good teacher and a central and healthy location as is this site where this excellent school building stands, we can have such a flourishing school here as your correspondent "B." so ardently desires and as our people here so much need and desire also.

ANGUS MCLENDON,
