Yacht Frolic will leave for the Sound on Tuesday. The yacht Losa left for Masonboro last evening under command of Mr. Jno. Flowers.

Two cart-loads of fish and a quantity of meat were condemned and sent out of market yesterday. Mr. Geo. W. Norman, general traveling agent for McGee's Illustrated Weekly, favored us with a call to-day.

It isn't worth while for the Star to get mad because we got the first cotton bloom this season. We couldn't help it. We were pleased to meet last evening with Maj. J. W. Wilson, the energetic and efficient President of the Western N. C. R. R., who is on a short visit to our city.

There will be a Republican bow wow here to-morrow but it is not the Senatorial Convention, as our neighbor states; that is to be held at Burgaw on Tuesday next, July 2, as we are informed.

he contracts for the work on the next Cotton Compress have been given out to Messrs. Wood and Sidbury, as stated by us recently, but it is necessary to a correct understanding to state that Mr. Wood has the contract for the brick work and Mr. Sidbury that for the wood work.

Why don't the two Observers, and the Star and Review get up a war? We want to be an observer, and if the star of a combatant should seem likely to set, we'd review the whole matter.

Thus Dossey Battle in the Tarboro Southerner. Why he should want to embroil us all we can't say unless the hot weather has permeated his boots and affected his brains. We dar say he fights his own little Battles at home.

Is It the Reason? Why is it that persons will persist in throwing chicken offals, defunct cats, rats, or garbage in the streets in front or rear of their residences when it would be but a very little trouble to bury them? Such practices are not at all pleasant or conducive to health and we can hardly believe that they like the perfume, after the offals, etc., have had the sun on them for a few hours. The only reason we can assign for the habit is, they would like to dispatch a messenger to the City Hall to notify the Chief that something putrid is in such and such a locality and please do to send up the carts to take it away. If the Chief, street gang, carts and health officers, are not there in fifteen minutes, then look out for complaints.

Rather Costly. One of our venerable Water street merchants, who recently boasted of a beautiful set of false teeth, was among those who went down on the Passport yesterday afternoon to angle for black-fish. The boat was hardly outside, however, before the old gentleman felt his heart in his mouth and was compelled to pay involuntary tribute to Neptune, and a part of this tribute consisted of the aforesaid beautiful set of teeth. He didn't care, however, as just at that moment he didn't think he'd ever have use for them again. The trip may have cost him a hundred dollars or so and will probably prove to have been worth to him five times that amount.

Weakly Persons' Wine. Old and infirm persons need some mild tonic or gentle stimulant, especially in warm weather. The wine made at Speer's Mount Prospect Vineyards in New Jersey, called Speer's Port Grape Wine, is used in the Atlantic States as the best tonic wine known, and is regarded as pure; and is very popular among physicians.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have frequent headache, mouth tastes bad, poor appetite, tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid liver, or "biliousness." Nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Communion Wine. The Grape Crop of A. Speer's Vineyards, in New Jersey, promises this year to be one third more than any previous year. His Vineyards in New Jersey and the products from the grapes he purchases have enabled him to keep a stock four years ahead. None sold less than four years old. It has become a popular evening wine among the best families in New York, and for communion purposes.

City Court. Hamilton Pollard (colored) charged with disorderly conduct—throwing stones in the street and cursing and swearing—was sent below to the City Prison for five days to expiate his offence. One case of drunkenness, an unsophisticated person from the rural districts, was dismissed.

Fortune-Telling. A peripatetic fortune teller was a feature on Nutt street this morning. He had a little box, not quite a foot square, mounted on a tripod, upon which was lettered the information that for the very small sum of five cents a little bird would select the planet which controls the destiny of the seeker after fortune. We noticed quite a number of the colored population hovering around the show, seemingly anxious to invest a small amount in such important astronomical knowledge. The show is suggested as a good opportunity for political aspirants to come to a conclusion relative to the result of the coming elections.

Registration. The Raleigh News, in response, as it says, to certain inquiries made by several of the Registrars in Wake county, publishes the following information for their guidance. As it is just as applicable to this section, we produce it here for the benefit of the Registrars in this and adjoining counties:

1. The Registration books, by direction of the Board of Justices, open on the 27th day of June and close on the 31st day of July.

2. The full name of each voter must be registered, and his present residence stated to the Registrar, and when required by any elector his identity, age and residence must be proven on oath to the Registrar.

3. In addition to the other disqualifications, all persons who have been convicted, or who have submitted upon indictments for the following offences (whether the judgment was prayed or not) viz.: Larceny, receiving stolen goods, forgery, burglary, perjury, false pretences, murder, manslaughter, arson, rape, assault with intent to commit rape, and all other felonies and infamous crimes, are not allowed to register.

To vote at the approaching election one year's residence in the State and ninety days in the county is necessary. Actual residence in a ward, township, or precinct will entitle one to vote though he may have been in the same only one day; provided he has been ninety days in the county.

The Evil Effects of Ice-Water Drinking. The evil effects of drinking too much ice-water are very clearly set forth by a level-headed writer as follows: Ice-water arrests digestion, if it does not absolutely drive out all animal heat, and it is not resumed until the water is raised to the temperature requisite to carry it on. Habitual ice-water drinkers are usually very flabby about the region of the stomach. They complain that their food lies heavy on that patient organ. They taste their dinners for hours after it is boiled. They cultivate the use of stimulants to aid digestion. If they are intelligent they read up on food and what the physiologist has to say about it—how long it takes cabbage, and pork, and beef, and potatoes, and other meats and esculents, to go through the process of assimilation. They roar at new bread, and hot cakes, and fried meats, imagining these to have been the cause of their maladies.

But the ice-water goes down all the same, and finally friends are called in to take a farewell look at one whom a mysterious Providence has called to a climate where, so far as is known, ice water is not used. The number of immortal beings who go hence to return no more on account of an injudicious use of ice water can hardly be estimated.

The article proceeds to show that in numerous cases fine teeth are totally destroyed by its use. It chills the teeth and cracks the enamel, then follows rapid decay and frequent visits to the office of the dentist.

For Upwards of Thirty Years MRS. WINSLOW'S SYRUP has been used for children. It corrects acidity of the stomach, relieves wind colic, regulates the bowels, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other cause. An old and well-tried remedy. 25 cents a bottle. d & w.

Quarterly Meeting. Rev. L. S. Burkhead, D. D., Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District, Methodist E. Church, South, has made the following appointments to complete his second round of quarterly meetings: Onslow, at Queen's Creek, June 29-30 Topsail, at Rocky Point, July 6-7

Disappointed. The wheels of a wagon loaded with watermelons gave way under the load at the foot of Chestnut street this noon. None of the melons were broken, and an old darkey who had high hopes and intense wishes to see the inside of one of them contemptuously remarked, "Dar now, nary one ob dem is busted."

The Committee Appointed by the Bar. We find we were in error yesterday in naming Judge French as one of the committee appointed at the meeting of the members of the Bar to draft resolutions expressive of the esteem and respect of the Bar for the late William A. Wright. It was the Hon. Hugh Waddell's name which should have been placed on the committee instead of the Hon. R. S. French. We got our information, however, from a gentleman who was present at the meeting, and we thought we stood a reasonable chance of having it correct, even though we did not get it from the Secretary, Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq.

An Honor Well Bestowed At a recent meeting of the Democrats of Catawba county, in convention assembled, for the purpose of making county nominations, Capt. Robert Burns Davis was nominated as the Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives. Capt. Davis is a brother of the lamented Col. Champ Davis, who was killed at the head of his regiment, in one of the seven days' battles in front of Richmond, during the late war, and is almost as well known in this community, where he resided for twelve months after the war, as was his brother, Col. Champ Davis.

The two brothers married sisters, who were daughters of the late N. N. Nixon, Esq., of this city. We congratulate the citizens of Catawba upon their choice, and also Capt. Davis upon the compliment he has received, after so short a residence in that county.

Attempted Assassination. The villain who assaulted a lady on Greenville Sound several days ago is still at large, and about twilight Wednesday evening he again attempted to attack her. She was at her well when the scoundrel rose up in front of her, levelling a pistol at her head. She very naturally screamed, when one of the gentlemen of the house jerked up a chair and ran out just in time to see the rascal go over a fence. Why it is that the man should have taken a dislike to the lady, who is a mute, is a wonder and surprise to every one. He seems to be upon murder intent and unless he is either killed or captured we would not be surprised to hear of a tragedy on the Sound. Warrants for his arrest have been issued and an officer and posse have gone out to hunt the villain down. He is a mulatto sailor and wears a red shirt, blue pants and cap. It is said he is generally accompanied by a white sailor and no doubt both are deserters from some vessel now in port.

The International Review For July-August is one of more than ordinary interest to the general public. It contains twelve articles of uniform timeliness; three political articles (Russia, by Karl Blind, of England; The Chinese Puzzle, by a Californian; Mr. Seward and Mr. Motley and the Austrian Mission, by Hon. John Bigelow); two politico-economic articles (The Elements of National Wealth, by David A. Wells, and Industrial Reconstruction, by Edward Atkinson, of Boston); two theological articles (Science and Theology, by James Anthony Froude; The Moral Problem, by ex-President Mark Hopkins); two papers on subjects connected with the arts ("The Erench Exhibition architecturally considered," by Charles Gindriez, of France, architect, and "Photograph Art in Europe," by Philip Gilbert Hamerton); two literary contributions (The Centenary of Rousseau, by Rev. Samuel Osgood, D. D., and The Department of Contemporary Literature, consisting of notes on English, French, and German books recently published) and one article on Army Reorganization, by General James H. Wilson, one of the most brilliant cavalry officers in the army during the Civil War, and now a writer of recognized ability. Each article is prepared with reference to the public demand for reliable information upon the subjects treated, and the writers are masters of the subjects.

Some days ago several small boys were swimming for a wager in the river in the southwestern portion of the city when an alligator showed out in the stream as a competitor and the boys did their best to keep the alligator from carrying off the stakes.

Cotton Blooms and Potatoes. Mr. A. F. Powell, of Powell Bros., Whiteville Depot, sends us a cotton bloom plucked from the plantation of Capt. Jno. W. Ellis, which from its appearance when received was probably two days old when plucked. Mr. Powell tells us that he was also shown yesterday morning four Irish potatoes from Col. Forney George's place which weighed over five pounds, an average of over twenty ounces to each.

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. 18-4w.

The Greensboro Bank Failure. GREENSBORO, June 26. In response to your telegram of last night, in regard to the assignment of Wilson & Shober, bankers and manufacturers, I learn it is caused by heavy burdens they carry on various pieces of real estate, out of which they cannot realize money under the pressure of the times. They have a large amount invested in the Methodist College of Greensboro, said to be $38,000 with interest; also in McMahon's spoke and handle factory, and some $25,000 in a spoke and handle factory and saw mill of their own here. These factories were stopped yesterday but are running again to-day. They also have large risks in a great deal of real estate, too tedious to mention, variously estimated, possibly at $200,000, and their liabilities are estimated at the $160,000. This seems to be about the nearest estimate now to be had, and I learn further that they have surrendered the whole of their property to trustees, for the benefit of their creditors, even their personal property. This indicates a purpose on their part to pay every dollar possible, and I have not heard of even a suspicion of fraud.

I learn that a meeting of creditors will be called in a few days, when further facts will be learned, when I'll advise you, until which time your readers will please suspend judgment and not decide harshly. (Durham Tobacco Plant.) Not True.

A report is being circulated that the Republicans are going to run Smith for Chief Justice, and Lynum and Col. Thomas Ruffin for Associate Justices. So far as Col. Ruffin is concerned, we are satisfied there is no truth in it and that he will allow no such use of his name. Col. Ruffin was frequently and urgently solicited to allow the use of his name before the State Convention for the position of Associate Justice, and he at last very reluctantly consented for his friends to use his name in that way. We are satisfied he will give a cheerful support to the ticket nominated at Raleigh, and denounce, as untrue, any report to the contrary.
