All girls are fond of steak—at least they all love a tenderloin.
White satin vests are worn with black grenadines, which are trimmed with black and white lace.
The stylish jaquemint red, darker than cardinal, is much used for trimmings of satin or of ribbon.

Some very fine canteloupes are now being brought to market but they are yet too dear for a printer's pocket.
For the purpose of doing all due honor to the Fourth, no paper will be issued from this office on Thursday.

No mad dogs or sunstrokes have been reported this season but cases of rheumatism seem to be very frequent.
Owing to the pressure of new advertising matter on our first page to-day, we are compelled to transfer much local matter to the fourth page.

See the double column advertisement of the excursion to the mountains. With the programme offered and extremely low rates one could not in reason ask more.
The WILMINGTON JOURNAL will be mailed this week on Wednesday, instead of Thursday, afternoon, as is usual. This is because of the arrival of the Fourth on Thursday.

The worst case of selfishness that ever has been presented to the public, emanated from a youth who complained because his mother put a larger mustard-plaster on his younger brother than she did on him.
Brown Breakfast Cakes.
One cupful of graham and white flour, one teaspoon DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, one pint sweet milk, one egg, a little salt; separate white and yolk of the egg, and beat thoroughly. Bake in heated irons and in a quick oven.

The steam fire engine 'Little Giant' was pumping water from Market Dock this afternoon through the engine's hose into the cistern of the Empire House (formerly the Manning House) now presided over by Mr. I. L. Dolby.
Plain black bonnets have a plaited bias scarf of bourrette grenadine around the crown; this is either black or beige, and the strings are black satin, with old gold lining. Some yellow flowers are almost universal on black chips.

The fashionable round hat for very young ladies to wear with short dresses on the street is a chip Derby with square top to the crown, and for trimming only a wide band of galloon and a binding to match; some stick in the band a wing or a bird's breast, or a short bunch of ostrich feathers.
The excursion of the Good Samaritans and Daughters of Samaria, which is to leave here for Columbia, on Wednesday morning, promises to be a big thing. The trip, going and coming, will be made in the day time, and that, coupled with the fact that the fare is only $2 for the round trip, will most likely insure a large crowd.
To-day is the anniversary of the battle of Malvern Hill, which settled the fate of McClellan, and also the anniversary of the three days engagement, one year later, at Gettysburg, which settled the fate of the Southern Confederacy. The first named battle was fought on the 1st of July, 1862, and the last named engagement, on the first, second and third days of July, 1863.

Hotel Arrivals.

C.; Spencer LeGrand, North Carolina; C. W. Clayton, Augusta, Ga.; Hon S. H. Fishblade, City; J. O. McRae, Fayetteville, N. C.; Zonah H. White, New York; W. P. Hix, Columbia, S. C.; T. H. McKoy, Washington, N. C.

Married.
Hon. A. M. Waddell was married this morning to Miss Ellen Savage, of this city, and with his bride took the North bound train for the mountains of Virginia, where the happy couple go to spend a few days with a brother of the bride.
Registration.
Our people do not take the proper interest in the new registration of voters now progressing. With the close of the week there were but 315 names registered in the city, all told. It is better to go up quietly now than to join in the big rush which is sure to come in the closing days.

Dr. Burkhead in Sampson
A correspondent of the Raleigh Observer says:
The Rev. Dr. B. S. Burkhead, Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District, held the second quarterly meeting for the Clinton Circuit at Goshen M. E. Church on the 3rd Saturday and Sunday of this month. His text on the first day was Prov. 4th chap., 18th v. On the next day Timothy 4th chapter and latter clause of 10th verse. The sermons were decidedly eloquent, presenting the great and grand central truths of the christian religion. He preached to a large and intelligent congregation on Sunday.

Salaries of Postmasters.
After the 1st inst., the compensation of postmasters of the 4th class will be based upon the value of stamps canceled at their offices, instead of, as before, the amount sold. These will then receive as compensation 60 per cent. upon the first one hundred dollars worth of stamps canceled in each quarter, 50 per cent. on the next $200, and 40 per cent. upon all over $300. The salary of the postmaster in this city will remain as formerly.

Annual Pic-Nic.
The annual pic-nic of Germania Lodge No. 4, K. of P., as will be seen by notice elsewhere, will take place at the Wilmington Gardens on Thursday next, July 4th, commencing at 2 1/2 o'clock. Street cars will run to and from the Garden during the afternoon and night for the convenience of those wishing to attend.
The pic-nics of Germania Lodge are always pleasant and we are assured by the Committee that the one pending will be no exception to its predecessors, save being much more enjoyable.

Brunswick Democrats.
The Democratic County Convention in Brunswick county was held at Lockwood's Folly on Saturday last, with Dr. W. G. Curtis in the chair and Messrs. Daniel Mercer and J. H. Mints as Secretary. The attendance was very satisfactory and notably composed of some of the best men in the County. The utmost harmony prevailed throughout the deliberations. The following nominations were made:
House of Representatives—A. C. Moore.
Sheriff—S. R. Chinnis.
Clerk Superior Court—M. C. Guthrie.
Register of Deeds—N. O. Gray.
Treasurer—P. Rourk.
Surveyor—W. W. Drew.
Coroner—Thos. M. McKetton.

County Commissioners.
The Board met this noon in regular monthly session, present Chairman Wagner and Commissioners Sanders and Holmes.
T. B. Carney, Constable elect for Harnett township, vice James Smith, resigned, presented a bond of $500 and qualified.
Resignation of James W. Murrell, as Overseer of the Gordon Road, in Harnett township, was received and accepted and James Carr appointed to the vacancy.
Applications for relief from several paupers were granted.
A number of persons who had failed to list their taxes in the time allowed by the law made application to the Board to do so now, permission for the same having been granted on payment of the fee of 25 cents each to the Clerk.
On motion the Board then took a recess until to-morrow evening.

There were two trifling cases before the Mayor this morning which were dismissed.
The police force marched up to the Captain's office this morning and received their pittance for service during the month of June.
The Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., exhibits the secret of its great popularity and success by wisely maintaining its old standard of excellence since its reduction of rates.

A Trip to Columbus.
One of the "fellers" of the REVIEW boarded a train on the W., C. & A. R. R. at the Front street depot in this city on Friday night with a small satchel in his hand, containing several strips of blank paper and a ticket in his pocket marked "to Whiteville and return" on the face of it. Thus armed and equipped the aforesaid feller was on his way to the county seat of Columbus for the purpose of attending the Democratic County Convention which was to assemble there at the Court House on the next day, and in solemn conclave make and unmake officials that are to rule the destinies of Columbus for the next two years from the first Thursday in August. Perhaps we should have said the Convention was to make nominations instead of making officials, but as a nomination is equivalent to an election in the good old Democratic county of Columbus, every aspirant who secures the nomination feels pretty sure of his election. We reached Whiteville in good time, had a refreshing night's sleep and felt fresh and invigorated for the duties of the next day. We met old acquaintances in numbers, and among the many old comrades, who still carry with them the honorable scars which they received while following Lee and Jackson in the valleys and over the mountain-tops of old Virginia, battling for what they thought to be right. It was a pleasure to meet those patriots of old once more. Unfortunately for them, however, there are many who have forgotten the services they once rendered, and they are now left out of mind and thought as completely as though they slept in some of the valleys, or upon some of the hills in Virginia, where thousands of their comrades now lie mouldering in their quiet graves. Some of these heroes of the events of fifteen years ago, still talk a deep interest in the public weal, and were in attendance upon the Convention. After sauntering through the crowd under the noble old oaks that adorn the Court House square at Whiteville, we ventured up in the Court House, shortly after the Convention had organized, to witness the proceedings. We were not in the Convention hall when, upon motion of Col. H. B. Short, delegate from Waccamaw township, the member of the press who was present was invited to a seat with the Secretaries. We here make our bow to Col. Short and the other gentlemen of the Convention in acknowledgement of the courtesy.
It has never been our fortune to attend a convention where business was dispatched with more rapidity, considering the number of delegates in attendance and the number of nominations to be made, together with the number of aspirants for each office. The utmost harmony prevailed, and the nominations, we believe, gave general satisfaction.
The first name put in nomination was that of Capt. V. V. Richardson for the Lower House in the Legislature.
Col. Short ably seconded this nomination in a very handsome little speech, in which he spoke of Capt. Richardson's valuable services in the Legislature, where he had served with him some two years ago. Captain R. met with no opposition, and his nomination was made unanimous. Just before the adjournment of the convention Capt. Richardson was called upon for a speech, and responded in a short talk, thanking the convention for the honor that they had conferred upon him. Capt. R.'s speech, though short, was very good, and delivered in a very happy style. We congratulate the citizens of Columbus upon their choice. But our time and space are exhausted, and we will have to close, remarking, en passant, that the day was a pleasant one; pleasant because we met so many of our old individual friends, and pleasant again because we met with so many warm patrons of the DAILY REVIEW and WILMINGTON JOURNAL.
The REVIEW reporter returned home Saturday night, safe and sound, and with a satisfied feeling regarding the trip to Columbus.

The Coming Race.
The approaching regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club over the Wrightsville course on the Fourth bids fair to be the most closely contested and interesting one of the season. Quite a large number of yachts have been entered for the race and each is being "greased and heeled" for the contest.
The tide will be high about 11 o'clock, and the yachts will start on the course between 11 and 12 o'clock. Those of our citizens who wish to witness the race will have to leave here in the early morning.
