

A BATTLE GOING ON.

The Latest From the Indian Country—
Movements of Troops

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—A Portland dispatch says: News from Dallas states that James Clark and a party of fourteen men went out last Sunday on a scouting expedition up the south fork of the John Day river, and when about twelve miles from its mouth at Murdoch's creek, they came upon Indians, supposed to be about 1,500 strong, who endeavored to cut off the line of retreat of Clark's party, and nearly succeeded in the attempt. The whites defended themselves; one man was killed and two others seriously wounded before the party made their escape. Clark and two of his men were cut off by the death of their horses.

As soon as the news reached Canyon City that Clark was missing, a party of twelve men went to their assistance, coming across Clark at Cumming's ranch, about two miles from the fork of the John Day river, to which point Clark had succeeded in making his escape. While at this place, the Indians made an attack on them and drove them from the ranch, wounding a man named Schultz. The hostiles took the stage stock, and burned the vehicle and all buildings on the ranch.

A number of men arrived at Umattila yesterday from Pendleton and report a fight with the Indians at Comas prairie. They killed one Indian, and think they wounded two others. They captured the scalp and head-dress of an Indian they killed. It is believed the Indians will not come out of the mountain if they can stay there. There were up Umattila Indians in the fight. A letter received at Pendleton by Gen. Wheaton from Maj. Throckmorton reports everything quiet there.

A letter from Canyon City from E. E. Turk, dated July 1st, says: "I have just returned from carrying dispatches to Col. Grover's command. Everything is disorganized. The Indians are all around us. We have been fighting for the last three days. Can't tell how many are killed. We know of eleven of our men. We want help. I have been in the saddle for three nights. All business houses are closed."

The news from the scene of hostilities creates great excitement and stir at Van Horn. At 4 o'clock Friday a very valuable man was under orders to move at 8:30 to-night. "Maj. J. A. Keese left on the steamer Welcome with twenty-five men, one Gatling gun and howitzer, having volunteered to serve as river patrol near Wallula. Gov. Ferry arrived to-night and went upon the same boat with 200 stands of arms for the citizens.

Governor Chadwick, of Oregon, received the following despatch from Gen. Wheaton, dated Walla Walla, W. T., 5th inst.: "Nothing has been received from General Howard since the 29th. Reports from Baker City of 22d state that the general's advance-cavalry was in John Day valley pursuing the hostiles. Scouting parties have been encountered seventy-five miles from here, south of Pendleton. To-morrow night I expect to have forces enough at Pendleton to prevent the hostiles from crossing the Columbia river near the mouth of Snake river. There is a great deal of needless alarm, though there are few troops here and further north.

TURF SPORTS.

Mollie McCarthy Sold—The Races at Menmouth Park.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 7.—There is more excitement than ever over the Ten Broeck-Mollie McCarthy race, and the very latest facts are inquired for with an avidity truly astonishing. Winters, Walls & Co. bade farewell to Kentucky yesterday, and Mollie McCarthy was sold to Budd Doble, price unknown. He took her to Kaukakee, Ill., the hot weather here hurting her very much. One of her fore legs is very much swollen, and experienced turfmen say she will never be able to run again. Doble doesn't think so, and desires to run her against any horse or mare at any distance for any sum. John W. Conley, who managed the race and leased the track, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a bail writ sworn out by the counselors of one Thompson, of Pennsylvania, who holds judgments against him for $1,250 on an old debt growing out of the late firm's failure on Wall Street. Conley claims the judgment to be erroneous and says he will not be gouged. A sheriff is with him. Conley is sorely disappointed over the failure on the Fourth, and, in his own language, had the race proved a success he would have been "a hell of a hero." As it was not and as fraud is cried, he must receive, as principal agent, the dirt that is thrown. He believed that mare would win, and so told his friends, nearly all of whom lost. When the writ was served to-day, and the money question thought of, it was ascertained that Conley had turned over every thing to Budd Doble. The latter is en route for Kaukakee. Conley proposes to fight it out. The Louisville Jockey Club leased its track to Conley individually, and the Doble shadow, at first so dimly to be seen, has materialized wonderfully of late. Harper has authorized the Bank of California to pay the $10,000 stakes to Alex McAbbe, who backed Ten Broeck.

Concord Sun: On the streets yesterday we saw Harry Bangs, of this county, who is now in his 91st year. He came to town on horseback—does not wear glasses: and says he is as well as usual, except he is a little weak in his legs. He plowed 76 summers and hopes to live a long time yet. His hair is nearly black and he is erect in his walk.

Grape Juice.

The art of fermenting the Opoto Grape into wine in this country has been brought to a greater degree of perfection by Mr. Alfred Spear, of Passaic, New Jersey, than by any other person; and his wines are very popular as ladies' wine as well as for the communion table, and for invalids.

One of the pleasantest recollections of the Centennial trip to Philadelphia thousands of people will connect with their pleasant quarters and agreeable treatment at the Colonnade Hotel.

Big regatta at Newbern to-morrow.

The Radicals of Wayne county hold their Convention in Goldsboro to-morrow.

Prof. Gonzales has rotated as far as Newbern where he sanz on Monday night.

Beaufort Atlantic: The wheat crop in the western portion of Carteret has been harvested and we regret to state that not more than half a crop has been housed. Cotton is improving and the corn looks well.

Concord Sun: During the prevalence of the thunder storm Friday evening, the barn of Mr. R. S. Parish, who lives in No. 11 Township, was "hit" by lightning in two places. A horse was killed and the building shattered, but no fire resulted and the forage, etc, were not damaged.

Charlotte Observer: Next Friday night the members of the Young Men's Christian Association will give what is known as "a book reception"—a new thing here. There will be music through out the evening, ten minutes speeches and each visitor—invitations being extended—is expected to bring and leave a book or books of some description for the association's library.

Beaufort Atlantic: About nine years ago, James W. Perkins left his father's house, at Newport, Carteret county, N. C., to seek a classical education. He started with less than fifteen dollars as his capital. He obtained profitable employment, and without assistance from home, he has paid his way through the University of Kentucky where he graduated on the 11th of June, being but about twenty-five dollars in debt when he graduated. This is another illustration of the adage, "Where there's a will, there's a way."

Goldsboro Messenger: A horse thief was brought to speedy grief in this county last Saturday morning. He had stolen a horse from Mr. Thomas Vincent, in New Hope township, during Friday night, but was overtaken near the Worley place on the Snow Hill road, having the horse in his possession, and is now securely lodged in jail. He is a white tramp, and gives his name as David Windsor, and Mecklenburg county as his home, but there is reason to believe that he is one of an organized gang of horse thieves. He claims to have had a confederate with him on the last raid, who he says is an old man named John Goodman.

PENDER COUNTY, June 30th.

MR. EDITOR:

I see in your issue of June 28th a communication signed "Sam Amos" titled "Hints to Country Housekeepers" in which he grossly insinuates that they are very deficient in all the essentials of good housewives. In the fifth article of his most valuable series he unwittingly let drop the confession that he is a vendor of "Bug Exterminator," a traveling agent, and we would infer has met with ill success from his repining. Now if there is anything to be detested it is a stalwart able bodied man with the proverbial carpet-bag, tramping from house to house with "Bug Exterminator" for sale, and as such has reception was no doubt fine. He should have considered his undertaking before starting, and a moment's reflection would have satisfied him that a trip through the country on such a mission could but end in disappointment—in the country where pure air and sunshine are profusely used, and where such as "bed bugs" are unknown. One would infer from his repinings that such a thing as a good meal in our rural districts is far from possible, and that we were only a connecting link between barbarism and civilization. If his fastidious appetite is so hard to satisfy we would advise him to remain in the city where he can find food from, and where everything is so marvelously arranged that perhaps an honest uncomplaining vendor of "Bug Exterminator" might coin enough money to at least satisfy the cravings of hunger.

Yours,
Z.

EDITORS REVIEW: GENTLEMEN:—I notice in your paper of yesterday a local containing reflections upon me as a Justice of the Peace in the matter of Howard against Heaton.

You are evidently laboring under a misapprehension, and I trust you will make the correction by publishing this card.

Justices have power to cause arrests—

1st. When the offense occurs in their presence.

2d. When a proper affidavit has been made.

I was not present, and did not witness the difficulty; when I arrived Howard had been removed, and I did not even see the crowd; and go with me in the interests of peace.

No affidavits were made before me by either Heaton Howard, or any other person, and it was therefore impossible for me to issue a warrant.

I am, sirs, truly yours,
E. H. McQUEEN.
