The sails of the schooner yacht Arietta will be flapping in the breeze this afternoon.

The market was abundantly supplied with watermelons and canteloupes this morning.

A new board sidewalk is being laid on the East side of Water street, from the corner of Chestnut.

The thermometer registered 88° in Lippitt's main ice house on Saturday.
 Who says it was not warm?

Capt Alexander of the Charlotte Grays is in the city making arrangements for the visit his company propose to make to the seashore very soon.

There will be a meeting of the grass widowers and bachelors at the Purcell House (back parlor) at an early date.

The finest mutton we ever saw in this market was at Mr. Thomas H. Johnson's stand in the Market House on Saturday.

The popular serenade just about now is grunt, grunt, squeal, ruck, ruck, ruck, hog and destroy! all the grass plats in the city.

There will be a meeting held this evening in Temperance Hall for the purpose of completing the organization of the Temple of Honor and Temperance to be formed here.

Saturday night was exceedingly uncomfortable, and sleep fled far from many eyelids, but yesterday afternoon the wind got around to the East and last night was not only pretty with its full moon in the clear sky, but it was decidedly good for sleeping.

Sally Lunn.
 One quart of flour, with three teaspoon-fuls DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER sifted egg, three teaspoonful of sugar, two eggs, one cup of sweet milk, and a little salt.

 Bake in muffin rings.

The crowd of excited sable politicians about the Court House are loud in advocacy of their favorites and exceedingly bitter in denouncing "de fo." Confusion worse confounded! About all can be distinguished are oaths and the names of candidates.

We have been requested to copy the proceedings of the 13th Senatorial Convention held at Clarkton on the 9th inst., but having given in full, nearly a week ago, the same thing precisely in facts and almost identical in language with the report now offered us, we deem it unnecessary to reproduce it at this time.

Cheap.
 By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the steam yacht Passport will carry passengers to and from Smithville on Wednesday at half rates.
 This is an opportunity for persons to enjoy the sea breezes at a moderate cost.

City Court.
 One sailor man, for being drunk and down, was fined the costs of the court.
 A colored man, who was arrested in the same condition, had the same sentence entered against him.
 The little colored boy, Edward Hill, whose case was continued from Saturday for cutting James Everett, colored, in the foot with a knife, was discharged, it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that there was no malice and that the cutting was accidental.

This closed the proceedings and the court adjourned.

The Coming Military.
 On Saturday evening, pursuant to a call made, a meeting of Committees from the various white military organizations in this city was held at Gen. Taylor's office to adopt measures relative to the reception to be tendered the Sumter Light Infantry on the occasion of their proposed visit here next Wednesday. It was decided that the battalion meet the visiting company at the depot on Wednesday morning on the 8 o'clock a. m. train when a salute will be fired by the Cape Fear Light Artillery and the infantry will escort the Sumter Company to the W. L.
 I. Armory where breakfast will await them. When this meal is concluded, the Sumter Light Infantry will be escorted to the steamer Underhill on which they will embark for Smithville, where they will go into Sumner quarters for a week.

Appletons' Journal
 For August leads off with an illustrated article descriptive of artificial flower-making in New York, entitled "Flora in a Garret," which comes timely at this season as a good contrast to Flora when at her best in the woods, in the meadows, and in the gardens. The article is delightfully written by Mr. William H.
 Rideing and effectively illustrated by C.
 S. Reinhart. A short story, that is almost long enough to be called a novel-ette, bearing the title of "Up in the Blue Ridge," is from the pen of Constance Fenimore Woolson—who is, beyond dispute, one of the best story writers we have. "Up in the Blue Ridge" unites stirring adventure with some excellent character-drawing. It is one of the series of American novelettes that this magazine is now making a feature of. The second installment of "A Bit of Nature," by Albert Rhodes, is given; this is also an American story, the completion of which will follow next month. It is a story out of the conventional rut—notably fresh, and of the soil. The Rev. Mr. Walden gives the first portion of a paper entitled "Voices of Westminster Abbey," which is a fresh and most interesting paper on a subject that never grows old. Miss Fenimore Cooper appears with the second of her "Orsego Leaves." Julian Hawthorne confines his London sketches; there is an essay on "Genius and Labor," by Junius Henri Browne; poems by Dr. English and Edgar Fawcett; and still other good things.

Three or Five Commissioners.
 Our attention has been directed to an article in yesterday's Star, in which there is an error and which we are desired to set forth to the public correctly. The Star asserts that "At the last session of the Legislature the law in reference to the election of County Commissioners was changed so as to require that only three Commissioners be elected" and therein lies an error that has crept into more than one paper in the State, we having noticed this morning in the columns of the Monroe Enquirer. The law referred to (See Laws 1876-'77, Sect. 5 of Chapter 141, pp 226) reads: "0 0 shall proceed to the election of not less than three nor more than five persons, to be chosen from the body of the county (including the Justices of the Peace) who shall be styled the Board of Commissioners for the county of _____." It is thus demonstrated that the matter of electing three or five Commissioners is left entirely to the discretion of the Board of Justices.
 Some counties will probably have three and others will have five Commissioners, but the law does not "require that only three Commissioners be elected," as our neighbor of the Star asserts.

The Board of Justices will meet on the first Monday in next month (August), which will fall on the 5th of the month, when they will choose the new Board of Commissioners, who will enter upon the duties of their office, as the law directs, "immediately upon the expiration of the term for which the Board of County Commissioners now in office have been elected, and not before." The new Board will qualify and enter upon the discharge of their duties on the first Monday in September.

Reported for the Daily Review.
Wilmington District Conference M. E.
 Church South.
THIRD DAY.
 Conference opened with Divine service by Rev G W Hardson.
 Minutes read and approved.
 The President called Whiteville Circuit: the Pastor, Rev J T Lyon reported: 9 appointments, 11 Sunday Schools well attended and prosperous; 12 weekly prayer meetings held; 28 accessions to the church this year so far; finances behind hand; has received $187 this year.
 Smithville Circuit called, Rev H F Wiley reported: Has 11 appointments; 9 Sunday Schools; 275 scholars; schools in good working order; finances behind hand; use different plans for a meeting; 16 accessions at Town Creek; 24 in all.
 Onslow Circuit called, Rev W P Mc-Corkle reported: Was happy in his work; feels depressed sometimes; has 9 Sabbath Schools; rather poor libraries; scarcity of books; family prayer neglected; 325 members; know of not over five families who have prayers regular; finances not well kept up; no uniform plan of assessments; have prayer meetings at four points; two regular class meetings; scarcity of Bibles in the work; papers and periodicals not taken much.

The order of the day being the report of the Committee No 1 on the spiritual condition of the Church was then taken up. Rev Lemmon Shell spoke upon the report, urging the usefulness of class meetings in the church. There is nothing can be substituted for them.
 The Committee on the Spiritual Condition of the Church asked permission to withdraw report No 1 and submit report No 2, which was granted, and the report No 2 read. The report recited that the spiritual condition of the District seemed to be good, and submitted two resolutions, one requesting renewed efforts in the service of God and greater diligence in living as Christians; the other resolution was on the subject of family prayer, urging its performance on every head of a family.
 The report and resolutions were received and adopted.

Wm M Poisson, Chairman, submitted a financial report from that committee, which stated in substance that but about one-third of the assessments had been paid in, requesting the Steward of the District to collect as soon as possible all the assessments, and that the Presiding Elder impress it upon all the Quarterly meetings as well as the Steward when he meets them on his rounds.

Rev E A Yates submitted resolutions recommending Greensboro Female College and Trinity College to the patronage of the people. He made a short opening speech. Rev D Culbreth followed him.
 Col Andrews made a few remarks in favor of Trinity College. Mr W T Parker followed and spoke in favor of the resolutions.
 The President called Rev E A Yates to the Chair and took the floor for ten minutes on the subject.

R W Chadwick spoke, advocating the Colleges and urging the people to send their children to those institutions.

Rev W P McCorkle spoke also. He charged the President of Greensboro College with being too modest for the times, with not putting the College as he ought with issuing a catalogue without pictures or any kind of humbug in it. He urged in the most humorous way that Dr. Jones should amend his ways in this respect, and was repeatedly interrupted by great laughter and applause. If Dr. Jones won't tell the people that he is one of the best educators in the age, the Conference will have to go out and do it for him.

Rev J. T. Lyon submitted a series of resolutions in regard to books and periodicals of the Church. They recommended to the patronage of the Church the Raleigh Christian Advocate as the organ of the Conference; the books of the publishing house, the Nashville Advocate, and the book of the Centennial of Methodism.
 These resolutions were discussed by Dr.
 Burkhead, Dr. Bobbitt, Rev J. T. Lyon, and J. J. Carden. The resolutions passed and the Conference adjourned.

Yesterday the Conference passed a resolution requesting Rev. Dr. Burkhead to deliver before the Conference to-day at 12 o'clock, his lecture on "Methodism, its Progress and Success." This lecture, the Rev. Dr. read to an immense congregation. The lecture is one of great power and eloquence, and held the throng attentive for one-and-a-half hours, while he dwelt upon the causes which had resulted in building up the Church during the last one hundred years, from a membership of 2,500 to that of over (3,000,000) three millions.

THIRD DAY—EVENING SESSION.
 Conference opened with prayer and singing by Rev J J Carden. Minutes read and corrected.

The Committee on the communication of the Presiding Elder about the District Conference, reported that there was nothing in the communication requiring the action of this Conference, which report was read and adopted.

A resolution was submitted by Capt Jno E Leggett, that the amount of $12 be raised to repay the Presiding Elder, for amount paid by him for insurance of the District parsonage; resolution adopted.

On motion of Capt J E Leggett, he, Wm M Poisson, J A Evans, and J Durham were excused from voting in the election of delegates.

The order of the day, the election of delegates to the next annual Conference to be held at Charlotte, was then called.
 The Chair appointed B A McClammy and W J Parker as tellers.

On the first ballot Jesse W Cox, local preacher; K K Council and W J Parker, of Bladen county, were elected and on the second ballot N Gillman of the Fifth Street Church was elected, there being but one vote thrown against him.

On the election for alternates, first ballot, R W Chadwick of Front Street Church was elected, and on the second ballot J A Evans of Smithville was elected.
 Rev L Shell submitted the report of the Committee on Sunday Schools, stating that the report was very gratifying. Recommends the international lesson papers and the magazine. That the older members of the church ought to attend.

 That the Catechisms be also used in all schools.

The resolutions were adopted.
 Rev J W Randle introduced resolutions in regard to the liquor traffic, condemning it, and pledging to use all laudable efforts for its suppression.

Rev T P Ricard offered a substitute which adds to the above by citing the laws of the church on the subject and Rev E A Yates offered a preamble to the substitute making the terms much stronger than either the original resolution or the substitute, condemning the traffic in sweeping terms. The substitute and preamble were adopted.

The Conference then proceeded to fix the place to hold the next District Conference, Goshen Church in Sampson county was fixed upon as the place.

Votes of thanks were then passed to the citizens of Whiteville, to the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, and to the Railroad and Steamboat lines.

The President then made some closing remarks to the Conference and congregation, the appointments for preaching on Sunday were given out and the Conference adjourned sine die.

The reporter of the DAILY REVIEW and the WILMINGTON JOURNAL desires to return his special thanks to Capt. J. W.
 Ellis and his estimable lady for their kind attentions and untiring hospitality—not only was every thing necessary to make our comfortable always at hand but the Captain placed conveyances at our disposal to go wherever we pleased about the village. Again we say thanks—and blessings attend them.

An oversight occurred in printing the second days proceeding. The proposition of Dr. Bobbitt was to send one student to each of the Colleges, from each charge. It reads one student to each College.

The windows to the Opera House will be thrown open to-night so that it will be cool and pleasant, and another thing which we feel warranted in referring to is—that there will be no rowdiness among certain parties and that any misbehavior will be promptly checked, and the offender put out.

The Operetta.
 The Juvenile Operetta, a "Spring Holiday," a pretty, sprightly thing, full of sweet music, striking tableaux and pretty little girls, will be rendered this evening at the Opera House by the pupils of Misses Burr & James' school. It will be in every way well worth seeing, and those who are not there will miss a delightful treat. The proceeds are to be applied to a worthy object.

Young Men Attention.
 At this present writing 3.15 P. M., the skies are clear and the indications are that, with a full moon to flood the streets with her silvery light to-night, the evening will be serene and beautiful. What an elegant opportunity for a young gentleman to spend a delightful evening, especially if he is in any way sentimentally inclined, and is so fortunate as to have one of the softer sex leaning on his arm, for then he can take a stroll up to the Opera House and see the beautiful little Operetta, entitled "Spring Holiday," and the music and flowers will no doubt still further stimulate his sentimentalism and enhance the pleasure of the evening to such a degree, that in the quiet moonlight stroll after the Operetta is over, he may be emboldened to say some words, and receive such an answer in return as will make him the happiest of mortals for life.
 Who knows; stranger things have happened. We charge nothing for the hints and vice here given. Only we would advise if the ardor becomes too strong and two warm, a visit to the ice cream saloom may have a wonderfully cooling effect.
