LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements. MUMFORD—Look At and You Will Buy. See Dauchy & Co's new ads. P HEINSBERGER—in Stock. S. JAWETT—Look. We all want rain now. Let's all go up at once and register. Industry always finds something to do. So does a mosquito. A horse, unlike a man, is always prepared to meet an oat. Give a mosquito his way and he will soon settle his little bill.

About one inch of a "solid" rainfall would be quite welcome at this time. No joking about it now—have you registered or have you not registered? The most dangerous of all flattery is the very common kind that we bestow upon ourselves. Those beings only are fit for solitude who like nobody, are like nobody, and are liked by nobody. If you want to be respected, go well dressed. People never "wing the necks" of top-knot chickens. A man below the rank of colonel cannot expect to succeed as conductor of a railroad eating house. The Cape Fear seems about to do what some people never will do, "dry up" completely in the upper sections. Never lie in wait for a man who is heavier than you, but wait till you get even with him. Weigh this well.

Why is it that a person, after reading the medical advertisements in a newspaper, involuntarily glances at the columns of death? Many a young poet might be able to collect his scattered thoughts if he would look in an editor's waste-basket early in the morning. One reason why more people did not get into the ark, is that Noah neglected to advertise in the newspapers. There is a great moral lesson contained in this fact. The glorious summer nights are here when a lover whispers impassioned words in the dreamy ear of a favored maiden, and feels his undershirt sticking to him closer than a brother. Don't forget the fine opportunity offered by the Passport for a day's pleasure tomorrow. On that day, and that day only, she will take you down to Smithville, and back for 50 cents.

The Snapper Banks party has been made up. There are 35 in all who are to take part. They go down tomorrow evening on the Passport and next morning she will take them put to the Banks. The Best and Most Economical. Housekeepers are giving the cheap, adulterated baking powder a "wide berth," and why? Because experience has taught them that an absolutely pure, full strength, full weight article, such as DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, which never fails to produce light, wholesome, and nutritious biscuits, rolls, muffins, waffles, and griddle cakes of all kinds, is by far the cheapest and most economical. Notwithstanding the fact that on the first Thursday in August the Judges for the Supreme Court and those for the Circuit Court are to be elected, the Democrats in this city are luke-warm about registering. What mean you, First, Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Warders? Suppose every township in the State acts thus carelessly about registering, how are we to elect our candidates?

The Coming Eclipse. On the 29th of this month will occur an astronomical event of great interest—a total eclipse of the sun—which will be visible generally throughout the United States. The time of the eclipse will be from 4 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon. It will be only a partial eclipse here. Injured. A colored man by the name of William Howe, who works as stvedore on the New York steamers under Owen Dove, met with an accident on Capt. Caenzaux's wharf this morning and was pretty badly injured while trying to throw a heavy log overboard by the log falling against him and jamming him up against a post near the cap of the wharf. We have not heard the extent of the wounded man's injuries, but we learn he was taken to his home on a dray.

"A Delightful Entertainment."

Such was the opinion of every one present at the Opera House last night to witness and listen to the charming operetta of "A Spring Holiday." We will not individualize lest we do some seeming injustice; but the whole performance was excellent. The songs, duets, trios and choruses were all rendered with exquisite taste and in the most perfect time. We love the young and are something of a musical enthusiast, and we imagine that all who heard, last night, that galaxy of beautiful young ladies and misses—lovely in their purity and innocence and charming in their tasteful apparel—making the air rich with their sweet voices—for the time, at least, were made letter, purr and holler and in the brief forgetfulness of the cares, perplexities and ambitions of every day life were drawn nearer to Heaven by the subduing influence of song. Even the few mistakes (and they were very few and trivial) added interest to the performance.

It was our fortune many years ago to listen to the wonderful power of Jenny Lind, while in the zenith of her fame, and it was a marvel of artistic skill. It seemed superhuman. Last night we listened to the sweet, fresh voices of young girlhood, and they awoke gratitude for the musical offering. The good people of the city of Wilmington must not forget that they are under profound obligations to the teachers by whose instruction and guidance the "Spring Holiday" was so well rendered.

We must deviate from our rule, to mention that the songs, "Katie's Letter," by Miss Josie Schenck, and the "Do Not Turn Me From Your Door," by Miss Alice Garrell, were sung in very fine taste, and in appropriate style. The serio-comic manner of the former and the touching pathos of the latter, were truly artistic. Good order was preserved throughout, and the frequent outbursts of applause were a homage paid to the deserving. The house ought to have been crowded to its utmost capacity, and we regret that it was not.

City Court.

There was a larger attendance than usual at the City Court this morning, the occasion being the fact that two prominent Republicans—one the notorious James Heaton, and the other Sheriff Manning, were to be arraigned for disorderly conduct in committing a breach of the peace at a Radical meeting that was held in the interest of J. F. Garrell over in Brooklyn last night. Captain Brock, Chief of Police, Sergeant Savage and officer G. W. Davis of the police force all testified that Heaton was speaking and using abusive epithets towards Manning, that Manning retorted in some way which excited Heaton's ire to such an extent that the latter sprang off the speaker's stand, and that Manning and Heaton both made for each other at the same time and clinched, but were separated by the police. Capt. Cowan made a statement that he ordered both the belligerents under arrest, and that they recognized his authority and submitted, and that quiet and order was restored in a measure, though not entirely. The Mayor after hearing the evidence ordered that a fine of ten dollars and costs be entered against each defendant. The next case was upon a warrant sworn out by officer G. W. Davis, against James Heaton, for an assault with a deadly weapon. When this case was called the defendant, Heaton, made quite a lengthy speech, upon a question of law as to whether he ought to be tried upon this case, as the evidence in part had already been adduced in the previous case just tried for a breach of the peace, and in which he had been convicted. He then made an appeal to have the prosecution withdrawn and finally moved that the case be continued until tomorrow morning at half past nine, for cause, to which motion the court consented. All the interest in the proceedings of the court seemed to have departed as soon as this last case was decided, and the court room was immediately depleted of much of the crowd that had assembled at the opening of the court. The next case on docket was Richard Price, colored, arrested for disorderly conduct and resisting the police. Sentence of the court was $5 fine, or five days in the city prison. The defendant was committed. The court then adjourned.

Jurymen must be getting scarce, judging from the fact that in the list of those selected yesterday for the Criminal Court, the first name on the list is that of a gentleman who served two weeks last June, and the next is that of one who has been dead for ten years.

The Next Solicitor.

We publish elsewhere a list of Capt. Swift Galloway's appointments, including Wilmington. A letter from him to the Editor of this paper, states that he expects to be in Wilmington on the evening train, on Friday of next week, the 20th inst., and will address the people from some place on Market or Front streets, as may be decided upon by our Executive Committee. After the speaking, on Friday night, Capt. Paddison will take him to Point Caswell, on the North East, leaving here at 11:30 o'clock. We don't like this hasty way of doing things and there will be many here who will feel seriously disappointed if Capt. Galloway does not manage to spend at least one day in Wilmington.

Wrecked.

Schooner Flash, Capt. Morse, from Charlotte for this city loaded with spirits and rosin, stranded on the Western shore of Charlotte Bar on Friday last. Sch. Wace, Capt. Cassiday, ran to the assistance of the Flash and tried to pull her off, and again on the next high water made a fruitless attempt to get her off. Upon discovering the Flash was leaking very badly, her cargo was thrown overboard, most of which was picked up by the Wace. The Flash was a vessel of about twenty tons burden and was built in 1865. She was dismantled and will prove a total loss.

First Yellow Fever Scare.

A dispatch from a friend at Smithville, received here this afternoon, informs us that the Spanish barque Maria di Pacheco arrived in the river this morning from Havana, and that during the passage a seaman died of what is supposed to have been yellow fever. There is now, however, no sickness on board nor any apprehensions of any. Dr. W. G. Curtis, Quarantine Physician, authorizes this statement. The vessel is at the quarantine ground, and this, the first yellow fever scare of the season is already demonstrated to be a fizzle.

County Commissioners.

At a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, held yesterday, afternoon the following Jurors were drawn for the approaching term of the Criminal Court: Hardy B. Willis, S. D. Wallace, Jr., Gabriel Holmes, John L. Corbett, Morris McFarlan, Horace A. Bagg, Fred. Rhew, Ben'j. F. Bryan, Thomas Craig, John W. Monroe, Charles Stemmerman, Gabriel Reaves, W. H. James, Charles Craig, Jr., Peter H. Smith, James Moseley, Robert Connor, J. D. Woody, John L. Dudley, Nathan Greenewald, W. E. Mayo, C. J. Mitchell, Abner Morgan, George Hooper, W. H. Northrop, Wallace H. Styron, E. G. Barker, Henry Taylor, Joseph Davis, John T. Flowers.

NOT AN ALIEN, BUT A TAX-PAYER.

If Alderman Flanner was acting in good faith in protecting the City's interests and desirous of doing all to correct a wrong, why did not he do as he promised contractor, since he was the originator of the resolution to have a committee appointed to consult the City Attorney? Why did he violate his promise to see contractor's attorney and accompany him up to the office of the City Attorney, and allow both sides to be represented and fairly discussed? The cost to the City or to Alderman Flanner would have been nothing, as contractor had employed Mr. Eugene Martin to represent him in this matter. This gentleman remained at his office all the afternoon expecting to be called upon by Mr. Flanner. Extract from Circular Signed "Many Tax Payers." In reply to the above I will state that Mr. Alex. Oldham (Many Tax Payers) called at my store some hours previous to a meeting of the Committee from the Board of Aldermen, and informed me that he would be represented by counsel at the meeting, and requested me to call by his attorney's office and notify him of the intended meeting. My reply to Mr. Oldham was to the effect that in a matter of so much importance he had better not rely upon my seeing his attorney but go himself; but assured him if the matter did not escape my attention that I would call by for him. A few minutes before 4 o'clock, finding that business would prevent my prompt attendance at the City Hall, I dispatched a messenger to his attorney's office to notify him of the meeting. The messenger returned and informed me that the gentleman was not in his office. (If necessary will produce the sworn statement of the messenger.) Upon my arrival at the City Hall, finding all the members of the Committee and the City Attorney present, I repeated Mr. Oldham's request to be represented by counsel. The City Attorney replied that he had notified Mr. Oldham's counsel that day of the time at which the meeting would be held. The Committee, acting upon my suggestion, deferred action for some time; but Mr. Oldham's counsel not appearing the opinion of the City Attorney was then delivered to the Committee and final action taken. I know nothing relative to the approval of the contract or acceptance of the bond by the Board of Audit and Finance. If "Many Tax Payers" desire to "act in good faith" why not state facts? HENRY G. FLANNER. July 16th, It.

A Card.

WILMINGTON, N. C., July 15, 1877. To the Editor of the Daily Review: Please allow me a small space in your paper to communicate to the good people of the city of Wilmington to inform them of the amount that I received from them for the purpose of rearing up a church at Weldon. I received $22.68, for which I am thankful. Yours truly, W. A. DAVIS, Agent.

To the Democratic Voters of New Hanover.

I earnestly urge upon you the importance and duty of registering at once. A new registration is required by law. This far very few have registered. This has the appearance of apathy and indifference, and has a bad effect upon the lukewarm. It looks like there was nothing at stake. The corruption of the Republican leaders has disgusted the people, and their party is rapidly going to pieces. Let us, therefore, be up and doing, and thoroughly organize. I am very sanguine in the belief that, if the full Democratic strength is registered and voted on the day of election, something very important to the best interests of Wilmington and the people of the county generally can be accomplished. Remember that North Carolina remained many years under Radical rule, because so many of her people would not vote. In our country, where the government springs directly from the people, it is a shame and a mystery that any one should not very highly value his privilege as an elector, and, without actively engaging in politics, at least register and vote. If you do not register and vote, do not grumble afterwards, nor be surprised that had men fill the offices. Do BRUTZ CUTLAR, Chairman, for the County Committee. July 16th, 1878.

Correction.

We made a little error yesterday in stating that the new Board of County Commissioners, to be elected in August, would go into office on the first Monday in September. This is what Battle's Re-visual tells us, but an act of Legislature passed in 1870, continues the term of the present incumbents until December, when the ins will go out and the outs will come in.

Up and Down the River.

The steamer North East, Capt. Dick Paddison, brought down yesterday afternoon 107 excursionists from Pender county. Some of the best men in the Point Caswell and Long Creek and Moore's Creek sections, with their wives and little ones, are among them. They all went down the river to-day on a visit to salt water.

Good Time at Smithville.

We understand that some of the ladies in Smithville are to give a grand ball and supper at the Academy in that town on Thursday evening next, for the benefit of St. Philip's (Episcopal) Church in Smithville. The steamer Underhill will make the run down for the benefit of those in this city who may wish to attend.

Rev. George Patterson, D. D., Rector of St. John's, has been tendered by the vestry of his church a leave of absence for three months, which he has accepted, and will next week go North to recruit his health which has been failing for some time past. During his absence the church will be closed and next Sunday's services will be Dr. Patterson's last previous to his return. A cordial invitation to worship with them has been extended by the congregation of St. James' Church to those of St. John's.
