VIEWS AND REVIEWS.

Newspapers are used in many public schools of the West instead of books for reading lessons.

Grant has lost thirty pounds of flesh during his foreign tour, and Mrs. G. is now six pounds the heavier.

They have a wife selected for the French Prince Imperial—Thyra, the youngest sister of the Princess of Wales.

The first passenger over the first railroad in the world, W. N. Fonn, of Birkenhead, England, has just died.

Gas from a cargo of decomposed fruit killed two sailors who descended into the lower hold of the vessel at Quebec.

Don Pedro is already anxious to be rushing around the world again, and is about starting for the Paris Exposition.

A young woman in Sacramento has become a raving maniac through a single year's use of arsenic for the improvement of her complexion.

The Pennsylvania Road is trying to economize in the fuel used on its locomotives, by giving the firemen half of what they can save out of a given amount issued to them each month.

Chicago claims a population of nearly 540,000, and Bishop Cheney, in discussing church failures to reach the masses, declared that only 50,000 were habitual worshippers in sanctuaries.

Mrs. Jenks and husband will not return to New Orleans, for fear the latter might be convicted of perjury, and both are expected to be "provided for" at the public expense in Washington.

Jesse Jomery, the boy murderer, is in bad odor at the Concord prison. He was lately allowed to work, wilfully spoiled $75 worth of stock, and now none of the officers are allowed to speak to him; his reading permit is taken from him, and he has to endure solitary confinement, with nothing to do.

Mr. Henry C. Jarrett starts off his first "Uncle Tom's Cabin" troupe for England this week. Another will shortly follow. Of the genuine negroes engaged four, who call themselves "Tombabours," are so nearly white that Mr. Jarrett insists upon their blacking up for the performance.

If the Indian Sepoys do not see their Empress they can console themselves with the reflection that she sent her first cousin, the General Commanding-in-Chief, to Malta to review them. There has been no Commander-in-Chief in England since Wellington.

Little John is visiting his grandfather. This is an extract from a letter to his mother: "Pufaterbugs is plenty, an' I enjoy 'em very much 'cause they makes gran'father swear, an' every time he bites over the spills his false teeth, an' he always forgets ware he spills 'em, an' he hires us to roust 'em out. So yer see huntin's good here. He pays us in pigs, an' fore the sesin's over I think-ile hev eouf to start a swine shop. Tell Sam Jenkins, 'cause it'll make him hoppin' mad to know ime hev'n' such a binanzer."

The Editor of the Star wrote this morning, "We do not think we know personally a dozen persons who can read correctly a chapter in the Bible." We were always sorry for that man and feel worse about him now than ever before. His acquaintance with erudite gentlemen, cultivated theologians and good English linguists must be exceedingly limited—almost as much so as with deserving D. D.'s.

ALL BOURBONS NOW.

Things are quiet and peaceful now in the Democratic camp, at least that portion of it reserved to the press gang. There are no differences with a distinction but it is all tweedle-dee and tweedle-dee. In fact, we are all Bourbons now. But isn't it a little strange that those "liberal" minded people who only a few short months ago denounced certain papers which held to the traditions and doctrines of their party as Bourbons, should have now come over in a body to that view of the question and be the loudest and the fiercest among those who denounce the de facto President?

PALE FACED RASCALS.

The Indian war now on hand is not a myth, nor will it prove to be child's play. It has been brought on by the meanness, rascalities and robberies of the Republican officials who have for so long and with so much impunity robbed the Indians of their appropriations. With one hand the United States government has been giving to them and with the other taking back everything it gave. Instead of the saintly Praise-God-Barebones Howard let the government send honest men to investigate the truths and to administer the Indian affairs; instead of the army let them send a peace commission who are resolved on seeing that justice shall be done in the future as in the past and the war will be brought to an untimely close. Here is a short sketch of the rascalities of one of the Republican officials in the West. It is a specimen brick:

Fort Thompson, July 11, via Yankton, D. T., July 14—Commissioner Hayt, from Washington, is visiting the agencies in this section. To-day he dropped down on Crow Creek agency, and Inspector Hammond's sealed book was opened. It revealed fraud and robbery unheard of on the Missouri river. Last March the Crow, Creek, Lower Brule and Cheyenne agencies were all seized by the military. A secret investigation into their affairs, still incomplete, has developed a conspiracy between agents and traders that even startles the natives. Dr. Livingston, of Crow Creek, was taken without warning, and his office safe captured before he had time to remove the evidence of his wealth and guilt. The mountain of testimony still piling up against the ring, and Livingston in particular, is simply overwhelming. It beats all for thieving, perjury and forgery. The details show that they have stolen everything in sight and prostituted the whole agency machinery to their private use. Feeding and civilizing the Indians was a secondary matter. The affidavits, false vouchers, forged pay rolls, and ring letters laid before Commissioner Hayt prove that Livingston began his robbery in 1870, when first appointed. Since then he has accumulated a fortune. Besides his large landed interests he is a part owner in three silver mines in Nevada.

BE UP AND DOING.

Both parties seem to be gathering their strength for the coming elections that are to take place throughout the United States this coming November. The Democrats, it is admitted by their Republican foes at the North, have the inside track. The Republicans have been thrown entirely on the defensive by the act of the House bill, known as the Potter Resolutions. The Democrats have assumed the offensive and are pressing the investigation of the Louisiana and Florida frauds with commendable zeal. Each day's proceedings of this Committee and its sub-Committee in Louisiana and Florida develops some new hidden Radical rascality that shocks the morals of the whole country, and brings into disrepute some shining light of the grossly corrupt party which has ruled this country for the past seventeen years. But while these national affairs are being pressed by our Representatives at headquarters, and while the Democrats in other States are beginning to organize and prepare for battle, what are the Democrats in our own State Congressional and Judicial Districts, and our county doing? The County Executive Committee have just issued an appeal, a copy of which is published elsewhere in this issue, asking and urging upon the members of the Democratic party the importance of registering and registering at once. The Republican party are up and doing; its leaders are stirring them to action. Why should the Democrats of this city and county—the tax payers, be less active when they have so much more at stake?

The election takes place for Judges of the Supreme Court, Solicitor of this Judicial District and County offices sixteen days from this date. There is no time to lose; if the Democrats wish to win the victory they must be up and doing.

The Old Wilmington Life.

Ed. Review: Please help us to ventilate the following: Inasmuch as the President and Directors of the late Wilmington Life Insurance Co. have called upon the stockholders of said defunct concern for money which is claimed to be due by said stockholders to certain claimants holding policies, the stockholders now call upon and demand of the President and Directors to publish a statement of the Company's business, and an explanation of the purchase and sale or transfer of stocks to the Petersburg Life Insurance Company of Virginia. There are many stockholders honestly considering the manipulations now being made, and in their lack of information are halting in their action. From the President and Directors we ask, and demand as a right, a full and fair exhibit.

STOCKHOLDERS.

Pope's Little Lie.

Mr. Editor. The General Pope telegraphed General Halleck from Groveton, Va., on Aug. 30th 1862. "We fought a terrific battle here, yesterday, with the combined forces of the enemy, which lasted with continuous fury from daylight until after dark, by which time the enemy was routed from the field we now occupy," &c.

He uttered what he knew to be an absolute falsehood. There was no regular battle on that day. There was a sharp skirmish lasting less than two hours, on the evening of the 28th. On the 29th there was a skirmish early in the morning in which Sigel was engaged and at about 10 a. m. a short but sharp skirmish took place in which the troops of Hooker and Kearney were engaged. About 8 p. m. the Grover's troops were engaged for a short time and later, the troops of Kearney had a short, sharp and bloody contest which closed the day's fighting.

Restful Nights, Days free from Torture

Await the rheumatic sufferer who resorts to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. That this benign and cordial and depurative is a far more reliable remedy than colicium and other poisons used to expel the rheumatic virus from the blood, is a fact that experience has satisfactorily demonstrated. It also enjoys the advantage of being—unlike them—perfectly safe. With many persons a certain predisposition to rheumatism exists; which renders them liable to its attacks after exposure in wet weather, to currents of air, changes of temperature, or to cold when the body is hot. Such persons should take a wine glass or two of the Bitters as soon as possible after incurring risk from the above causes, as this superb protective effectually nullifies the hurtful influences. For the functional derangements which accompany rheumatism, such as colic, spasms in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, imperfect digestion, &c., the Bitters is a most successful remedy. It is only necessary in obstinate cases to use it with persistence.

The Cincinnati Commercial lets more light on the Grant programme, which includes his return from Europe by way of India and California, a big reception at San Francisco, and a trip across the continent in a special train of new and splendid Pullman palace cars under charge of Pullman and Jay Gould.

In Litchfield, Conn., is an old tombstone with the inscription: "Sacred to the memory of inestimable worth of unparalleled excellence and virtue Mrs. Rachel, wife of Jerome B. Woodruff and daughter of Norman Barber, whose ethereal parts became a seraph May 24, 1825, in the 22 year of her age."

A train on the English Midland Railroad arrived one day this month half an hour behind its time, and investigation proved that the guards, firemen, and stoker had availed themselves very freely of a case of wine along the baggage, and were all drunk. They will work hard and keep sober now for three months in jail.

SELECT LIST

—OF—

Local Newspapers.

Many persons suppose this list to be composed of cheap, low-priced newspapers. The fact is quite otherwise. The Catalogue states exactly what the papers are. When the name of the paper is printed in full-face type it is in every instance the best paper in the place. When printed in Capitals it is the only paper in the place. When printed in Roman letters it is neither the best nor the only paper, but is usually a very good one, notwithstanding. The list gives the population of every town and the circulation of every paper. It is not a Co-operative List. It is not a Cheap List. At the foot of the Catalogue for each State the important towns which are not covered by the list are enumerated. It is an Honest List. The list includes 970 newspapers, of which 168 are issued daily and 802 weekly. They are located in 325 different cities and towns, of which 22 are State Capitals, 238 places of over 5,000 population, and 441 County Seats. Lists sent on Application. Address GEO. P. ROWELL & CO'S Newspaper Advertising Bureau, 10 Spruce St. (Printing House Sq.) N. Y.
