LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
MUNSON—Wamsutta Shirts.
JOHN C. WINDER, Sup't—Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line.
O. G. PARSLEY, Jr., Agt—Steamer J. F. Underhill.
P. HEINBERGER—Appleton's Collection of Foreign Authors.
S. JEWETT—Look.
The wind blew and the dust flew at about two this p. m.

Star light, instrumental and vocal music on the Passport to-night, all for fifty cents. Cheap!

The Registration books will be open at the different polling places during the entire day to-morrow, for examination and supervision.

"The Fairbanks' manufacture over 50,000 scales a year. Where do they all go?"—Ex.
Why, they go their several ways, of course.

The Third Ward registration books will be open for examination and registration to-morrow (Saturday) at Giblem Lodge, on the corner of Eighth and Princess streets.

Hogs, dogs, cattle, political processions, goats and other nuisances perambulate the streets and among the people utterly regardless of the ordinances in such cases made and provided.

We would respectfully ask if the much-talked of "Third term" has anything to do with the heated term through which we have just passed. If so, we may be counted in the opposition.

More spoil meats and fish were condemned yesterday. The Health Officers are making a tour of inspection to the different shops on the hill, and have condemned some dry salt meats. The Clerk of the Market is inspecting the meats in the stores down town.

For the accommodation of those residing at Smithville, the steamer Underhill will, we are informed, leave hereafter on Saturday evening, and return on Monday morning, instead of running on Sunday, as heretofore. See notice of change of schedule in advertisement.

"This is fly time with a vengeance," said Smith, the other day, as he was wending his way towards the dock of the Passport—a time to fly away from this confounded heat and dust, and he gently fanned himself and patted lovingly a bottle of "cough drops" in his pocket.

Clerk of the Market reports only 3,100 watermelons and canteloupes in market yesterday, which shows a great falling off from daily receipts of the past week. Farmers say the drought has killed nearly all the first crop of vines but that the new ones are doing nicely and a good yield is expected.

City Court.
The only case before this tribunal this morning was that of a colored man charged with threatening to strike a policeman, last night. The man was arrested and carried to the lock up and this morning His Honor imposed a fine of $2 upon him.

Good.
The Goldsboro Messenger says: The political news from Onslow is encouraging, and the "independents" will be badly whipped out. The election of the Democratic nominees is fully assured. Col. Taylor for the House, and of Capt. Shackelford to the Senate is certain. We learn that Foy, the independent Senatorial candidate, fares quite badly at the hands of Shackelford, who is making a most vigorous canvass, and handles the independents with gloves off.

Molasses Pound Cake.
Two cupsful of molasses, one cupful each of sugar and butter, a half cup of sweet milk, three cupsful of flour, one and a half teaspoonfuls DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, three eggs, and raisins, spices, and brandy to taste.

For families visiting Philadelphia, no more cozy, home-like quarters, combined with excellent service, unexceptional cuisine, and moderate prices can be found than at the Colonnade Hotel on Chestnut Street.

Doctors and Churches.
The Doctors of New York City say Speer's Port Grape Wine has proved to be pure, unadulterated, of a fine flavor, and tonic properties, and is unsurpassed for its restorative powers, and they prescribe it as a very superior wine. Churches use it for communion. For sale at Green & Flanner's drug store.

Improving.
We are pleased to learn that Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be up and walking about his house.

Sanitary.
The St. James' gaveyard on Market street has been thoroughly cleansed of weeds and vines and is now in a much cleaner condition than it has been for years. We believe the work was done by city hands under instruction of Chief of Police Brock.

Snake in her Bed.
The extreme eastern portion of the city seems to be infested with snakes within the past two days, five or six snakes have been killed in one neighborhood, and this morning a woman discovered a rattlesnake between four and five feet long coiled up in her bed. The supposition is the snake shared part of the bed last night.

A Broken Engagement.
Mr. Sothern, the actor, is in such miserable health in London that he has had to throw up his engagements. We know of many couples, who, if they had been half as sick of their engagements as they are of matrimonial life, would have thrown them up long before matrimony had placed them on the list of incurables.

Declines.
We are authorized and requested by Col. Roger Moore to state in the most positive and unequivocal manner, that the announcement of his name for the office of Sheriff was totally unauthorized by him, and without his knowledge or consent. Col. Moore further states that he is not at all desirous of the office, and will under no circumstances permit his name to be used in that connection.

The Mustangs.
Nearly everybody and the rest of mankind in this city have been down to the mill yard of Messrs. Northrop & Cumming's to see the Mustangs. They are for the most part unbroken to the saddle and kick up funny antics when a bridle is put on them. They sometimes make a flying leap, and the crowd of eager spectators retreat in disorder. They evidently have their landlegs on and do not seem to be at all particular in which direction they fling them.

Street Parade and Picnic.
At a meeting of German Lodge K. of P. held last evening, a committee was appointed to make arrangements for the celebration of the Seventh Anniversary of Germania Lodge on Thursday August 8th. At a subsequent meeting of the committee they decided to have a public parade in the afternoon and the festivities of the day to close with a grand picnic at the Wilmington Gardens in the evening. It has not as yet been decided whether the parade will be on horseback or on foot.

Addresses will be delivered at the Gardens, by members of the order irrespective of the lodge. Further particulars and advertisement will appear in a few days.

Supreme Court.
Court opened yesterday at 9 o'clock, a. m. All the Justices present. The consideration of appeals at the end of the docket was resumed and causes disposed of as follows:
Kerchner & Calder Bros. vs. Alex. McRae et al., from New Hanover; docketed by appellee, upon whose motion the appeal was dismissed.
Alex. Oldham vs. F. W. Kerchner, from New Hanover; argued by D. L. Russell for the plaintiff, and W. S. & D. J. Devane for the defendant.
James Wilson vs. Jefferson James, from New Hanover; argued by W. S. & D. J. Devane for the plaintiff, and D. L. Russell for the defendant.
E. Hewlett vs. Henry Nutt, from New Hanover; argued by D. L. Russell for the plaintiff, and Merrimon, Fuller and Ashe for the defendant.
John C. Heyer vs. Ned Beatty, from New Hanover; argued by W. S. & D. J. Devane for the plaintiff, and A. T. & J. John London for the defendant.

Court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning (Thursday), when the consideration of appeals at the end of the docket will be resumed.—Ral. Observer, 25th.

Deadwood, D. T. banks will not take gold coin in exchange for greenbacks; but we have concluded, rather than to prolong the panic, to take either gold, silver, or greenbacks, until after the election.

The River Steamers.

The steamer A. P. Hart and D. Murchison cleared this afternoon at 2 o'clock for Fayetteville, how far they will get on their journey before they bump on a sand shoal is difficult to say. There is however two inches more water on the shoals as we are informed than there was this time last week. The steamers have been thrown behind their regular trips now for the past ten days, and we believe every steamer except the Hart has lost one or more trips.

Come One! Come All!

And hear Captain Swift Galloway, our candidate for Solicitor of this Judicial District, deliver his campaign speech in front of the Purcell House to-night.

Just to think that only one week from to-day, and free treats will be over. No more watermelons to be distributed free gratis among the Independent Republican voters.

Chicken Dispute.
For the amusement of the Charlotte excursionists a chicken dispute was gotten up by some of the lovers of "fun" in this city. The dispute took place this morning on Eagle Island on the opposite side of the river. Four fights were had, which resulted in the death of two of the cocks. The chickens all belonged here, and the fights are said to have been very fine.

Captured.
William Phinney, colored, who escaped from the custody of Deputy Sheriff Miller, about a week ago, was arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff Brown and lodged in jail. At the time of Phinney's arrest this morning he was drunk and showed fight. He has been walking about the city for the past four or five days and should have been arrested long before he was.

An Important Correction.
The individual who yesterday achieved the wonderful feat of diving to the bottom of the river at Market Dock, and fastening a pair of grappling irons to a barrel of pork which had rolled overboard, does not rejoice in the name of James R. Burnett, but says his name is James R. Proctor, Esq. This notice is inserted by special request, and free gratis for nothing. "Let justice be done though the Heavens fall."

The Sheriffally.
One week from to-day, and the fate of the county will have been decided—in this county, and we shall know whether Manning or Garrell, are to collect our taxes for the next two years. How important it is to know this, what momentous issues depend upon the selection of a Sheriff for this county on Thursday next? Who can tell the importance of the issue that is to be then decided? We suppose Manning or Garrell could tell in a minute, and wouldn't charge anything for the information either.
