LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements. J. C. Menses—Lundborg's Extract. Munks—56c. No Imitation. M. JAWETT—LOOK.

The new moon will shine this evening.

About six weeks more of this very warm weather.

This month has five Thursdays, five Fridays and five Saturdays.

Splendid weather this for the Banks Snappers to try it over again.

August steps in on the boards to-day. May he deal with us more gently than did his predecessor.

The liquor saloons have been steadfastly closed all day and only those who had some private resources to fall back upon have been able to waltz up.

Notwithstanding the nice little shower we had yesterday the ground appears to-day as parched as ever. Two inches of rain would not be a bit too much at this time.

The law forbids betting on an election, but here is for a pair of as good boots as you've a mind to pay for that Col. John D. Taylor is our next Superior Court Clerk.

Personal. We acknowledge, with much pleasure, the courtesy of visits paid us this morning by Col. D. K. McRae and Maj. J. A. Engelhard.

The Third North Carolina. The survivors among the non-commissioned officers and privates of the Third North Carolina Regiment are to meet at the Hall in Currie's building, to-morrow evening, for the purpose of perfecting their organization. The officers of the Regiment are invited to attend.

The Greenbackers. There was to have been a meeting, on Tuesday night, of the followers in this city of the National Greenback party. The office of Thos. M. Gardner, Esq., was the place selected for the meeting. We are not advised as to the proceedings of the meeting, or if it was really held according to programme.

Fine Rains. From persons living along the line of railroads running out of this city we learn that these sections of the country were visited by copious rains within the past two or three days. Yesterday the rains down the river and at Smithville were the heaviest we ever saw, but not a drop too much, say most of the farmers.

To-morrow's Excursion. An excursion train from Weldon, Tarboro and intermediate points on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad will arrive in this city to-morrow. The excursionists will take a steamer for Smithville, Forts Johnson, Fisher and Caswell and Bald Head. Tickets for the excursion are good for ten days and in all probability a good number of the excursionists will stay with us to the limit of time given them.

Scene at a Polling Place. "Stop dar, stop when I opens my mout' at you. Don't you hab nuffin' to say to dem white man 'till you puts dat ticket in de box; if you does dey'll guffer hit out of your hand an' put dim' crat ticket in it. Take de ole man's 'vice dis time; don't you 'bleves nothin' des white trash tell 'bout lechun; don't you do it; don't you do it; take de ole man's 'vice."

Unmailable Letters. The following is a list of unmailable letters remaining the Post Office in this city August 1st: John Fell, care of J. W. Russell, Savannah, Ga.; Elias Henderson, care of D. S. Sanders, Castle Hayne, N. C.; S. H. Magrien, Columbia, S. C.; 1 blue stamped envelop, no address.

Rehabites. At a regular meeting of New Hanover Tent, No. 57, Independent Order of Rehabites, held recently, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: James Kendrick, P. C. R.; A. Guttenberg, S.; W. L. Jacobs, C. R.; W. Westcott, D. R.; T. E. Skipper, R. S.; James Woodward, F. S.; James Newton, T.; Samuel Mines, Jr., L.; Ira Skipper, I. G.; J. W. Branch, O. G.; J. W. Hewitt, W. L. Jacobs and H. M. Bishop, Trustees.

"There's Nothing Like It." "The best we ever had." Find it much cheaper than others! "Can testify to its superiority." Extracts from letters to the manufacturers of DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER.

Laus Deo!

The shouting and specifying of the campaign of 1878 in this city came to a close at about 3 o'clock this morning at the intersection of Hanover and Fourth Streets in the First Ward; the "Garrell" faction having the last word. To-day, by the silent but potential voice of the ballot, the people are declaring their wishes and by to-morrow it will be known to whom the important trusts imposed by this election will be confided. It has been a campaign in which but a very small share of the respectability of our citizens have taken any part, and in which the most of the intelligence that has been engaged has been to appeal to the meanest and worst passions of an ignorant and irresponsible class. For weeks the nights have been made hideous by the vulgarity, profanity, and obscenity of a half-drunken mob of beings, whose low appetites have been pampered by political aspirants after political position. It is a sad commentary upon the dignity of office when all its responsibilities rest upon those who have descended into the very cesspools of human language and endeavored to arouse the worst passions of human nature to acquire a brief official position. Whoever may be the victor in the principal race, it will be a dearly bought victory—a victory in which much of decency, dignity and self-respect has been fearfully sacrificed; and when he becomes installed in office, after the dirty smoke of the battle shall have been swept away, we hope that some tinge of shame at the means employed to secure his triumph may be an evidence that he is not wholly lost to the respect and confidence of his fellow-men. The history of this campaign must stand, however, as a monument erected to the greatest villification, orimination and recrimination that ever disgraced a political campaign in New Hanover county.

The two Factions and Their Speakers.

The Garrell's and the Manning's were out in their full force last night, but their ranks were not very full at that. Manning's party held forth in Brooklyn while Garrell's faction orated in front of the Market House. The principal topic was vituperation and abuse of the leaders of each faction. Heaton held up to the crowd from the stand in front of the Market House a little bull-terrier which he claimed to be the exact counterpart of Gen'l S. H. Manning, and introduced him as such.

How long are the quiet, peaceable, and respectable citizens of this community to be annoyed with such vile and oftentimes obscene and profane harangues? Is it to be endured at every election? Are we never to have a change of policy? Can not the officers of the law see to it hereafter that decency at least shall be observed if the noise of a Radical meeting has to be endured?

Registration.

The following presents the entire number registered in the various wards in this city, the return being made to the closing of the books last evening: First Ward—Upper Division—Whites, 106; colored, 438. Total, 544. Lower Division—Whites, 107; colored, 593. Total, 701. Second Ward—Whites, 325; colored, 127. Total, 452. Third Ward—Whites, 289; colored, 128. Total, 417. Fourth Ward—Whites, 251; colored, 141. Total, 392. Fifth Ward—Whites, 194; colored, 522. Total, 716. Grand Total—Whites, 1,272; colored, 1,949. Total registration of the city, 3,221.

Cut-lar!

At the Garrell meeting this morning, at the corner of Hanover and Fourth streets, was the irrepressible Cut-lar, and he was discovered by a party of youngsters, who wanted a little fun, just as the Chairman was going to introduce another speaker. The young men alluded to raised a big shout for "Cut-lar! Cut-lar!" whereupon that patriot arose, notwithstanding the attempt made by those on the stand to restrain him, remarking that "the friends of Cut-lar want to hear Cut-lar speak, and he's a gwine to speak, whether or no," and speak he did for a full half hour, much to the delight of the aforesaid young men, and disgust of those having charge of the meeting.

Nothing so disappoints a careful house-keeper this weather as to find her ice cream tainted with salt.

A Hint Worth Attention.

Discomfort, amounting in many persons to actual distress, is often experienced in sitting for a photographic picture. An eminent writer thus describes his experience: The eye is fixed upon a certain spot, and, while staring at this, vision becomes indistinct, surrounding objects especially being lost in a thickening mist. A feeling of giddiness is apt to follow, if the sitting is at all prolonged. The suffering which he, in common with thousands besides, underwent, suggested to him the need of some remedy and he soon hit upon a simple contrivance which obviated every feeling of uneasiness. He drew a small circle about four inches in diameter upon a piece of paper, and converted the circle into a sort of clock face by sketching in the Roman figures in their usual sequence. Then the paper was nailed to a post about eight feet from the position of the sitter. When the operation of taking the picture began he first fixed his eyes on the XII, and then upon I, and so on, shifting the gaze leisurely from figure to figure "all around the clock." There was no feeling of strain, weariness, or giddiness. The picture taken was free also of all appearance of constraint. There was no staring expression, and the eyes were clear and well defined. This hint is well worth the attention of photographers.

The yield of cabbage for the present year will be a gigantic one, and those who are partial to sauer kraut need have no fears of short supplies.

Now is the time for writing loving letters to country cousins, telling them you are not only crazy to see them, but that you are coming with the entire family, to remain until early frost.

It is difficult to explain the workings of the youthful mind. A boy who will listen indifferently to the sublimest truths, will be aroused to the acutest interest by the progress of a caterpillar over the collar of the baldheaded man in the pew in front of him.

An old lady is collecting all the political journals she can get to make soap of. She says they contain 69 1/2 per cent. of pure "lie."

An ungallant contemporary thus writes: "The modern woman, when she has a nail to drive, doesn't wait for her husband to come home. She catches hold of the nail as she would the hair of a recalcitrant son, swings the hammer over her head and plunges downward. Then she ties up her finger as well as she can, puts on her best bonnet and goes right over to her mother's for a good cry and her tea."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, and permanent cure for consumption, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. je 18-4w

The Election.

The election here to-day has passed off very quietly. We can hear of no disturbance that may be called an actual breach of the peace, although the interest attaching to the result, principally among the Republicans, has been intense. The field has been disputed by the Manning and Garrell factions of Republicans, these parties having led their ticket on the nomination for Sheriff. The interest among the Democrats has centered on one point almost entirely outside of the regular State ticket, and that is the election of Col. John D. Taylor for Clerk of the Superior Court. The polls have not closed at this writing, (4.30 P. M.) and we are unable to predicate the result accurately. A Review reporter made the rounds, just before we go to press, of three wards in the city. The results of his observations may be summarized as follows:

First Ward.—In this ward the Republican Legislative ticket is about 200 ahead. Col. Taylor is receiving a good vote and will probably run ahead of VanAmringe. The vote for Sheriff is very nearly even. The voting strength of the Lower division of this ward is 705, of which 530 have been cast; Garrell running 175 behind Manning for Sheriff. Sampson, Republican, for the Senate has 50 votes ahead of Wilson, Republican; Bryan, Democrat, for the Senate, has 66 votes; McQuigg, for Clerk, 110; Taylor, for Clerk, 125 and VanAmringe, for Clerk, 292.

Second Ward.—Voting strength 452, of which 350 have been polled. Bryant leads about 200 ahead of Sampson, who is ahead of Wilson 100 votes; Garrell has received 200 and Manning 100. Taylor is about 250 ahead of VanAmringe and McQuigg. In this ward some 50 votes were not cast for Sheriff.

Third Ward.—Voting strength 416, of which 305 have been cast. Bryan for the Senate is 50 ahead of Sampson who leads Wilson about 6 votes, Garrell is 30 ahead, of Manning and Taylor 40 ahead of VanAmringe who runs 80 votes ahead of McQuigg.

In the Fourth and Fifth Wards, we have no reliable reports, other than that in the former Taylor and Garrell are a little ahead the former leading handsomely.
