News is very scarce to-day.
 Greenbackers meet to-night.
 Canteloupes are getting scarce.
 Plenty of watermelons in market.

Spoilt meats were sent out of the market yesterday.
 How to make a match safe—soak its head in water.
 Sweet potatoes are selling at thirty cents per peck.

A delicate parcel—A young lady wrapped up in herself.
 Everybody complains of bad money, but nobody of bad judgment.

House renting is occupying the minds of some of the community.
 Misery comes when it is too warm to stay in the house, and too hot to go out.

By rolling all night in a hot bed a man finds his sleep done to a turn in the morning.
 When a man's upper story is without tenants you will hear his mouth announce the fact.

But one trifling case for the Mayor's consideration this morning, which was dismissed.
 It is no longer polite to say "I'll put a head on you." The correct thing is I'll eclipse your optics.

We pass our lives in regretting the past, complaining of the present, and indulging false hopes of the future.
 Wise men are instructed by reason; men of less understanding by experience; the most ignorant by necessity; and brutes by nature.

Lieut. Simmons, formerly of the Revenue cutter Colfax, passed through this city Monday night en route for his new post of duty.
 The iron front of the Volders building now in the course of construction on Front street, has arrived and will be erected in a few days.

John J. Fowler, Esq., Assistant City Clerk and Treasurer, returned home last night after a trip of two weeks to Saratoga, Niagra and Canada.

There is some talk of a fireman's excursion from Newbern to Wilmington, but when it will take place we are not informed, says the Nat'l Shell.

An excursion from Charlotte to Wilmington is on the tapis. It will be run by Messrs Leech and Baldwin, of Shoe Heel, on next Tuesday night the 13th inst.

It is most time for the August meteoric display. The earth enters the meteor-zone on the 10th, and on that night, and before and after, a great many meteors fall.

Read the interesting historical sketch by Appleton Oaksmith, entitled "The First British Rule in Cyprus," which we publish on our third page to-day. The sketch refers to the marriage of Richard Cœur de Lion to Berengaria, the fair Princess of Navarre, just before the knightly King's departure for the Holy Land.

Telephone Line.
 The telephones for the Masonboro line have not arrived, but are looked for by each express. The delay is caused by improvements which have recently been made. Mr. Angel informs us that the instruments ordered for the line will be the first of the kind in use except those which were used to experiment with. They have been tested over 750 miles of wire and were found to be a vast improvement over any heretofore manufactured.

Wives Know that the Brow of Care
 Is often soothed by a delicious supper, to which perfect bread, rolls, biscuit, etc., are so important. To have these delicate products of baking always reliable, the use of DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is very important. This article is among the most valuable of the day in its bearing on health. It is put up in cans always full in weight.

EDITOR REVIEW.

DEAR SIR:—Admiring the spirit with which you make known abuses perpetrated in this city, I desire most respectfully to call your attention and that of the Honorable Board of Aldermen to the intolerable nuisance of permitting a whole quarter of the city to be disturbed at 12 o'clock at night by the parading of a squad of military, beating of drums &c., as was the case last evening at the corner of Fourth and Market streets, and in that entire neighborhood. There is a general complaint about this nuisance, and as the disturbers of the peace do not seem to realize the fact that it is such, we invoke an ordinance requiring the offenders to respect the peace and dignity of the city.

The Crops.

Since our last remarks upon the crops we have been over those on the line of the W. C. & A. R. R., and regret to find that the exceedingly dry and hot weather has materially injured them in various places. Around the villages of Marion and Florence they are very much injured; much of the young corn is withered and fallen. The older corn, although much damaged, will still give a pretty good yield. Cotton has in some fields a parched appearance and the bolls have shrivelled for lack of moisture to hold them on to the weakened plant. Darlington generally has not suffered so much but the showers have been mostly local and in passing through the county we see one plantation looking vigorous and thriving while the next is dry and parched.

At and around Mullins in Marion they have not lacked for rain all the season, and both corn and cotton look well. It is impossible to estimate the falling off from the promise of two weeks ago. The farmers are making various estimates from one-fourth to one third loss. The rains of the last two days will do great good, but come too late for some of the neighborhoods.

A Slight Mistake

We Wilmingtonians are getting a little swell-headed as regards this as a cotton port, and are, therefore, desirous of having full justice done in every particular. The mental obliquity of vision which distinguishes some of our cotemporaries is very distressing, but as we are not responsible therefor, all we can do is to offer corrections; which, our friends will bear us record, we are in no wise bashful in offering. The New York Journal of Commerce of a recent date gives as a total of cotton received at this port from September 1, 1877, to August 1, 1878, 113,954 bales, when, as a matter of fact, we have received 8,742 bales more than it gives us credit for, or 122,696 bales in the period named. We give here the receipts in detail, by months, for the period named, as compiled from the books of the Secretary of the Produce Exchange:

September, - - -	2,464 bales
October, - - -	23,558 "
November, - - -	31,647 "
December, - - -	30,953 "
January, - - -	14,175 "
February, - - -	7,640 "
March, - - -	6,971 "
April, - - -	2,154 "
May, - - -	1,828 "
June, - - -	719 "
July, - - -	578 "
Total for 11 months	122,696 bales

New Grocery House.

We understand that Mr. Preston W. Bridgers has leased the upper store in the new brick building now being erected by Mr. Donald McRae on North Front street, near Princess, where he will open in October a large wholesale and retail grocery house. Success to him.

General Robert Ransom.

We understand that Gen. Robert Ransom, so well known in our city, has recently received an appointment in the Engineer Department, supervised by Capt. C. B. Phillips. He is now engaged in a survey of Scuppernon river, in the North-eastern part of this State, and we are glad to learn that there are some prospects of his being sent here to superintend the work at the mouth of the Cape Fear.

Improved Accommodations.

The hotel accommodations this winter will surpass any ever offered in this city. The Purcell House has just been kalsomized throughout, newly carpeted and bath tubs added to the house.

The Empire House is now undergoing a thorough overhauling. It is to be newly painted papered, and carpeted and additions made which will add greatly to the comfort of guests. When the improvements are made on both houses Wilmington can justly brag on two first class hotels.

We understand that the contract for furnishing rock for the crib work at New Inlet has been awarded from Col. Craig-hill's office to Messrs Dolby & French.

Yesterday's Regatta.

The August regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club was sailed over the Wrightsville course yesterday. There were but few witnesses of the race apart from those who reside at the Sounds and the boat's crews. The winds at the start were light and variable and the yachts were trimmed for light breezes, but towards the end of the race the wind changed its direction and blew in gusts which came very near capsizing some of the yachts while others "dipped" because of not having sufficient ballast. The direction of the wind was from South to Southwest, veering to Westward, Messrs. J. W. Lippitt and R. M. McIntire were appointed Judges. The yachts started in the following order:

Restless , - - -	1h 52m 00s
Frolic , - - -	1h 52m 42s
Rosa , - - -	1h 53m 35s
Lizzie , - - -	1h 53m 38s
Gipsy , - - -	1h 54m 28s
Ripple , - - -	1h 55m 8s

The Ripple passed the Gipsy after rounding the Mott channel buoy and with this exception the relative positions of yachts were unchanged when they passed the Banks house buoy on the return. On the way down the Banks Channel the Frolic went to the windward of the Restless.

The Ripple had passed her competitors when the Rosa and Restless collided, and the latter capsized. After some delay caused by the accident, the Rosa started after the fleet and rapidly closed up the gap. The Lizzie and Ripple were "bow and bow" at the Ocean buoy, which was rounded in the order named, Frolic, Ripple, Lizzie, Rosa, and Gipsy.

On the return down the Banks channel to Mott's channel bays, the yachts kept close together, the Frolic holding her own with the Ripple, with the Lizzie and Rosa closely astern of them. On the home stretch the Ripple beat to windward of the Frolic and the Rosa overhauled and passed first the Lizzie, then Frolic, in which order the buoy was rounded. Shortly after rounding the Ocean buoy the tiller of the Lizzie broke off close to the rudder head. The race was finished by the

Ripple at - - -	3h 33m
Rosa " - - -	3h 34m
Frolic " - - -	3h 36m

In the absence of Commodore Grainger, the champion flag was presented to the Ripple as the winning boat by Fleet Captain O. A. Wiggins, and accepted on behalf of the Ripple by Mr. A. R. Campbell, one of the crew of the Ripple.

Robeson County.

The Robesonian of this day's date, received this morning, confirms the report published by us yesterday to the effect that the Robeson county election would be contested by the Democrats. There seems to be good grounds for the contest, as we have stated in the Review. These are the facts in the case in regard to Smith and some other precincts, as given in the Robesonian:

At Smith's the registration book was not only not revised, but 66 men voted there whose names were not on the registration books, but on a separate piece of paper; the polls were not opened at the time required by law. At Back Swamp one negro voted who is a resident of Columbus county; at Britts one vote was found in the box after the votes had been counted out, which vote was cast for J. Span Thompson for Sheriff, and one man voted illegally at Shoe Heel. The Board counted the votes on the ground that their duties were merely ministerial and not judicial. Now, while we think that they did wrong in counting the vote of Smith's, at least, still we think it a duty the party owes to the people of the county to contest it. We forgot to mention at the proper time that the polls were closed at Blue Springs before sunset, and several Democrats were thus denied the right to vote. The law expressly declares that the polls shall be opened at 7 o'clock in the morning and shall be kept open till sunset. This was violated at Smith's also.

Capt. Phillips.

Capt. C. B. Phillips, U. S. Engineer passed through the city this morning, and went North, instead of stopping over here to-day. He pleads business engagements, but purposes to return and have a conference with our merchants relative to the Inland Water Route.

Eclipse of the Moon.

On the evening of the 12th of this month there will be a partial eclipse of the moon, visible here. The moon will rise in partial eclipse, and will so remain until nearly nine o'clock. On the night of the 11th the moon and Jupiter will be in conjunction.

Magistrate's Court.

Sampson Stewart and Richard Morris, both colored, and residents of Eagle's Island in Brunswick county, were arrested for fraudulent registration, and voting the 1st day of August 1878 in the Second Ward in this city.

The defendants had a preliminary investigation before Justice Harris this morning, and were bound over for trial at the present term of the Criminal court.

Criminal Court.

The following cases have been disposed of since our last report.

State vs. Jeremiah Johnson, charged with larceny. Defendant found guilty and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

State vs. Jeremiah Johnson, charged with larceny. Defendant submits. Judgment not prayed.

State vs. Reco Jackson, charged with obliterating county records. Guilty. Judgment not yet prayed.

State vs. C. H. Heide, continued by consent.
 State vs. Mary Greenwood, charged with bigamy, submitted. It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant, an ignorant colored woman, was under the impression that she had been divorced from her husband, before her second marriage. Judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. George Saunders, charged with resisting a police officer on trial before this Court on an appeal from City Court. Jury still out.

State vs. Dick Davis, charged with larceny. Jury still out.

Not Fishing.

The moonlight excursion on the Passport to-morrow evening bids fair to be equal in pleasure to its predecessors. Fine string bands have been engaged for the occasion and with moonlight, music, pretty girls and ice cream, one ought to be able to enjoy himself. The editor of the Review, who is now a grass widower, is waiting to be invited by some pretty girl to accompany her on the excursion, she to pay all expenses. Don't all speak at once or too many ask him, but the Local's advice to the one who does is to carry a well filled basket.

Politicians and Vagrants.

There is such a babel of voices around the Court House door, that it disturbs the proceedings of the court up stairs. Yesterday the Sheriff applied to the City authorities for a policeman to keep order in that vicinity. We think if the vagrant act was enforced against some of these sable adherents of the Garrell and Manning factions, there might be a little more sidewalk room to the north side of Princess street in the neighborhood of the Court House. Ever since the election there has been a motley crowd gathering nearly every day right in front of the Register's Office or in that vicinity, discussing the events of the recent campaign and frequently in such language that is not at all pleasant to refined ears. Now is as a good time as any to put a stop to such proceedings.

On Joint Ballot.

An editorial in yesterday's Raleigh Observer confirms the estimate made by us on Saturday last as to the next Legislature. We thought that there would be about forty on joint ballot and the Observer, from the returns now in, figures up just that number—one hundred and five out of one hundred and seventy members in both houses.

DIED.

In this city to-day, August 7th, at 11½ o'clock, A. M., Mrs. FURLONG, wife of Capt. Walter Furlong, aged 32 years and 2 weeks.

The funeral services will take place at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning from the residence corner of Fourth and Dock streets, thence to St. Thomas' Church and thence to Oakdale Cemetery.

A NOVEL.
 By the author of "The Odd Trump," "Harwood," "The Lacy Diamonds," "Flesh and Spirit," etc. Extra Cloth, $1.25; paper cover, 75c.
 "A hearty, breezy novel, taking its easy way through the solid externalities and natural incidents of life, without turning aside to pursue the airy images of subjective thought, or wrestle with the complicated problems of the inner consciousness. It is a story of good, every-day, English character, combining a broadly the incidents of social life, love-making included, travel in far countries, and war."—New York Home Journal.
