Last night was quite cool, and before morning the mosquitoes put on overcoats and "knocked off" work.

Rev. B. R. Hall, of the Fifth Street M.
E. Church, of this city, will preach at Scott's Hill on Sunday next.
Dainty little caps of white muslin, trimmed with gray colored ribbon bows, are very popular for breakfast wear at the summer resorts.

The man who will read a newspaper three or four years without paying for it, will pasture a goat on the grave of his grandfather.

A lampus oel was taken from the tank of an engine tender at the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. shops yesterday. The tender is never used, but how the oel got in there is the question to be satisfactorily answered.

The time for holding the third quarterly meeting at Scott's Hill, Topsail Circuit, Methodist E. Church South, has been changed by the Presiding Elder, Rev. Dr.
Burkhead, to the 24th and 25th instant, next Saturday and Sunday.

Capt. Jack.
Mr. John Griffith, better known to wharf rats as Captain Jack Griffith, who is one of our oldest citizens, has been confined to his house for a week past threatened with paralysis, but we are pleased to hear this morning that the old gentleman is much better, and hopes soon to be out and bustling around on South Waterstreet again.

City Court.
Enoch Green, alias Enoch Griffin, was arraigned before the Mayor pro tem this morning upon the charge of rescuing a prisoner, a colored woman, by the name of Laura Taylor, from a police officer on last Saturday night. The sentence of the Court was $6 fine or thirty days in the city prison. The defendant was allowed a week's time to pay the fine, and he furnished security for his appearance at the end of that time.

First New Cotton.
Mr. E. P. Covington, Commission Merchant on North Water street, received by the Carolina Central Railway this morning from Laurel Hill township, Richmond county, the first new crop cotton that has been received here this season.
The consignment consists of two bales, one from Mr. Jephtha Gibson, which graded middling, and the other from C. W.
Wright, Esq., which was graded as strict low middling. The cotton was placed in the hands of Mr. S. R. Birdsey, cotton broker, for sale, but up to 4 P. M.
11 1/2 cents was the best bid obtained.

P. S.—Since the above was in type we learn that a sale has been made at 12 cents per pound to Messrs. Kerchner & Calder Bros.

Seriously Ill.
We regret to learn that Capt. Isaac B.
Grainger, of this city, is seriously ill at Williamsport, Pa., with bilious fever.
His condition was such yesterday morning that Mrs. Grainger was telegraphed for, and last night, in company with her brother, Mr. John McRae, left for Williamsport. Capt. Grainger visited New York a week or two ago for attendance on the Banker's Convention which met at Saratoga, we believe, and in company with Mr. P. A. Wiley, Cashier of the Citizen's National Bank of Raleigh, was to have made a short tour in the North before returning home and it was probably while on this tour that he was taken ill.

An Unknown Drowned Man.
Mr. H. M. Watson, mate of the steamer A. P. Hurt, reports having seen yesterday the body of a colored man about one hundred yards above Council's Bluff, in Bladen county, 80 miles above this city. The body was in a nude state and was being terribly mutilated by buzzards. The name of the man could not be ascertained and no one in the vicinity of the Bluff could give any information concerning him. The supposition is that he was drowned in Harnett county, near the Falls, and was carried down by the freshet and washed ashore near Council's Bluff. A coroner was notified and in all probability the unfortunate man has been properly interred.

New Appointments.
Messrs. F. M. James and S. W. Howland were appointed Health Officers of the city this morning and entered at once on the active discharge of their duties. These gentlemen gave very great satisfaction in the same capacity last year.

State Dental Association.
The Charlotte Observer says that the next meeting of the North Carolina State Dental Association will commence in that city on Tuesday, the 3d of September.
A large attendance of the members of the association is expected, together with several visiting dentists from South Carolina.

Ran Into.
An engine ran into and killed five cows a few days ago, near Castle Hayne, on the Wilmington & Weldon R. R., about nine miles from this city. The head-light of the engine was demolished and thrown some distance from the track by one of the cows being run up on the cow-catcher and precipitated with force against the light.

Unmailable.
Unmailable letters and packages remain in the Postoffice in this city as follows:
John L. Carver, Baxwell, S. C.; Messrs Biglow & Main, New York; a foreign letter, addressed so badly that the inscription cannot be made out; one package of iron, addressed to J. Howard Foote, and a letter addressed to S. C. McKoy, Farmer's Turnout, N. C.

Knights of Pythias.
The Supreme Lodge of the World, of this order, meets at Indianapolis, on the 27th inst. It is thought that as many as 5,000 Knights will be present. There will be competitive drills and displays for valuable prizes. This beneficial order is constantly increasing in numbers. There are now, it is estimated, over 150,000 in the country.

Inerasible Ink.
According to the Pharmacist, an ink that cannot be erased even with acids is obtained by the following recipe: To good gall ink add a strong solution of fine soluble Prussian blue in distilled water.
This addition makes the ink, which was previously proof against alkalis, equally proof against acids, and forms a writing fluid which cannot be erased without destruction of the paper. The ink writes greenish blue, and turns black.

Consecration of the Bishop of Richmond.
All of the preparations for the consecration of Bishop-elect Keane in St.
Peter's Cathedral, Richmond, on Sunday next have been made, and the Catholic public are looking forward to the day with great interest. Archbishop Gibbons will be the consecrator, and Bishop Foley, of Chicago, and Bishop Kain, of Wheeling, will be the assistant consecrators.
Bishop Lynch, of Charleston, who is well known as a great orator, will preach the consecration sermon. The new Bishop will preach in the afternoon after his consecration, when there will be Pontifical Vespers. The form of consecration will be recited in Latin, but copies of a literal translation into English will be distributed among the congregation.

The Proper Channel for Advertising.
We mean no disparagement to commercial travelers, says an exchange, when we say that an advertisement in a widelycirculated newspaper is better than an army of drummers. The drummer can only be in one place at one time. He speaks with a miraculous organ, but to a limited audience. He must eat, drink and sleep. He is mortal. The newspaper can be in many places in one day.
It can talk to thousands of persons at one time. It has no set times nor seasons, but comes every morning smiling to its work. Steam and lightning are its ministers. The sign-board is good in its way; circulars are read by the curious and by the innocent; drummers sometimes make sales; there are a hundred ways of reaching for trade, but there is but one high road to it. The newspaper is the natural channel of general information. Those who fail to use it get no hold upon the moving world. Business men who have business, and who keep it, advertise.

Literary.
THE RECTOR'S WIFE; OR, THE VALLEY OF A HUNDRED FIRES. By the author of "Margaret and Her Bridesmaids," "Lords and Ladies," "Queen of the County," &c. &c. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers. Wilmington: P. Heinsber-ger.

"The Rector's Wife" is a charming story, full of simple country life, and written in the plainest way. John and Emily, the hero and heroine, are a clergyman and his wife, and the beginning of the story sees them on their journey into Wales to take up their residence in one of his valleys. The Bernards are very wealthy people, and to them are the Leslies indebted for their living. Emily, our heroine, is a wonderful character, too good to be natural, for nothing affects her calm, serene, amiable disposition. The children of these people at first seemed unlike ordinary mortals, but as they advanced in years they became more of the world—worldly. One of the best characters in this book is an old nurse, Wilsey—and, in fact, there are no bad ones.

The Robertses, like very many people, full of show and vanity, and always striving to rival their neighbors. Lady Armitage is a rich sister of Mrs. Leslie, and has no children of her own so that she has partially adopted from time to time one of the many daughters of the Leslies. These girls, all except two, marry before the story closes—one of them Mr. Bernard, son of the millionaire—while the others do equally as well, all marrying men of their hearts. The eldest son, John, who dies before coming of age, evinces talent of no ordinary kind, and his death causes life-long grief to his father. The parents live to celebrate their golden wedding, and to gather around them, not only their daughters' own children, but grandchildren. The Robertses die off, and the story closes with the last of their race.

A HEART TWICE WON; OR, SECOND LOVE. By Elizabeth VanLoon. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers.
Wilmington: P. Heinsberger.

Now and then a new writer appears to take the reading world by storm. In this category may be placed the author of "A HEART TWICE WON" (a capital title), in which the mystery of the plot is at once veiled and half revealed. A most experienced critic, who has probably read two-thirds of the novels of the last forty years, says, "A HEART TWICE WON" must hit the public taste, and be a brilliant success. That it is by a new writer, is very evident; it is equally obvious, from the delicacy and force with which the plot has been framed and worked out to a legitimate conclusion, as well as from the development of the respective characters, that a young lady is the author. It is pure as well as passionate. Moreover, the incidents, sometimes startling, are put together in a skillful manner, and are all within the legitimate limit of probability.

SAVELI'S EXPIATION. A Russian Story. Translated from the French, Henry Greville, by Mary Neal Sherwood.
Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers
Wilmington: P. Heinsberger.

"SAVELI'S EXPIATION" shows more power and wonderful concentration than any the author has written; the descriptions in it are so vivid, and the characters and surroundings presented with such clearness and strength, that one is carried to the very scene and feels the atmosphere.
Henry Greville is not what is called an emotional writer; yet there is an underlying tone of pathos in this novel which escapes at times in powerful passages, the interest being well sustained throughout, while the story is refined and exceedingly enjoyable. The charm of this novel consists in its freshness, the characters being delineated with bold yet delicate touches, and perfect truthfulness made subservient to art, so that one finds in it an individuality which makes life pictures. Henry Greville is a woman.

The Greenbackers.
The Greenback party held their weekly meeting last evening at the Court House.
Speeches were made by Messrs. C. P.
Locky, Thos. M. Gardner, E. G. Bar-nitz, R. S. Waller and James M. King.
At present the party in this city numbers about one thousand, one fourth of whom are whites, and the remaining three fourths are colored.

A meeting will be held at the corner of Seventh and Ann streets this evening for the purpose of organizing a Ward Club, and to-morrow evening at Brooklyn Hall in First Ward for the same purpose.

The Congressional Canvass.
Hon. A. M. Waddell has determined upon opening the canvass in this Congressional district early in September, but in anticipation of that time will, in response to the written request of a number of gentlemen in this city, deliver an address to the people of Wilmington on the political questions of the day, on Tuesday evening, the 27th inst. He will speak in front of the Market House at about 8 o'clock on the evening in question, and the Congressional Executive Committee of which Capt. Chas. D. Myers is chairman, will make the necessary arrangements for the occasion. The following is the correspondence referred to above:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 21, 1878.
To the Hon. A. M. Waddell, M. C., Third District:
DEAR SIR—We, your friends and constituents, are desirous of hearing your views on the financial and other political questions of the day, and therefore request that at the earliest time practicable you will so address your fellow-citizens

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 21st 78.

GENTLEMEN:
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of this date requesting me to address my fellow citizens upon the financial and other political questions, and in reply beg leave to say that it will give me pleasure to do so on Tuesday evening next, the 27th inst.

You have by your flattering invitation only anticipated my own intentions, as it is my purpose to begin my canvass of this Congressional District early next month and to make it a very thorough one.

Very Respectfully,
A. M. WADDELL.

To Messrs R S Radcliffe, A. Adrian, C M Stedman, Jesse Wilder, J W Galloway, F H Darby, Wm L Smith, M M Hankins, J H Hanby, DuBrutz Cutlar, and others.

The iron front of Mr. L. Vollers' new building, on Front street, is being erected to-day.

Read the interesting letter of Col.
Waddell to the Raleigh Observer on the second page of this issue.

Personal.
Gen. Q. A. Gilmore, of the U. S.
Engineer Corps, is registered at the Purcell House, and is said to have gone down the river to-day with Mr. George Z.
French, one of the contractors on the works at the mouth of the river.

Railroad Meeting at Burgaw.
We are requested by a correspondent at Burgaw to state that there will be a grand gathering of the people of Onslow and Pender counties at Burgaw, on the first Monday in September, to talk about the projected railroad down towards Jacksonville. Several distinguished gentlemen, among them Hon. A. M. Waddell, have been invited to address the people on that occasion. A big turn out is confidently expected.

Thermometrical.
To Mr. D. C. Ralston, Signal Officer at this place, are we indebted for the following report of the thermometer for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday (to-day) of this week:
Monday, 19th—91 deg. at 12 o'clock; 93 deg. at 2 o'clock;—maximum temperature, 94 degrees.
Tuesday, 20th—89 deg. at 12 o'clock; 89 deg. at 2 o'clock;—maximum temperature, 91 deg.
Wednesday, 21st—84 deg. at 12 o'clock; 75 deg. at 2 o'clock; maximum temperature, 87 deg.
Thursday, 22d—73 deg. at 7 o'clock; 81 deg. at 11 o'clock.

Mind your steps. A compositor in setting up the text: "Woman—without her, man would be a savage," got the punctuation in the wrong place, which made it read: "Woman, without her man, would be a savage."

PLEASE NOTICE.
We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but:
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly undesired that the editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial columns.
