Thiers red is the new shade of garnet or maroon.

Felt hats will be more popular than ever this Fall.

The storm signal still holds forth to the breeze.

Full moon at 35 minutes past 10 o'clock this morning.

Grapes cling lovingly to thirty cents per peck; truckstering is the reason why.

Remember the picnic at the Gardens tonight, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers.

The east winds of the past few days have brought high tides in the river.

Strive to be the greatest man in your country and you may be disappointed; strive to be the best and you may succeed.

At last accounts the water in the Cape Fear was again low there having been only about 3 feet on the shoals at Fayetteville.

The mule is a loving animal, but a serious objection to his demonstrations of affection is the fact that he caresses wholly with his hind heels.

The nights and days will be equal on the 21st inst. About that time we may look for the equinoctial storm; but it frequently precedes or follows the time of the equinox.

Will the truckster nuisance never be abated, or will the community forever have to continue to donate something for the support of a privileged class of men, who pay no taxes?

Thanks to Mr. L. M. Long, the Secretary, for an invitation to attend the Ninth Annual Exhibition of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society, to be held in Weldon October 28, 29, 30, 31, and November 1st.

A man always knows what he stumbles over in the street, but the look of ineffable scorn he casts over his shoulder and betows upon an unoffending obstruction he has struck his awkward toe against is past all power of words to express.

When a man leaves our side and goes to the other side, he is a traitor, and we always felt that there was a subtle something wrong about him. But when a man leaves the other side and comes over to us, then he is a man of great moral courage, and we always felt that he had sterling stuff in him.

Pugilistic.
There was a very lively impromptu meeting last night at the Front street bridge near the Union Depot. The meeting was organized by one colored man calling another a ———. This brought a motion from darkey number 2 which caused darkey number 1 to take the floor horizontally. Then there was a vigorous interchange of sentiments for a few moments, in which number 2 seemed to have the best of the argument, when a bystander called for the "police" and another blew a whistle and the meeting adjourned. To be more explicit there was a lively little fight, and no policemen to interfere.

Ditson's Musical Record.
The first number of Ditson & Co's. Musical Record has been received and from a hasty glance at its contents we should judge that it would be a valuable acquisition to the library of the music loving people. The house by whom it is issued (one of the oldest music publishing houses in the United States) should be a guarantee of the character of the publication and the present number shows a determination on the part of the publishers to advance the knowledge of musical science in the country. Its praise is well bestowed and its adverse criticism while kindly given, does not fail to use the knife where it is needed. The music of the present number is good and well worth the price of subscription, which is only $2 per year in advance. The Record is issued weekly by Ditson & Co., Boston, Mass., to whom orders should be addressed.

Unmailable.
The following is a list of unmailable letters and papers remaining in the city postoffice Sept. 11th:
G. H. Makepeace, Cedar Falls, N. C.; John Dowling, Downingsville, N. C.

The Festival.
The fair ladies who have in hand the Festival to be given to-morrow evening for the benefit of the sufferers, are hard a work perfecting arrangements. They have a most worthy object in view, and they hope to be able to make up a handsome sum for the afflicted people. Let everybody go and spend something, if ever so little.

Married on Sunday.
There was a little romance connected with the excursion trip from Laurinburg to this city on Sunday last. Mr. J. D. McLuttre, of Burnt Swamp township, Robeson county, came here a Benedict and left a married man. He brought his sweetheart, a daughter of Maj. Conoley, of Lumber Bridge, down here with him and they were married in the city.

The Picnic.
To-night a grand picnic will be given at the Wilmington Gardens, under the auspices of Germania Lodge Knights of Pythias, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers of our Southern cities. The object is a most laudable one, and it should be, as it no doubt will, well attended. If you cannot attend the picnic, purchase a ticket and thus add your mite to alleviating the calamities of suffering humanity. A most pleasant time is promised by the committee, who in themselves are a sufficient guarantee that a good time is awaiting you.

An Appeal.
A home for the destitute children left orphaned and friendless by the yellow fever has been opened in Memphis. The inmates all need clothing, and some of the little ones being forced for the safety of others to have all of their clothing destroyed to prevent infection spreading in this house of refuge, are particularly helpless. An appeal has been made in their behalf, and all contributions, whether of cloth or clothing, and the latter may be new or old, will be received and forwarded by Mrs. Geo. G. Thomas, corner Fourth and Market Streets. It is desirable that the articles be forwarded as soon as possible.

The September Planets.
Jupiter will be the evening star throughout the month. He arose on the first of the month at half-past 4 in the afternoon, and about the end of the month will rise about half-past 2. No casual observer can glance at the south-eastern sky without recognizing this beautiful planet the moment his eye is turned towards the heavens. Saturn is rapidly increasing in brilliancy, reaching his culminating point on the 22d inst., when he comes into opposition with the sun, after which he will silently steal away. Venus is still the morning star, and rises at half-past 3 o'clock.

City Court.
Sellers Ferguson, for assault and battery on Mary Giles, was bound over to the Criminal Court in the sum of fifty dollars.
Howard Walker and Philip Wright, two colored youths, arrested for fighting in front of the Market House yesterday, discharged, this being their first offence.
The preliminary examination of Julia Ford for arson, continued from yesterday, was then taken up and Eliza Lucas and Mr. W. F. Lessman, two witnesses for the State, introduced. The testimony of these witnesses elicited nothing new, except that the first named witness testified as to the doubtful character of the two principal witnesses for the defense. At the conclusion of the testimony Mr. Solicitor Moore asked that the defendant be committed for trial until the next term of the Criminal Court, or that she be required to give a good bond for her appearance at that time. Marsden Bellamy, Esq., counsel for the defense, pleaded that his client be discharged on the grounds that there was no testimony to warrant a commitment, that the evidence pointed to the guilt of Anna Hankins, one of the State's witnesses, to a greater extent than to the defendant.
The Court expressed a disinclination to take the responsibility in a case involving such grave charges and bound the defendant over in the sum of $200 to the October term of the Criminal Court.

For a wonder, no shrimps in market yesterday.

For Raffle.
One of the most beautiful pieces of tasteful handiwork that we have ever seen, is now on exhibition at Capt. Jas. W. Lippitt's store on Front street, in the shape of a cross, made of pretty flowers, which are quite rare in this section at this season. It is for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers. Only twenty-five cents a chance. Go and try your luck.

At Point Caswell.
Col. L. L. Polk, Commissioner of Agriculture, arrived in the city last evening on the W. & W. train and left soon after with Capt. R. P. Paddison on the steamer North East for Point Caswell, where he was to have spoken to-day. There were only a few passengers on the boat from Wilmington but the entire surrounding county was expected to turn out at Point Caswell to-day.

The Masonboro Telephones.
As has already been stated by us, the telephone instruments for the line between this city and Masonboro have been placed in position by Mr. Angel, the agent here, and yesterday afternoon the first messages were passed and received. The instruments work very nicely, and conversation between the city and the Sound is easily carried on. The line extends to the residences of Capt. Cazaux, Mrs. Grainger and Mr. W. B. McKoy, on Masonboro.

Laid Up.
The steamer J. S. Underhill, which has done such faithful service on the river between this city and Smithville, has been laid up for repairs and will, we understand, undergo a thorough overhauling and repairing, with the addition of some very decided improvements. The mails, in the meantime, will be carried by the steamer Passport.

For the Orphans.
We are pleased to learn that the appeal for donations of clothing, second-hand, as well as new, for the orphans at Memphis, which was made through the columns of the REVIEW, has been responded to very liberally thus far. Still, much more is needed and Mrs. Thomas will gladly receive and forward all that is sent.

Col. Waddell's Address.
In response to the invitation addressed to him by the Chairmen of various trade organizations in this city, Hon. A. M. Waddell will address the people of Wilmington to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Opera House. There will be less of politics than of business in this address as it is expected that Col. Waddell will speak in regard to the commercial and maritime interests of Wilmington and of the South. A large attendance is confidently looked for on the occasion.

Weather Prognostications.
Professor Tice has given the following as the probable weather for September and has so far struck the nail on the head:
1st to 3d, clear or fair; 3d to 4th, ending in clouding, threatening weather, with heavy rains and severe storms in places; 7th to 9th, generally clear or fair; 9th to 17th, variable, generally low barometer, with high temperature preceding and accompanying storms, except North of storm centres, which will occur about 10th, 11th, 12th, 16th and 17th. There may be storms on the Gulf or South Atlantic coast about 9th or 14th; 18th to 20th, clear and cool; 20th to 23d, clouding and threatening weather, with rain; 23d to 24th, clear and cool; 24th to 25th; clouding, threatening weather, with probably severe storms in places. Storms on the Gulf coast liable to occur on 24th; 25th to 26th, clear and cool; 26th to 30th, ending in clouding, threatening weather and heavy storms in places. The warmer days will occur about 4th, 10th, 16th, 22d and 28th. The cooler days will occur about 6th, 12th, 17th, 25th and 30th. Auroras, if any, 1st, 6th, 11th, 13th, 18th, 26th.

There is a firm in town, composed of three members, the aggregate weight of which is 655 pounds. The "big" man weighs 230 and the "baby" 200 pounds. The "other fellow" pulls the scales at 225.

Not at all Surprised.
When we consider the little attention that is paid to the laws of health, we are not surprised at the indifference manifested by many persons in relation to the purity of daily food. If all articles were as pure as DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, this indifference might answer; their perfect wholesomeness would insure us against all evil consequences.

Fish are very scarce now on account of the high tides and easterly wind.

Improvements.
Mr. I. Furmaniski gives notice in this issue of the REVIEW that he will move his barber shop from its present stand to the building occupied by Capt. Lippitt. He contemplates fixing up one of the finest barber shops in the State.

For the Sufferers.
Last evening the Fay-Templeton Alliance gave a performance in Charlotte for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers, the latest and best version of East Lynne. The generous motives which prompted the manager to thus aid in alleviating the wants of suffering humanity cannot be too highly commended.

Marriage of Deaf Mutes.
In the second Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon, Mr. James Q. Holt, a teacher in the Institute for the Deaf and the Dumb and the Blind, at Raleigh, and Miss Annie C., daughter of Mr. John Stewart, of this city, who was formerly a pupil in the Institute, were united in marriage by Rev. C. M. Payne, Mr. D. C. Dudley, of Raleigh, acting as interpreter on the occasion. The affair was witnessed by a large crowd. The happy couple left here last evening for Raleigh.

Personal.
Mr. William Campbell, of New Orleans, the gentleman who drew the $100,000 prize in a recent lottery drawing, is in the city. He has been to New York, and stops over here a day or two on his way back to New Orleans. Having had the fever already his physician telegraphs him that he can return to help in the work there, as he earnestly desires to do, without any very great danger to himself.

Mr. Campbell was, we think, born in Wilmington. He is a grandson of the late James S. Green, Esq., and grand-nephew to Bishop Green, and is therefore a nephew of the late Col. James G. Green and Mrs. James Anderson and of Mrs. E. D. Hall and Mrs. J. J. Lippitt. While in Wilmington he is the guest of Mrs. Lippitt.

The Concert Friday Night.
Elsewhere will be found advertisement of the Concert which is to be given on Friday evening, in the Opera House, for the benefit of the sufferers by the yellow fever visitation. We have been assured that it will prove a most acceptable and enjoyable affair. A number of the best amateur vocalists in the city will assist in its rendition and every pains will be taken for the enjoyment of those who may attend. Some of the most enterprising of our young ladies—excellent managers in affairs of this kind—are working hard for the success of the entertainment, and they assure us that success is beyond peradventure. They appeal for a full house on the occasion for the sake of the noble object in view. Tickets may be had at Heinsberger's and there will be no extra charge for reserved seats.

The inspection of the colored companies in this city, Companies A. and B. of the Fifth Battalion, N. C. S. G., under command of Lt.-Col. Geo. L. Mabson, takes place this afternoon. The inspection will be made by Brig.-Gen. Taylor.
