The Third Ward Democratic Club will meet this evening at Munds' Hall.

But one trifling case before the Mayor this morning which was dismissed.

The probabilities are that Senator Merrimon will have a big crowd to hear him at Burgaw on Saturday next.

As we close the annual parade of the White Fire Department is in progress. We will have a good report of it, all for to-morrow's issue.

The First Ohio district is now represented by Hon. Milton Saylor and the Second by Hon. Henry B. Eanning, both Democrats.

See the very liberal rates offered by the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. management to parties going to the State Fair on that road. They are cheap enough to allow everybody and his wife to go up and spend a day at Raleigh.

The Elections.

There is nothing definite as yet from the elections which were held yesterday in the big Western States except the information received here this noon to the effect that the Democrats have lost the First and Second Congressional Districts in Ohio.

The Wilmington Sun.

Mr. Cicero W. Harris, of this city, will again embark in journalism and will begin, on the 17th inst., the publication of a daily newspaper to be called the Wilmington Sun. We extend to Mr. Harris a fraternal greeting on his return to the journalistic ranks. The prospectus, which was handed in to-day, was received too late for insertion in this issue, but will appear to-morrow.

Postponement.

We learn that the lecture advertised by the Historical Society to be delivered by Dr. Thomas F. Wood, of this city, before that Society on last Monday night, was postponed until next Monday evening, the 14th inst., at 8 o'clock, at which time a full attendance of all the members is expected, and desired by the president, Rev. Dr. Bernheim, from whom we get the information mentioned above.

Mr. John C. Bauman.

A letter was received here yesterday from Mr. John C. Bauman, one of the volunteer nurses from this city, who is now at Memphis, stating that he had been ill with the fever but was then recovering from it. This is, we believe, the third time Mr. Bauman has had the yellow fever, having been taken with it, during the war, once in Wilmington and once in Havana. We hope to be able to chronicle his complete recovery in a few days.

Death of Gen. Martin.

The Raleigh Observer chronicles the death at Asheville, on Friday last, of Gen. James G. Martin, a gentleman well known to many in this city and a prominent North Carolinian. He was a native of this State, a graduate of West Point and a distinguished soldier in the war with Mexico, and in the late war between the States. He lost an arm at Churubusco but still remained in the service. When North Carolina seceded he resigned his commission in the Federal Army and tendered his sword to his native State, serving her first as Adjutant-General and afterwards in command of a brigade in the Confederate Army. Peace to his honored ashes.

GOOD MEASURE IS THE WATCHWORD OF HONEST TRADE. When you buy DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, for sale by all grocers, you get perfectly full weight, just as marked on the can, and beside that an article made of the very best and purest material, so that the strength can always be trusted.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board met in regular session yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, presided by His Honor, Mayor Fishplate, and Aldermen Myers, Planner, Bowden, VonGlabn, Volkers, Foster, King, Hill and Lowrey. Committee on Police, in the matter of the petition of J. J. Rhodes, recommended that the petition be laid on the table. Adopted.

Committee on Market and Fees, in the matter of changing the location of the market carts, made a report that the matter be left as it now is. Adopted.

Alderman Foster offered the following which was adopted:

Resolved, That upon the completion of the new bond book, His Honor, S. H. Fishplate, publish a call in the city papers requesting the tax-payers to meet in the City Hall, to take under consideration what action may seem most necessary in regard to the debt of the city of Wilmington.

Committee on Market and Fees reported on the resolution of Alderman Hill, in reference to taxing wood, asking for further time, which was granted.

Alderman Planner offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the future, when coupons are offered in payment of taxes, that they be received for their face value only.

Application from the Howard Relief Fire Engine Company No. 1, asking for a new set of harness, was referred to the Committee on Fire Department, with power to act.

Communication from the Local Board of Fire Underwriters was referred to the Committee on Fire Department and the Chief of Police.

Petition of H. A. Glameyer was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Petition of Howell Cobb was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

Petition of Henry Taylor was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Communication from the Board of Audit and Finance, in reference to detailing Capt. John Cowan to act as their clerk, was, on motion, received and the proposition acceded to.

F. Mayer, city detective, presented an application for an increase of wages. On motion his salary was increased to $40 per month, to date from October 1, 1878.

Petition from several citizens, for a street lamp on the corner of Third and Harnett streets, was referred to the Committee on Lights.

Petition from Norwood Giles, asking permission to erect a wooden fire-proof building on North Water, between Chestnut and Mulberry streets, was granted.

Petition from J. A. Hacker, asking permission to erect a wooden building on Second, between Princess and Chestnut streets, was granted.

Alderman Planner moved that the bids for furnishing the city with light be referred to a committee.

Alderman Foster called for the eyes and noses.

The roll being called, the Mayor and Aldermen Bowden, Planner, Myers, Volkers and VonGlabn voted aye.

Aldermen Foster, King, Hill and Lowrey voted nay.

On motion the unfinished business was deferred until the next meeting, and the Board adjourned.

The Orphans' Exhibition.

The exhibition by a chapter of orphans from the Oxford Orphan Asylum last night at the Front Street Methodist church under the direction of Mr. J. H. Mills, the kind-hearted Superintendent, was, we learn, highly creditable, both to teacher and pupil. The entertainment consisted of recitations, dialogues and singing, in which the ten little orphans seven of whom are girls and three boys, acted their parts remarkably well, and to the entire satisfaction and gratification of the audience. Clad in their neat and tidy homespun clothes, each little one in turn as it was called before the audience had already the sympathy of all those present, but independent of this feeling of sympathy and charity, which was but natural, the audience, as we have already remarked, were highly gratified with the entertainment.

To-night they give an entertainment at Smithville and to-morrow (Thursday) evening Mr. Mills proposes another exhibition in the First Baptist church of this city. The contributions last night, we understand, were $37.40 and a barrel of hominy.

It is very safe to say that the most fastidious guest never leaves the Colonnade hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., dissatisfied with his visit to that famous hostelry.

OPERA HOUSE.

The New East Lynne.

The rendition of Miss Multon, the Governess; or, New East Lynne, by the Star Alliance at the Opera House last evening, was as fine a piece of acting as we have ever seen on our boards, and we are pleased to say the Company was greeted by a larger audience than on the night before, which is something unusual for Wilmington, and especially so, when other amusements are going on in the city. Several times during the evening the audience was brought to tears, through sympathy for the poor governess and lost wife, while Miss Alice Vane was enacting her dual parts. As an emotional actress, she will lose nothing by comparison with others assuming the same role. Her acting was so true to nature that her audience at once lost sight of the fact that she was merely acting a studied part, which has been essayed by others with far less effect, and even the eyes of stalwart men were dimmed with tears.

Miss Isabel Vane was clever as "Paul" and Miss Fay Templeton, as Jennie De La Tour, was charmingly bewitching. She has the germ of great artistic genius and with the careful training she is receiving will bloom out in due time an artist of rare talent. As yet a mere child, she plays her parts in so creditable a manner that her audience give her such encomiums as are received by older and more experienced actresses.

Miss Stanford and Miss Heywood acted their parts well. Mr. Burton Adams as Mons Belin was admirable and received the hearty applause of the audience.

Mr. Bird was clever in his role and showed himself a natural actor. At the death-bed scene where, Miss Multon, the Governess, throws off the disguise and reveals herself to her children, a death like silence prevailed the whole house and the curtain went down on a touching tableau.

Miss Vane was compelled to appear before the curtain in response to long, hearty applause.

The evening's entertainment concluded with "Aimee," a comic and operatic extravaganza in which the entire company appeared, which was heartily enjoyed and received.

To-night the company will perform Puck in which it is said they excel. Messrs. Templeton and Fuller will be the comedians and from what we know of their talents we would advise every one to attend the farewell performance of the troupe.

Row Nipped.

What might have been a serious affair was nipped in the bud in Georgetown on Monday last by the appearance of the revenue cutter Crawford. There was a joint political speaking advertised for that day and crowds came from miles around to listen to the discussion. During the day a Republican negro struck a Democratic colored man because forsooth he dared announce himself a Democrat. A general free fight grew out of it, and the whites protected the "Democrat." A cavalry company of the town rushed in to quell the row and disperse the crowd, which only exasperated the infuriated mob, and the Crawford, which was lying in the stream, was signaled for. She ran up to the foot of the main street, shoved out her guns and Capt. Glover went ashore for instructions from the Custom House officials. The sight of the guns had a soothing effect on the mob, which dispersed in hot haste. The Crawford remained there all night and as every thing was quiet came to this city this morning.

Receipts and Exports.

The following exhibit of receipts and exports at this port will prove of interest. The receipts last week, the first week in October, i. e. from the 1st to the 7th inst., six working days, is as follows, as compared with the same week last year:

Cotton	—1025 bales, against 2,549 in 1877.
Spirits	—1,361 casks, against 1,258 in 1877.
Rosin	—9,162 barrels, against 7,319 in 1877.
Tar	—885 barrels, against 442 in 1877.
Crude Turpentine	—1,984 barrels, against 882 in 1877.

As will be seen the gain in every instance is a very handsome one. We have only at hand the exports in cotton for the two years. From September 1st 1878 to October 9th, 1878, there have been shipped from this port 5,855 bales of cotton against 1,971 bales for same period last year, showing a gain in favor of this year, of 3,884 bales, or an increase on last year of over three-hundred per cent.

A Sad Picture.

There is a terrible picture of destitution, death and suffering in the following acknowledgment just received by the ladies of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in this city, in response to the box of clothing sent by them to the sufferers in Memphis.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 3d, 1878. Ladies of St. Paul's Ev. Luth. Church, Wilmington, N. C.:

The box of clothing was received by us last Monday, the 30th of September. I have to beg your pardon for not acknowledging the receipt of same sooner; but if you can imagine how busy I have been for the last week you will excuse me. I am the last one up attending to our distressed and sick, and burying the dead. A. F. Schulze, of our Committee, and his wife are dead; G. A. Junkermann is down with the fever now; myself, wife, and six children have all had the fever; two of my children died, but my wife and four children are convalescent.

We have a large number of German orphan children, and a large number of widows with small children—all poor and helpless. I shudder when I think what these poor people will do, even if the fever is over, and winter is at our doors.

A good number of these poor creatures have been at our headquarters, and have fitted themselves out of your timely donations as best they could. In their name, kind-hearted ladies, I thank you with all my heart, and hope that such suffering as we witness may never visit your homes.

With kind contributions from abroad, and about $1,600 in money from our own treasury, we have provided for about sixty-one destitute families, and this will have to continue for at least a month longer. You can imagine how violent the plague is, that out of 23 members of the German Bruder Bund who remained here, we have buried up to date 17, and a large portion of their families.

The total number of deaths up to date, officially reported, is 2,733, and to my own knowledge, a large number were never reported. The German people, in proportion, have suffered more than any other nationality. I hope our means will be increased so that we can continue to distribute among them.

Again thanking you, kind ladies, for your generosity, I remain, yours respectfully, HERMAN SCHULZE, Chairman Relief Com. Deutscher Bruder Bund.
