The rifle teams of the two military companies are practicing daily. They make fine scores and will doubtless bring back the prize of from the State Fair.
It is stated that if brooms are wet in boiling suds once a week they become very tough, will not cut the carpet, will last much longer, and will always sweep like a new article.
Joy is a shy bird, but when a man comes unexpectedly across a two-dollar bill in the pocket of an old vest laid aside last winter, it flaps its wings and crows as loud as anybody's chicken.
New Jersey Premium Wine.
Physicians state that the Port Wines that took the premium at the Centennial, produced and offered for sale by Mr. Alfred Speer, of New Jersey, are wines that can be safely used for medicinal purposes, being pure and free from medication, and are more reliable than other Port Wines. For sale by Green & Flannery.

Publications.
There are at present two dailies four weeklies, one literary monthly, one medical monthly, one agricultural monthly and one amateur monthly, published in Wilmington. In a few days another daily will be added to the list, making in all eleven publications sent out of this city as candidates for public patronage.
Senator Merrimon Declines for the Present.
In response to an invitation extended to Senator Merrimon by some of our prominent citizens, to visit this city and address the citizens of Wilmington upon the political issues of the day, the following telegram was received here last night, dated and addressed as follows:
RALPH, N. C., Oct. 10, 1878.
MESSRS. A. H. VANBORKELEN AND OTHERS:—
I regret that I cannot, at this time, accept your invitation. I will write to you by to-morrow's mail.
(Signed) A. S. MERRIMON.
In Caswell Township
We understand that a number of gentlemen at Point Caswell, some Democrats and some Greenbackers, have united in an invitation to Judge Russell and Maj. McClammy to address the people of Caswell township, at Point Caswell, on next Wednesday week, the 23d inst., and it is presumed that they will both accept.
Hon. A. M. Waldell has made an appointment at Gum Precinct, in Caswell township, on the last Wednesday in this month, the 30th inst., when the biggest sort of a turnout is expected.
Premonitory Symptoms
Young man, listen while we whisper to you. If you wake up in the middle of the night and imagine that you are a great man, that your name is upon everybody's lips, that you preside daily at high-toned banquets, that you wear a plug hat and a new fall overcoat, that the present is as pleasant as a flower garden in May, that the future is as brilliant as a ten-acre lot lit up with Chinese lanterns, that silver dollars are worth one hundred cents, and that you've paid your tailor, and owe nothing—don't think you're about to be sick, or that you're a newspaper reporter. No, sir; in our humble opinion the above are only the premonitory symptoms of a candidate for office in the Greenback party.

Literary.
A QUIET LIFE. A Love Story. By Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Wilmington: P. Heinsberger.
"A Quiet Life," is a perfect, charming, and entertaining love story. The characters are wonderfully life-like, are admirably pictured, and are imbued with the same freshness, tenderness and power which characterized "Kathleen," "Theo," and "Miss Crespieny." It is a pretty, innocent, love story, told with great power and skill, is pure in refinement and action, while the plot is sustained with absorbing interest, and exhibits all the graces of Mrs. Burnett's style, and it will be found to be quite worthy of the author of "That Lass o' Lowrie's."
MARRYING OFF A DAUGHTER. By Henry Greville. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Wilmington: P. Heinsberger.
Marrying off a Daughter, by Henry Greville, translated from the French by Mary Neal Sherwood, is gay, sparkling, and full of quiet humor, while the individuality of the characters is very marked. We have, among others, a Russian Countess, a Polish Colonel, and a gay young lover, who are admirably depicted. The lady travels all over Europe to find a desirable parti for her pretty daughter, who has a tolerable dowry, but also husband after husband slips through the meshes of the net woven by the mother. The why seems never to be understood by Madame La Comtesse, while shrewdly suspected by the daughter who displays a singular mixture of girlish innocence and knowledge of the world—born of a singular education which it has been her unhappy lot to receive. In the Colonel we find something of the Dick Swiveller and also of the Micawber—waiting for "something to turn up." Then there is the gay young lover, but it is not best to tell the whole story here. Suffice it to say, the book will be read and enjoyed by thousands.
Mr. George F. Tilley, at his stall in the Market House, has some beautiful, delicious-looking Sampson county beef. Call and see it.
Such a combined effort upon the part of all its attaches is always made to please its guests, that the visitor to the Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., is pretty sure to return.

The Wilmington Light Infantry.
An important meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry is called for this evening and the members of the Veteran Corps are earnestly invited to attend. The matters for discussion are relative to the proposed visit of the Company to the State Fair next week.
We are sorry to see such an indisposition on the part of employers in this city to allow their young men who may be members of this organization, a leave of absence for two days to visit the Fair. We know that it is a busy season with everybody just at this time and that every man is needed at his post and this is, indeed, the cause why it is so hard to spare them but yet we submit that there are other reasons which should enter into the matter. The Wilmington Light Infantry carry the champion flag of the State, which they captured at Raleigh last year and it is a matter of pride with the entire community that they should return it with full ranks with a reasonable hope of retaining it for another year and not send it back in charge of a corporals' guard as though they were afraid to enter this year in the lists where they were crowned victors at the last Fair. At present, with the utmost exertion, there are but twelve names entered of those who are sure of being able to go to Raleigh next week, whereas the company carried up last year, if we remember rightly, some thirty odd men, and that, too, at the same busy season of the year.
We commend this matter to the attention of our merchants and others interested. It is not our province to interfere in any manner with the business arrangements of others but we cannot forbear an earnest appeal for full ranks for all of our gallant companies in their attendance next week at the State Fair.
The Peanut Crop.
Messrs. Mellen, Brown & Co., of Cincinnati, have issued a circular relative to the peanut crop which is of interest. The Tennessee crop for the year ending September 30th, 1878, was 305,000 bushels, against 500,000 for the year previous, in Virginia the crop was 405,000 against 780,000 last year, and in North Carolina, it was only 85,000, against 125,000 in 1877. The growing crop, i. e., for 1878-79, is estimated at 400,000 bushels for Tennessee, 800,000 for Virginia, and 90,000 for North Carolina. The crop for this State promises to be about the same as to quality, as last year. A new feature with this crop is the largely increased amount shelled, one estimate being that one-fifth of the crop was taken in this way.
The North Carolina crop of peas finds its way into other markets through this port, there now being three different firms here in Wilmington engaged in buying, shelling and shipping the peas.
An Age of Competition.
In this day of the world competition is active in the extreme. But in the long run it's the best which wins the prize of public preference in spite of all the deceptions used to bolster up weak articles. For this reason DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is recognized as the highest possible achievement in baking powder.

Only 50 cents per month to city subscribers. Office corner Water and Chestnut streets.

Only.
The only excitement on Front street was caused by a man trying to carry a cow off and the cow trying to carry the man off. A rope was tied around the animal's horns, but not liking it, she threw her head in so many positions for tableaux, that the man's arms were nearly twisted out of their sockets.
Criminal Court.
The following cases were disposed of to-day:
State vs. Wm. Jones, Peace warrant. Dismissed at defendant's cost.
State vs. Mary Santee, larceny. Jury failed to agree. Mis-trial.
State vs. George Ellis, larceny. Verdict not guilty.
State vs. Ben Pilyaw, forcible trespass. Verdict guilty.
State vs. Handy Jones, larceny. On trial.
The Columbus County Murder Case
We understand that a preliminary trial before two magistrates, of George Littleton and his brother Max Littleton, for the alleged murder of a man supposed to be J. T. Randall, of Georgia, near the latter's house in Columbus, on or about the 1st inst., will take place at Robeson's, on the Carolina Central Railway, to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. Marsden Bellamy, Esq., of this city, has been retained as counsel for the defence.
Up to this hour of writing there has been no answer received in reply to the dispatch sent yesterday by Officer Bunting, notifying the Mayor of Social Circle, Georgia, of the arrest of George Littleton, who was supposed to be connected with a previous murder of a young woman at that place some two weeks ago.
The Elections.
We publish on the fourth page of this issue some reports in regard to the results of the elections in the West which arrived here this forenoon by mail and are therefore later than the telegrams received here last night. It will be seen that we have gained three Congressmen in Ohio and have gained three in Indiana, besides carrying that State by a large popular majority. Iowa, heretofore solidly Radical in the House, has been broken into at last, Greenback-Democrats having secured two of the Congressmen. Besides, the Republican majority in that state has been pulled down very handsomely. In West Virginia we failed to make any gains simply because there was nothing there to gain, everything having already been Democratic. The Radicals carry their State ticket in Ohio by an increased majority. It was a good day's work all along the line and our friends have done well.
The matter of gas, oil or gasoline will be looked into by the Board of Aldermen this evening. No matter what their decision may be, light will be made of it. Goak!
It would be an absurdity to present a draft payable at sight to a blind man.
