It is said the Mayor will issue his proclamation, at an early day, calling in all the straw hats.

British Brigantine Zeland, incorrectly reported by us yesterday, is consigned to Messrs. Willard Bros. & Mebane.

The Cape Fear Baptist Association meets with White Marsh church, Columbus county, near Whiteville, on Thursday of next week, the 24th inst.

We invite attention to advertisements of Messrs. Johnson and Hicks. These gentlemen have in store some beautiful goods in their line, among others some of the prettiest wall paper patterns we have ever seen here. Give them a call.

The new shoe store on Market street makes its appearance in our advertising columns to-day. With an elegant new stock, nice goods and cheap prices, Mr. Rosenthal is determined to press his claims to public attention and therefore very wisely advertises in the REVIEW.

Col. Waddell's Health.

From a letter received here to-day by Captain Chas. D. Myers, we regret to learn that Colonel Waddell was suffering from a severe cold, contracted while speaking in the open air, which had settled on his chest and caused him to apprehend inflammation of the lungs. From the tenor of the letter, however, we judge that there is no immediate danger of an attack of this kind, but the writer, who is Colonel Waddell himself, said he would necessarily have to be very cautious.

The letter is dated at Fayetteville and written on the 13th inst.

City Court.

His Honor Mayor Fishplate presiding. Thomas Smith, a great big double-jointed, big-fisted fellow who has given the police a little trouble on several previous occasions, was arrested for disorderly conduct in Paddy's Hollow last night and carried to the Guard House. He was arraigned this morning before the Mayor and sentenced to pay a fine of $10, or fifteen days in the City Prison.

Charles Anderson, a transient boarder in the Hollow, was arrested for being drunk and disorderly and fined $5, or ten days in the City Prison.

Neither of the parties above mentioned being Greenback men, they had to go to their cells below where they will board at the expense of the city until the expiration of their term of sentence.

New Jersey Premium Wine.

Physicians state that the Port Wines that took the premium at the Centennial, produced and offered for sale by Mr. Alfred Speer, of New Jersey, are wines that can be safely used for medicinal purposes, being pure and free from medication, and are more reliable than other Port Wines. For sale by Green & Flanner.

For Upwards of Thirty Years

Mrs. WINSLOW'S SYRUP has been used for children. It corrects acidity of the stomach, relieves wind colic, regulates the bowels, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other cause. An old and well-tried remedy. 25 cents a bottle. d & w.

Such a combined effort upon the part of all its attaches is always made to please its guests, that the visitor to the Commodore Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., is pretty sure to return.

Whose Fault is It?

The Wilmington Light Infantry, who won the flag last year, have only a color guard present.—Raleigh Observer.

And whose fault is it that the Company could not muster more than a color guard to take with them to the State Fair? whose but that of your Adjutant-General who ordered it so that their attendance would be required for four days? It was this inconsiderate arrangement that thinned their ranks. Last year they were gone but two days and carried thirty-two men. This year it will take four day's absence and they carried less than half that number. A merchant might be willing to give his employes a two day's leave but at this busy season of the year he can't afford to have a whole week broken into.

Fun on Market Street.

It was rather amusing, this morning, to see the efforts of a couple of colored people with their big scoop nets, trying to capture a nice-looking porker, who was quietly rooting over the offal collected through the night on Market, between Front and Second streets. He was a nice-looking fellow, (the hog, not either of the darkies), and would weigh about 200 pounds, but he had a "weather eye lifting" on those scoop nets, and just when they had nearly entangled him and the darkies were sure of his capture, he slipped out from their meshes with a complacent grunt and trotted off, causing a general laugh among the bystanders. In this way he managed to elude three or four of their attempts, when he was captured and had the benefit of a free ride to the pound.

Jewish Festivals.

This is now the season of festivals with the Hebrew people. In the past two weeks have occurred Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur, and now we are in the midst of Succoth, or the "Feast of Tabernacles" which continues for seven days. It is a feast of rejoicing in celebration of the harvest in-gathering. It is in commemoration of the booths in which the Israelites dwelt after their exodus from Egypt. The first two days are considered sacred, and are called "Mikru Kodsh," or "Holy Convocations." "Hoshanna-Rabb," the seventh day of the "Feast of Tabernacles," is observed in a solemn manner. Prayers are invoked that the following year may not be one of drought.

The eighth day of the "Feast of Tabernacles," or "Branches," is called "Shemini Azberas," or a "day of solemn assembly." It is also called the "Rejoicing of the Law," because it is a solemnity in memory of the termination of the reading of the Law. On this day the last section of the Pentateuch is read, and the first section immediately commenced. The following Sabbath is termed "Shabbath Bereshith," this being the last of the holidays, great enjoyment is manifested in all the synagogues.

Improvements on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad at Halifax, N. C.

Yesterday we mentioned the improvements being made by the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. Co. at Magnolia, and to-day, through the courtesy of Capt. John Barry, who kindly furnished us the information, and under whose immediate supervision the work has been completed, we are enabled to tell our readers of an important change for the better which has been made by the railroad company at Halifax. During the past season an entirely new track of two miles in length has been made and a stone culvert, 150 feet long, has been put in and the grade of the road cut down ten feet. By this latter improvement freight engines are enabled to move without difficulty nearly double the amount of tonnage they could before the change in the grade. The culvert is one of the largest in the State, and is built in the most thorough and substantial manner. Halifax is one of the thriving towns of Eastern North Carolina, and Halifax county, of which it is the county seat, is one of the best and largest cotton producing counties in the State, and this improvement, made by the railroad company, will greatly facilitate the shipment and transportation of that prominent staple.

What a Satisfaction

It is to have elegant, light, wholesome rolls, biscuits, muffins, waffles, or corn bread for breakfast; no grumbling or sour faces then. DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER makes all these things perfection itself.

The Columbus County Outrage—The Slain Man's Brother Arrives at Whiteville and Identifies his Murdered Brother's Watch and Coat—Littleton Confesses to the Deed, but Says it was Done in Self-Defence.

We were shown a private letter this morning from Mr. A. F. Toon, the Coroner of Columbus county, dated at Whiteville yesterday, from which we are permitted to make the following extract in regard to young Randle, the recent victim of George I. Littleton's diabolical malice. The extract is as follows:

Young Randle's brother and his brother-in-law are here. Don't think they will go to your place. Littleton has acknowledged killing Randle, but says it was in self-defence. Young Randle recognized the coat and watch Littleton had on as being those of his brother's.

The above is the latest information that we can gather in regard to this shocking affair, which sent such a thrill of horror throughout this community upon the receipt of the first intelligence concerning the horrible crime. What will be the effect of Littleton's confession it is difficult to say. It is just barely possible that the gallows may be cheated out of its own, and the penitentiary claim him for life. If Littleton had surrendered himself as soon as the deed was done and then claimed that his act was one of self-defence, his chances would have been better for acquittal, and no matter what the truth of his statement in reference to his justification for the act, as there were no witnesses, the law would have been compelled to have yielded him the benefit of the doubt. But on the contrary, his conduct was nothing like that of an injured or innocent man, who was compelled to take the life of his fellow-man in order to save his own, but quite the reverse. The dead man's pockets were rifled of their contents, his mutilated body stripped of its apparel and his valise containing his other effects, among which were many private letters of a delicate and tender nature, taken possession of by the vile wretch who had taken the unfortunate man's life. From all the information up to the present time that can be obtained in regard to this matter, we think it one of the most heartless, cold-blooded and atrocious murders that we have heard of in modern times.

Off for the Work House and Penitentiary.

At the recent term of the Criminal Court in this city, there were seven convicts sentenced to the Work House and eight to the Penitentiary, as follows:

Dick Washington, for assault and battery, was sentenced to 60 days in the County Work House.

George Gause, Louis Jackson, Caroline Frank and Susan Frank, upon the same charge, were convicted and sentenced each to 15 days in the Work House.

Geo. L. Jones upon the same charge, was sentenced to 60 days, Mary Eliza Lively upon a peace warrant, was given six months residence at the same place and Robert Nash, convicted of larceny, 2 years.

Charles King, for larceny, was sentenced to 5 years in the Penitentiary.

LeGrand Barber, forgery, 6 years. William Jones alias Pompey Sneed, larceny, 4 years.

James Walker, larceny, 5 years. Benj. Person, larceny, 2 years.

Edmund Foy, larceny, 2 years. Donas Rogers, larceny, 5 years.

Thomas Hawkins, alias Monroe Hawkins, larceny, 5 years.

The first named in the above list of Penitentiary convicts, is white, and all the rest colored.

The convicts to the Work House are all colored and have been turned over to Duncan Holmes, the colored Superintendent of the same, who has signed a receipt to the Sheriff for the prisoners.

The Penitentiary convicts left this morning for Raleigh in charge of Sheriff Manning's three colored deputies, viz: Dan Howard, Jno. H. Brown and T. C. Miller.

The Second District.

Advices from Goldsboro to the REVIEW convey the information that at the Republican Convention of the Second District held at Kinston yesterday, James H. Harris, col., of Warrenton, late of Wake, received the nomination for Congress from that District. Lott Humphry and Brogden were both in the field and were both completely distanced by the colored man brother. This improves Capt. Kitchen's chances wonderfully. There are now four candidates in the field. Capt. Kitchen, Democrat; O'Hara and Harris, Republican, and Morris, National. Brogden's majority in this District over Green, in 1875, was 9,146.

Pender County Canvass.

The Democrats in Pender county have determined on a vigorous canvass during the remainder of the time, and will make it lively from this date, until the day of election. Mr. C. W. McClammy, Messrs. R. K. Bryan, J. T. Armstrong and others will address the people at the following times and places:

Death of a Well Known Physician.

We have just learned of the death of a very eminent physician, and in some respects a very remarkable man, Dr. Philip A. Aylett, which occurred in New York City on the 2d inst.

Dr. Aylett has been connected with the medical department of the University of New York for the past thirty years, and there is not a student from North Carolina, or the South, during the past quarter of a century but will remember him. He had been completely blind for a long time the result, we believe, of some severe disease when he was a young man, a fact which did not prevent the discharge of his professional duties, intelligently and correctly. He was remarkable, we remember, for one thing in particular and that was his almost miraculous recognition of the tones of the human voice. It was by this means alone that he could carry his acquaintances in his mind and it has been often asserted of him that, once introduced to people they were never forgotten, five minutes conversation having been sufficient to implant the voice and the circumstances of the meeting indelibly on his memory.

Dr. Aylett was 57 years of age at the time of his death. He was a learned man and a pious, Christian gentleman.
