There was a substantial frost in this section yesterday morning but the blight to vegetation seems to have been very slight.
 Mr. George Ziegler, a well known cigar manufacturer of Raleigh, contemplates moving to this city in a short time to start a factory here.

Mr. Antonio Rush advertises a first-class grocery in this issue of the REVIEW. He will be pleased to see old friends and any new ones who will call on him. He keeps a small but fresh stock of choice groceries.

A Runaway

Considerable excitement was caused on Second and Princess streets to-day by the runaway of a horse attached to a light spring-cart, the property of Duncan Holmes, colored. The horse brought to among the trees near the Court House and overturned the vehicle on the sidewalk. The damages were light.

Bit by a Dog.

John Wright, col., was badly bitten on the leg yesterday, in the Eastern part of the city, by a dog belonging to John Davis, also colored. Dr. Love, who was called in, says that the wound is quite a severe one and that it will be several days before the injured man will be able to go to work again.

Swatlike.

The harbor opposite the foot of Castle street had quite a warlike appearance on yesterday, and reminded many of the fall of Wilmington during the late unpleasantness. There were eight large square rigged vessels lying close together and reminding one very forcibly of the fleet of men of war which came to this city on the morning of the 22nd of February, 1865.

Neuralgia and Rheumatism.

A correspondent of the Germantown Telegraph says: A simple remedy for neuralgia is to boil a small handful of lobelia in half a pint of water till the strength is out of the herb, then strain it off and add a teaspoonful of fine salt. Wring cloths out of the liquid as hot as possible, and spread over the part affected. It acts like a charm. Change the cloths as soon as cold till the pain is all gone; then cover the place with a soft, dry covering till the perspiration is over, to prevent taking cold. Rheumatism can often be relieved by application to the painful parts of cloths wet in a weak solution of sal soda water. If there is inflammation in the joints, the cure is very quick. The wash should be lukewarm.

The Glass Ball Shooting at Raleigh

The score published by us a few days since, relative to the glass ball shooting at the Fair in Raleigh, for the hunting suit and the Remington gun, which we got from the Raleigh Observer, was incorrect, and as the Observer has made a correction it is now in order for us to do so. We stated that Mr. Creech had won the suit and Mr. Ed. Engelhard the gun, whereas Mr. Engelhard won both the suit and the gun. Mr. E's score for the suit was 11 out of 12 balls and Mr. Creech's 10 out of 12. In the contest for the gun Mr. Engelhard and Mr. Creech tied at 15 out of 16 balls, and in the after contest to decide the tie; Mr. Engelhard broke 5 balls out of 5 and Mr. Creech 3 out of 5. Mr. Engelhard shot with an American gun, the others being English, and against some of the very best shots in the State. In the two contests he broke 31 out of 33 balls, which ranks with some of Bogardus' best.

North Carolina Medical Journal.

We have heretofore failed to notice the last number of this excellent publication for the reason, that not being altogether conversant with the technical terms and phrases used in the profession of medicine, we transferred our number to an eminent gentleman of that profession, with the request that he would look over the Journal, read and inwardly digest, and then write us a notice of the same for publication. But our friend, who, when the spirit moves him, wields an easy, graceful and fluent pen, and, when the occasion demands, a very vigorous one also, has thus far failed to respond to our request. But the number seems to be one of such unusual merit, even to our unprofessional eye, that we are loth to let it pass unnoticed, and would fain make an effort as a public journalist to testify our appreciation of an enterprise so deserving of success and to record our humble approval of the interesting facts and matter, even to a mind uneducated in the science of medicine, that are contained in the last number of the Medical Journal.

Among the interesting papers are the monthly letters from New York and Paris, the former from our talented and esteemed fellow townsman, Dr. M. John DeRosset, now practicing medicine in New York city, and the latter from another talented North Carolinian, Dr. Edward J. Warren, who has attained to high distinction abroad, and is now practicing medicine in Paris.

But none deserve more credit for the success of this undertaking than does the able resident and managing editor, Dr. Thomas F. Wood. But for the signal ability and individual energy displayed by this gentleman, the enterprise would never have attained to its present high standing among the periodicals of the day.

The Medical Journal is published in Wilmington at $3.00 a year, Doctors M. J. DeRosset and Thomas F. Wood, editors.

Failure of Col Davis.

We regret to learn, as we do from a letter received in this city, of the failure of Col. J. R. Davis, proprietor of the Purcell House, in Norfolk. This will be heard with real regret by all of our citizens, among whom Col. Davis was so well known. The Purcell House in Norfolk was one of the best-kept hotels in the Southern country—indeed, there was none better anywhere—and it is distressing to know that after nearly a year of hard labor in the effort to make his business a permanent success Col. Davis has been compelled to yield to the terrible stringency of the times and to close his house. We can but trust that better times may place our energetic friend on his feet once more.

Sad Accident.

We regret to learn of the sudden death of a very worthy young man near Stewart's Creek, in Sampson county, last Friday, under the following circumstances: It seems that Mr. Murphy and two of his brothers were out squirrel hunting, when the former fired and killed a squirrel from the top of a very tall tree, but in falling the squirrel lodged among the boughs. Young Murphy determined to have the game anyhow, climbed the tree, and when nearly to the top rested for a moment on a limb which, being rotten, gave way and precipitated him to the ground, a distance of some thirty or forty feet, mangling the young man's body terribly and killing him instantly. The deceased was about twenty-five years of age and the son of William Murphy, Esq., of Sampson.

A Handsome New Tug.

The new steam tug Blanche, Captain Jacobs, arrived here this morning from Philadelphia to take service at this port. The Blanche is a beautiful new boat, just from the builders' hands, and is owned by Messrs. Frederick, Wilson and Bradford, of that city. She is 95 feet in length over all, 17 1/2 feet beam, and 10 feet depth of hold. Her engine is a large surface condenser, with 20 inch bore and 22 inch stroke, and she registers 94.24 tons.

The trip from Philadelphia, where she was built, to Smithville, which was her first trip, by the way, was made in 54 hours. She is a very handsome boat and with her experienced commander, Capt. Jacobs, will do good service here.

Petty Frauds and Swindlers.
 Beware of Baking Powders which are put up short weights. A manufacturer who swindles, knowingly, in weight will not hesitate to sell adulterated baking powder. DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER has a world-wide reputation for perfect purity and always being full weight. It bears every test for superior excellence.

Serious Illness of Hon. A. M. Waddell.

As will be seen from the communication published below from Capt. Chas. D. Myers, Chairman of the Congressional Executive Committee, our distinguished Representative, Col. A. M. Waddell, is seriously ill at his residence in this city. We learned from a connection of the family this morning that Col. Waddell's attending physician spent the most of the night with him on last Friday night, and that on Saturday night Dr. Anderson, the physician referred to above, remained throughout the entire night, laboring under the impression that it was doubtful whether his patient would be alive the next morning. But we are happy to state on good authority that Col. Waddell is much improved to-day and is now thought to be out of danger, though his physician says that he will not be able to enter the canvass again during the present campaign. This will be much regretted by Col. Waddell's constituents everywhere. But the energetic Chairman of the District Committee will use every effort, we are assured, to have Col. Waddell's appointments filled by other able Democratic speakers:

HEADQUARTERS DEM. EX. COM.,
 Oct. 21st, 1878.
 TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY REVIEW
 Dear Sir—Hon. A. M. Waddell returned from Fayetteville on Friday, 18th inst., and has since been very dangerously ill at his residence with congestion of the lungs, caused by cold contracted during the canvass. His physician, Dr. E. A. Anderson, who has remained with him night and day, pronounces him to-day as out of danger and convalescing. I am pleased to say that his appointments for Moore and Hargett and at White House, in Sampson, are being filled by J. H. Myrover, Esq., and the appointments for Cartaret on the 23d, 24th and 26, and an additional one at Hunting Quarters will be filled by Hon. J. G. Scott, of Onslow, and J. D. Stanford, Esq., of Duplin.
 Very respectfully, your ob't. serv't.
 CHAS. D. MYERS,
 Chairman Dem. Ex. Committee.

Burbank's Pharmacy.

Mr. T. S. Burbank left here this morning en-route for New York, where he goes for the purpose of attending a course of medical lectures. His drug business has been left in the hands of Mr. Thos. C. James, a competent druggist of several years' experience, under whose management the business will hereafter be conducted. Mr. James appears in a card in this issue and solicits the continued patronage of the public.

Happy Hearts.

Our young friend, Harry Loeb, Esq., of this city, is to be married to-morrow morning, in Raleigh, to Miss Bessie Batchelor, daughter of J. B. Batchelor, Esq., of that city. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple will depart Northward, for a bridal tour. Our best wishes go with them.
