Cloudy and cool to-day.

Two cart loads of fish were condemned and sent out of market to-day by Mr. Williams, Clerk of the Market.

The city authorities will not grant the Frenchman a license to show his bear on the street because bears gather a sufficient crowd to block up the sidewalk.

Mr. T. D. McCaleb has established, in connection with his business, a city delivery for packages. This will supply a necessity long felt. See his adverti ement in another column.

Hard to Find.

The Gnashional Greenbackers of this city are considerably exercised over the collusion between Judge Russell and Mr. Canaday. It is almost as difficult to find a member of that nominating convention as it is to pick up a man who donated to Katie Putnam's watch.

First Ward Democrats.

The First Ward Democratic Club will meet to-night at Brooklyn Hall at 71 o'clock to make arrangements for the grand Mass Meeting which is to take place in this city on Monday evening next. Prominent speakers will be on hand to address the meeting. Every man who considers himself a good Democrat, residing in the First Ward, is expected to attend. "March on, ye braves," Attention Fifth Warders.

There will be a meeting of the Fifth Ward Democratic Club at the Fifth Ward Bucket Company's Hall to-night at 71 olclock. Mayor Fishblate and F. H. Darby, Esq., are expected to address the meeting. Other speakers will also be there. Let every Fifth Warder be on hand without foil, and in the language of Captain Jno. W. Galloway, "Have a rousing, rip-rearing time of it."

Misplaced Confidence.

This morning a colored man called at the office of our friend, Mr. F. A. Newbury, and inquired the price of some chickens which were in a coop on the sidewalk. Mr. N. told the man to pick out one that would suit, stating the price, &c., which the darkey proceeded to Col. Roger Moore's remarks were dedo. Mr. N. stepped across the street, for a moment, and when he came back the purchaser had removed and with him one of the best chickens in the lot. greeted his utterances. Col. Personal.

Dr. J. Francis King and Mrs. King sailed for New York on the 17th inst. and were to have arrived in that city yesterday. They will spend a few days with relatives North and expect to return to this city next week.

In a Well.

While chasing a nimble reynard a few days ago, the horse on which Mr. Preston Cumming was riding fell into an old well, which was probably dug during the war by some of the soldiers encamped near this city. Fortunately, the horse was only bruised, and Mr. Cumming escaped unhurt, because of a flying leap which would make Dan Castello or Gnashional Dan look to their laurels.

The Joint Stock Association.

The Ladies' Joint Stock Association, the colorea organization which we some weeks since referred to as being in a highly prosperous condition, met at the house of James H. Lowrey on the evening of the 22d inst., and organized under their charter. Elias Halsev, their agent, was the recipient of a fine gold-headed cane, a present from the Association. The presentation speech was made by G. P. Rourk in a very happy and pleasant manner.

A bountiful repast was then served, the tables groaning under the weight of the good things spread upon them, to which the members and their invited guests did ample justice.

Return of the Nurses.

Messrs. Jno. C. Bauman and Geo. A. Poppe, volunteer nurses from this city, arrived at Flemington this morning and notified Mayor Fishblate of their desire to come into the city. Nurses from other points have returned to their homes, Messrs, Bauman and Poppe felt confident that there can be no danger in their coming to the city, but preferred to get the consent of the authorities before coming. They describe the scene through which they passed in the infected district as heart-rendering and beggaring descip-

They left Mr. McCollum well and good spirits and state that Mr. Brooks has entirely recovered from his attack of yellow jack. Mayor Fishblate having telegraphed his consent to Mr. Bauman and Mr. Poppe to come to the city the gentlemen took the freight train and arrived about 1 o'clock. The Meeting Last Night.

A good many of the Democrats of the Fourth Ward, together with quite a number of members of the same party from other wards in this city, convened at the Court House last night, in accordance with the local notice which appeared in yesterday afternoon's REVIEW. Capt. W. P. Oldham, President of the Club, presided over the meeting, and Wm. A. Wilson, Esq., acted as Secretary.

Matters relating to the organization of discharge of his duty. the Club and the appointment of canvassers for election day were discussed and acted upon, after which several gentlemen present upon being called upon made impromptu speeches. Among the speakers were Mayor Fishblate, Major Durham, Col. Roger Moore and J. I. Macks, Esq., of this city; Col. L. A. Powell, of Sampson, Duncan Cromartie, Esq., of Biaden, and Captain R. P. Paddison, of Pender, were called upon also and gave cheering accounts of their respective counties.

Without meaning any disparagement of the other speakers, we think cidedly appropriate to the occasion, and that they were well received was evinced by the frequent applause which meeting that there had been too much supineness shown by the Democrats of this city. Col. Waddell, continued the speaker, had been left almost alone up to this time to do all the canvassing.

But we have not space for other comments at this time. We do not wish to be considered invidious by quoting from Col. Moore's speech only, but the fact is apropos to the time and occasion that we felt constrained to publish them.

The meeting was harmonious in every particular and after disposing of all the business for which it was called, adjourned subject to the call of the President.

Correction.

The largest receipts of cotton at this port on any day were 4,010 bales. This occurred on the 4th of December, 1877. We were in error, therefore, in our issue of yesterday in stating that the receipts of cotton for that day, amounting to 2,441, were the largest ever known here.

Alarm of Fire.

There was almost a fire last night. Brunswick, the property of Mr. Jno. C. 11 o'clock. No general alarm was given, but Mr. J. W. Moody, officer John Brown the spot, succeeded in suppressing the flames. The fire caught under the house and was undoubtedly an incendiary attempt.

In Distress.

The schooner Fanny Tracy, Captain Tilton, arrived here to-day from Charleston, for Philadelphia, in distress. On Tuesday night, 22d inst., experienced a heavy hurricane from S. E.; blew away sails, broke gaffs and vessel sprung aleak. Threw deck load of lumber overboard. On 24th in Gulf Stream, recovered Capt. by Darley. ting a nuisance was fined $2.50.

The regular proceedings of the court were here interrupted while the Mayor istened to an argument from Major Stedman in behalf of a client, whom His Honor had imposed a fine of $50 upon, for cursing and abusing the city detective in the presence of the Mayor while in the statement the Mayor concluded that there was some mitigating circumstances connected with the conduct of the person in question and ordered that half of the fine be remitted.

This matter disposed of the regular order of business was again taken up and the next case called was that of the notorious Thomas Smith, white, a resident of Paddy's Hollow. The charge was fighting and general disorderly conduct besides striking and resisting the police The case was a very aggravating one, and the defendant being an old offender, His Honor pronounced sentence of thirty days imprisonment in close confinement. This ended the proceedings and the court ad-

Persons who have been dilatory in taking into the house their tender plants and now find them occasionally frostbitten, may be glad to know that English gardeners thaw them out successfully (when not too severely nipped) by sprinkling there copiously with cold water. It is useless, however, to apply the cold water before the temperature rises above the freezing point, for then the cure will be worse than the disease. The disastrous effects of late spring frosts may be remedied in a similar manner.
