LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
LOUIS J. OTTERBOURG—In Connection. Attention Third Ward Democratic Club. H. G. BAOCK, Chief of Police—Ordinance. P. HENSENBERGER—New Books. N. H. SPRUNT—Exchange Corner. A SERIES—Best Unlaundried Shirt for 75c. J. C. MUNDS, Druggist.—Green's August Flower.

Sheer nonsense—trying to cut your own hair.

A lazy cook—one that "fritters" away her time.

The autumn dresses are all cut with long corsages.

Only one unimportant case before the Mayor this morning.

How can you truthfully call a doctor's fees ill-gotten gains?

Wilmington contributed nearly $6,000 to the yellow fever sufferers.

Ability wins us the esteem of the true man; look that of the people.

The Purcell House in Norfolk will not be closed until December 15th.

A lump of white sugar, the size of a pea, flavors oyster stew nicely.

Our ice man looks disconsolate, and so does everybody else's ice man.

Now is the time to plant advertisements for the winter crop of buyers.

"October glows on every cheek," and peach and honey are swallowed weak.

Some men lie abed just as easy as they tell the truth when they are wide awake.

A patch on the seat of a boy's trousers is said to be "something new under the sun."

The Frenchman and his performing bear left the city yesterday about one o'clock.

Some of the Greenbackers have been playing "freeze out" with Gnashional Dan and have "thawed out" and left him in cold despair.

Thanks to the Secretary, Mr. C. R. Jones, for an invitation to the Charlotte Fair, which is to be held on November 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th.

The schooner John Douglass loaded with ice for Mr. J. E. Lippitt which was thought to have gone to Davy Jones' Locker arrived in port this morning right side up.

Dr. J. Francis King returned to the city this morning from his visit to Europe. Mrs. King will remain with relatives in the North for a week or two.

Judge Fowle has been asked to be with us on Monday night, on which occasion suitable resolutions relative to the political demise of Gnashional Dan will be drafted.

The steamer Atlanthus, buoy tender for this part of the coast which towed the Frying Pan Lightship back to her moorings a few days ago, put into this port this morning.

The Commissioners of Navigation and Port Wardens will have a joint meeting at Messrs. J. H. Chadbourne & Co's. office on Saturday next, to elect a Port Warden to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Captain T. F. Peck.

Major J. A. Engelhard is expected in this city on Monday. What a pity that he could not get here Saturday to visit Gnashional Dan at Town Creek, on Saturday. We believe that's where they parted company in 1874, when Russell jumped the balance of his appointments and left Engelhard master of the situation.

Bamboozing.

It was the boast of a broken-down political hack to his clique before the convention met, that if they could not bamboozle the people of this District they were no politicians. They may be fooled some but not enough to defeat the Hon. A. M. Waddell.

If North Carolina is not the mother of Presidents Wilmington seems to be the postoffice of Presidents and great men. In the advertised list of letters in the REVIEW of yesterday were the names, John Q. Adams, W. Buchanan, George Washington and Col. Wm. Tecumseh Cut-lar.

"AS LIGHT AS OCEAN FOAM" is a simile often used. But ocean foam is light in weight, deceptive and vapid; quantity vs. quality. Ladies, use DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, and your baking will be a delight to the eye and the palate. Cake, bread, biscuit, pop-pies and puddings all bear witness to its magic.

Unavailable.

The following unavailable letters remain in the Postoffice here for the want of proper postage prepaid:

Mrs W S Russell, 1,720 Chestnut street Philadelphia, Pa; Sanford Drake, Opelaka, Ala; J A Hinton, Pine Log, N. C.

Four Mails a Week.

A friend, writing us from Point Caswell, glorifies a little over the fact that they have now four mails a week at that thriving little town. He says: "Thanks to Col. Waddell's efforts, we now have as good mail facilities as any place of our size in the State. We have four mails per week; two by the Lisbon route and two by Rocky Point. Six months ago we had only one mail per week."

Col. Fremont.

We are pleased to learn that Col. S. L. Fremont, of this city, has been appointed to a very responsible and important position on the staff of Gen. Gilmore, who has the general charge of works on the Atlantic coast. Col. Fremont goes to Savannah, and by direction of the U. S. Engineering Department, will take charge as assistant to Gen. Gilmore of the river and harbor improvements now in progress there. This work is a very difficult and a very important one, the object being to deepen the Savannah river by removing the shoals and thus make a good, permanent Channel to the city. For this work there is now an appropriation of $70,000 and $150,000 is asked for next year.

We congratulate the good people of Savannah on the fact that the services of Col Fremont have been secured for this important work. He is an old army officer and ranked high in the Engineer service of the Confederate States, and since the war he has been known as one of the best railroad men in the South.

Col. Fremont proposes to remain a citizen of the Old North State, although he may be absent for months on duty elsewhere. For the present he will continue in charge of the State Colored Insane Asylum at Goldsboro, now in progress of erection there.

Dr. Carver Challenged by a Citizen of Brunswick County.

The appearance of Dr. Carver and Texas Jack in this community has aroused the latent fire in many of the heretofore unknown marksmen. Wilmington and vicinity is zealous in keeping up its reputation in all things no matter how trivial it seems to mercantile and deeper minds. Some three years ago Col. Fulton, of the crack Creedmore team, arrived in this city and was soon challenged by Capt. Lilly's team to a test of skill at short distances. A day was appointed for the test and a Wilmingtonian beat Col. Fulton at target practice. We expected to hear of the team challenging Dr. Carver and Texas Jack to a test of their skill, but up to this time Wilmington has kept mum.

Yesterday Mr. Jno. P. Dinhaven, of Brunswick county came to this city for the purpose of challenging Dr. Carver at rifle practice for the championship of the world. Mr. Dinhaven is about 38 years of age and claims to be of Indian origin. He says rifle shooting came naturally to him and seems to have been a gift of nature that no practice could bring to the state of perfection and infallibility he has attained. He has scalloped an old fashioned copper cent, each scallop being a tangent to the other. On one occasion he bored out the center of a copper to the exact size of his little finger and wore it as a ring for some little time; he has put eleven out of twelve balls through the mouth of a small sized pop bottle each ball passing out of the same hole in the bottom of the bottle. He has put five balls in a small Irish potato before it reached the ground, and has killed sixteen out of eighteen ducks all going in opposite directions.

These feats are looked upon by all who have heard of them as being marvellous but Mr. Dinhaven assures us they are easily performed and can be done by almost any one in the same manner in which he did; i. e., he scalloped the copper with a chisel, dropped the balls in the mouth of the bottle, shoved the balls in the Irish potato, and then dropped it and knocked down the ducks with a fishing pole. He says it is easy enough done if you know how.

Gnashional Dan is out in a circular to-day putting himself on Col. Waddell's platform, and puts Col. Waddell on—well, the Gnashional has gotten things mixed.

Democratic Meeting in the First Ward.

The Democrats of the First Ward met last night, according to appointment, at Brooklyn Hall, on Fourth street. There was a good attendance, and the utmost harmony prevailed throughout all their deliberations. The Chair was occupied by Capt. W. M. Parker, President of the Club, and Mr. W. H. Strauss as Secretary.

On motion, the following named gentlemen were appointed, as challengers and canvassers in their respective divisions, by the Chairman:

UPPER DIVISION.
Challengers—O. A. Wiggins and Henry Harris.
Canvassers—John Fillyaw, James Bagby, C. Schulken, John Thornton and Archie Alderman.

LOWER DIVISION.
Challengers—W. D. Mahn and J. M. Henderson.
Canvassers—John L. Dudley, Julius Hahn, Frank Maunder, L. L. Boone and W. D. Mahn.

On motion, it was ordered that the flag of the Club be raised every day until the election, and Mr. Julius Hahn was delegated to attend to that duty.

A committee was appointed to confer with the Central Committee to make arrangements for the Grand Mass Meeting next Monday night.

The Committee of Arrangements were instructed to invite Hon. A. M. Waddell to address the voters of the First Ward next Friday night, and, in the event of his inability to do so, to invite some other speaker or speakers to address them.

Brief but appropriate remarks were made by Messrs. Parker, Wiggins and Dudley, in which the necessity of earnest work was strongly urged, after which the meeting adjourned, to meet again at 7 o'clock next Monday night, (unless sooner called together) to attend in a body the Mass Meeting.

The most entire harmony and lively good humor prevailed, and all seemed impressed with the idea that the withdrawal of Canada in favor of Russell was simply the same old dose of Radical jalap in a slightly different form, but retaining all the same nauseating effects.

Hours for Registration.

According to the official announcement, as has been published in the advertising columns of this paper, the hours and places of registration in the various Wards in this city are as follows:

First Ward, Upper Division, books open all day at Fillyaw's store, corner Fourth and Bladen streets.

First Ward, Lower Division, books open all day, at Conoley's store, corner Fourth and Hanover streets.

Second Ward, books open from 12 m. to 2 p. m., opposite Court House.

Third Ward, books open from 12 m. to 2 p. m., at corner Fourth and Princess streets.

Fourth Ward, books open from 12 m. to 2 p. m., at James Kendrick's house on Church, between Fourth and Fifth streets.

Fifth Ward, books open all day, at Millis' store, on Front, between Church and Castle streets.

Grand Days.

To-day is opening day at Exchange Corner and as we knew we could see all of the latest artificial beauties at Mr. Sprunt's establishment, we directed our steps to his millinery department, where, bless our eyes! we not only saw artificial beauties but a bevy of the beauties of this city, natural flesh and blood. Being diffident we retreated, but the way the ladies enjoyed the display can only be told in their own way by the use of adjectives and epithets. An enthusiastic admirer and purchaser in the other sex remarked to us that "it is the prettiest and handsomest display I ever saw." To-morrow and next day are also opening days as will be seen by advertisement in the REVIEW.

The Fifth Ward.

Owing to some misunderstanding in regard to the place of meeting, the Fifth Ward Democratic Club did not meet as previously announced last night. But we should think that our friends in the Fifth Ward might make another effort and still have "a rousing rip roaring meeting" if they are so disposed. Would it not be well to have a Democratic meeting at "The Oaks" on Friday night of this week and invite speakers from all the Wards in the city to be there?

The Third Warders meet at Munds' Hall to-night at 7½ o'clock.

The Democrats of the Second Ward meet at the Court House to-night at 7½ o'clock.

Be sure and attend your Ward meeting to-night. This is the last regular meeting that will be held before the election.

New Advertisements, Attention!

Third Ward Democratic Club
YOU ARE HEREBY REQUESTED TO meet at Munds' Hall, this (WEDNESDAY) evening, at 7½ o'clock. There will be speakers for the occasion. Last Regular Meeting. Come out all good Democrats. By order of the President.
