Get your tar barrels and torches ready for to-morrow night!

It is no time to stand back now every Democrat must do his duty.

The Democrats of this city are expected to turn out en masse to-morrow (Friday) night.

Col. S. L. Fremont arrived in the city to-day from Goldsboro and will leave tomorrow for Savannah for his new field of duty.

Mr. Harry Loeb and his bride, the daughter of Hon. Jos. P. Batchelor, of Raleigh, returned to the city last night from their wedding trip.

The work on the floating Compress is progressing finely. A portion of the presses have arrived and will be put in position in a few days.

Dr. Winants expects to get up steam in the boilers of his ice machine to-morrow to ascertain the movement of the engine, preparatory to freezing things.

Music and Time.
A few nights ago some thief stole a melodeon from the Union School on Sixth, between Nun and Church streets, and last night made another visit to the temple of learning and carried off two clocks.

Rally at Burgaw.
We are requested to state that there will be a general rally of the Democracy of Pender at Burgaw, on Saturday, November 2nd, when many prominent speakers will address the people of that county.

Death of Mrs. Bernard.
It is with very great regret we learn, just before going to press, of the death of Mrs. Bernard, wife of W. H. Bernard, Esq.
She died very suddenly to-day about 1 o'clock. We tender our sincere sympathies.

Religious Days.
To-morrow is All Saints' Day, observed in commemoration of the sainted dead, of those who died in the faith. It is observed in the Catholic and Episcopal Churches.
In the former church to-day is observed as the Vigil of All Saints, to-morrow is All Saints' and Saturday as All Souls'.
The Episcopalians do not observe either the Vigil or All Souls' Day.

Democrats Waking Up.
We are glad to see that the Democratic party of this city seem determined to make up for lost time and will follow out the suggestion made in the Review yesterday afternoon, of having a Mass Meeting in the Fifth Ward at the Oaks on Friday night which is to be followed by another "rousing, rip roaring" meeting of all the Democrats in the city on Monday night to hear some of the big guns of our party open fire on the ex-Radical Judge and so called Greenback candidate, the transparent laboring man's candidate who boasts that he never did a day's work with his hands in all his life.

Another School House Robbed.
The Williston school house, on the corner of Seventh and Ann streets, was visited a few nights ago by "visiting statesmen" who fell in love with a few books and slate pencils and so great was their admiration for them that they carried off the books and pencils. They effected an entrance into the building by cutting out the putty from around a pane of glass which they removed and then crawled through the opening. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the theft.
Robberies of school houses are becoming fashionable now and as winter is coming on about the only way of ensuring the safety of the stoves in the buildings is to keep them red hot.

The Second and Third Wards— Their Meetings Last Night.

The members of the Second Ward Democratic Club, in pursuance of a notice published in our local columns yesterday afternoon, assembled in the Court House, last evening, at 8 o'clock.

The President and First Vice President being absent, the duty of presiding devolved upon Mr. Solomon Bear, the Second Vice President of the Club, who, upon assuming the Chair, put forth some very good, sound reasoning in regard to the present campaign and the duty pertaining to each Democratic elector in this city in regard to the conduct of the same during the intervening time between this and Tuesday next. Mr. Wm. L. Smith, Jr., upon motion, was requested to act as Secretary.

The meeting thus organized and ready for business, one of the old land-marks of the Second Ward, Club, Col. Wm. L.
Smith, arose and urged the propriety of the young men taking the initiative, and in this connection remarked that there were three then present whose sires and grandfathers had done noble work in the cause. Col. S. concluded his remarks by suggesting that the meeting hear from Mr.
Thos. W. Strange, whom he saw present.
In response to loud calls, that gentleman came forward and delivered his maiden political speech.

The speaker appeared surprised that he should be called upon to address the meeting, and remarked that he was totally unprepared and therefore the few words he should utter on this occasion could not be expected to be teeming with wisdom.

Mr. Strange's speech was neat and ornate and drew forth frequent applause from his hearers.

Mr. A. T. London was then called upon and poked a few more thrusts under his corpulency's short ribs particularly when he told the fable of the ass in the lion's skin, how he strutted and pranced around among the other beasts, until compelled to take breath, when his unmistakable bray in doing so revealed his real nature to those who had been deceived by his outside appearance.

Mr. London's speech was a good one, both in argument and anecdote and was well received.

Col. Roger Moore, one of the recognized leaders of the Democratic party in this city, was next called upon. Col.
Moore responded, but stated at the same time that speech-making was not his vocation. But, nevertheless notwithstanding, the gentleman seemed to have mind to talk as though possibly he had mistaken his calling and that probably it was originally intended that this should have been his calling.

Col. Moore first fired a hot shot or two at the County and City Executive Committee for allowing our candidate to do all the work in the way of canvassing and also for their neglect in not attending the few political meetings which have been called.

As the speaker warmed up in the cause he held up to the admiring gaze of his hearers the ability with which Col. Waddell had represented the Third District in Congress; the influence which his position as Chairman of the second most important Committee in the House of Representatives commanded at Washington, which he exercised for the good of his constituents. The speaker also alluded to the several appropriations for the bar and harbor improvements, which our representative had aided in obtaining, all of which had been of direct benefit to the laboring classes, as employment was given to many of our laboring fellow citizens on those works and the money thus secured from the government put in circulation through the medium of the poorer classes.
Here was an instance of real substantial benefit accorded to the laboring men by the Democratic nominee.

On the other hand, what had the pretended friend and candidate of the laboring men, the ex-Radical Judge, the man who boasted publicly that he has never done a day's work with his hands in all his life, done for the poor man?

Col. Moore then held up in all his naked deformity as a Greenbacker the ex-Radical Judge, who is trying to ride into Congress as a Republican through the secret influence of his Republican friends and at the same time trying to bamboozle a few Democrats into voting for him on account of Greenback principles.

Col. Moore's speech was frequently applauded and gave general satisfaction.

The following Canvassers and Challengers were then announced by the chair:
Canvassers—T W Strange, G J Boney, Col W L Smith, Wm Goodman, P Heinsberger and Gen M P Taylor.

Challengers—Col Roger Moore, Maj H G Planner, L T Bowden and John T Rankin.

On motion, Mr. Sol Bear, the Chairman, was appointed a committee of one to confer with the other Ward Clubs relative to holding a grand mass meeting in the Fifth Ward on Friday night.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

THIRD WARD.

The Democrats of this ward met at 7 o'clock at Munds' Hall, Mr. W. J. Yopp, Chairman of the Third Ward Democratic Club, in the chair, and the regular Secretary, Mr. James W. King, at the Secretary's desk.

At the commencement this meeting was marked with a fuller and more enthusiastic attendance than on any occasion since the great Tilden campaign of 1876.

The Club entered forthwith into business. Various committees were appointed, among them a committee to attend the polls on election day. The gentlemen composing this committee are:
Messrs Walker Meares, J H Allen, G F Alderman, L H Bowden, Samuel Bear, Jr, H A Bagg, J L Cantwell, A G Conley, Walter Coney, Aug Deumelandt, Timothy Donlan, M J Dinglehoef, E V Elwell, W C Farrar, W M Hayes, M J Heyer, James W King, Robert Lilly and E A Maffitt.

A committee of three, consisting of L H Bowden, Col Jno D Taylor and Col John L Cantwell, were appointed to meet Judge Merrimon and escort him to the hotel.

The chairman now announced that the house was ready to hear speeches, and loud and enthusiastic calls were made for Jno D Bellamy, Jr. He rose and responded in a speech of some twenty minutes in length, which received frequent interruptions of applause.

Capt R S Radcliff was the next speaker called, and he was followed by Messrs Walker Meares and A T London, in good and sound Democratic speeches.

A discussion then ensued in regard to Friday night's mass meeting and procession, and a committee was finally appointed to make arrangements, etc. This committee is requested to meet at the Purcell House this evening at 6 o'clock, where they will make final preparations. It is important that there should be a full and prompt attendance of this committee.

The Club adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock at the Hall next Friday night, from whence they will march in procession to the Oaks.

Floating in the Breeze.

The true and tried Democracy of the First Ward threw their Waddell flag to the breeze yesterday under the superintendence of Messrs. St. John Fillyaw and Julius Hahn the Committee charged with the work. There was quite a large crowd in attendance looking on who greeted the appearance of the flag as it floated in the breeze with applause.

City Court.

Robert Geary, white, arrested last night while asleep on the street strongly under the influence of opium, was told by His Honor, this morning, to go and sin no more.

Chester Lamb, colored, for committing a nuisance in the street was required to fork over a $2.50 fine or in lieu thereof take a five days' lodging in the city prison.

The Weldon Fair.

This Fair, now in progress, has proven very successful and the exhibit is pronounced by many to be the best they have ever had there. The Petersburg Index-Appeal publishes a list of the exhibitors and we notice the following from this city and vicinity:

Mrs. E. A. Purcell, Wilmington—counterpane.
Miss Eliza McIlhenny, Wilmington—
Paper hanging basket.
Miss Kittie Bissett, Wilmington—
Paper hanging basket.

Capt. D. L. Fillyaw, Wilmington—A clock made by himself; corner cabinet; framed crosses.
Miss Mary Bissett, Wilmington—frame of worsted flowers.

Mrs. R. A. Taylor, Brunswick county —24 yards domestic carpeting; 20 yards rag carpeting; domestic blankets; domestic gloves; knit counterpane; colored dimity; domestic saddle girth; lady's domestic hood; domestic dimity; cucumber and tomato catsup.

The Lumberton Tragedy.

The Lumberton papers are very reticent as regards the killing in that town last week of Mr. Hartman, at the hands of Miss Linkhaw. The Robesonian says that Mr. Hartman, while at the point of death, protested his innocence of the charge made against him by Miss Linkhaw and that his statement is sustained by public sentiment.

Prepayment of Postage.

The following ruling of the Postoffice Department, published on page 57 of the United States Official Postal Guide for October, should be more generally known to the public: "A letter having been once delivered in accordance with the address, the jurisdiction of the Department has ceased; therefore, if it is desired to be again transmitted in the mail, it must be prepaid anew."

Say, neighbor, have you registered?

Chasing the Desperado, Elvi John- son.

To-day about twelve o'clock, information was lodged with officer Ashe that the desperado, Elvi Johnson, was in the vicinity of Eleventh and Market streets.
Officers Ashe, Richardson, Davis, and Howard started in pursuit of Johnson and ran up with him on Eleventh between Market and Princess streets. The chase was an exciting one and by a little stratagem officer Ashe cut Johnson off and got within about twenty yards of him when he dropped a bag and a basket and ran with the speed of a hurricane wind, fairly running out of his shoes. The officers lost sight of Johnson in the swamp near Oakdale Cemetery but gave him a few parting shots as he ran through the undergrowth of the bay. The bag which Johnson dropped was marked J. H. Haar, and contained two pigs, and the basket, a hat and bag; his shoes were also picked up. The pigs are at the office of J. C.
Hill, J. P., where the owner can get them by proof of property.

ORANGE CAKE.—Two cups of sugar, two cups of flour, half cup of water, the yolks of five eggs, the whites of three eggs, the juice and rind of two oranges, two teaspoonfuls DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, and a little salt. Bake as jelly cake, and put together with icing made of the whites of three eggs, the juice and rind of one orange, and sugar to make the icing stiff.
