Five Dollars in Gold.

A little colored boy was arrested this morning and carried to the City Hall for having purloined a five dollar gold piece from the bureau drawer of the lady at whose house he was employed. But the money had disappeared before the boy's arrest and no trace of it has yet been Jubilation.

The Greenbackers have posted notices to the effect that they will have a grand demonstration, torchlight procession, &c., the country presents. on Thursday night, in honor of the eleetion of Judge Russell, or, rather, of the failure of the Democrats in this District to go to the polls and vote. Hadn't they better postpone this demonstration until Russell gets his certificate of election?

Col. Duncan K. McRae.

We learn, from a telegram received here to-day from Hon. Duncan K. McRae, at Chicago, that he will leave there to-day, with his family, for this city, his future home, with the expectation of arriving here on Thursday evening. Col. McRae's family consists of his wife and daughter, and they have engaged board with Mrs. Boudinot corner of Front and Mulberry streets.

"A Short." A gentleman was stopped on the street by a colored man this afternoon who wore a long face, and announced the death of his child, with a request that the gentleman would assist him in burying it. Of course, the gentleman said he would, and asked how much did he want, when the man replied, five cents. The amount seemed so small that the donor's mind at once reverted to the price of "a short."

City Court.

David Green, John Berry and Wm. Cannon, three colored youths, arrested on Saturday for fighting, were disposed of as follows:

In the case of the first named two, ordered locked up until to-night, and then discha ged. Wm. Cannon, the last named boy, was required to pay a fine of $2 50. Scipio Hill-alas, poor Yorick, we know him well-again made his appearance before His Honor this morning, charged with the same old two-and-sixpence offence. But Scip ucclared it was only some oysters he ate which made him sick; and the Mayor feeling kindly for the unlucky BOATWRIGHT & McKoy -- It is Currently namesake of the great Reman, ordered him locked up until night, so that he might entirely recover from his previous indispo-

Those of our citizens who were restrained by the weather or other causes from visiting the Opera House on Saturday night last to witness the performance of Kerry Gow, certainly misssed a rich treat which was really the treat of the season thus far-in the theatrical line. The company which is called the Murphy Combination is an excellent one and deserved better patronage than they were accorded here. We trust the company may be induced to visit our city on their return North.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Several articles in Lippincott's Magazine for December will be found of special interest to different classes of readers. All who have made mechanics an object of study, theoretical or practical, should read Edward H. Knight's lucid description of the machinery exhibits at the Paris Exposition, which is accompanied with cuts of some of the most striking and novel specimens. Every one who cares about art will find a masterly, yet not too technical, analysis of the characteristics of the different schools of the present day in "Some Aspects of Contemporary Art," by M. G. Van Rensselaer. Those who care to know something of what Spain is doing in the of literature, and indeed general readers as well, will be charmed with Professor T. F. Crane's account of "A Spanish Story-Teller," Edward King writes pleasantly of "Danubian Days," with the aid of many good illustrations, and Isabella Anderson, a resident of Venezuela, gives a graphic account of the great earthquake which destroyed some of the fairest regions of that country in the spring of the present tion of the latter, it must take its place. It | year. "For Percival" is concluded in this number, which is, we observe, enlarged to admit of its completion with the year. Miss Olney's "Through Winding Ways" grows steadily in interest; "Sister Silvia" is the title of a very touching story, and the poems and shorter papers are numerous and diversified. The new volume promises to be one of great interest, judging from the prospectus; it begins with the January number.

Messrs. Gerhardt & Co. have opened in the Odd Fellows' Building, on Third street, opposite the City Hall, with a very handsome stock of carriages and harness. Their object is to establish here a first class carriage and harness depository, need which long been felt in has our city. The piece was full of life and interest | They have now on hand a fine stock of harness and a number of beautiful vehicles, among which we noticed several light top buggies, of strong make and elegant finish, some of which Mr. Gerhardt tells us can be sold as low as $75. They are certainly the cheapest thing of the kind we ever saw in Wilmington.
