Bishop Pierce will dedicate the new Methodist Church at Reidsville on Sunday next.

The new county officials enter upon the discharge of their duties the first Monday in December next.

The storm signal was displayed early this morning, but later in the day the off shore signal was run to the mast head.

It is little troubles that wear the heart out. It is easier to throw a bombshell a mile than a feather—even with artillery.

If you want to hear a man tell a well developed full-grown lie just poke your head in a store door and ask change for a five dollar bill.

The rude man is contented if he sees but something going on; the man of more refinement must be made to feel; the man entirely refined desires to reflect.

Have enough regard for yourself to treat your greatest enemy with quiet politeness. All petty spites are mere meannesses and hurt yourself more than any one else.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be kept in every family. A slight cough, if unchecked, is often the forerunner of Consumption, and a timely dose of this wonderful medicine has rescued many from an early grave.

We learn that the price of diamonds was never so low as at present, and now is a favorable time to purchase them. This is welcome news. We shall take our market basket to-morrow evening and go out and purchase our winter's stock.

One of the mounted men of the procession last night of the I. O. N. G. B.
L. P. D. L. R., fell from his horse at the intersection of Front and Orange streets; and that is not a soft spot of the streets either. No insurance.

In Bad Taste.

The procession of Greenbackers, so-called, exhibited a piece of very bad taste last night when they purposely crossed over from the east to the west side of Third street at the corner above Col. Waddell's residence just so as to pass by that gentlemen's house with their torches, transparencies and hurrahs!

To Delinquents.

Sheriff Manning has his deputies loaded down with tax notices, "to delinquents." One of them has more notices than he can carry in his pockets, and has Sheriff Schenck's old carpet-bag slung around his shoulders chock full of tax notices.
The question naturally arises in the minds of delinquents, has anybody paid taxes this year?

The C. C. R. W.

The Charlotte Observer says: The Carolina Central trestle over Town Creek near the city, having been filled in, the steam shovel is being reframed preparatory to its removal to the McAlpine's creek trestle where operations will be begun soon. It is the purpose of the company to fill every trestle on the line, and with such a useful invention as the steam shovel it can be easily done within a few years.

It is a Fact

That DOUGLEY'S YEAST POWDER will go further in use in the kitchen, and the results will be more satisfactory in the production of elegant, light rolls, biscuits, cake, etc., than if any other baking powder issued. Try it. Sold by grocers.

A Reliable Wine.

Mr. A. Speer, of New Jersey, whose Port Grape Wine has such a wide reputation, and which physicians prescribe so generally, was the first in this country to introduce the art of making wine from the Oporto Grape, which is now the best wine to be had, and has become a great favorite among the most fashionable in New York and Philadelphia. For sale by Green & Flanner.

For the Holidays.

Messrs. Brown & Roddick have leased for the holiday season the store on Front street, formerly occupied by Maj. T. H.
McKoy, and will open there with their usual stock of toys and fancy goods for the Xmas trade. Mr. Roddick goes North to-morrow to make his purchases.

Personal.

We were pleased to receive a call today from Hon. D. K. McRae, who is hereafter to be identified with the interests of our city. He has obtained an office with Mr. Thos. W. Strange, on Market street, and in a card published in this issue formally offers his services to the citizens of this section.

Good Leap.

This morning Justice Wagner's horse and buggy were standing in the horse lot in the rear of Steltzer's bar on the corner of Second and Princess streets when the horse took fright and made a start for the street. The gate was closed and the horse made a leap, clearing the wall, which was about five feet high. The wheels of the buggy struck one of the brick pillars and completely demolished pillar and buggy. After gaining the street the horse stopped quietly on the corner and looked around to take in the situation, but showed no signs of fright and gently followed his master back in the lot.

Methodist Conference.

On the 27th inst, the Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, will be held in Charlotte. The following shows the rates of fare agreed upon by the railways for delegates and visitors to the conference:

Delegates paying full fare down on the Western North Carolina Railroad will be returned free.

The Carolina Central Railway will pass the delegates and visitors both ways for one first-class fare—ask for "convention return tickets."

Those who come over the Western Railroad will be passed for one fare.

The Richmond & Danville, Wilmington & Weldon, Raleigh & Gaston, and the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroads will issue return tickets to delegates and visitors at three cents per mile each way.

Tickets may be purchased as early as the 25th, and will be good for ten days.

Those issued by the Richmond & Danville Railroad will only be on sale from the 25th to the 27th, and the certificates on them must be filled and signed by the Secretary of the conference before returning.

Beware of Pickpockets

Was the line which appeared in Wednesday's issue of the REVIEW, and which attracted the attention of a lady who proposed to attend the show. Pater familias went to tea as usual, and was struck with the unusual behavior of his better-half.

She approached him on tip-toe, with her finger in her mouth, indicating silence, and her head wandering from side to side.

She got very close to him and said in his ear, "she-e-e, I've hid it, the money, down —she-e-e—looking around cautiously—
"she-e-e—back of the chimney in the hole in the washboard."

"What is the use of hiding your money?"

"Sh-e-e-e, don't talk so loud; see what the REVIEW says 'Beware of pickpockets!'"

"Yes, but suppose the house catches fire."

Here the lady sprang forward, and drew the money out of the hole before you could snap your fingers twice. After considerable debate as to the best disposition to make of it, she concluded to sew it up in a bag and sew the bag in her dress. In the meantime the performance had commenced, and pater familias had to spit it out on somebody and made an assault on us this morning, and threatens [to wring our neck if we ever frighten his wife out of her wits again.

Capt. Henry Savage wants to pay all outstanding warrants issued by the Board of Audit on the City Treasury. Call and get your money.

Ex-Judge Sam. W. Watts is among us and is to pitch his tent in Wilmington for the practice of bugology.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Cooper & Price, as it appears in this issue. They will have a nice lot of fruit, toys and candies for the holiday trade.

Why is It.

EDITOR DAILY REVIEW:
Why is it that the city has no responsible scavenger? The writer has tried for three weeks to have his premises attended to without as yet succeeding.
Can't the city employ a responsible person to attend to the business?
CITIZEN.

The Greenbackers Last Night.

The Greenbackers assembled together last night, as they had told themselves they would, for the promised glorification over the election of Judge Russell to Congress by Republican votes.
Russell received 11,611 votes in this district; and of these the Greenbackers polled —we will be generous and say about 300.
Last night the entire party in this section about 200 strong, turned out with banners and transparencies and tar barrels and turpentine dross, and made night hideous for a little while until the elements conspired against them, the thunder roared, the lightning flashed, the rain fell and the puny party was dissolved like a breath and took cover where they could find it.

At the Market House, a block and tackle was rigged, and after some tugging the 881 pounds of Greenbacker was raised and Judge Russell opened his mouth and spoke.
He was a Greenbacker, he said, and he wanted enough fiat money to fit out every man, woman and child, in the county with $37.62 1/2 apiece, and then we would see the beginning of an era of prosperity and political peace; he had cut loose from the rotten Radical concern, he would no more of it; he would go to Washington City as a Greenbacker, and he would stay there as a Greenbacker; he believed that the two Simon pure Greenback representatives in Congress would hold the balance of power. Judge Russell didn't appear very grateful to the Radical votes which elected him, and there was weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth among the on-looking Republicans, and after a while there will probably be some hair-pulling in the same direction.

Judge Russell had not completed his remarks when the rain came up and as his house was built on the sand the foundations were in danger when the block and tackle were again brought into requisition and the huge Greenbacker was lowered as quietly as possible from his exalted position.

The following are some of the inscriptions on the banners carried in procession and their supposed meanings:

A paunchy ox, with the words, "In Clover"—representing Daniel in a field of greenbacks gathering them in.

"Fourth Ward will make Blue Blood and Broadcloth Howl!"—reminding Daniel that he must not fly his kite too high now that he is elected and must not only pull down but pull off that broadcloth vest he continuously wears.

"No more Bonds on Interest"—that Uncle Sam must repudiate his honest indebtedness. We remark here, par parenthesis, that Judge Russell has the reputation of being the second largest holder of U. S. bonds in the city of Wilmington.

"Our rag baby can stand alone and hold out 881 pounds." Can't see the connection but suppose that it must indicate Daniel's estimation of his own weight when he became convinced of his election.

Some reference, too perhaps to the 881 votes less 581 polled by the Greenbackers when the Radicals elected Daniel L. Russell.

"Let the Fatted Calf be Killed"—A gratuitous insult to Daniel as he has not yet returned to his Radical fathers, and will not until he has a chance to slip in by the back gate.

"Aristocracy, Slavery and Radicalism is Dead"—A refutation to the first and last of which was then on public exhibition.

"Greenbacks saved the country and Greenbacks will save the people"—A gentle hint to all Greenbackers to remember Lot's wife.

"We Want $37 per capita." Is this the amount Dan'l promised to pay for the jubilation last night?

"Man on Jackass, with the words—
"I'm Coming"—very apropos.

An ox cart rigged up with wilted vegetables was to remind Daniel, we presume, that his Congressional career would, like them, soon wither and fade away.
Like the aforesaid greens, he could not stand re-planting.

To the Press their respects were paid as follows:—

"The Post has rotted and fallen off.
May its head never rise again."

"The Star was only a meteor and fell on the 6th of Nov."

"The Sun that rose too late to warm."

"Review your Scattered ranks as they pass up Salt river."

And to show how free this country of ours is, so unlike Germany, Italy, and other European countries, two "Kings," in open wagon, were driven through the crowd without an attempt at assassination.

Arrested on Suspicion

A colored man, by the name of Gus Johnson, was arrested last night on North Water street under the following circumstances:

Chief of Police Brock, yesterday, received three intercepted letters inclosed in one from F. J. Keidt, Lieut. of detectives in Charleston; the inclosed letters are signed by Gus Johnson, dated respectively, Oct. 31st, Nov. 13th, and Nov.
16th, and directed to one Davis at Charleston, S. C. The letters refer to old acquaintance and also speak of sending a watch or watches, which the aforesaid Gus Johnson purposed forwarding by express to Davis and also mentions having something else which he intends to send knowing that Davis can get them off.
The detective's letter to Capt. Brock informs him that he holds the watches subject to his demand and further states that the man Johnson belonged to a gang of thieves formerly operating in that city who were tried and convicted, Johnson, however, making his escape. Acting upon the information contained in this letter, Captain Brock last night detailed officer Woebse to make the arrest which was accomplished very quietly at the place above stated about half past eight o'clock and the prisoner conveyed to the guard house where he is now held by the city authorities.

Johnson is about five feet, nine or ten inches high and is known as "Scraps."

If there cannot be sufficient evidence and information obtained here for his trial and conviction, he will be held subject to requisition from the authorities in South Carolina, where he has been an offender against the criminal law of the State. So that in any event Gus Johnson has't a very bright prospect ahead for the Christmas holidays.

The Duplin Board of Health.

The Medical Board of Health in Duplin county met at Kenansville on Tuesday last, the 19th inst., with President J.
W. Blount in the chair. The annual election of officers resulted as follows:

President—Dr. H. W. Faison, of Faisons.

Vice President—Dr. J. W. Hill, of Warsaw.

Treasurer—Dr. A. J. Jones, of Ken-ansville.

Secretary—Dr. V. N. Sewell, of Wallace.

Dr. J. D. Roberts, of Magnolia, was appointed Special Essayist for the next meeting, which is to be held on the first Monday in March, 1879.

Sliced Objects.

THE VERY GREAT SUCCESS OF

Sliced Animals and Birds, has induced the publication of SLICED OBJECTS on the same general plan. The puzzle is gotten up finer than either of the others, and we venture to say that in Sliced Birds, Sliced Animals and Sliced Objects there is given more for less money than has ever been given in the way of a dissected picture puzzle.
