Changing Trucks Here.

The employes at the W. & W. railroad shops, in this city, have had for the last few days plenty of hard work in changing the trucks of the cars of the Great London show to suit the gauge of the railroads South of this point. It will be borne in mind that the guage of the W. C. & A. railroad and all other roads South of us are three and one half inches wider than the W. & W. and all other roads North of us. To effect this change an extra rail has been laid to make the required width, the trucks have been taken out from under the cars and wheels drawn off and then drawn on to longer axles.

Temple of Israel-A Pleasant Eurprise.

On the 31 of November a resolution was offered at a meeting of the Trustees of the Temple of Israel in this city to render to the Rev. Dr. Samuel Mendelsohn, their minister, a token of esteem for his faithful services.

This morning, after the usual Sabbath Service, the congregation when about to retire were requested by the President to remain. Henry Brunbild, Esq., then arose and in behalf of the congregation addressed Dr. Mendelsohn as follows :

Rev. Dr. Samuel Mendelsonn-In accordance with a resolution passed at the last regular meeting of the congregation of the Temple of Israel it becomes my pleasant duty to tender to you on their behalf a slight token of our appreciation | hate. of your services as minister and teacher. Please accept it with the renewed assurance of our friendship and esteem, trusting at the same time that all of your etforts in the Vineyard Israel may be crowned with success. Mr. Brunhild here presented an envelope to the reverend gentleman on which was inscribed the following words: "With highest esteem and regard as a token from the members and seatholders of the congregation of the Temple of Israel, to Rev. Dr Samuel Mendelsohn." Inside of the envelop was a Russian leather pocketbook, the gift of P. Heinsberger, Esq. and Isaac Baker, who was arrested yesterday | inside of the pocket was a handsome sum of money, the gift of the congregation.

> Dr. Mendelsohn, in accepting, thanked the congregation for this manifestation of their kind regard and the substantial token of their friendship, in a very happy effort, showing his appreciation of the token in words suited to the occasion.

Dr. Mendelsohn has wrought a good work with his people since his first advent here and wields no little influence for good among the members of his congregation.

Dr. Jastrow, of Philadelphia, on Thanksgiving Day, and leaves on the 9:10 train this evening for the above named place We wish the Rev. Doctor a pleasant journey, a happy Thanksgiving, and a safe return in due time, to his flock in Wilmington.
