A Big Potato.

Talking about big potatoes, a gentleman in this city has received a letter from Mr. William Moore, at Marion, S. C., speaking of a big potato raised by him on his plantation near Marion which he alleges weighs 36 pounds.

Its So.
 Long years ago Joe Jefferson failed in this city and a subscription was raised by some of the citizens of the town to send him off. Now Joe is worth considerable money and it would be wise for him to contribute some of this to the city debt or a charity institution.

Books at Auction.

Mr. Edwards, son of a gentleman known to many in our city, who formerly made regular visits to Wilmington with a large lot of books which were offered at auction, is here now and will remain for several days. The store on Market street recently occupied by the Wheeler & Wilson Company has been secured and Mr. Edwards will open there to-morrow. The books will be sold at auction at night by Messrs. Cronly & Morris.

Champion Grape Eater.

Yesterday a young Knight of the Yardstick stepped into Mr. Northrop's confectionery establishment and purchased a quarter of a pound of malaga grapes which he soon stowed away and made Mr. Northrop an offer of seventy-five cents to allow him to eat as many as he wanted. The offer was accepted and the young man started in for those grapes and had downed two and three-quarter pounds when fortunately for Mr. Northrop, the grape-eater's employers sent for him.
 There is no fiction about this, and Mr. N., or the young man, will substantiate it. If this knight of the yardstick was turned loose in a grapeery he would be worse than a bull in a china store.

Dooley's Yeast Powder.

There is probably no other baking powder manufactured that has become so much a household word as DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER. For twenty years it has stood before the public, and the innumerable testimonials that have been called forth voluntarily, testify fully to its mor-ita.

Denier.

From a circular letter received from Tony Denier we learn that he will appear in this city in a short time with a company of fine artists, including Mr. George H. Adams, who is better known as Grimaldi.

The Festival To-Night.

We hope that the ladies of the S and Presbyterian Church will have a good attendance at the Festival to be given by them at the Rankin Hall this evening.
 They have made great preparations and hope to see many guests. The Hall has been handsomely arranged and the tables will present a tempting array.

Criminal Court.

State vs. Duk's Walker and W. H. J.
 Spicer, charge larceny, defendant submitted and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State vs. W. F. Lessman and W. H.
 Marsteller. Charge an affray. Verdict guilty. Judgment one penny and costs.

State vs. Henry Nash charged with assault and battery. On trial.

Personal.

Capt. R. T. Fulghum, Special Correspondent and Business Agent of the Raleigh Observer, is in our city and favored our sanctum with a short call to-day.
 Capt. Fulghum, though yet a young man, is a veteran in journalism, having been for some years editor of the State Agricultural Journal and more recently on the staff of the Raleigh News. His connection with the Observer dates from the 1st inst. He is in the city on business connected with his paper and we wish him an abundant success.

Two Law Firms.

The fact of the law copartnership between Hon. D. K. McRae and Thos. W.
 Strange, Esq., as announced by us yesterday, recalls to mind another fact of interest, which was the partnership which existed between Col. Robert Strange, father of Mr. T. W. Strange, and Col. McRae.
 May the son and successor of this lamented gentleman succeed as well in obtaining a hold upon the affections and esteem of our people.

Republican Jubilation.

The Radicals in this city and section are to celebrate something to-night but what, it might be a right difficult matter to say.
 They claim that they elected Judge Russell (and Russell says he will have none of them) and they are going to celebrate the fact to-night that they, by their votes, elected to office a man who literally, emphatically, metaphorically and practically refuses to be reckoned with them. Strange to say Judge Russell has not been invited to address the crowd. Here is the programme, which we publish as a matter of interest. A forty-horse power microscope will fail to find any vestige of Dan. Russell, about it:

REPUBLICAN JUBILEE.

The procession will form fronting City on Princess street.

Merrimon and Vance.

For the Review.

Mr. Editor:
 Now that Merrimon has announced, in language plain and democratic, that he will abide by the clearly expressed will of his party in the matter of selection and election of Senator, it is pertinent to enquire whether Vance will do the same.
 Let him come out, over his own signature and say what he will do, and especially whether he will abide the decision of the caucus in case Merrimon is the caucus nominee of the party. That question is now put fairly and squarely to him through your paper, and I hope you will send him this article, marked, as it appears in your columns. We have as much right down this way to put questions to Senatorial candidates and through our own Wilmington papers, as others have to put them through the metropolitan democratic press. It is too much the fashion to confine such questions, and the discussion of this Senatorial contest, to the News and Observer at Raleigh. While no injustice should be done Raleigh or any unjust discrimination exercised against the papers there; I am for a due appreciation of home papers and home folks if you please, in this and every other public matter. Let us then exit the claims and merits of our local home papers so long as they avoid undue partiality and prejudice, and while giving all candidates a fair chance, subordinate them all to the welfare and success of the party and the good of the State.

In this spirit it is but proper to ask for a letter now from Vance, inasmuch as Merrimon has spoken. It won't do for Vance's friends to say that he will do this or do that, let him speak for himself. If Merrimon should be the nominee of the Democratic caucus for Senator, and Vance should in consequence become dissatisfied, it could be very easily said for him or by him that he was not responsible for what friends said for him in relation to any nomination of Merrimon by the Democratic caucus.

As to these two man contestants for the place of Senator, there is a strong and rising tide of sentiment in the party, that each of these gifted and popular favorites shall remain where he now is.
 It is just to them both and will most contribute to the harmony and strength of the party to keep them in their respective places. Vance cannot be spared from the high position he now holds. He was elected for four years and in his nomination and election there was no stipulation or provision that he should cease to be governor until the expiration of the term to which the democracy elected him. Except on the part of a few favorites, who wish to gratify his vanity to be Senator, the voice of the party is very strong and potential that he shall serve out the term, as he agreed to do, for which he was elected. If he will thus bide his time, the future has much of distinguished position that awaits him. If he should not be elected Senator, no danger to the party will result from the experiment of a new man for Governor, and Vance can suffer no humiliation, for he already holds a distinguished office. On the other hand, if Merrimon is defeated, he will feel that mortification and humiliation so natural under the circumstances, and he will be consigned to private life at a time when his influence and splendid abilities are so necessary in the Senate.

He has developed to an extraordinary degree since he was elected Sen. tor, and can now better serve the party and the State as Senator than any man we can send to the Senate from North Carolina.

That is the sentiment of the people, and to make a change now, would be unwise, impolitic, unjust and humiliating to Merrimon, and highly injurious to our party and to the best interests of North Carolina.

There is no better judge of the habits and influence at Washington and in the Senate of Senators than the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, even if he is a Republican. This gentleman has repeatedly declared to North Carolinians, as the record everywhere shows, that no Senator has more influence in that body or in Washington than Senator Merrimon—that he is the most punctual in his seat and in his attendance upon the Senate of any other member—and that he is remarkably wide awake at any and all times to any and all things therein that concern North Carolina, or any of her interests or her people.

Every consideration of fair play, of wise democratic policy, of justice to all, of state pride, of the best interests of the party and the State, demand that Vance shall remain Governor and Merrimon continue Senator. This is alike the suggestion of wisdom and the voice of the Democratic party.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I it, this receipt, with full directions for pre-
