LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements. CROWLY & MORRIS—Auction Sale of Books. P. HEINSBERGER—Holiday Goods. OPERA HOUSE—Grand Complimentary Benefit to Miss Helen D'Este.

Cynthia, or the Gypsy Queen, and the Merry Cobbler at the Opera House to-morrow evening. Don't fail to see it. We regret to learn that Mr. S. W. Dunham was seriously hurt by falling through a timber raft at Messrs. Parsley & Wiggins' pen on yesterday.

We hear that Collector Canaday's influence among "de cullud Publicans" is on the wane and that he has at last lost his hold on the colored man and brother. They do say that the genial and amiable ex-Mayor lost his temper last night and gesticulated ferociously and savagely with his fist doubled up, at the crowd around the speaker's stand.

Mrs. Jones, how is your health this morning? Thank you, madam, much improved. I bought a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup last night, and after the first dose my cough was checked. I sleep well, and have not coughed once this morning. Application is to be made to the next session of the Legislature for an amendment to the charter of the city of Wilmington whereby the Board of Aldermen will be authorized to tax the sidewalk merchants, otherwise known as hucksters.

Ship-Yard Notes. The work of rebuilding Light Ship No. 29, of Rattle-Snake Light, was commenced on yesterday by Messrs. Cassiday & Ross at their Marine Railway. The brig Dos Canados is on the railways for inspection. Thursday evening, Dec. 26th, the St. Aloysius Sodality of St. Joseph's Male Academy will give a grand entertainment at the corner of Fifth and Ann streets.

The New Hall Christened. The elegant new dancing hall over Schutte's store was christened night before last at the German Ball given there then. Amid the popping of champagne and the plaudits of those present at about 12 o'clock at night it was announced that the new hall would hereafter be known as the Germania.

Matinee To-Morrow Afternoon. The matinee to-morrow afternoon will be a season of rare enjoyment to the ladies and children. The play of "A Celebrated Case" will be rendered to the best ability of the company, which is acknowledged a fine one. The price of admission will be but 25 cents and we trust that the troupe will be encouraged in their honest efforts to relieve themselves of their troubles.

WHAT IS MORE SATISFACTORY in purchasing an article for use in your own family, than to feel assured and satisfied of its purity, free from all injurious ingredients, something in which you have full confidence? As such an assistant for producing light bread, biscuit, cakes, etc., we would suggest a trial of the celebrated Dooley's Yeast Powder, and rest assured you will be fully satisfied with its results, and you will have the whitest, sweetest and most healthful baking you ever had.

The Grand Jubilation.

The Grand Republican Jubilee advertised for last night, after much preparation, as evidenced by the programme published yesterday, and further demonstrated by the activity displayed by the "faithful" prior to the hour named for the procession to start from the City Hall, by riding up and down the streets, with their "emblems of authority" nauging from their shoulders, dashing hither and thither, the music from three different bands, one each in the First, Third and Fifth Wards, all "rooting" at one and the same time, certainly foreshadowed a great and grand demonstration. At about 8:30 o'clock the bands from the wards began their march to the City Hall, where the "grand conjunction" was to be made, but ere their arrival the projectors of the affair were fully convinced that the whole thing was a failure. On the arrival of the bands, which were unable to blow up any followers, a crowd of boys were gathered up and the banners placed in their hands, and the procession moved off towards the Market House, amid the jeers of quite a number of Greenbackers who had gathered on the sidewalks. At the Market House, a halt was made and O'Hara was introduced by ex-Mayor W. P. Canaday, who, for an hour or more, attempted to make himself heard, but the crowd around him being so noisy, he was utterly unable to do so. In the meantime the boys, getting tired of holding up the transparencies, quietly blew out the lights and built a pyramid in the middle of the street with them. To sum up, the great Republican jubilee was a complete fizzle. The Custom House crowd and the Court House clique have lost their grip on the colored voters of this city—they having evidently been swallowed up by the Greenback whale, and if a more successful emetic cannot be forced down its throat to make it disgorge than the one attempted last night, they had as well hang their harps on the weeping willows and swear that they will pay no more political assessments.

City Court. The first case called this morning was that of a colored Republican, charged with being drunk and disorderly. But a white Republican here stepped to the front and assured the Mayor that the colored man and brother was not disorderly; he only had him arrested to prevent such a contingency. The Mayor then dismissed the case. John Davis, John J. Hill and Jno. W. Moseley, colored, were bound over, the first named in the sum of $100, justified bond, and the other two in the sum of $50 each to the present term of the Criminal Court. John Davis upon the charge of highway robbery and the two last named as being particeps criminis or accessories either before or after the fact.

The arrests were made upon the affidavit of Alfred Jordan, colored, who testified in court that the man Davis jerked his watch out of his pocket last night in the Fifth Ward during the Republican speaking. Pickpockets Arrested. Last night, during the time that Collector Canaday's crowd were bow wowing in the Fifth Ward over Judge Russell's, or somebody else's election, we can't tell which, as the parties themselves didn't exactly seem to know, one of the trocloy loyal, Alfred Jordan by name, a colored man of the strictest sort, claims to have had his pocket picked by another colored man by the name of John Davis. Two other parties were also implicated and the whole trio were bound over to the Criminal Court this morning by Mayer Fishblate upon the charge of highway robbery.

Books at Auction. Messrs. Cronly & Morris will sell at auction, to-night, at 7 o'clock, at Wheeler & Wilson's old stand, Market Street, a valuable collection of Standard and Miscellaneous Books. A rare opportunity is offered to purchase valuable books very cheap. Ladies and gentlemen are invited to call and examine them during the day. Sale will continue every evening until further notice.

Safes at the Paris Exposition. The Fire and Burglar Proof Safes and Combination Locks in the United States division of the late Paris Exposition, showed, conclusively, that American manufacturers are far in advance of all others in this important branch of industry, and HERRING & CO., the well-known New York house, received the highest award—a Gold Medal. This firm won the award of 30,000 francs at the International Safe Contest or trial at Paris during the Exposition of 1867, and also received the Premium Medal.

Col. S. L. Fremont is in the city to-day from Savannah, en route for Goldboro.

The Concert To-Night.

The indications are that the attendance at the Concert at the Opera House this evening will be a very large one. We hope so, as we would be glad to know that Prof. VanLaer and the gentlemen of the Cornet Concert Club were to receive some substantial evidence of appreciation. Some of the best musical talent in the city will assist to-night.

The Two Courts. The Criminal Court adjourned last night at nine o'clock after dispatching a considerable amount of business, and will not convene again until Monday the 15th inst. at that time the Superior Court will have concluded its labors and then there will be no interruption, to the proceedings of Judge Meares' court. The Superior Court is in session to-day and is disposing of the the calendar as rapidly as possible.

The French Letter Claimed. The French letter received by the Chief of Police here a few days ago directed to Monsieur Etienne Proux was called for a few days ago by the wife, or relict, of the above named person. Professor—, of the Cape Fear Military Academy, translated the letter for Mrs. Proux and rendered it in English so that she could read it, when it was found that the letter was from Monsieur Proux's mother, who is anxious to know of her son's whereabouts. This the wife of Monsieur Proux cannot throw any light upon as her husband left these parts several years ago since which time nothing has been heard from him or of him. This was written in French in reply by Professor—and mailed to the Republique Francais.

We have heretofore neglected to call the attention of the readers, and especially the advertisers, in the REVIEW, to the fact that THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL published weekly in connection with the REVIEW, has closed its first volume of the new series. THE JOURNAL is one of the largest weeklies published in the State and has a large and steadily increasing circulation, which makes it one of the very best mediums of communication with all the adjoining counties through which our merchants can make known what they have to sell.

We were pleased to meet to-day with Lt. Jno. U. Rhodes, formerly of the Revenue Cutter Colfax. He has returned to Wilmington on waiting orders. He tells us it was bitter cold in New York and that there was a heavy snow storm extending yesterday from New York to Washington. We are glad to welcome him back.

For the Review. Mr. Sprunt's Lecture before the Historical & Scientific Society. MR. EDITOR:—The admirable and patriotic address of Mr. Alexander Sprunt, of your city, delivered before this very useful Institution on last Monday night, and just published in your paper, will exert a very beneficial influence upon our business men generally. It shows the author to be a scholar, a gentleman of culture and observation, and of high business qualifications, as well as of a warm Scotch heart for North Carolina and for his adoptive county.

Mr. Sprunt shows much power of thought, and wide and comprehensive views upon those social and political as well as commercial and agricultural problems that so largely enter into the science of political economy and which are now more than ever agitating the public mind of the whole country. There is much philosophical food for reflection in this address, and our farmers, as well as merchants, can profit much from it. Spread it broadcast over North Carolina and let us all have a new lesson of wisdom, of economy, of industry, of avoidance of debt and of dubious speculation.

Upon the mooted question of Finance, Mr. Sprunt cannot expect that general endorsement of his views which other portions of his fine production will receive. He is too much of a hard money man. In the South we need more soft money, and a speedy return to the old State bank system, as well as of such legislation by Congress as will give us the relief advocated by Judge Thurman and still more by Governor Hendricks, as relating to banks, currency, &c. Mr. Sprunt deserves the more credit for this public effort for good, because he is no politician, nor office-seeker, but mainly a merchant of enlarged and liberal views of commerce and agriculture and of those weighty questions of law and of order which so few of our merchants or farmers understand, or put themselves to the trouble to investigate. For one I thank him for this effort and congratulate him upon his success. It is truly like this that will put all classes and occupations to thinking more and to investigating better the causes that have produced the hard times and the remedy. And as we go on in the needed work of probing these things to the bottom, we cannot shut our eyes to the powerful truth, that our depressed and backward condition in North Carolina is greatly owing to ignorance and indifference. A PENDER FARMER. Dec. 5th, 1878.

County Commissioners. The Board of County Commissioners met in adjourned session this afternoon; present, Col Smith, Chairman, and Commissioners Montgomery, Worth, Grady and H A Bagg. Reports from H E Scott, Anthony Howe, E H McQuigg, Jno A Holt and Jno G Wagner, Magistrates, were examined, found correct and ordered spread upon the records of official report. Report from Magistrates A A Moseley and J C Hill were held for examination.

Ordered that every magistrate in the county be requested to make his annual report to this Board on or before the next meeting of the Board. Report of Stacy VanAminge, Clerk of Superior Court, was examined, found correct and ordered spread on the record of official reports. Petition of Thos B Williams to be allowed to redeem his property sold to the State for taxes. Granted and upon petition it was ordered that 25 per cent county penalty be remitted.

The Clerk of the Auditing Committee had the necessary papers drawn in regard to paying the claim of B R Moore, for fees. A communication from Dr W W Lane, calling the attention of the Board of Commissioners to the neglected condition of the Paupers' burying ground, was referred to Commissioners J A Montgomery, A J Grady and Dr W W Lane, who are to report at the next regular meeting of the Board. The above is all that had transpired up to the hour of our going to press.
