Poultry is plentiful and cheap.
Plenty of wood in market to-day.
Kidnapping—Infancy in slumber.
Loud perfumes are not fashionable.

The question of the hour—What time is it?

Basques are becoming quite short in front.

Never kick a dose of medicine when it is down.

A tailor's goose hisses, and has no feathers.

The color on perturbed gloves soon di-appears.

Men who always proceed to extremities —chiropractists.

A marked change—a silver quarter with a hole in it.

Ten receipts of cotton for this port today were 298 bales.

The streets and stores were full to-day of Xmas purchasers.

If there was any talk of rain it has fallen to the ground.

Usters are worn long—if not, what makes them threadbare?

Ducks are plentiful in market, but yet the woods are full of them.

This is the season of the year for defective flies—and defective flies.

Deer horns increase in size each year until old age, and then they diminish.

There is a demand for small pigs for roasting, always about Christmas.

It has never been ascertained how much old ocean measures round her gray and melancholy waste.

Did you know there was a big white frost or a young snow (just as it pleases you to have) this morning?

Katie Putnam played in Raleigh on Monday and Tuesday evenings, and is booked for Charlotte next Saturday.

They say business is dull; sugar and coffee are selling slowly. Not so with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; we understand our druggists can hardly supply the demand.

There was only one case for Mayor Fishblate's consideration this morning, which His Honor promptly disposed of by pronouncing sentence of $10 fine or its equivalent in the City Prison.

Christmas trees have "rized" in price and it is said that Elvi Johnson, the outlaw, is the cause. The average provider of the luxuries thinks it is as much as his life is worth now to be seen going in the woods with an axe on his shoulder. In his mind's eye he can see the dangerous outlaw behind every bush or clump of trees.

The Festival to be given by the ladies of the Dorcas Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will be held this evening in Meginty's Hall. There will be a good time for all who may go. One feature of the evening is especially attractive and that is the drawing of prizes, one ticket in every ten of these taken at the door securing a prize.

What is DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, do you ask, my friend? It is made from the purest and strongest elements. Among them, cream-tartar made from grape acid expressly for these manufacturers. The result is that the biscuits, rolls, waffles, cake, bread and pastry produced, are beyond comparison.

Frustrated.

Last evening, between nine and ten o'clock, an attaché of the Review office discovered a man on the back piazza of his residence. The would-be thief made tracks, but as he went over the fence a lead messenger was sent after him.

An adjoining neighbor who came out to ascertain the cause of the shot, stumbled over the man, who had secreted himself in some shrubbery, but owing to the blackness of the night the man escaped.

The River.

There have been more heavy rains in the interior, and the river at Fayetteville is rising rapidly. It had risen four or five feet up to yesterday morning. This, with the water still left from last week's freshet, will insure a plenty of water for weeks to come.

Not Paralyzed.

Mr. R. A. Price, who lives and mer-chandises on the corner of Front and Queen streets, fainted and fell from his chair at the breakfast table this morning.
It was reported on the streets that he had been paralyzed, but this was afterwards found to be an error.

Missed his Footing.

One of our rural visitors in attempting to board a street car at the corner of Market and Front streets to-day missed his footing and fell to the ground. The cause was too much John Burley corn aboard, but the conductor of the car in a very obliging spirit stopped the train while two stalwart "gem men of color" helped the unsophisticated individual to get aboard!

Fair and Festival.

The ladies of the Front Street M. E.
Church will hold a fair and festival at the City Hall on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. Every one who has attended the festivals of the ladies of this church speaks in the highest terms of the delicacies offered, and the cheap prices and the general good time they have had. It is the intention of the managers to offer for sale a full assortment of Xmas goods and no doubt they will be well patronized by Santa Claus.

Say What You Mean.

'Let your friends know that you love them. Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their hearts can be thrilled by them. The things you mean to say when they are gone say before they go. The flowers you mean to send for their coffins, send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them.

If my friends have any alabaster boxes laid away, full of perfumes, of sympathy and affection, which they intend to break over my dead body, I would rather they would bring them in my weary hours and open them, that I may be refreshed and cheered by them while I need them.

I would rather have a bare coffin without a flower, and a funeral without an eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Let us learn to anticipate our friends beforehand for their burial. Post mortem kindness does not cheer the burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance backward over the weary days of our lives.'

A Horrible Death.

Buck Powell, a colored barber and a native of this city, where he was well known, met with a horrible death in Raleigh on Sunday morning last. He removed from this city to Raleigh some three or four years ago, since which time he has followed his trade in that city.

The News gives us the following account of the horrible catastrophe: Sunday morning Prof. Powell, a colored barber, was at some trouble starting a fire in his shop. Thinking to hasten the ignition of the coal he took a gallon can of kerosene, and turning it up, poured part of the contents in the stove. He then put the can down on the floor, near by. A match had fallen on the floor, and he stepped on this. In an instant it ignited, setting fire to some oil drops on the floor, and then exploding the can, filling the shop with flames. The Professor was in his dressing gown, which was covered with the flaming oil. He rushed out into the street, and yelled fire at the top of his lungs. Attracted by his cries and seeing his awful predicament, a crowd gathered. One of these, Mr. Greason, with a pocket knife boldly cut away the burning clothes, until hardly a rag remained. The unfortunate man was taken into his shop, when it was found that the lower part of both legs, as well as of a portion of his back, was badly burned. He was carried home and a doctor dressed the wounds.

But despite all the care of the physicians the injuries were so serious as to baffle either relief or cure, and the suffering of the poor man was intense. But death at length interposed and at 8:30 p. m., yesterday the injured man died.

Powell was a native of Wilmington but came here some two years ago and opened a shop.

We call the attention of "The tax" payers, bond holders, business men and all others interested in the welfare of the city of Wilmington, to the notice of the citizen's meeting to be held at the City Hall to-morrow (Thursday, 19th) at night.

P. L. Bridgers & Co's. new delivery wagon is a handsome turn out and is very much admired. The springs and all the metal workings are steel.

The flag at the British Vice-Consulate was at half mast yesterday and to-day in respect to the memory of Princess Alice, whose decease has been heretofore announced in these columns, and whose interment takes place to-day.

Criminal Court.

This court has been occupied all day in two cases, in one of which (that of George Myers, col., charged with burglary) the charge of burglary was abandoned and the defendant was tried on a charge of larceny. The jury is out on this case and have not yet reported a verdict.

The other case was that of William Patterson, arraigned on a peace warrant, which case is still on trial as we close.

Too Fast.

One of the rapid drivers who make Water street resound with the rattle of their dray wheels too frequently, came to grief to-day by being overhauled by officer Walker, of the police force. The individual referred to above, while driving at a furious rate down Custom House alley this morning, ran his dray against the door of Messrs. DeRosset & Co's. private office. Complaint was lodged at the Mayor's office and the gentleman was arrested.

County Commissioners.

The Board met this afternoon, present Commissioners Worth, Bagg, Grady and Montgomery.

The Chairman being absent on motion of Commissioner Worth Commissioner Bagg was called to the chair.

Official bond of T. B. Carney, Constable of Harrell township, was presented and accepted.

Official bond of T. O. Bunting, Constable for Wilmington township, was presented and accepted.

Jacob Stearns, poll tax was ordered remitted.

William James was allowed to list his taxes in Federal Point township before the next meeting of the Board and the double tax was ordered remitted.

Petition of Alex. Oldham in relation to payment of tax was granted.

Ordered, that the poll tax charge against Charles Watters, Hardy Hines and Robert Bowden be remitted, it appearing that they are all over age.

Reports from various magistrates in the county were received and accepted.

These are all of the proceedings to our close. The remainder will be published to-morrow.
