Brown & Roddick.

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person about three gallons) passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it file is the natural purgative of the bowels, an Dile is the natural purgative of the bowels, an if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to eacape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. Markett, s Heratine, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an assess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty dose upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty column skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The is made certain by taking HEPATINE in accordance with directions. Readache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is SOLD AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR PILLS BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Injurious to Health.

The habit that obtains in many famicrew, begs to express their sincere thanks lies of "heaping" food and giving a little and considerable more than is asked for. has nothing to be said in its favor, and a received on board his yessel until landing great deal against it. Unless one has a strong, firm appetite that only an earthquake or a tempest could affect, a large quantity of food is appalling. It is much pleasanter to send one's plate and have it replenished, than to be obliged to leave food upon the plate. In order to clear the plate one is prone to overeat, from an Economy does not signify a lack of plentifulness nor stinginess. It means enough for each and all, and nothing is wasted, and when food is served in overabundance, waste must be the result, unless, indeed, the surplus is gathered together again-the simple idea of which words of commendation, but to those who is disgusting. Moreover, it is a comfort to get just what one asks for-if "half a cup of tea," that much and no more.
