Hon. Geo. Howard, of Tarboro, is in the city.

Plenty of dressed poultry in market to-day and selling at 12 cents a pound.

Col. Ben Moore, Solicitor of the Criminal Court, is walking around to-day with a yard and a half of flannel around his throat. Epizoot.

The arrangements having all been completed the Married Folks' Ball will surely come off to-night. The first set will be called at 8 o'clock.

Mr. John E. Lippitt has exhibited to us a plan of a market which it is proposed to erect on the site of the Lippitt Block, on South Front street. It makes an imposing and attractive appearance.

Mr. Jas. M. Brown, of this city, appeared at the Lyceum Theatre, in New York, the other night, as "Capt. Corcoran, commanding H. M. S. Pinpoint," and the august Herald actually compliments him.

Rev. Joseph Cook is going to lecture on "The Inner Life of a Newspaper." But did the reverend gentleman ever "jet" for beer, play seven up on the bed of a hand press, or hear the forty-horse power remarks made when a form is "pied?" We don't believe he knows enough about the inner life of a newspaper to truthfully portray the feelings of an editor who accepts a $40 box of patent medicine for $100 worth of advertising, and is compelled to either dispose of it for $4 or take it himself. Patent medicines is one of the articles of trade that his employees will not accept in payment of wages.

Gov. Jarvis.
Those who would not miss a great treat will not fail to hear Col. D. K. McRAE tomorrow evening, at the Opera House, repeat his admirable lecture on "Genius and Talent." It will probably be the last time of its delivery in Wilmington, perhaps in years.

Gov. Jarvis.
The Lieutenant-Governor of the State, Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis, was yesterday inaugurated in due form as Governor, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Gov. Vance. Capt. J. L. Robinson, of Macon, has been chosen to fill the position of Lieutenant-Governor and Speaker of the Senate.

Unmailable.
The following is a list of the unmailable letters, papers etc., remaining in the city Postoffice:
Capt. Geo. Dicks, Beaufort, S. C.; Jno. Martin, care Elder B. W. Morris, Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Lizzie Curtis, Columbia, Ga.; J. C. Sturges, Catuit, Cape Cod; Mrs. E. K. Allen, Hope, Ark.; Mr. P. Montague Long Creek, N. C.

Maj. Engelhard is Better.
We regret to learn that Maj. J. A. Engelhard, Secretary of State, was very ill yesterday—so ill, in fact, that his daughters, Misses Placido and Rosabelle, who were visiting here, were telegraphed to come to him. But we are glad to know to-day that he is much better and that he is considered out of danger now. We did not learn the exact nature of the disease but know that Maj. Engelhard has not been well for several weeks past.

City Court.

Alderman Bowden, Mayor pro temp. presiding.
The first on docket this morning were Jno. Hill and Ben Allen, two colored youths some ten years of age, who were arrested by officer King yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of Oakdale Cemetery after a run of six or eight squares, for insulting persons on the street. The Mayor pro tem fined them $1.50 each or five days in the city prison.

Jno. Hawley, alias Dillingham, a beardless, smooth-face, white youth of eighteen or twenty summers and an inhabitant of Paddy's Hollow, and also a frequenter of all the low dance houses in that vicinity, according to the testimony of the police, was arraigned this morning upon the charge of interfering with the police force in the discharge of their duties. The Mayor pro tem, after hearing the evidence in the case, put some plain practical questions to the prisoner regarding the localities he visited and then, apparently more in sorrow than in anger, imposed a fine of $1.00 or five days in the city prison.

Mike Feden, colored, the notorious little rascal Mike and another colored boy, J. J. Wilson by name, were arrested and lodged in the Guard House last night for disorderly conduct. Mike was given one day more in the Guard House and the other little rogue was discharged. This last case cleared the docket and the court adjourned.

Appleton's Journal.

The February issue of this excellent monthly, being No. 32 of the new series, has been some days at hand and with the following excellent table of contents:
The Romance of a Painter. Part Second. From the French of Ferdinand Faber. The Shakespearean; by Appleton Morgan. "A man may not marry his grandmother." (Conclusion.) By Horace E. Scudder. English Literature. A Chapter from a New History; by Spencer Walpole. The Historical Aspect of the United States; by A. P. Stanley; Dean of Westminster. The Judgment of Midas. A Sonnet; by John Brongham. On Certain Present Phenomena of the Immigration; by Lord Houghton. Intolerance and Persecution; by W. H. Mallock. Verify Your Compass; by W. R. Greg. Some Modern Artists—Fortuny, Millais, the Greek Artists of England; Leslie; by Harry Quilter. Editors Table: Amending the Constitution—The Nude in Art—Novel-Reading. Books of the Day.

Business Law.
Ignorance of the law excuses no one. An agreement without consideration is void. Signatures made with lead pencil are good in law. A receipt for money paid is not legally conclusive. The acts of one partner bind all the others. Contracts made on Sunday cannot be enforced. A contract made with a minor is void. A contract made with a lunatic is void. Agents are responsible to their principals for errors. Principals are responsible for the acts of the agents. Each individual in a partnership is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of a firm. A note obtained by fraud, or from a person in a state of intoxication, cannot be collected. A note given by a minor is void. It a note be lost or stolen, it does not release the maker; he must pay it. An indorser of a note is exempt from liability if not served with notice of its dishonor within twenty-four hours of its non-payment.

He Walked It.
The rope walker Dare by name and daring by nature, gave his promised foolhardy performance to-day, as he announced that he would. There were at least one thousand persons present on the occasion. A collection was taken up by the performer in person before he made the ascent and he probably realized a handsome little sum in nickles and dimes.

Public Meeting in Pender.
BURGAU, N. C., Feb. 2nd, 1879.
At a meeting of the Democrats of Pender county, to-day, Dr. E. Porter was called to the chair, and Mr. Bruce Williams was requested to act as Secretary. A committee on resolutions reported the following through their Chairman, Dr. Satchwell, which was adopted:
Whereas, The people of Pender county are properly alive to the importance of public measures now before the legislature and agitating the public mind of the State. Therefore,
Resolved, That we are opposed to the project of making new roads or of keeping up those already constructed by taxation, but are in favor of adhering to the present system of working public roads, and believe it would be efficient if the present law in relation to overseers and road hands should be rigidly enforced.

Resolved. That the interest in sheep husbandry and of popular education demand the enactment by the Legislature of a dog law, as it is commonly called, and that such a law would be of great benefit to all classes and colors in Pender county, and of immense advantage to the people of the whole State.

Resolved. That the welfare and good name of our noble old commonwealth demand that the present Legislature should make some fair, just, and honorable compromise of such portions of the public debt of the State as North Carolina is bound in honor to pay, and that in order for the interest of such amount of the principal of said debt as the Legislature may agree to pay, may be felt with the least inconvenience and hardship by the people, we recommend our present general assembly to pass the bell-punch law, as the best means of paying the interest of such principal, believing as we do that the principle and purpose of such a law is wise and just, and needs to be put in legal operation in North Carolina.

Resolved. That the Representative and Senator in the Legislature from Pender, are hereby respectfully requested to use their influence in the General Assembly against any law proposing to keep up the public roads of Pender by taxation, and in favor of the measures announced and approved of in these resolutions.

Mr. Bruce Williams introduced the following resolution which was adopted: That inasmuch as the Democratic Executive Committee of the county having failed or refused to act in regard to recommending Magistrates for appointment by the present Legislature, that this meeting recommend that the Democrats of each township meet at their respective voting places on Saturday, the 8th inst., at 12 o'clock, M. and recommend to our Senator and Representative in the Legislature from Pender county, the names of such men as they may desire to be appointed Magistrates.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to prepare the proceedings of this meeting and request their publication in the WILMINGTON REVIEW, JOURNAL, Sun and Star.

BRUCE WILLIAMS, Secretary.
One Week in Wall Street.
October 7th, 1878, Western Union Telegraph stock sold at the New York Stock Exchange for 96.1-8 per share; October 14th, 1878, it sold at 86.3-4. A fluctuation of 9-3-8 per cent., in seven days; 12,500 shares sold on a margin of one per cent. required an actual capital of $12,500. The same stock delivered at 86.3-4 gave a profit of 9-3-8 per cent. on the stock or $937.50 per 100 shares. On the whole 12,500 the actual profit was $117,187.50 or 9-3-8 times the capital used in one week. This is a single case taken from the official record of the Stock Exchange, and shows how much money is made so rapidly in stocks. Few people, however, have the necessary cash to put up in order to realize such immense profits as these, but capital in any amount from $10 to $50,000 can be used with equal success by the new combination system of operating in stocks which Messrs Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York, have established. By this method of pooling thousands of orders in various sums and operating them as one immense capital, shareholders realize large profits which are divided pro rata monthly. New circular contains two unerring rules for success, and full information, so that any one can operate profitably. Stocks and Bonds wanted Government Bond supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, and a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for using in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. W. Sherar, 140 Power's Block, Rochester, New York. 4w
