Kite-flying is the pastime of the average small boy just now.

The next legal holiday will be on the 22nd inst.,—Washington's birthday.

Col. John W. Atkinson, who was in Raleigh last week, has returned to the city.

The days are growing longer at the rate of one minute and thirty seconds each 24 hours.

Decorated boxes filled with gloves or perfumery make handsome as well as servicable valentines.

The Hop to be given by the Lotus Club on Wednesday evening will be given complimentary to the married folks.

The ice boats in Northern harbors are doing a brisk business this winter. We also have a Nyce boat in our harbor which is the very mischief for business.

Etiquette permits ladies and gentlemen to speak to each other in the drawing-room of a common friend, without any introduction, though gentlemen usually prefer to ask for an introduction.

Notwithstanding the extreme length of this season's ulsters, we have failed to see any young man reach after his trail with that desperate clutch so much admired in the opposite sex.

Messrs Cronly & Morris will sell tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, under direction of Mr. O. G. Parsley, Agent, at that gentleman's wharf, 10 tons Lee's Prepared Lime, slightly damaged.

Mr. A. G. Ricard, of this city, recently licensed to practice law by the Supreme Court of the State, was sworn in before His Honor Judge Meares, of the Criminal Court, this morning and admitted to practice at the Bar.

By request we call particular attention to the fact that the sale of oil paintings will begin to-morrow evening, instead of this evening, as announced, as the preparations could not be completed to-day, as was expected.

Plenty of sea gulls flying about over the harbor to day, which is considered by seamen as indicative of stormy weather, as those birds invariably seek inland waters just previous to an approaching storm.

A poor unfortunate tramp, Edward Horry by name, who hails from Baltimore and is some forty years of age or thereabouts, sought lodgings at the Guard House on Saturday night and was accommodated, but when the morning came he was unable to leave owing to an attack of pneumonia which he was suffering from, and to-day the authorities had him sent out to Dr. Lane's hospital for treatment.

Store Robbery.
The meat store of our young friend, Mr. W. M. Hays, on the corner of Sixth and Chestnut streets, was entered on Saturday night last by some meat-loving burglar and robbed of a small piece of beef and about ten pounds of pork. The thief was very considerate, taking only about enough to last a large family over Sunday.

Buckwheat Cakes.
If properly made, are a choice dish for breakfast. If you wish them nice, light, and wholesome, always use DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER. Your grocer has it or can get it for you.

Personal.

Mr. H. E. Scott, one of the Representatives from this county in the General Assembly, is here on a short leave and will return to his post to-morrow. He informs us that in his opinion it will be impossible for the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line extension bill to pass.

Indications.
WAR DEPARTMENT
Office of the Chief Signal Officer.
Washington D. C., Feb. 10th 1879.
For the South Atlantic States easterly to southerly winds, falling barometer and rising temperature with increasing cloudiness during the day and possibly light rain by Tuesday morning.

Has Returned.
Mr. R. H. Beery who has been North examining the latest modern improvements in "floating docks," has returned to this city and will commence the erection of a floating dock in a few days. Mr. Beery has the contract, from responsible parties, for building the dock and in a short time Wilmington will be supplied with a floating dock.

An Old Citizen Gone.
Mr. Thomas Gladden, an old and respected citizen of Masonboro Sound, died yesterday after a short illness. He was a soldier of the war of 1812 and could tell many quaint old tales of "ye oldentimes." Mr. Gladden was very nearly 80 years of age and had been residing, as a beneficiary, on the property of Dr. W. W. Harris for many years. He was a good old man. May his ashes rest in peace.

The Opera House and Lectures.
The Opera House is without any engagement at present so far as we can learn. But then we begin to feel a little independent now about such matters at least so long as the Library Association will agree to be the instrument of furnishing us once a week with such rare entertainments as Col. MacRae has dished up to us from his intellectual store-house, during the past two weeks. It is a feast that one cannot be surfeited on soon, and we are still inclined, like the insatiable little Oliver of Dickens' creation, to ask for more and that right soon.

City Court.
Mayor S. H. Fishplate presiding: Thomas Hines and Charles Dewey, for a little set-to in the dance hall of Bryson's sailor boarding house, on Saturday night, were fined $5 or ten days imprisonment for the first named party and $2.50 or five days imprisonment for the last named party in the affray.

Jane Fulford and Mary Anderson were arraigned for the larceny of three sticks of wood from the Gas House on Saturday night, but as the property could not be identified and the witness surmised was not willing to make affidavit to the property and could not say of his own knowledge that the defendants committed the theft, the case was continued and the defendants recognized in the sum of 50 to appear when summoned to the Mayor's presence.

Off for Connecticut.
Messrs Emmons and Newberry, two gentlemen from the "Nutmeg State," who have been visiting relatives in this State during the last four or five weeks, and of whom we made mention some few days ago, started for their homes this morning. This is their first visit to the South and they return to the North with the most favorable and pleasant impressions of our climate, people and State. Since arriving here they have traveled quite extensively through the surrounding counties, and have kept eyes and ears wide open to study the characteristics of our people. They did not come as politicians seeking how they could make political capital, but as business men who had the time and money to spare and which they devoted to their own instruction by a personal observation of the habits and customs of our people. They have been cordially received everywhere, and they bestow the highest encomiums on all they have seen and experienced while in North Carolina. We wish them a happy and safe journey home, and a cordial welcome at their New England firesides, with the hope that we may see them among us again at no very distant day. Come again, gentlemen. Come in watermelon time and bring your families with you.

The ward meetings called for this evening are for the attendance of Democrats only. Let the officers of the various ward clubs see to it, therefore, that none but Democrats are admitted to the deliberations.

The Meetings To-Night.

Meetings will be held in all of the wards in the city this evening, and a full attendance of the Democratic voters is earnestly urged. The object of the meetings is to lay before the residents of the various wards propositions or suggestions emanating from the Central Committee relative to municipal affairs. It is proposed that amendments be made to the city charter whereby the election set for next month may be annulled and the present administration be continued in office, subject to such changes in representation as may be desired by the citizens of the various wards, a plan to effect which will also be submitted. It therefore behooves every one who has a proper regard for the due administration of the affairs of the municipality to be present at his respective ward meeting to-night.

Barbarous.
On Saturday night last a small orphan colored girl about eight years of age named Julia Ann Williams, living with Sarah Allen, a colored woman, on the corner of Eleventh and Wooster streets, was most cruelly beaten by the latter, and in about two hours after the beating the child died. A post mortem examination was made and it was the opinion of the physician that death was caused as much by exposure as it was by the beating. Special Coroner A. H. Leslie held an inquest at which it was developed that the child had been subjected to the most brutal beating and exposure at the hands of Sarah Allen, who had her in charge, and Virginia Ann Hines, another colored woman who occupied the same tenement. The finger could hardly be laid upon any portion of the body of the unfortunate child without coming in contact with the bruises these fendish women had inflicted. They are now in jail where we hope they may remain until an impartial justice shall mete to them the punishment they deserve.

Criminal Court.
His Honor Judge Meares presiding, convened this morning at 10 o'clock, when the following named persons were drawn to serve as Grand Jurors during the term, to wit: C. G. Southerland, Foreman, Geo M Grapon, Jno Mauder, Alonzo Hewlett, Jno W Perdus, J W Johnson, Nicholas Morris, Iredell Johnson, Moses D Motte, George Leonard, Jno R Latta, Louis Davis, Alex Moore, Henry Shepard, Jesse Lowe, Wm Kellogg, Jas P Walton and Thos Ennett. The Jurors were then sworn and took their seats in the jury box, when His Honor delivered in his usual lucid and forcible manner his charge, exceeding in point of ability perhaps any of his previous charges to the Grand Jury. The Court then at 12.30 o'clock took a recess until 2 1/2 o'clock at which time the docket was taken up and the following cases disposed of:

State vs O A Wiggins, charged with trading without license. Dismissed.
State vs Edward Kidder, Geo W Kidder and Gilbert P Kidder, charged with trading without a license. Dismissed.
State vs Jas H Chadbourne and George Chadbourne, charged with trading without a license. Dismissed.
State vs Lewis James, assault and battery. Nol pros entered.
State vs Martin O'Brien, assault and battery. Continued until Thursday.
State vs Joseph Johnson, assault and battery. Continued.
State vs James Heaton and John O Smith, charged with an affray. On trial.

Sale of Fine Paintings.
A very fine opportunity to ornament your houses and thereby add to the attraction of the roof-tree, is offered by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, who will begin the sale to-morrow evening, in the Wheeler & Wilson store on Market street, of a large number of oil paintings, from the Philadelphia Art Gallery. They are all oil paintings, with not a chromo among them, and represent every variety of subjects. The sale is peremptory and commences to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock.

Off for Raleigh.
Maj. C. M. Stedman left here this morning for Raleigh and Capt. D. R. Murchison and Mayor Fishplate will leave to-morrow morning. The bill in regard to the extension of the R. & A. A. L. charter is the special order for Wednesday.

AMUSEMENTS.—Theatre goes and all such as keep late hours are very liable to contract a severe cough or cold. A safe and reliable cure is Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup. The price is only 25 cents.
