JOSM. T. JAMES, Ed. and Prop.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1879.

THAT'S THE WAY THE MONEY GOES!

There are twenty-five or thirty ports of entry in the United States where the expenses double, treble and quadruple the receipts. At Nantucket, Mass., last year the receipts were ninety and the expenditures two thousand dollars. At Little Egg Harbor, New Jersey, the receipts were seven dollars and the expenses twenty-two hundred. At St. Augustine, Fla., the receipts were thirty-six dollars and the expenses forty-three hundred. At Teche, La., the receipts were twenty-seven dollars and the expenses seven thousand. Congress could display its economy by abolishing all these so-called ports of entry or by devoting only the receipts to the salaries.

A BRIGHTER OUTLOOK.

A New York letter to the News and Courier says, January goes out with a temperate as mild almost as any day in April, and with the incoming of February merchants in the leading lines of business are eagerly scanning the commercial horizon to discover some signs of the spring trade. It is a long while since so hopeful a feeling predominated among them, based upon the improved condition of the country, the success of specie resumption and the abundance of capital which must soon be seeking active employment, and as the season advances, there is no reason why the prevailing expectations of a satisfactory business all around should not be realized. At all events, this is the prevailing sentiment in mercantile circles for the moment, and it may be placed on record in contrast with the general disposition to croak and to take dismal views of the future, with which, it will be remembered, February a year ago was ushered in.

Read the article on third page of this issue relative to the legislative plunders of old Dr. Hawkins and Monroe Robinson in Chatham county.

BULLY FOR BROGDEN.

In the House of Representatives at Washington Mr. Hewitt of New York offered an amendment to section 2,002 of the Revised Statutes, so as to expunge there from authority to have troops at the polls on election day, "to keep the peace," which was adopted, yeas, 110; nays, 95—a strictly party vote, with the exception of Brogden of North Carolina, who voted with the Democrats.

For some time past we have noticed that the Hon. Curtis H. has manifested symptoms of returning reason, and now that his place is soon to be filled by a staunch Democrat, we presume he intends to retire as gracefully as possible, and we hope that he will hereafter work in accord with the Democracy of his State.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE.

Speaker Andrews, of the Wyoming Assembly, a Democrat, testifies that he went to the Territory eight years ago, prejudiced against the idea of female suffrage, but that now he must admit that the more he has seen of the workings of the system the less his objections have been realized, and the more it has commended itself to his judgment and good opinion. "I am thoroughly convinced," he says, "that the only true, consistent and honest method of exercising the right of franchise under our representative form of government," Laramie City, with a population of 2,500, cast about 1,200 votes at the last election, one-third of which were deposited by women, many of whom were lately come from the East. As a rule the women are more independent voters than the men, and though they do not always exercise their right of suffrage they are sure to be found at the polls whenever any particularly important question comes up or when a scandalous nomination has been made.

TEA CULTURE IN THE SOUTH.

The Charleston News and Courier has a very interesting article on the subject of tea culture in the South, apropos of the visit and investigations of the Baltimorean who is looking up the matter in some of the Southern States, and we present herewith a portion of it to our readers:

There is no doubt that the tea plant will grow well throughout South Carolina, and better in this State than in Georgia. The plant is not injured by ordinary cold weather, bearing without danger temperature as low as 2 deg. Fahrenheit. Such cold is an advantage to the plant as it checks the rapidity of development. It needs no special care, but Mr. Gill finds that usually the plant is not trimmed closely enough. The leaves used for making tea are only one, two and sometimes three leaves on the extreme end of each branch or limb, and the object of the cultivator, therefore, should be to keep the plant down so as to multiply the number of branches. This also renders the leaves easier to pick. The plant can be raised from cuttings or from seeds, and requires no particular nursing. Plants in hot houses, free from the influence of frost, do not bear as well as plants in the open air.

The common belief is that the manufacture of tea is attended with peculiar difficulties. This is a mistake. The different grades of tea made in China come from the same plant. They are, in fact, the same leaves picked at different stages of growth and differently cured. It is not essential that tea grown in this country should have the same appearance as Chinese tea. The American tea is as fragrant and invigorating, and as avowedly American tea will bring as high a price as the Indian, Chinese or Japanese variety. Mr. Gill is confident that the curing and preparation can be done with machinery of simple construction as thoroughly and more cheaply and by hand. The purpose is to form a company, in time, for the manufacture of tea, similar to the companies established in India, which pay their stockholders dividends of 18 and 20 per cent. Our understanding is that Gillett & Co. will purchase at the rate of $1 a pound, such South Carolina leaves as will be properly picked and forwarded to them for manufacture.

We shall await with much interest the formal report to be made by Mr. Gill upon his return, and it is to be hoped that, in the meantime, they who are now growing tea plants will continue their cultivation. There is far less difficulty in making tea than in growing and preparing it, and we see no reason why Carolina tea should not soon be as well and favorably known as our famous long cotton.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 7, 1879.

The House, I fear, is making progress backwards in the matter of Army reorganization. It has done an injudicious thing in putting upon the Army appropriation bill an ill digested scheme of reorganization. The proposed plan of reorganization is better, to be sure, than Brunsides', but it has not had discussion in either House or consideration by the people. There is little reduction in numbers or expense in it, and for that reason it is what the people need and demand. It has many provisions of doubtful benefit, and for that reason it ought to come up as an independent measure, and have full consideration.

The same objection cannot be made to the Army appropriation bill, the bill to transfer the Indian Bureau to the War Department. This, also, was agreed upon yesterday by the House in Committee of the Whole. The subject is better understood, the transfer is generally asked for by the people, and it will unquestionably cause a great saving of expense.

Unless our friends in the House, however, exhibit more fairness in these subjects than they have shown in other matters, they will, as soon as the Senate opposes them, recede from the amendments. There has been shown little "backbone" on the part of Democrats in the House of late, in insisting on bills reported by its committees, or in opposing extravagant schemes from the Senate. So true is this that Speaker Randall yesterday felt compelled to take the floor and infuse some of his spirit into the Democratic Representatives. He succeeded, as he always does on such occasions, to the delight of his party and to the great annoyance of the Radicals.

We have now had two days of the New York Investigation of cipher despatches. The result, so far, is a general admission that certain Democrats agreed among themselves to raise money to use upon the South Carolina Returning Board. They were not men prominent in the party, and they did not have the countenance of prominent men of the party. Mr. Smith M. Weir, who telegraphed North for the money and who testified on Wednesday, states the case up to the time he sent the first despatch to New York for money.

"Fully believing then what I believe to have been since fully demonstrated, that the Democrats had carried two at least of the three disputed States and that a conspiracy had been formed on the Republican side to count us out and that if the vote of South Carolina was cast in favor of the Democratic electors, as I believed it had been honestly cast by the people, that the conspiracy would then be at an end, because they would not pretend to take either Louisiana or Florida; and they ought to have all the three States to consummate their arrangement, I determined to see what there was of it and at once telegraphed to New York asking if money could be furnished."

Mr. Weir and Mayor Cooper on Wednesday, and Col. Pelton on Thursday, all testified, that Mr. Tilden had no knowledge of money being raised for the purpose and as soon as he accidentally learned of it he stopped everything of the kind. A protracted cross-examination only strengthened their statements on this point. In this city, for several days, the proceedings of the Potter Committee have consisted only of hearing evidence in contradiction of a man named St. Martin, one of those phenomenal Lars whom the radical party had as a leader in Louisiana.

If we may judge by the sub-committee appointed to inquire into the subject of aiding the New York, New Orleans and South American steamship lines, the full Senate Committee on Appropriations is in favor of such aid. Dorsey, Blaine, and Wallace, all advocates of the subsidy, are the sub-committee. Among other Democrats of the Senate who agree with Senator Wallace may be mentioned Gordon, Lamar, Eastus, Maxey and others.

GURDGE.

PEOPLE AND THINGS.

Whatever boarding-house keepers may say about it, it is a fixed fact that nature loves a cheerful eater.—N. O. Picayune.

Probably the happiest combination in all this wide world, during all these merry winter days, is half a mince pie with a boy around it.—Burlington Hawkeye.

"First class in astronomy, stand up. Where does the sun rise?" "Please, sir, down in our meadow; I see it yesterday." "Hold your tongue, you dunce. Where does the sun rise?" "I know, in the east." "Right! and why in the east?" "Because the east makes everything rise."

"Mamma," said a wicked youngster, "am I a canoe?" "No, child, why do you ask?" "Oh, because you always say you like to see people paddle their own canoe; and I didn't know but maybe I was yours." The boy went out of the door with more reference to speed than grace.

Breathth county, Ky., is described in the Louisville Courier-Journal as: "a land where revolver and rifle are used for the purpose of settling disputes; Where life is regarded as only a trifle, and it is usual for people to die in their boots."

Quicken the Circulation. Don't let the blood stagnate in your veins. You can prevent this doing so by increasing its volume and purity, by stimulating the digestive organs, and encouraging stimulation, with that matchless vitalizing agent, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. People not afflicted with any organic disease, grow weak and thin simply because their blood is thin, watery, deficient in nourishing properties and so meagre, in quantity that the extremities are very imperfectly supplied with it, and the superficial circulation extremely feeble. Hence the bloodless appearance of the countenance. But when the Bitters are used to enrich and quicken the blood, the rosy hue of health returns to the cheek, the frame acquires substance as well as vigor, the appetite improves, and no digestive quagmire interferes either with its gratification or with the subsequent tranquility of the stomach.

LIVER

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person about three gallons, passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. It is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is no longer able to perform its duty. It causes the skin to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malaria Fever, Sickness and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. MARRELL'S LIVER TONIC, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty looking skin, will astonish all who try it. It cures all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking HEPATIS in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is given.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co's SELECT LIST OF Local Newspapers.

Many persons suppose this list to be composed of cheap, low-priced newspapers. The fact is quite otherwise. The catalogue states exactly what the papers are. When the name of a paper is printed in FULL FACE TYPE it is in every instance the BEST paper in the place. When printed in CAPITALS it is the ONLY paper in the place. When printed in roman letters it is neither the best nor the only paper, but is usually a very good one, notwithstanding. The list gives the population of every town and the circulation of every paper. IT IS NOT A CO-OPERATIVE LIST. IT IS NOT A CHEAP LIST. At the foot of the Catalogue for each St. to the important towns which are not covered by the list are enumerated. IT IS AN HONEST LIST. The rates charged for advertising are barely one-fifth the publishers' schedule. The price for single States ranges from $1 to $50. The price for one inch four weeks in the entire list is $50. The regular rates of the papers for the same space and time are $2, $26.66. The list includes 955 newspapers of which 170 are listed DAILY and 776 WEEKLY. They are located in 799 different cities and towns, of which 25 are State Capitals, 246 places cover 5,000 population, and 486 County Seats. Lists sent on application. Address Geo. P. P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.

Those who'll read this rhyme and visit our store Will appreciate more than ever before That our motto do's not vainly aspire To climb Olympus, and ingloriously expire In the attempt, but keeps an even pace With the time, and always points to the place Where they 'blow' about one special thing, Which has, without doubt, the true business ring.

And this thing we will briefly explain, With the hope that we will cause no pain

To brother grocer, who, in years gone by, Learned to get good at figures that were high.

Unfortunately we see some of them incline To follow the customs of "Auld Lang Syne," But we consider it matter of congratulation That we've no foggy notions in our education!

In old time "big profits" had a "wide fringe," And old habits are hard, hard to change.

Of Wilmington grocers we take the lead! Now to prove this assertion we only need

To remind the public that our clean new store Made others be painted and swept a little more!

Like all business men who are truly wise, We at once began to extensively advertise,

When our friends catching the idea, it thought it well

To increase their space, as the print will tell!

At first we put some poetry in our "ad,"! But when they saw this plan was not bad,

They followed our lead. And when we tried prose

They followed as nicely as if led by the nose!

We next thought 't would be well to try rhyme,

When lo! they grasped the idea as sublime!

Though they have followed in all we have done,

When this battle is well fought and won,

Some will see that "extra percent." isn't "nonsense,"

But with old stock and such heavy expense,

They will find that the prices of P. L. Bridgers & Co.

If followed will surely bring them to woe!

To prove that we mean what we say,

We announce that we sell for a week from to-day,

Eleven pounds of "A Sugar" for only one dollar,

Which led we invite all grocers to follow. The mose here caught eight of that "one-horse grinding machine of Herr Von Kris Kringle, and was so thoroughly disgusted at the cheap way of grinding out poetry that neither love nor money could induce him to finish our rhyme, so it had to come to an abrupt ending.

Respectfully and Truly, P. L. BRIDGERS & CO. Jan 21
