If you pick a paragraph up for a fool, simply because he writes foolish things, and a printer for a saint, simply because he sets up hymn books, you'll get most terribly fooled in both instances.

A new postage stamp has been ordered by the Postoffice Department, to be used on letters not prepaid. Under the new regulation a letter not prepaid is sent to the postmaster at the office of its designation with the stamp upon it.

Delegates to the State convention of Northern settlers at Raleigh on March 1st, are informed that round trip tickets over the Carolina Central and Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroads will be for sale at all offices along the line of the road, and also on the North Carolina Railroads good for five days, at one fare.

When you see a cross looking man coming down town in the morning with the knees of his pantaloons white and dusty, and several bits of straw and a diminutive feather sticking in his hair, you can just make up your mind that he's been under the bed looking for that blamed collar button.

The Extended Popularity of DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is the best evidence of its worth. Whenever you want a light, white, sweet biscuit, delicious pot-pie, elegant cake, or a choice pudding, DOOLEY'S BAKING POWDER should be used. Perfect purity and absolute full weight are the watch-words of the manufacturers.

An Indication.

As an indication of the fact that almost any useful article may be bought now for a small sum, Messrs. Brown & Roddick handed us yesterday a black cambrie parasol, small but complete and substantial, which they actually sell for ten cents and on which they make a profit—or they would not sell it. Ten cents for a parasol! Think of it!

Unmailable.

The following is a list of unmailable papers and letters remaining in the city Postoffice:

Edward Buse, Constantine N Y; D. H. Smith, care G. H. French, Seb. Ross Horse, Aspinwall, W. S. J; Ella Baker, Raleigh, N. C.

From Natural Causes.

The name of the colored woman whose sudden death was chronicled in yesterday's REVIEW was Becky Sauls. She has been sick for some time. The Coroner's Jury summoned by Special Coroner A. H. Leslie returned a verdict of "Death from natural cause."

General Orders.

We are indebted to an officer of the Second Regiment N. C. S. G., for copies of the following General Orders, recently issued from the office of the Adjutant-General of the State:

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, RALPHIGH, JAN. 19th, 1879. [GENERAL ORDERS NO 36]

In elections for field officers the following regulations are prescribed, and will hereafter be strictly observed:

- 1. Field officers of Regiments and Battalions are chosen by the written votes of the commissioned officers of the companies of the respective Regiments or Battalions. (Act to establish the State Guard, Laws of 1876-77, chap. 272, sec. 8.)
- 2. Field and staff officers have no right to take any part in elections for field officers; and can be present at such elections only as visitors or spectators, by invitation of the line officers composing the meeting.
- 3. The commissioned officers of the companies holding an election for field officers are entitled each to one vote, and may be represented by proxy. Proxies must be in writing. No one can act as proxy, unless he be entitled himself to vote in the election.
- 4. Upon assembling for an election for field officers, the electors present will organize for business by calling the senior Captain, or, if there be no Captain present, the senior Lieutenant present, to the chair to preside over the meeting. A Secretary will then be elected.
- 5. After the meeting is duly organized, the Chair will read or cause the Secretary to read, the General Orders under which the election is held, and the regulations contained in this order.
- 6. The names of the candidates or candidates for the position or positions to be filled, will then be put in nomination, and the electors shall proceed to vote by ballot, the votes to be received and recorded in the usual way.
- 7. The candidate receiving a majority of all the votes cast shall then be declared elected; and the result of the election shall be certified by the presiding officer and the Secretary of the meeting, and transmitted forthwith to the Adjutant General, through Brigade Headquarters. And it shall be the duty of the Brigadier General to endorse thereon his approval or disapproval of the proceedings, giving his reasons explicitly in case of disapproval.
- 8. In case of a tie vote the balloting must continue, under adjournments from day to day if necessary, until one of the candidates receives a majority of all the votes cast.
- 9. A majority of the electors of the Regiment or Battalion, present at the meeting or represented by proxy, constitute a quorum.
- 10. Officers will appear in uniform at all elections.
- 11. All meetings for the purpose of electing field officers will be governed by the customary parliamentary rules.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief: JOHNSTONE JONES, Adjutant General.

Approved—Z. B. VANCE, Governor and Commander-in-Chief.

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS, STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, RALPHIGH, JAN. 30th, 1879. [GENERAL ORDERS NO. 37]

I. The proceedings of the meeting of commissioned officers of the Second Regiment of Infantry, held at Raleigh on the 10th inst., under General Orders No. 33, for the election of field officers, are not approved; and said election is hereby declared null and void.

II. The commissioned officers of the companies composing the Second Regiment will assemble in Wadesboro, on Tuesday, the 25th day of February next, for the annual election of field officers, as required by law.

III. The election will be conducted in accordance with the regulations contained in General Orders No. 36.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief: JOHNSTONE JONES, Adjutant General.

Taking it Down.

The front brickwork in the Jones London building on Water street having been completed, the workmen are to-day engaged in taking down the scaffolding that has so long been an impediment to pedestrians on North Water street. This will be a matter of congratulation to brokers and commercial reporters on a rainy day like yesterday.

More Handsome Things.

Mr. Heinberger is still getting in new and handsome musical instruments and he prides himself in keeping up with the improvements in his line of trade. See advertisement for particulars and then look at his stock of useful, instructive and pleasing things.

Dead Men's Bones.

A day or two ago, while Mr. McDermott was engaged in digging up some gas pipes near the corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets, he discovered a number of bones of dead men. Judging from what he said, we presume several persons were buried in that locality long years ago.

The River.

The muddy water of the Cape Fear, driven by the strong northwest wind that is prevailing to-day, is rushing rapidly on down to the sea.

The heavy rains in the up country recently has caused the river to rise some ten or fifteen feet since yesterday and we are informed by Captain Watson, of the North State, that there will probably be a rise of forty or fifty feet on this freshet.

Criminal Court.

The Criminal Court has been occupied the most of the day and up to the time of closing our report with the trial of Edward Thomas, colored, for perjury.

The case was given to the jury about half-past 2 o'clock when the court took a recess for dinner. At half-past 3 o'clock the jury were still out. The Court has signified its intention of finishing the docket with the jury cases to-day.

To-morrow sentence will probably be passed on those who have been convicted at this term, among whom are the two colored women found guilty of manslaughter.

Music and Calisthenics.

One of the most pleasing exhibitions that we have witnessed for a long time came off last evening at Meginney's Hall in this city. It was a representation by the pupils of Misses Barr & James' school, a melange, consisting of music, vocal and instrumental, and exercises in gymnastics and calisthenics. It was an exceedingly agreeable entertainment and we do not know when we have passed an hour or two more pleasantly.

The exhibition opened by a chorus, the Bell Song, rendered by the pupils in fine style, which was followed by instrumental music by one of the young misses, who acquitted herself most creditably. Then came the Indian Club exercises, trunks and waist exercises with wands and the amusing recitation of the Razor Seller, followed by the beautiful duet "Wert thou in the cauld blast" which was rapturously enjoyed, the Indian Club race and more instrumental music, the whoe closing with the charge of the Light Brigade, performed in elocution, music and gymnastics.

To say that we were pleased would convey but a slight idea of our feelings; we were simply delighted. The innocence of childhood, and the purity of youth have an irresistible charm for us, and we always feel happier and better, too, when we see them enjoying themselves in innocent amusements, as they did last evening.

The exhibition was a success in every way, and as we gazed upon their graceful movements with the clubs and wands, their light and fantastic step in the airy dance, the admirable time they kept to the notes of swelling music, we felt that it was good to be there, and we could not well determine to whom the meed of praise belonged, the youthful pupils, who showed themselves such apt scholars, or their accomplished teachers, who had so faithfully instructed them.

Such exhibitions are delightful—they stir the blood in the heart of age, causing us to forget for the moment the troubles that surround us on every side, and while witnessing their merry gambols and listening to their joyous laughter (is there anything on earth so full of joy and happiness as the laugh of childhood?) we feel that we are again a child, joining in their sports, and again we are happy. We thank the ladies connected with this institution for the pleasure they gave us last evening; it will dwell in our memory as a very pleasant recollection for a long time to come.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

Lost His Fowls.

The chicken coop of Mr. M. O. Coe, who resides in the eastern portion of the city, was broken open and robbed a few night ago of some very fine, large hens. Like other cases of the kind there is no clue to the perpetrators of the theft. Attempts at incendiarism, burglary, larceny and petty thefts are becoming alarmingly frequent. Active and determined steps should be taken to break up the gang of thieves now infesting the city.

The Knights of the Cactus.

The gathering of the representatives of the surviving veterans of the Mexican war is to take place in Baltimore next Saturday. A good many prominent men are expected to be present—representing the army and navy. It is thought that the final success of the Pension bill and the "Three months pay" bill, as amended by the Senate and now pending in the House, may depend in great measure upon this meeting of veterans. All local associations are requested to send delegates.

Father and Daughter.

Isaac W. Merrick, colored, was pugilistically disposed on yesterday and pounded his step daughter, Amelia Blount by name, over the cranium with a stick. The gentle Amelia, not liking such treatment, applied this morning to Justice Gardner for the balm of Gilead (alias justice) for her wounded head and feelings. Merrick was arrested and found guilty. He was next arrested on a peace warrant and bound over to the Criminal Court. He was then held to answer the charge of assault and then jerked up on the charge of vagrancy. Altogether Merrick had a tough row to weed, and yet Amelia was not happy, because she was ordered to pay the cost in the case of vagrancy. The old man had to pony down though, and that may be some satisfaction to the husky prosecutor.

P. L. BRIDGERS & CO.

These who'd read this rhyme and visit our store Will appreciate more than ever before That our name does not vainly aspire To climb Olympus, and ingloriously expire In the attempt, but keeps an even pace With the time, and always point to the place Where they "blow" about one special thing, Which has, without doubt, the true business ring. And this thing we will briefly explain, With the hope that we will cause no pain To brother grocers, who, in years gone by, Learned to get goods at figures that were high. Unfortunately we see some of them incline To follow the customs of "Auld Lang Syne" But we consider it matter of congratulation That we've no foggy notions in our education In old time "big profits" had a wide range, And old habits are hard, hard to change. Of Wilmington grocers we take the lead! Now to prove this assertion we only need To renounce the public that our clean new store Made others be painted and swept a little more!

more!

Like all business men who are truly wise, We at once began to extensively advertise, When our friends catching the idea, thought it well To increase their space, as the print will tell! At first we put some poetry in our "ad," But when they saw this plan was not bad, They followed our lead. And when we tried prose They followed as nicely as filed by the nose! We next thought 'twould be well to try rhyme, When lot they grasped the idea as sublime! Though they have followed in all we have done, When this battle is well fought and won, Some will see that "extra per cent." isn't "nonsense," But with old stock and such heavy expense, They will find that the prices of P. L. Bridgers & Co. if followed will surely bring them to weal! To prove that we mean what we say, We announce that we sell for a week from to-day, Eleven pounds of "A Sugar" for only one dollar, Which lead we invite all grocers to follow. The most here caught sight of that one-horse grinding machine of Herr Von Kra Krigle, and was so thoroughly disgusted at the cheap way of grinding out poetry that neither love nor money could induce him to finish our rhyme, so it had to come to an abrupt ending.

Respectfully and Truly, P. L. BRIDGERS & CO. jan 24
