WILMINGTON, N. C.

MONDAY, MARCH 17, 1879.

The reason why Mr. Hayes called the extra session of Congress so soon after the adjournment was because quite a number of the Democratic members were at home sick, and he hoped through their absence to be able to have the House organized with a Republican as Speaker.
But that little trick has failed, as all the absent sick have recovered and will be in Washington in season for the organization of the House.

Dr. Blackburn has now 463 votes instructed for Governor of Kentucky.
Barren's 22 secured and Louisville's 125 conceded; total, 608. Necessary to a choice, 804. Thirty-eight counties and the city of Louisville, with 624 votes, are yet to act. Underwood and Jones each have 177 instructed votes. For Auditor, Hewitt has 393, Smith 273 and Boyd 67.
The canvass will continue for six weeks yet.

A GOOD SELECTION.

In making up the Senate Committees for the next Congress we are glad to note, that Senator Ransom, of this State, has been assigned to the Chairmanship of the Committee on Railroads.

This is one of the most important committees in Congress, and the duties of its chairman are extremely onerous. They require patience, forethought, skill, industry and a thorough knowledge of the railroad system of the country. Mr. Ransom has had considerable experience on the committee, during the recent sessions of Congress, and will bring to his assistance in his new position a fund of knowledge of incalculable benefit in guiding the labors of the new committee.
He is a pains-taking, earnest worker and will do honor to the position as well as to the party, and the State which he represents. In our judgment no better selection for the place could have been made.

The Republican journals keep up a ghostly grin while announcing that the continued blunders of the leaders of the Democracy will annihilate that party in a very short time. Such has been the cry ever since 1863, but somehow or other Democratic blunders have always tended towards Democratic success until now we have a Democratic majority in both Houses of Congress. We fail to see where Democratic blunders have afforded much consolation to the Republican party.

Texas is another State in trouble.
Since 1873 the debt has increased from $1,750,000 to nearly $6,000,000, and the annual expenses of the government have exceeded its income by about $300,000 a year. There are constitutional impediments in the way of increasing the rate of taxation, or creating any addition to the bonded debt beyond the sum of $200,- 000, and consequently the financial outlook is well nigh hopeless.

The Committee on Federal Relations of the Illinois Senate has reported as follows: Your committee has the distinguished honor of making its first and only report.
We are happy to state that the relations between the General Government and the great commonwealth of Illinois are harmonious; that all is quiet on sloping the banks of the Sangamon as on the peaceful bosom of the Potomac. Your committee did think of making a tour to Washington to investigate the Potter Committee and other dispatches; to instruct Secretary Sherman how to circulate the dollar of our colonial fathers, to urge the ship canal across the upper peninsula of Florida; to connect the Gulf and the Caribbean Sea, and to get an opinion on the Drainage bill, but the fate of other committees at St.
Louis and at the hands of the independent press has deterred us. Mr. President, your committee met, considered, adjourned sine die. Like Othello, our occupation is gone, and we retire to the shade in defeat greatness. Let us have peace.

NEGRO EMIGRATION TO KAN-SAS.

According to the Kansas City Times avant couriers in the negro emigration movement to Kansas reached that city a few days ago and one of them at least met with a downfall of his hopes on the moment of arrival. The Times says:

Yesterday morning brought in a large number of colored emigrants from the Mississippi. They were of the genuine old plantation kind, and full of belief of the various stories that had been told them before leaving their homes and what caused them to come West. After all their baggage had been unloaded and piled away, and a good look at the depot taken by all, one of the party stepped over to the Kansas Pacific land office, on Union avenue, and there addressed Frank Crane; "Say, boss, whar dey get dem $500 and dat 100 acres of land? I see come all de way from ole Mississippi wid de ole woman and de pekinanities to get dat, and dey do tell me over dar (pointing to the Union Depot) de governor of dis State am a colored geman; is dat so, boss?" Frank Crane told him there must be some mistake, as at present they were not giving away any money or land. The honest darkey's face fell several feet and he left, stating he "would leave de woman here and see dat governor"—and, purchasing a ticket for Topeka, he left on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe train for that city.

For the Review.
The Raleigh Imbroiglio.

Mr. Editor:—
The disclosures made in the general row going on at Raleigh, between Col.
Walter Clarke and the Raleigh News on the one side and certain members of the Legislature on the other, attracts much attention. You are aware of the nature of the fight; that it involves the question of the public printing, the investigation of the charge that Capt. Robineon, of Macon, Col.
Richardson, of Columbus, and others drew double pay for mileage in 1876, and the Western N. C. Railroad.
The special friends of the road charge that the telling exposures of the News and of Col. Clarke in relation to the cost, extravagance, and bad management, as the latter content of this great work, are made in a spirit of revenge, because the News did not get the public printing. The News and Col. Clarke retort by saying that all these attacks upon their motives are erroneous and unjust, that they never made any threats or promises in relation to the public printing, as the Legislative Committee, appointed to enquire into this question of "threats and promises," report that the News and Col. Clarke did make. Altogether this contest is one of great interest and magnitude to the people of North Carolina. Not, mind you, as to the personalities of the controversy, nor as to the motives actuating the billigerents, for in these feelings and motives, recriminations and recriminations, the taxpayers and people of the State have nothing to do, and care nothing for, outside of the temporary curiosity which personal quarrels always produce. But the dispute has developed some astounding facts and figures as to the Western North Carolina Railroad that are of great public importance and should have been published earlier in the session of the Legislature. That Railroad is attaining a colossal power in North Carolina that is not wholesome for the Democratic party nor best for the State. In the powerful batteries which Col. Clarke, has opened upon the combination which is running it, upon what he calls the monstrous extravagance, bad management, and tremendous cost of its construction, there are developments that strike deep and strong upon the tax payers of the State, especially of middle and Eastern North Carolina. The Raleigh Observer and others may sing hallelujahs over the fact that the Legislature has about to adjourn and when public dissatisfaction is rising to fearful proportions because of the startling drain upon the Treasury which this road is making—that the Blue Ridge has been penetrated, and the Swannanoa Tunnel is open, but the tax payers of the middle and Eastern counties will reply that all this should have been announced long ago. There is a general feeling of disappointment at the slow progress of the work, and whatever may be the motives of Col. Clarke in his astounding exposures, the three hundred thousand taxpayers of North Carolina are in sympathy with him when he says that over half of the State taxes assessed and collected, are used, not for State government and protection, but to fatten railroad monopolies. Of all the railroad monopolies in the State none can compare in moral, political, and legal influence, with this Western Railroad. Not alone does the East send most of its convicts to work upon it, but its life blood of taxation goes to its construction also. And what benefit it will ever be to the East, has not yet been shown. Rhetoric and eloquence, persuasion, flattery, sophistry and any amount of threats and promises have been expended and made in and out of the Legislature this session and for years past, as to its good and what it could and would do. Thus far the East have been disappointed, deceived and chagrined, at its cost and progress, and no attempt now to eschore or bridle the thoughts and tongues of Eastern taxpayers, as to this mammoth road will succeed.

These everlasting "land slides" "mud cuts", and other unlooked for difficulties in the way of progress of this work, have taxed the patience and pockets of the taxpayers beyond endurance.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Moh. 14, 1879.

Before this letter reaches most of its readers the Speakership contest for the Forty-Sixth Congress will be decided.
Yet, entertaining a conviction that one of the two candidates prominently named should be elected, for the good of both the country and the party, I put on record again certain reasons for that conviction. The session will be one of great importance and demands in the Speaker of the House experience in the position and experience in general politics. These Mr. Randall has. These Mr. Blackburn lacks. It demands the support, not only at the election of Speaker, but in the two years of coming arduous service with a House with hardly a reliable Democratic majority, of every Democrat in the House.
This Mr. Randall's four years as Speaker assures him. There is no such assurance in the case of Mr. Blackburn.

If the Democratic caucus shall nominate, in place of Mr. Randall, any of the Democrats yet mentioned, I trust the nominee, whoever he may be will be elected.

There was discovered a few days since, a rule of the Senate which prevents any change among Senate officers without the consent of the Vice President. Thereupon Senate radical office holders, sang-uine beyond even the usual radical standard, hope for a new lease of official life. In the first place Mr. Wheeler would not, probably, interpose any objection to changes. In the second place, if he should exhibit that bad taste, the Senate would at once rescind the resolution or rule. The changes will be made.
Those who have held office for 20 years or more must give way. The new Senate must take a new departure, not only in measures but in men.

Of the prominent Committee Chairmanships in the Senate little has been said of late. The caucus on Tuesday morning will settle them. The Senate chooses its Committees. Doubtless Thurman will be at the head of the Judiciary and Bayard of Finance and probably Davis, of W. Va., of Appropriations; Saulsbury of Post Offices and Post roads, and Voorhees of Pensions. There has been much talk of reducing the number of Committees in the Senate, by consolidating them. For instance, the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions to be merged into the Committee on Pensions, the Committee on Education and Labor in that on Agriculture, &c. The only object is to save the expense of four or five clerks, ships, and, as the change might, and probably would, be injurious to important interests, it will probably not be made.

Senator Bayard thus states the subjects he thinks should be treated on at the extra session:

"The two appropriation bills which failed, and the passage of the laws providing for a repeal of the war test oath of 1862, which now excludes nearly the entire white population of the Southern States from the jury box; the enactment of a law providing for impartial juries, the right to which is so plainly guaranteed to every person by the fifth amendment of the Constitution; an amendment of the present law which permits the presence of armed forces at elections to keep the peace, and the repeal of those sections of the Revised Statutes which provide for the appointment of Federal officers as supervisors of elections in the several States, and of countless deputy marshals with unlimited power of arrest, with or without process, even while the election is proceeding, and their own immunity from arrest by State authority, no matter how arbitrary or outrageous their misconduct."

Mr. Bayard like every Democrat one meets here now, believes in insisting on all these things, and not in compromising, as it is intimated Mr. Hayes will agree to do, on a part of them.

GURDGE.

Not Symptoms, But the Disease.

It would seem to be a truth appreciable by all, and especially by professors of the healing art, that to remove the disease, not to alleviate its symptoms, should be the chief aim of medication. Yet in how many instances do we see this truth admitted in theory, ignored in practice. The reason that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is successful in so many cases, with which remedies previously tried were inadequate to cope, is attributed to the fact that it is a medicine which reaches and removes the cause of the various maladies to which it is adapted.

Indigestion, fever and ague, liver complaint, gout, rheumatism, disorders of the bowels, urinary affections and other maladies are not palliated merely, but rooted out by it.
It goes to the fountain head. It is really, not nominally, a radical remedy, and it endows the system with an amount of vigor which is its best protection against disease.

SELECT LIST OF
Local Newspapers.

Many persons suppose this list to be composed of a cheap, low-priced newspaper.
The fact is quite otherwise. The catalogue states exactly what the papers are. When the name of a paper is printed in FULL SPIRIT IT is in every instance the BEST paper in the place. When printed in CAP-ITALS it is the ONLY paper in the place.
When printed in roman letters it is neither the best nor the only paper, but is usually a very good one, notwithstanding. The list gives the population of every town and the circulation of every paper. IT IS NOT A CO-OPERATIVE LIST. IT IS NOT A CIRCULAR LIST. At the foot of the Catalogue for each State to the important towns which are not covered by the list are enumerated. IT IS AN HONEST LIST. The rates charged for advertising are barely one-fifth the publishers' schedule. The price for single States ranges from $1 to $50. The price for one month four weeks in the United States is $60. The regular rates of the papers for the same space and time are $2.25 to $6. The list includes 956 newspapers of which 179 are issued DAILY and 77 WEEKLY. They are located in 799

It is no new article, requiring experiments to establish its value, but has been used accepted as the STANDARD FERTILIZER.

It has been our study, not to make it EQUAL to others but SUPERIOR, and for our success in these efforts we refer you to the many of our neighbors who have used it, as well as to the thousands in the South Atlantic Cotton States.

This Guano is so well known that it is unnecessary to publish any certificates but we annex a few testimonials in our circulars only from Planters who have made special tests of it alongside the Peruvian Guano, as showing how it compares with Peruvian Guano, which has heretofore been generally esteemed above all other Fertilizers.

We will have only a moderate supply for sale and would request Planters to make

Our Agents are authorized to sell the MANIPULATED on very favorable terms,
