The second annual fair of Pomona Grange will be held at Poplar Tent, in Cabarrus county, on the 13th and 14th of August.

Charlotte Observer: The business of the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta Railroad in February was $8,000 above of India, dated March 8 what it was for the same month last year. The increase will be still greater this month.

Rev Dr Cravens, president of Trinity College, will deliver the annual address before the literary societies of reported that warlike preparations are the North Carolina (Lutherm) College, at Mt. Pleasant, Cabarrus county, next summer.

"Charlotte Observer: 'The new Union last week. Loss about $600. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. This is the third church that has been destroyed in Preasant Greve circuit within the past twelve months.

Goldsboro Messenger: Oa Saturday last a little son of Mrs Denning was set upon in the street and severely bitten through the thigh by a vicmuch. That dog ought to be kille He has bitten several children, on vas rious occasions.

Monroe Enquirer: We regret to learn that a little son of Maj J B Ashcraft got a leg broken on last Tuesday, by a heavy slate rock turning on him after falling some four feet into a ditch. The little fellow narrowly escaped being crushed to death, as he was in the ditch when the rock tumbled in, and had it fallen on him; instead of only turning over on his leg. after striking the ground, it would have mashed him into a mummy.

Charlotte Observer: Close to Pineville, as the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta train was on the down trip the other day, the bell sounded over the engineer's head and he stopped. Conductor Clarkson got out and asked what was the matter, and a tramp, seated on the platform of the mail car, told him to "go ahead, Cap, I've put the fire out." A spark from the engine had fallen on the tramp's back, burned a hole in his coat and singed his hair. He explained that he had pulled the bell-cord because he couldn't put the fire out in the breeze which the motion of the train created. Then they snatched him off of the platform, quick, and went ahead. A few stations below, somebody went around behind the sleeper, and a tramp, with a hole in the back of his coat, was seated on the platform. They took, him off again, and went shead. At another station they happened to glance under one of the cars and there he was on the trucks, looking quite innocent and contented. For the third time he was invited to The parents of this girl are poor, disembark, and did so with all alacrity, and the next time anybody on the train laid eyes on that tramp, it was at Doko, near Columbia, and he was comfortably coiled up in a retired spot in the second-class car. Nobody had ever before seen a tramp with just this amount of hangonativeness.

A Child Fascinating Birds in Chie. There resides to the vicinity of Harrisburg, in an ont-of-the-way place ions dog belonging to R M Cohen. in Har cook county, about three miles The little fellow is sufferin ved. west of Mount Blatchard, a very remarkable child, only 5 years old, who seems to have the power to charm

Her mother first noticed this strange fascination that the child possesses about a year ago. The little girl was playing in the dooryard among a bevy of snowbirds, and when she spoke to them they would come and light upon her, twittering with glee. On taking them in her hands and stroking them, the birds, instead of trying to get away from their fair captor, seemed to be highly pleased, and when let loose would fly away a short distance and immediately return to the child again. She took several of them into the house to show her mother, who, thinking she might hurt them, put them out of doors, but no sooner was the door opened than the birds flew into the room again, and lst upon the girl's head and began to chirp.

The birds remained about the prem ises all winter, flying to the little girl whenever the door was opened. The parents of the little child became alarmed, believing that this strange power was an ill-omen, and that the much-dreaded visitor, death, was about to visit their house. But death did not come, and during last summer the child has had numerous pets from | Cotton ashore. the birds.
