The wharf at Fort Caswell will soon be finished.

The heart of the truck gardeners is not glad to-day.

The off shore signal has not yet been hauled down.

The recent advance in cotton seems to have livened up things a little.

The matter of Easter eggs is just now exercising the juvenile mind.

With the end of this month oysters step down and out until September.

The thermometer fell to 30 degrees last night—rather a cool proceeding that.

The sale of reserved seats for the Pinafore will commence to-morrow morning.

Most of the lawyers have returned from the Brunswick County Superior Court.

Wood dealers are wearing bright faces to-day, and wood has advanced in price.

The Cornet Concert Club contemplate giving open air concerts this spring and summer. Good.

The Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor of North Carolina meets in Newbern on the 17th of June next.

Something new in the line of French fans are those made entirely of fine wire beautifully painted in various designs.

Shirring is highly fashionable, and no new dress should be without it. Even new Spring eggs are frequently shirred.

Bunting suits that were so popular last Summer will retain their hold on the affections of young ladies as strongly as ever.

The swamps on Eagle Island, opposite the city, and in full view of our office window, are fast donning their "garniture of green."

The boys' and girls expect to pull a picnic soon, or just as soon as the grass grows sufficient to cover the mudholes of the past winter.

Free lunches are growing more and more luxuriant; many a bummer is thus boarding six days in the week, but he has to fast on Sunday.

No particular success attends the efforts of those who desire to revive the very ancient fashion of "poke" bonnets, such as they were in 1492.

Mr. L. R. Burt invites his friends and the public to give him a call. He is now better prepared than ever to do work with neatness and dispatch and at reasonable rates.

It is said that "the kidnappers" are at work during these moonlight nights. We have heard of no one being carried off, but some of the boys have a big scare on them.

Attention has been called to the fact that marriage licenses must be returned to the office of the register of deeds within two months after execution, with certificate filled according to facts, under penalty of forfeiting two hundred dollars to the use of any person who shall sue for the same.

It is a great pity to see how many people allow a cough or cold to go unnoticed, and thus pave the way to an untimely grave from the effects of consumption. A pleasant, safe, reliable and cheap remedy is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.

Cold Weather.

We are informed by railroad officials that the engine and tender on the early train this morning on the W. C. & A. Railroad were well supplied with icicles which had been caused by leakage of water occurring on exposed portions of the machinery remote from the fire of the furnace or the heat of the boiler.

A Large Lemon.

We noticed at the postoffice this morning a lemon which was brought from Florida by Mrs. E. R. Brink, wife of our postmaster, which measured lengthwise 12 1/2 inches in circumference, and crosswise it measured 11 1/2 inches in circumference, and weighing one pound and three ounces. This is one of the largest lemons we have ever seen.

Brentano's Aquatic Monthly and Sporting Gazetteer.

We are in receipt of the April number of the above named magazine, which, as its title implies, is devoted principally to aquatic sports, though there is considerable space given to the turf and predestination. To those who are interested in the delights of yachting or rowing this work gives much information that would be valuable. It is published at Brentano's Literary Emporium, No. 30, Union Square, New York, by August Brentano, Jr., at a subscription price of $4 per annum, or 40 cents per single number.

Counterfeit $50 Notes.

A large stock of counterfeit fifty dollar notes on the Central National Bank, the Traders' National Bank and the National Broadway Bank, all of New York city, remaining in the hands of counterfeiters, they are now endeavoring to utilize them by removing the titles and substituting that of the National Bank of Commerce of New York. Several of these altered notes have made their appearance in New York. The object of changing the titles is to pass them the better, the old counterfeiters having become so well known as to render their passing almost an impossibility. Great caution should be exercised by those who handle fifty dollar notes of the National Bank of Commerce as the counterfeiters are good ones.

Alarm of Fire.

The alarm of fire last night or, rather, early this morning, between two and three o'clock, brought out the fire department, but fortunately there was no need of their services, owing to the fact that Major T. H. McKoy, on whose premises the fire occurred had, with the assistance of a neighbor, extinguished the flames very soon after they were discovered.

This is the second attempt, Major McKoy informs us, that has been made to fire his premises recently. The damage done was trifling, a pine wash board (the fire having occurred in a wash house) being about the only thing that was injured or consumed. It is thought that the incendiary must have thrust the inflammable material through some broken panes of glass in the building in the attempt to accomplish his fiendish purpose.

New Volume and New Serial.

The number of Littell's Living Age for the week ending April 5th begins a new volume of that standard periodical. It contains The Rectification of English Character in English Art, Quarterly Review; An American View of American Competition, by Edward Atkinson, from the Fortnightly Review; an installment of "A Doubting Heart," by the author of "Castle Day," The Fohn, Saturday Review; Nostradamus, Pall Mall Gazette; A Medium of Last Century, a short story from Blackwood; Carnival at Nice, Saturday Review, etc. etc.

The publishers make the announcement that a new serial story from the pen of Jean Ingelow will be begun immediately in The Living Age, from the author's advance sheets. This story will be looked for with much interest.

For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each (more than 3,000 pages a year) the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send one of the American $4 monthlies or weeklies with The Living Age for a year, both postpaid. Littell & Gay, Boston, publishers.

You can now stop at Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, on the American plan for $2.50 or $3.00 per day, or you can, on the European plan, take your breakfast there, in the morning, take your lunch down town or dine with a friend, and your room at the Hotel will only cost you $1.00 per day, and upwards, and meals are also provided, at moderate prices, at the elegant Restaurant attached to the Hotel.

Public Service.

Rev. James M. Sprunt, of Kenansville, will preach at the Second Presbyterian Church, on Campbell street, to night, services commencing at 8 o'clock. The public are respectively invited to attend.

More Room.

We notice that the officials at the Carolina Central Railway are making extensive additions to their wharfage accommodations. This has become necessary on account of the great increase in the amount of freight which has been developed by that road since it has been completed to Charlotte.

Religious Meetings.

We learn that a series of meetings of unusual interest is being conducted at the Fifth Street Methodist Church, under the direction of Rev. B. R. Hall, the pastor. Quite a number have already professed religion and several others are penitents. The meetings are held every night, and will probably continue during the entire week.

The Frost.

This vicinity was visited last night by a heavy frost, which played sad havoc with the early truck gardens. Capt. F. M. Wooten, who had four acres in early beans, lost his entire crop, and also lost most of his early garden peas. He expected to ship some peas next week, but the frost of last night will prevent it. Mr. Thos. H. Monk lost considerably and we have heard of others who are sufferers by the frost.

Alleged Outrage by Federal Officials.

Mr. H. Oglesby, a citizen of Laurinburg, at which place he has been doing business for some time past, was brought here last night from Lumberton by Deputy U. S. Marshal Lawson and lodged in jail. To-day Mr. Frank Fountain, of Laurinburg, who was in the city, appeared before U. S. Commissioner McQuigg and entered into a justified bond of $300 for Mr. Oglesby's appearance at the next term of the District Court, whereupon he was released from custody.

This is all plain enough, so far as the judicial proceedings are concerned, but beneath these facts there are others which, if our information is correct—and it is from excellent authority—savor very much of that official oppression at the hands of revenue runners and bums rs under which our people have so long suffered. Mr. Oglesby has been charged with an infraction of the revenue laws and was sometime since arrested at Laurinburg, carried before a Commissioner and bound over for his appearance at Court. When the Court met Mr. Oglesby was very sick and unable to attend and forward the certificate of a physician to that effect. It was supposed by him that this was sufficient and that, as a matter of course, the case would be continued to the next term when he expected to appear and answer to the charge. A few days since, however, he was inveigled to Lumberton, under the plea of being required as a witness in some case there, and on his arrival in that town was arrested and was last night brought down to this city and lodged in jail here from which he was released to-day, as we have stated, on bond.

These are the facts as they have been given to us and if they are correct they constitute a case of high-handed outrage worthy of the darkest days of reconstruction. It is alleged, we understand, by those who made the arrest—that Mr. Oglesby jumped his bail and that it was not until yesterday that the officers were able to lay their hands on him. And yet, it is said that Mr. Oglesby has continued to be a resident of Laurinburg and has made no effort at any time to evade an arrest. Why he should have been decoyed from Laurinburg to Lumberton, and there arrested, instead of at the former place, is something that it may prove hard to understand. That Mr. Oglesby was a resident of Laurinburg not much more than two months ago we are ourselves well assured as we received a letter from him at that place, about that time, relative to his subscription to the REVIEW. Had he jumped his bond and left Laurinburg, as is alleged, or had he simply failed to appear for trial without a valid excuse, then it is strange that he should have been so readily admitted to bail here to-day and that, too, in only $300.

We trust that the matter may be fully investigated and that the outrage may be passed upon as the merits of the case may demand.

The Wilmington Presbytery.

In accordance with adjournment, the Presbytery met promptly at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and, after calling the roll, proceeded at once to the business of the session.

The Rev R M Miller, of Mecklenburg Presbytery, was invited to sit as a corresponding member.

The Rev K McDonald requested that the Presbytery would dissolve the pastoral relations between himself and Black River Chapel. On motion, this matter was laid on the table for the present.

The first order of the day was here taken up and the reports from the various churches in this Presbytery were read.

The Moderator here read out the list of committees appointed, as follows:

On Religious Exercises—Rev C M Payne, and Ruling Elders John Colville and J C Smith.

Bills and Overtures—Rev Dr J R Wilson, Rev H B Garrison, and Ruling Elder John Colville.

Narrative of General Assembly—Rev A McFadyen, Rev K McDonald, and Ruling Elder T B Hyman.

Judicial Committee—Rev C M Payne and Ruling Elders J C Smith and A B Perry.

Systematic Benevolence—Rev K McDonald, Rev A Kirkland, Ruling Elder, D McMillan.

Sessional Records—Rev D B Black, Rev G W McMillan, and Ruling Elders James I Corbett and A Southerland.

The Presbytery then entered into a discussion on Religion, which was quite freely participated in, and some able remarks were made.

Brown Marsh, after some little discussion, was decided upon as the place of holding the next meeting of the Presbytery.

After a prayer by the Rev C M Payne, the body adjourned to meet again at 9 o'clock this morning.

MORNING SESSION.

The Presbytery met promptly at 9 o'clock this morning, and after the usual preliminary exercises proceeded to business.

Rev K McDonald was granted a dissolution of his pastoral relations with Black River Chapel.

At 11 o'clock, a m., the agent for Foreign Missions made his report, after which interesting addresses on this important subject were delivered by several of the brethren. It was found that the Church had made considerable improvement in raising funds for the Foreign Missionary cause, and had been more successful in collecting money for that purpose during the past year than for any year since the commencement of the present financial depression.

The Presbytery will probably conclude its labors to-morrow.

To Be Hung.

A dispatch from Smithville received to-day brings the intelligence that the two Davis brothers, colored, who were on trial for the murder of Henry McDuffie, colored, in Brunswick county some months ago, a full report of which we published at the time, were to-day found guilty of murder and sentenced by His Honor, Judge McKoy, to be hung at Smithville on Friday, July 11th.

I. O. O. F.

At the regular meeting of Oriana Lodge No. 67, I. O. O. F., held last evening, D. D. G. M., M. P. Taylor, installed the following officers:

N. G.—Past Grand Master, Wm. L. Smith.

V. G.—Mrs. E. A. Keen.

Secretary.—John H. Fugh.

Treasurer.—Mrs. I. J. Yoip.

Commercial circles were considerably agitated this morning over the sudden advance in spirits turpentine. The market for this article has advanced four cents within two days. Sales were made to day at 304 cents. See commercial page.

Our boss Greenbacker, Hon. D. L. Russell, Representative in Congress from this district, who has been in attendance on Brunswick Court, returns to Washington City to-morrow.
