The turbie is the fashionable cap for young ladies young and married women.

The panier scarf, draperies of Paris made dresses are stiffened with crinolines.

Panier scarfs and draperies appear on all Paris dresses brought over this spring.

Caps made of silk handkerchiefs, in turban or Normandy form, are much worn.

If this fine weather holds there will be lots of flowers for the Easter decorations.

Aladdin or the Wonderful Lamp will be presented to the Wilmington public at the Opera House on Friday, the 18th inst.

"The saying 'time is money' is best illustrated by the prompt action of Dr. Williams' Cough Syrup in all cases of Coughs, Colds, &c. Price 25 cents a bottle. All Druggists keep it.

An unusually large number of Hats and rafts of wood, timber and naval stores monopolized the eastern shore of the Cape Fear this morning.

Mr. E. Scharf, Health Officer in the First Ward, is doing his duty in cleaning out the alleys and byways. The Ward was hardly ever as clean as at present.

The brick work under a large boiler at the foundry of Messrs. Hart, Bailey & Co., gave way under its weight yesterday and tumbled the boiler over. No one was injured by the accident and the damage was light.

Railroad freights are slightly dull just now, but we are informed that the passenger traffic is very good, owing to the return to their homes of the many Northern people who have passed the winter in Florida and other localities where it is warmer than in frigid New England.

It is now thought that the steam-yacht Passport will resume her regular trips on Friday. She has been undergoing some repairs and improvements preparatory to the increased business her agent anticipates.

Canaries.
Mr. J. W. Conoley has in his drug store on the corner of Fourth and Handover streets twenty-five fine canary birds. He raised all of them and is sufficiently compensated for his trouble by their sweet warblings.

If You Have Never
Used DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER get a package the next time you buy baking powder, and test it. After a few trials, we are confident you will give it the preference over all others. It is absolutely pure; every package is strictly full weight, and it never fails in making bread, rolls, biscuits, cake, corn-bread, waffles, muffins, and similar articles, deliciously light, good, and wholesomely.

Easter Music
We understand that the music in St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Sunday next, Easter Day, will be unusually fine. Among those who are to sing in the choir of the church on that occasion is Mrs. D. Kahnweiler, who has, we are informed, kindly consented to assist in the services on that occasion.

Carolina Lodge.
Knights of Honor meet to-morrow night for the purpose of conferring degrees. The membership of this order is increasing so rapidly that they find it necessary to hold special meetings to keep their wheels from being clogged by the rapid increase. In the language of a country newspaper, "circulation large and increasing daily."

The April number of the Southern Planter and Farmer is upon our table. This magazine deserves and receives a very liberal support. It is among the best of the kind with which we are acquainted. While it makes a specialty of agriculture in all its branches, giving the results of successful experiments rather than the impractical suggestions of the dreaming theorists, there is much in it that cannot fail to interest the thoughtful reader, no matter what occupation he follows. The contents are varied and particularly suited to the work of the month. The Planter has some of the ablest contributors to be found, and the beauty in these articles consists in their being by Southern men. Published at Richmond, Va., $2 a year.

City Court.

But one case before the Mayor this morning—an old sinner by the name of Frank Hargrave arrested last night for disorderly conduct. $250 fine or five days in the city prison was the sentence of the Court, and the prisoner was escorted below.

A Grand Pic-Nic in Pender.

The good citizens of Pender county contemplate having a good time on the 19th inst by a grand pic-nic at Croom's Bridge. A committee of arrangements, consisting of ladies and gentlemen, has been appointed; marshals have been elected and speakers have been invited, and the "feast of reason and the flow of soul" may be expected.

A Survey in Onslow.

We learn that on Saturday last a party of surveyors and engineers to the number of twenty put in an appearance at Sneed's Ferry, in Onslow county. They came in wagons from Newbern, and, so far as our information extends, they were to make a survey from the coast back into the country towards Angola Pecosin. The survey will be both hydrographic and topographic, and will embrace the territory from the ocean to the Northeast river and its tributaries.

The Fruit Crop.

Reports from along the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad between this city and Weldon are not very encouraging so far as the fruit crop is concerned. There have been frosts all along the line for several mornings, and fears are freely expressed that the fruit crop will be cut short at least three-fourths. In this section it is estimated that the damages are not so great as it was feared some days ago they would be, and it is hoped now that the injury to the fruit will not exceed twenty five per cent of the promises of a week ago.

Carelessness in Closing Places of Business.

Night before last there was a robbery committed on North Water street and goods to the value of $100 purloined from the proprietor of the store.

At the same time a store immediately across the street from where this robbery was committed was found open and the policeman on that beat was compelled to leave his post to go and notify the proprietor of the open store to come down and lock his store. It is possible that the robbery of the store across the way was committed while the policeman was absent. Last night again three more places of business were found open and the Mayor threatens hereafter that he will publish in the daily papers of the city the name of each establishment found open at night by the police. He hopes in this way to break up that carelessness which some store keepers and clerks have indulged in for some time of going off without examining the fastenings of their doors and windows before leaving for the night.

Borax Washing—Interesting to the Ladies.

Our lady readers who have not tested the magic properties of borax, says an exchange, have been losing a great help and comfort. If once used, you will never be without a bottle on your toilet table. It removes the stain and dirt from the hands better than soap, and at the same time softens and smooths the skin. It is splendid for washing the hair, and will, without injury, cleanse brushes and combs in a few moments.

For washing purposes it saves both soap and labor. It will extract the dirt from articles of delicate texture without rubbing, it being necessary to put the articles in a solution of borax over night, and will need only to be rinsed in the morning. Two table-spoonfuls of pulverized borax dissolved in a quart of water, to which water be added to cover a pair of blankets, will cleanse them beautifully. It also saves great labor in washing paints. 'Tis said to drive away ants and roaches if sprinkled on the shelves of safes or pantries.

American Wines.

But few persons are aware of the great amount of grapes raised in New Jersey. Alfred Speer is known to be the largest wine-grower east of the Rocky Mountains. His Port Grape Wine is the best, and is considered by physicians and chemists as the best wine to be procured. It is ordered to London and Paris, where it is becoming very popular among wealthy families. For sale by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridgers & Co., and Green & Planter, 127 N. 2nd St., Wilmington, N. C., April 1-27.

Personal.

We received a pleasant call yesterday afternoon from an old-time friend, Mr. F. P. Galloway, one of those Cape Fear boys who had strayed from the purlieu of the old Rock Spring. Mr. Galloway has been in Texas, on the border, for some years past engaged in journalism, but now represents a New Orleans house. He is here on a visit to his friends, for the first time in seven years.

Found Open.

The front door of the job office of Mr. S. G. Hall was found open this morning by a round man of the police force. Mr. H. is confident that his door was securely locked last night. The back door of the building was also stretched open. Nothing is missing from the building, but we imagine the 'chawed' up about twenty five pounds of type before he could get over his mad. The fellow must have been an escaped lunatic; if not he would have gone somewhere else than to a printing office for plunder.

Marine Item.

From Mr. John W. Collins, mate of the steamship Benefactor, from New York, we learn that on Sunday morning early, when off the Capes of Delaware, they passed a yawl boat with center board bottom side up together with other drift material belonging to a boat or vessel. The bottom of the boat above mentioned was painted green. The steamer was bearing south by west at the time and was about eighteen miles from the Five Paths Banks Light Ship.

The New Certificates.

The four per cent certificates, now on sale at the Postoffice here, are being rapidly taken. Col. Brink says that they are going off now at the rate of five hundred a month, but that this number will probably dwindle down after a while to a steady demand of from one hundred and fifty to two hundred. It is certainly an excellent investment for poor men who are trying to lay by a little for a rainy day as the certificates draw interest steadily all of the time. We would rather have them than to have their value in gold.

Be Careful of Your Tin-Ware.

Housekeepers are warned against "tin" vessels where an alloy of lead and tin has been used by scampish makers to coat the sheet-iron plate. The alloy is readily acted upon by acids, and salts of lead are thus introduced into the food. In Michigan several cases of paralysis agitans have been traced to this sort of poisoning, and it has been discovered that children have died of meningitis, fits, and paralytic affections caused by drinking milk kept in such vessels. Analysis of a large number of specimens of tin plate used in culinary articles showed the presence of an alloy with lead in almost every instance, and often in large quantities, and it is asserted that a large proportion of the tinned wares in the market is unfit for use on this account.

The Spring Fashions.

Jennie June, reviewing the spring fashions in the Washington Star, says in the popular mind neutral tints seem to have been all blotted out, and in their place we find decided colors, and the restoration of flowered patterns, and bandanna reds and yellows, which are startling to those to whom they are no hideous. Never was there a time when dressing included such violent contrasts, and presented such a mass of contradictions. Fashions could be declared, at one and the same time, to represent the most opposite things and both be true. Yet the skilled hand of an artist is required for the simplest as well as the elaborate costumes, it being quite as much of an art to know what to leave off as what to put on. The distinctive feature, however, are the same in kind, though not in degree, and the distinction between the walking dress and the dress of ceremony is maintained, the skirt of the walking dress clearing the ground, while that of the dinner, or evening dress, is cut with a small round, or long court train, according to the elegance of the robe, and the purpose for which it is required. What the Bandanna dresses are Jennie explains as follows: This name has been applied to costumes made of checked gingham, the plaids of which are over a quarter of a yard wide, and the colors such as are seen in bandanna handkerchiefs tied around the heads of negroes. They are astonishing productions, but some ladies are saving over them, and they will doubtless have their enthusiastic admirers.

Criminal Court.

His Honor Judge Meares presiding.

The following cases were taken up and disposed of to-day:

State vs Anthony Howe, charged with malfeasance in office. Verdict not guilty.

State vs Mag Brown, charged with larceny. Verdict guilty, sentenced to twelve months in House of Correction.

State vs Mason Holmes, charged with perjury. Submitted; in consideration of prisoner's good character His Honor sentenced him to only three months in the House of Correction.

Fourteen Years Ago at Appomattox.

This day fourteen years ago the purest living man of his day and generation arranged for terms of peace with Grant and his hordes on the ever memorable field of Appomattox, and on the following day issued to his devoted little band of patriot heroes his last farewell, as follows: TO THE ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA. HEADQUARTERS ARMY NORTHERN VIRGINIA April 10th, 1865.

After four years of arduous service, marked by unsurpassed courage and fortitude, the Army of Northern Virginia has been compelled to yield to overwhelming numbers and resources. I need not tell the survivors of so many hard-fought battles, who have remained steadfast to the last, that I have consented to this result from no distrust of them; but, feeling that valor and devotion could accomplish nothing that could compensate for the loss that would have attended the continuation of the contest, I determined to avoid the useless sacrifice of those whose past services have endeared them to their countrymen. By the terms of the agreement, officers and men can return to their homes, and remain there until exchanged. You will take with you the satisfaction that proceeds from the consciousness of duty faithfully performed; and I earnestly pray that a merciful God will extend to you his blessing and protection. With an unceasing admiration of your constancy and devotion to your country, and a grateful remembrance of your kind and generous consideration of myself, I bid you an affectionate farewell.

[Signed] R. E. LEE, General.

IN MEMORIAM.

Inasmuch as the Corporation of the City of Wilmington has been, by the hand of death, recently deprived of the services of one of its important officers, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen desire to place upon record their testimonial of his valuable services to the City of Wilmington as its Attorney, of his genial disposition as a friend, of his sterling qualities as a man, of his ability and integrity as a lawyer, of his intrepid courage as a soldier, and of his public spirit as a citizen.

Col. WILLIAM STEWART DEVANE was born in the county of Devon, March 24th, 1828. Adopting the profession of the law, he was a student under the late Chief Justice Pearson for two years, at Richmond Hill, in the county of Yadkin, and was admitted to practice at the Bar in the year 1853. He immediately entered upon the practice of his profession, and formed a law partnership with Hon. A. A. McKoy, now one of the Superior Court Judges of the State. This law firm continued to enjoy the emoluments and honors of a successful and lucrative practice, until it was dissolved as of April, 1861, at which time Col. Devane entered into the service of the Confederate States Government. His intrepidity, his faithfulness, his fidelity, in fact his entire record, at once honorable and brilliant, during the four weary years of war, is a part of the history of his native State, North Carolina.

In 1866 Col. Devane took up his residence in Wilmington, where he spent the remainder of his life engaged in the practice of the law in partnership with his brother, Major D. J. Devane. In the year 1868, when political strife was at its height, he was chosen by his party as a standard bearer in the contest for the honorable position of Judge of the Superior Court of the Third Judicial District, having as his opponent the Hon. D. L. Russell, who was the Republican nominee for the same position.

This is but an imperfect outline of the services which Col. Devane has rendered to the State of North Carolina and to the people of the South. His intrepid courage, both as a soldier and a citizen, his charming social qualities, his generous heart, were attributes that endeared him to all with whom he came in contact; and we, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington, appreciating his services to the community, feel that we are paying but a faint tribute to his memory in thus placing the above upon record; and we therefore Resolved, That we deeply deplore the death of Col. William S. Devane, and we do, as a testimonial of our grief, that the City Clerk and Treasurer be instructed to set apart a page of the records for the inscription of these resolutions.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of the deceased our heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be transmitted to the family of the deceased, and also to the city papers for publication.

L. H. BOWDEN,
Chairman Committee.
