No City Court to day.
Whitewashing has commenced.
The trade in baby carriages is active.
Dr. Isaac N. Carr, of this city, will return to Tarboro.

No interments in Bellevue Cemetery during the past week.

Apples continue abundant, and per consequence are very cheap.

Hucksters charged from 80 to 90 cents per pair for chickens this morning.

The April showers are much needed, to alleviate the dust which boreas has "kicked up."

Bladen County Superior Court, Judge
A. A. McKay presiding, is in session this week.

There were three interments in Oakdale Cemetery during the past week—all adults.

Two interments in Pine Forest Cemetery during the past week—one adult and one child.

Mouse colored horses seem to be quite the thing now among those who can afford equine luxuries.

A woman, whose name must be mentionless, calls her husband good resolutions, because he is always broke.

The Register of Deeds has issued nine marriage licenses during the week—three for whites and six for colored couples.

Where twenty mottoes have failed to make home happy, the result has been frequently accomplished by a good dinner.

The hucksters captured the Market this morning. Every thing except beef offered for sale during market hours, was in the hands of hucksters.

Ornithologists say there are five thousand different species of birds, but give men their little swallow, and they don't care what becomes of the other 4,999 kinds.

It is announced officially in a fashion journal that the newest style of lady's hat is the Pinafore, which is of white French chip, high crown, sloping edge and turned up on one side.

The lace ties advertised in the REVIEW a few days ago to arrive, by Mr. S. H.
Finnhale, and for which there has been such a rush, were received last night. Now, ladies, you can be supplied.

From Centennial Headquarters.—I find Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup excellent, having a ready sale and rendering more satisfaction than any Cough Syrup I have ever sold.—A. B. Maloney, Jr., D., Fifteenth and Carpenter Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

BOTH PRUDENCE AND AMBITION concur in urging honest men to do the best possible thing, each in his own line of business. It is this feeling which has made DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER the best in the market. The cans are always full weight, and the contents chemically pure and most skillfully compounded.

Recovered.
Mr. John Lutgen, who was robbed on Thursday night of a trunk and other articles, yesterday morning found the trunk in a boat which was stolen the same night from Messrs. Cassidy & Ross, in the Mulberry street dock. The trunk was badly broken, and of course everything was taken out of it.

Easter Monday Night.
The ladies of St. Thomas' Church will have a Sociable at Germania Hall on next Monday evening. We all know what this means—an evening of genuine enjoyment to all who may attend. Messrs.
Jas. McGarity, Jas. Reilly, T. Donlan, F. H. Darby and John Neilan are the gentlemen who have been placed on the Committee and this fact alone should guarantee the pleasant entertainment of all who may be there.

Strawberries.

The first strawberries offered for sale in this market this season were on hand at Mr. S. G. Northrop's this morning. They were a co signment from Florida and were held at seventy-five cents per basket.

Up For Repairs.

By an accident to some of her machinery, the steamer Clinon will not make her regular trips for a few days, while she is being repaired. She is now lying at the wharf of Messrs. Skinner & Layon, who are making the necessary repairs. As soon as they are completed she will resume her trips up the Northeast river to Bannerman's Bridge and Chinque-pin.

The Sabbath Bell.

The following named persons have been appointed by the building committee of St. Luke's church, colored, to solicit aid to purchase a bell for their house of worship, just erected on the corner of Seventh and Church streets: H. W.
Green, H. B. Green, Emanuel Jones, Henry Loftin, William Burr, Lewis Bryant, Charles Walker, W. B. Hill, H. B.
Walker, Valentine Howe, Paris Jones and Henry Ellis.

City Hall Items.

Business was generally suspended at the City Hall yesterday.

There were two cases for the Mayor's consideration, but His Honor declined to hear them yesterday and continued them until to-day. Meantime the parties concerned compromised the matter and this morning submitted the case without trial and walked up to the Clerk's desk and settled the damages by ponying up a $10 green back.

Easter Day.

The long Lenten fast is over with and Easter, the Queen of Festivals, is at hand. The indications at this writing are that to-morrow will be both beautiful and pleasant and, if it is, it is likely that the largest congregations of the new year will be present in all of the churches in the city. The services on Easter Day are unusually beautiful and impressive and it is not at all likely that to-morrow will prove an exception to this rule.

The Fruit Crop in the Interior.

We are sorry to learn that the fruit crop in the interior of this State has been entirely destroyed by the recent cold weather. A private letter received in this city from Pittsboro conveys the information that every thing of the kind in that section has been killed, even to the strawberry vines which, in some instances, an endeavor had been made to preserve from the cold by covering them over. The loss of the fruit crop in Gatham will be a very serious blow to the people of that county.

The Florida a Man of War.

In referring to Capt. John N. Maffitt a few days ago as the orator of the occasion on Memorial Day, we inadvertently alluded to the steamer Florida as a Confederate privateer, when in fact she was a regularly commissioned man-of-war in the Confederate navy, and her officers and crew were regularly commissioned and enlisted by the Navy Department of the Southern Confederacy. We intended to have written Confederate cruiser when we penned the notice, but by some in-advertence on our part wrote privateer, instead.

Whoa, Emma!

We were informed yesterday, by one of the firm, that Messrs. Westbrook & Bro., of Rocky Point, a few days ago made another shipment of radishes to Baltimore, the receipts of which put these we quoted Saturday entirely in the shade. The latter shipment consisted of six barrels from which they netted $67.50, or $11.25 per barrel. This is a profitable crop to cultivate when one dollar per barrel, net proceeds, can be realized, but with such enormous profits as those quoted above we are afraid that our Rocky Point friends will begin to put on airs. Trusting, however, to their good looks and their genial good nature, we will not anticipate the cold shoulder at the present.

American Wines.

But few persons are aware of the great amount of grapes raised in New Jersey.
Alfred Speer is known to be the largest vine grower east of the Rocky Mountains.
His Port Grape Wine is the best, and is considered by physicians and chemists as the best wine to be procured. It is ordered to London and Paris, where it is becoming very popular among wealthy families. For sale by J. C. Munds, P. L.

The Market Question.

Very much interest has been manifested in this community of late in regard to the proposed removal of the Market House from its present location and we have been led, thereby, to examine the various propositions in regard to the matter which have been submitted for the action of the Committee. There are too less than four of these now in the hands of Capt. Savage, the City Clerk, on which the special Committee is to act. We shall endeavor herewith to give some idea of the provisions of each:

First we have the original proposition submitted by Mr. John E. Lippitt, in behalf of the stockholders of his Company.
He proposes to remove the Market House from its present site free of cost to the city; to erect a handsome and commodious building, 105x210 feet for use as a "Public Market House" and to put up suitable sheds at the river for fish and oyster stalls. He agrees that the price of the stalls shall not exceed $5, $8 and $12 50 per month, as per location; that the Market shall be kept clean and that the city may purchase any time after the lapse of five years, at cost. He also promises to build markets in the First and Fifth Wards, under same regulations, and to pay into the city treasury $1,000 a year in lieu of all taxes on the property. On the other hand the authorities are not to authorize the erection of any other markets but may allow more stores, and also stands for carts in any part of the city they may select.

The next proposition before us is from Messrs. Thomas Johnson, Herman Hitzze and others, known as the "Wilmington Market House Company." They offer to erect a Market House in the First Ward on the site of that recently destroyed by fire, also one at some point in the Fifth Ward, both with accommodations for hucksters and fish cart; to build a belfry on each for fire alarms; to enclose the old Market House with wainscoting, lattice work, &c., and to divide into distinct apartments, and to arrange for the accommodation of fish carts at the lower end; to keep the Market Houses clean by daily washings; to weigh all beef cattle brought to the city for the usual fees; to pay $1,000 per annum into the city treasury; to surrender everything to the city at the expiration of fifteen years; to erect such other Market Houses as the Mayor and Board of Aldermen may from time to time see fit to require; and to lease the stalls at public auction every first of January, no bid less than $12.50 per month to be considered. In case of a failure of the Company to comply with the terms of agreement, everything to revert to the city.

Messrs. "S. H. Manning & Co." submit the following: To deed lot corner Third and Princess, 50x198, to the city; to build thereon a brick market house with 27 stalls, each separate and distinct from the other; stalls to be let at auction on the first of January at not less than $12.50 each per month, and collect all market fees outside as well as within the market. The city to pay $2,000 per annum for eight years; the old market house to be taken down and material used in construction of new market, free of expense to the city; to build markets in First and Fifth wards with accommodations for hucksters and fishermen; to clean each market daily, and weigh all beef cattle. The market buildings to be all surrendered to the city at the end of eight years in good condition.
Fourthly and lastly, a proposition from Mr. F. W. Foster, who offers to sell to the city the vacant lot on the corner of Third and Princess streets, as a site for a market house, for $600, cash, or one, two and three years, with interest at 8 per cent.

Along the Wharves Yesterday.

All the foreign shipping in port yesterday had their colors at half-mast out of reverence and veneration for the solemnity of the day. This was also the case at the Imperial German Consulate. This is a custom that is practiced in christian countries across the water, so we are informed, and one that some of the representatives of those governments in this country follow.

The steamship Benefactor was at half-mast with her colors also. But this, we are informed, was out of respect to the memory of the late Dr. Burkhardt. The foreign shipping, together with the Imperial German Consul, desired also to be considered as bearing the same respect to the memory of this deceased gentleman as well as respect for the day and occasion which was commemorated on yesterday.

Church News.

The Sixty-third Annual Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina will be held with St. John's Church, in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 14th day of May next. Rev. T. Worrall Larmour, rector of St. Stephen's Church, Goldsboro, is the Secretary of the Diocese.

The Southern Baptist Convention meets in Atlanta on the 8th of May. It is understood that the usual reduction of fare will be made on the railroads, and it is expected that many Baptists will be in attendance from this State.

Criminal Court.

There was no session of the Court on yesterday on account of the day being Good Friday.

The following cases were disposed of to day:

State vs Richard Williamson, charged with assault and battery. Motion by defendant to dismiss. Motion denied. Verdict guilty.

James Heaton, defendant in several cases at previous term of Court, was prayed into custody for costs.

State vs Lewis Green, charged with larceny. On trial.

Personal.

Mr. Roddick, of the large dry goods house of Brown & Roddick, Market street, has returned from a visit to the Northern markets where he has spent four weeks in making up his selections for the Spring and Summer stocks. As everybody knows, he is a close and careful buyer takes his time about it, and generally succeeds in getting the best goods for the least money, in consequence of which he is able to offer rare bargains to the patrons of the house in this city. We invite attention to the attractive display made by this firm in our columns to-day.

Funeral of the Late Dr. Burkhardt

The funeral obsequies of the lamented Dr. Carl F. Burkhardt took place yesterday afternoon from the corner of Ninth and Chestnut streets to St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church and thence to Oakdale Cemetery. The members of Stonewall Lodge No. 1, Germania Lodge No. 4 and of Section No. 221 Endowment Rank, Knights of Pythias, met at Castle Hall on Third street, at 2 o'clock p. m. and under command of Past Grand Chancellor, H. C. Prempert, as Marshal, marched to the residence of Mr. Geo. C.
McDonalld where the deceased had resided up to the time of his death, and from there acted as escort to the remains until the grave had closed over all that was mortal of their late friend and brother.

The services in the church were particularly impressive. Rev. Dr. Bernheim, the officiating clergyman, after reading the funeral office for the dead, indulged in some very touching and appropriate remarks relative to the sudden demise of their departed brother. From the church the remains were borne to their last resting-place, in the beautiful and quiet spot of Oakdale followed by an immense concourse of citizens in addition to the different Lodges mentioned above. At the grave, Mr. Jno.
W. Gerdtz, Chancellor Commander of Germania Lodge, read the burial office for the Knights of Pythias in German, and with this the ceremonies closed. Then the heavy, dull thud of the first spade-ful of dirt announced that the last sad rites were being performed and the family form which had so recently moved around among his many friends performing acts of kindness here and there, was now, alas, shut out forever from the gaze of the world, so to remain until that great final day, when the last trump shall sound!

For the Review.

The corner stone of the A. M. E.
Chapel, on the old Newbern road, will be laid to-morrow (Sunday) by the Rt. Rev.
John M. Brown, D. D., assisted by others, at 8 o'clock.

The names of all males who have given 50 cents or more and the names of all ladies who have given 25 cents or more towards the erection and completion of the edifice, will be deposited with other mementoes of the present age in the corner stone, for the benefit of future generations.

Come one! Come all!! It is only seven miles from the city. These who cannot come can send their names by some friend, you know!
