Strawberries sold for thirty-three cents per basket in market this morning.

There was a small hog in market this morning; it weighed two hundred and fifty pounds.

By the appearance of the smoke across the river there must be a big fire in the woods somewhere over in Brunswick county to-day.

Rev. E. A. Yates, pastor of the Front Street M. E. Church, has gone to Fayetteville, whither he has been called by the dangerous illness of his mother.

Miss Grey will give an illustrated lecture on spiritualism at the Opera House to-night. She comes well recommended and no doubt will draw a good house.

The indifference with which so many people regard a cough or cold is truly unpardonable. These affections often lead to consumption, and should be checked in time by use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The young folks of the Thalian Amateurs will present the beautiful little domestic drama of "The Last Leaf" at the Tiletton, Upper Room this evening. We acknowledge the reception of complimentary tickets.

At a meeting of the newly elected Board of Directors of the Wilmington Compress and Warehouse Company, held yesterday afternoon, Capt. D. R. Murchison was re-elected President, and Capt. George Sloan, Secretary and Treasurer, for the ensuing year.

An Age of Competition.
 In this day of the world competition is active in the extreme. But in the long run it is the best which wins the prize in public preference in spite of all the deceptions used to boost up weak articles. For this reason DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is recognized as the highest possible achievement in baking powder.

The Carolina Farmer
 For April has just been received. It maintains its usual excellence as an agricultural magazine, and is a valuable addition to the library of the farmer.

How Witnesses are to be Paid.
 It may be of general interest to state that an act was passed, at the session of the Legislature, stipulating that no witness in a criminal case shall be either subpoenaed or paid unless the clerk is requested in writing by the solicitor or foreman of the grand jury to summon him, and providing that tickets of no more than two witnesses shall be taxed as witnesses for the State in misdemeanors. This action was intended for the double purpose of economy as to costs of court and facility in the disposition of cases.

Bonitz' Hotel.
 The Goldboro Messenger says: The Bonitz Hotel in this town changed hands last week. Mr. Wm. Bonitz sold out his interest in the hotel to Messrs. Merrett & Bunting, of Wilmington, who declare it their purpose to continue it a first-class house. The gentlemen have had considerable experience in hotel keeping, and we wish them success. Mr. Wm. Bonitz contemplates putting up a new brick building on his vacant corner lot, and will open a first-class restaurant.

Superior and Criminal Court.

As the Superior Court and Criminal Court for this county are both ordered to meet on the same day in the month of June, we understand that His Honor Judge Meares has under consideration the propriety of calling an extra session or special term which, the law empowers him to do, before that time.

Rock Spring and Rock Spring Water.

The location of the old, original and only genuine 'Rock Spring' seems to be a matter of doubt in the minds of some of our oldest citizens, with the weight of opinion rather in favor of that which now bears that appellation near the foot of Chestnut street, in front of our office. While the matter is in doubt and under discussion, the Rock Spring of the present day will continue to furnish its limpid waters to the wayfarer and the milk man can there water his horse, as usual.

Opera House Last Night.

Professor Anderson gave a performance at the Opera House last evening to a small audience, but fully carried out his published programme, both as to legerdemain and distribution of prizes. He performed several very fine tricks and many simple but clever ones suitable for parlor amusements, the latter of which he explained to the audience. Among the prizes distributed were $10 in silver, a bag of flour, hams, packages of tea, crockery and glassware, and other articles of use. There was nothing pertaining to the "key ring or button gifts." Should he perform again in this city we think he would be greeted by a larger audience.

Grand Gathering at Croom's Bridge in Pender County.

On Saturday next (the 19th inst.) the good people of Duplin, Pender and Onslow counties will hold a Grand Picnic at Croom's Bridge, on the Northeast river, in Pender county, in celebration of the passage of the bill by the legislature for the construction of the Angola canal. Speakers from the different counties are expected to be present to address the people. The fair ladies of Pender have interested themselves to make the occasion pleasant and agreeable. A list of marshals have also been selected and the arrangements perfected by which the festivities of the day may be enjoyed without annoyance or confusion.

A Family Poisoned by Eating Honey.

It is not more true that every flower has a thorn than that every sweet has its bitter. The sweetest honey is made by the bee from the most bitter herbs and most dangerous plants and flowers. But like many of life's fleeting enjoyments this honey sometimes contains elements of destructive poison. This is verified in the following sad case that comes from an authentic source: Jack Bryant, (colored) living near Asheton, in Pender county, went with two of his boys on Saturday last to cut down a bee tree near his house. The object was to hive the bees and to get a mess or two of delicious honey. The end was accomplished in securing a fine swarm of wild bees and more than enough of finely-tasted honey of this spring's production to afford one meal of beautiful honey and honey comb to all the family. Four of them eat of the same. In less than two hours, and before medical aid could be obtained, the heartiest of the party was a corpse from eating this honey. His symptoms were those of virulent poison. He was a young man of vigorous constitution, and his sufferings were so excruciating that death seemed to be a relief. The other three, Bryant and his wife and a younger son, suffered greatly and were in a very dangerous condition for many hours until relieved by Dr. Satchwell who had been hastily summoned. They manifested all the symptoms of poisoning. We have known and heard of cases of honey poisoning from eating new made honey early in the spring but of none so severe and immediately fatal as this.

Let this memorable case of family poisoning from eating honey stand as a monument of warning. Wild honey, as it is called, or honey made by bees that leave their domestic abode and lodge in hollow trees of the forests for homes, seems to be more generally of this poisonous character than that made by bees in gardens and farm yards. This wild honey should never be eaten, nor should any honey ever be taken in the early spring months. Wait until the maturity of warm weather has rendered the honey safe to eat, before disturbing the hive.

Attempted Robbery.

About 2 o'clock Sunday morning an attempt was made to rob the store of Mr. G. L. Schutte, on the corner of Fourth and Walnut streets. A clerk, who slept in a room back of the store, was awakened by a noise at the back door and in looking out of the window, saw a man prizing at one of the panels of the door, which he had almost gotten out. The would-be robber also saw the clerk and did not stop to explain the object of his midnight visit.

Complimentary Farewell.

The grand ball complimentary to Mrs. A. Shrier, heretofore referred to as intended to be given prior to her departure for Europe, will take place at Germania Hall to-morrow evening, under the following auspices: Mr. A. Weill, Master of Ceremonies; Messrs. Isaac Bear, M. Hanstein, and B. Solomon, Floor Managers; and Mrs. A. Weill, Mrs. D. Kahnweiler, Mrs. A. David and Mr. H. Brunhild, Banqueting Committee. We learn that the affair is expected to be a very pleasant and imposing one.

The Peanut Growers.

Mr. R. K. Bryan, Jr., Secretary of the Peanut Growers' Association of North Carolina, furnishes us with a list of the names of the Working Committee appointed at the meeting held in this city recently to ascertain the acreage and estimated yield of the peanut crop for 1879. These gentlemen are requested to use all available means within their reach to further the object in view. The following is the list:
 New Hanover—A. A. Moseley, D. M. Fennell, W. J. Enett.
 Pender—W. H. French, Jas. M. Westbrook, R. A. Corbett, J. T. Foy, G. E. Shepherd, N. Atkinson, Jas. Shaw, Eli Shiver, W. Player.
 Onslow—Dr. E. W. Ward, Jere Spicer.
 Brunswick—Dr. J. D. Bellamy.

Murder at Laurinburg.

We learn that on Saturday afternoon last, at Laurinburg, an altercation took place between Mr. D. J. Williams, merchant, formerly of Duplin county, and Mr. H. Oglesby, who is under $500 bonds for his appearance at the May term of the U. S. District Court, upon the charge of violation of the revenue laws. It seems that they had been drinking quite freely previous to the trouble between them, but eventually the difficulty was adjusted and apparently friendly relations were again established. At about 11 o'clock on Saturday night, however, as Mr. Williams was in the act of closing up his store, Oglesby came up, and without a word of warning, deliberately shot him through the head, killing him instantly. Oglesby is described as a reckless desperado, and the people of Laurinburg are bitter in their denunciation of the cold-blooded dastardly act. The body of Mr. Williams has been taken to Duplin county for interment.

Going Back Home.

The steamer A. P. Hart took an unusually large freight up the river to-day, and we should judge that all the raftsmen and boatmen on the Cape Fear who were in the city to-day also took passage for their homes. We were pleased to notice that many of the passengers were in a happy frame of mind and in the liveliest of spirits, induced possibly by the discovery of the famous Rock Spring and the idea of again returning to the joys of their homes. Rock Spring water, under certain peculiarly favorable circumstances, has a tendency to make people feel lively.

Come to Grief—On the Track of a Gang of Thieves.

This afternoon Officers Bunting and Carr swooped down on the place of business of W. H. Boyette, colored, whom they have been watching for some time past. It seems Boyette has been a general utility man in the gang of thieves who infest this city and it was at his place of business and through his hands that stolen articles were disposed of. Armed with a search warrant the above named officers went to Boyette's shop and searched the house and succeeded in finding a quantity of school books, bibles and a set of cooper's tools. To the outside world W. H. Boyette is known as a commission dealer of this city. Among the things captured were several letters from Northern firms, one of which spoke of Boyette shipping brass as iron and asked his reason for so doing. He is now lodged in jail, but will have a preliminary hearing before Justice Gardner on Thursday.

He is well known in police circles and has served out a term of two years in the Albany Penitentiary for forgery. When the Moonlight Club was in existence, Boyette corresponded with them regularly and when its leaders were arrested several letters from him were found in their possession. The officers will doubtless succeed in unearthing more stolen plunder in a day or two and possibly capture some of Boyette's pals.

The books which were recovered to-day are supposed to be those stolen from the school houses which were rebbed a few months ago, an account of which appeared in the REVIEW at the time.
