The above does not embrace all the SPECIAL BARGAINS we have secured during the four weeks passed in the markets, having spared neither trouble or time in order to accomplish our object. It affords us even more pleasure than it does our patrons to put desirable goods on this market below their actual value as it increases our business and is really the cheapest system of advertising as well as the true policy of extending any business.
We are also offering great inducements in all our regular purchases and can with safety add that at no time have our facilities been equal to the present season, and we are determined to put our regular stock of General Dry Goods on this market at a lower rate of per centage than ever before. See advertisement in Star.

A good many men talk themselves hoarse in talking horse.
The Shelbyites will exult to this city on or about May 19th.
How vain is the peacock! But not as vain as the weathercock.
In slippery weather a man feels like a gosling when he's down on his back.
The Hop season will be closed by the L'Ariseo Club, at Germania Hall, on Friday night.
All those who have given it a trial will not be without it. It cures Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The great need of the country just now is not politics, but an overhauling of last summer's waistcoats.
An Iowa pickle factory wants 200,000 cabbage heads. This will clean out a good many printing offices.
The mother's heart swells with pride when her baby begins to pedestrianize at the age of nine months.
We are pleased to learn that Mr. J. W. Thompson has so far recovered as to be able to get out of the house a little.
There was no City Court to-day, and right fortunate it is that there are no more candidates for the lock-up, for the Guard House is full now to overflowing.

DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER is prepared on scientific principles, and from ingredients that are the most effective and wholesome. It has received the highest encomiums for these merits from eminent chemists, scores of our best physicians and thousands of intelligent cooks and housewives. The genuine can be had only in tin cans.

We thank our friend "De Facto," at Laurinburg, for his communication, received this morning, but as we have already published full reports of the matter, identical in fact with that he sends, we have concluded not to insert his communication. Will be glad to hear from him again, however, and often.

A Privileged Class.
And still the bucksters ply their trade. They have increased, grown saucy and are getting fat. You can't buy a turnip or a potato or a cabbage or a peck of peas now from first hands. The hucksters control everything; they pay no taxes, either to State, county or city, and are the most privileged class on the face of this green earth. The Board of Aldermen have been appealed to in vain. They will not touch this privileged class with so much as a forty-foot pole.

Down Goes the Lager.
A dray going up Chestnut street this morning loaded with kegs of lager beer must have concluded that the load was too much for the mule who was hauling it for, when nearly at Front street, about half the load started from the dray down the hill as if in search of the Rock Spring. But they scattered themselves around the street, seemingly as much lost in the fog as to the locality of that famous watering place as some of those who are trying to locate the same through the columns of the press.

Attend to Them.
There is a true but trite saying, "what's everybody's business is nobody's business," verified in this city as regards the line of offices in the centre of Market street which were set out a year or two ago. Most of them are alive and are doing well, but many are bent and twisted out of shape, and now the entire row looks as though some one had been playing cross-sticks with them. A very little time and work would straighten them up and relieve the street of that look of utter neglect which it now wears. Cannot the city authorities attend to the matter and keep the trees up?

Style, elegance, location, moderate prices, and choice of either the American plan $2.50 to $3.00, or the European plan $1.00 per day, and upwards, meals in the elegant restaurant attached to the house, all unite in giving the traveller more for the same money, at the Grand Central Hotel, New York, than elsewhere.

Ready for Service.
The steamer Clinton, which has been up for repairs at the wharf of Messrs Skinner & Lyon for the past few days, has been put in complete order and will resume her trips to Bannerman's Bridge and Chincupeia on the Northeast river to-morrow.

Col. Alexander Resigns.
Col. W. C. Alexander, says yesterday's Charlotte Observer, yesterday sent in his resignation as Colonel of the Second Regiment of the North Carolina State Guard, to take effect immediately. Col. Alexander's action is based upon a preference to be with his old company, the Charlotte Grays, of which he was captain at the time of his first election to the colonelcy of the regiment. He has made an efficient and popular officer, and his retirement will be generally regretted. The Regiment will be under the command of Lieut-Colonel A. H. Worth, of Fayetteville, until the vacancy caused by Col. Alexander's resignation shall be filled by another election, which must be ordered by the Adjutant General.

That Ox and Watch.
Some time ago, a gentleman living near North East, in this county, sold an ox to a colored man on credit, with the understanding that the aforesaid ox should be paid for by a certain time and in default of payment the 'creator' should revert to its former owner. Time passed on, and the whole payment was not made. Subsequent to the sale of the ox, the colored man pawned his watch and got the gentleman to redeem it for him on the same terms on which the ox was sold. At the solicitation of the gentleman, Justice Grady, of Cape Fear township, issued a claim and delivery process, and delivered the property. The colored man came to this city and sued out a warrant before Justice Hall charging the gentleman with trespass, and claimed that he had no right to the ox and watch, pleading the statute of limitation on him. The case will have a preliminary hearing and probably be carried to a higher court, and we are in hopes of its being as fruitful a source for 'locals' as was the ox case before the court some two years ago.

School-Teacher also Jailed in Default of Bond.
Wellington H. Boyette had a preliminary hearing in four cases this morning, and in default of two hundred and fifty dollars justified bond, he was committed to jail. He will be brought before Justice Gardner this afternoon for examination in three other cases. During the trial it transpired that Boyette was a school teacher as well as church robber, "commission merchant" general utility man and school house thief. He is about twenty-four years of age, dark mulatto with a low forehead and looks as though he was not up to mediocrity as to mental qualities, but as a kleptomaniac, he is a success. He offered no defence and during the examination of witnesses his face wore a sickly smile. Boyette was evidently the leader of a gang of thieves who have forsaken him in his trouble, to shield themselves, but it may be that their chieftain will "fees up" and pull them as deep in the mud as he is in the mire.

Lippincott's Magazine.
Lippincott's Magazine for May opens with a brilliantly written and finely illustrated paper, by Mrs. Sarah Butler Wister, which propounds and answers one question, "Why do we like Paris?" In another illustrated paper—"From Norway to York"—H. M. Robinson describes graphically canoe travel and transportation in the territory of the Hudson Bay Company. "The Tramp in Four Centuries" is a close but somewhat enigmatical study of a class which is commonly supposed to be a modern innovation, but which is here shown, on the evidence of curious unpublished letters, to have made its appearance on every occasion of social and financial revolutions. "My Hero" gives a very striking account of the career of General Paez, 'the first lance in the world,' by one who knew him personally while president of the Venezuelan Republic. Miss Annie Porter continues her graphic sketches of "Village Life in Louisiana;" Nathan Clifford Brown describes "Beach-Birds," giving special attention to such as are rarest and least known; and Mrs. Hooper has an interesting account of Cardinal Richelieu's first and only appearance as a dramatic author and stage-manager. The serial and short stories are of the usual excellence; but many readers will find nothing so entertaining as the "Gossip," which is full of bright and amusing talk, chiefly on 'society topics,' including a witty little dialogue on 'Proposals of Marriage.'

Rainfall.
The rainfall during the storm of yesterday and last night amounted to 1.89 inches up to 7 o'clock this morning. At Savannah, Ga., and Charleston, S. C., there was a much larger fall. In the former city it amounted to 3 inches in a period of 8 hours, and in the latter it reached 2 1/2 inches during the same time.

Something New.
For the comfort of his customers C. H. Ward has fitted up his barber shop with new cane seated summer chairs which are said to be the first ever used in this city. He has reduced his prices and keeps a dry shampoo and hair tonic which is said to be as good as ever used. His assistants are well known in this city. See advertisement in another column.

Shocked by Lightning.
Last evening, about 7 o'clock, Pilot Thomas Garrison, who was bringing the Norwegian barque Ararat up the river, and three of the crew were knocked down by the shock of a flash of lightning which struck somewhere near the vessel, which was at the time in the vicinity of the jetties. There is no evidence of the electric fluid having struck the vessel. The men were severely shocked and appeared to be dazed for some time afterwards. One of the crew complained of his arms, saying they were "dead" and that he had no control over them whatever.

Commissioner's Decision.
The following decision, in the case of the United States vs. John C. Willis, postmaster, for opening a letter, &c, rendered by Commissioner Cantwell, has been furnished us for publication:
1. A person accused of crime is a competent witness in his own behalf. Art. 16, March, 1878. Blome's case No. 10.
2. The law requires the testimony for the government to be such as to furnish a reasonable expectation of the defendant's conviction.
3. When the accused frankly acknowledges he did the act, but offers an excuse for it which repels all criminal intent, and there appears no circumstance showing temptation or guilty motive, he is entitled to be discharged upon satisfactory proof of his good character.
Maj. C. M. Steadman appeared for the defendant.

Complimentary Farewell.
The complimentary farewell tendered to Mrs. A. Shrier on the eve of her departure for Europe, took place in Germania Hall last night. Despite the unfavorable weather the rooms were thronged with our Jewish citizens with their wives and daughters and the occasion all through, was pronounced unanimously as one of the most successful and most enjoyable known in the annals of our city. The ladies, among whom were many remarkably beautiful women, were all superbly dressed while the gentlemen adorned themselves in the latest fashionable array and paid their devoted and unceasing attentions to the gentler presence throughout the entire evening. The music, which was rendered by the Italian Bands, was very fine and the dancing was kept up until this morning, when the daylight had penetrated the hall and pale the lustre of the gas jets. It was 5 o'clock this morning when the party separated, even then with regret.
Mrs. Shrier sails from New York on Saturday, May 10th, in the steamship Oder, of the North German Lloyd line, for a visit to her parents in Bremerhaven, both of who are yet alive, and neither of who has she seen in fourteen years. She will remain away some six months and during that time expects to make an extensive European tour. Mr. Shrier speaks of going on after her in July, to return with her about the middle of November.

American Wines.
But few persons are aware of the great amount of grapes raised in New Jersey. Alfred Speer is known to be the largest wine grower east of the Rocky Mountains. His Port Grape Wine is the best, and is considered by physicians and chemists as the best wine to be procured. It is ordered to London and Paris, where it is becoming very popular among wealthy families. For sale by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridgers & Co and Green & Flanner

Consumption Cured.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Bowers' Block, Rochester, New York.

Destruction and Reconstruction.
PERSONAL EXPERIENCES OF THE LATE WAR. By RICHARD TAYLOR, Lieutenant-General in the Confederate Army. "As a writer he is vigorous, sparkling, satirical, and entertaining to a degree. His opportunities for the observation of men and things have been such as few possessed, and he has made good use of them. Of course he views the late war from a southerner's standpoint, but both sides receive comment at his hands. The great interest in his book to many will, no doubt, be the sharpness with which he criticises men and measures. Where least expected, he pours forth batteries of sarcasm and denunciation, and spares no one whom he thinks deserves showing up."—N. Y. Herald.
