

CAROLINA.

Henry B Ham, Esq. died near Goldsboro on Tuesday. Shad are now running very freely in Catawba river.

A telegraph line is to be put up between Milton and Sutherland.

Mr John A Barringer is to be the Memorial Orator at Greensboro.

Ludden & Bates, of Savannah, Ga have established a branch music house in Charlotte.

Greensboro Patriot: Mr J A Pritchett a couple of weeks ago sold a small portion of his lot on Fayetteville street at the rate of $1,200 an acre.

Mr Wesley Hanks, one of the oldest citizens of Chatham county, died at Pittsboro on the 11th inst. He was nearly 70 years old.

Goldsboro Messenger: Rev W M Robey, President Davenport Female College, will deliver the commencement address before the King's Mountain High School, 25th of June, 1879.

Mr Charles R Jones, of the Charlotte Observer, has been invited to deliver the annual address before the students of Denver Seminary, at Denver, in Lincoln county, the last week in May.

Greensboro Patriot: Fears were entertained that the fruit crop might be injured by the late frosts. The injury, if any, has been very slight, as far as we can learn on inquiry from some of our most extensive fruit growers.

Murfreesboro Enquirer: As an indication of the revival of trade, the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and other lines have, of late, had just all the freights they could carry.

Tarboro Southerner: H D Robinson, of Martin, writes us that he thinks the entire peach crop is killed in his county. A gentleman from the part of this county tells us that in his section there will be a fair crop of peaches. Apples not hurt.

Tarboro Southerner: We learn that a young white man named Joe Smith, while under the influence of liquor, got in a difficulty with a negro and cut his throat in Nashville, Nash county, on Monday. The injured vein was severed and the negro is not expected to live.

Raleigh Observer: David Hughes, a young colored man, attempted to board the incoming freight on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad yesterday morning. His foot slipped on a piece of plank and he fell. His foot was caught by the wheels and fearfully bruised and crushed. It was amputated yesterday.

Weldon News: Mrs Bion, living near Jackson in Northampton county, was burned to death on Monday night. Her son had left the house to look after his stock and hearing screams in the house ran in and found his mother's clothing in flames. He failed to extinguish the fire and she died in about 12 hours, suffering terribly. The cause of the accident is not known.

Elizabeth City Economist: Bishop Atkinson made his usual visitation to this place and vicinity during the past week. On Thursday he consecrated to the service of the Episcopal Church the new Chapel of St John at Jonesboro, the county seat of Currituck county, confirmed three persons and preached. On Friday he preached in this place and confirmed seven candidates.

The catalogue of Davidson College for the collegiate year which closes June 12th, shows the names of 166 students. Of this number 51 are from North Carolina, 37 from South Carolina, 8 from Georgia, 3 from Alabama, 2 from Louisiana, 1 from Tennessee, 1 from Arkansas, 1 from Florida and 1 from Texas. The class which graduates this year has only eight young men.

Goldsboro Messenger: The Commissioners of the proposed Goldsboro and Harsett Railroad held a meeting in this town on Tuesday last, when it was determined to open books for subscription, and a number of gentlemen along the projected route were designated for that purpose. As soon as $10,000 have been subscribed, W F Kornegy, Esq, is to issue a call for a meeting of the subscribers for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization.

Weldon News: Old man Lymus Paul, a colored man living in the lower part of the county, went fishing the other day and set a 'trout' line and left the pond. On his return, instead of a fish, he had caught a wild duck and an owl. The duck caught the roach with which the hook was baited and was held fast. The owl attempted to catch the duck and striking at him, became entangled in the line and was also fastened. This can be vouched for as true.

Raleigh News: Last evening at 5 o'clock a quiet marriage ceremony was performed by Rev Dr Fritchard at the residence of Mrs Jefferson Fisher, the bride's mother, the contracting parties being Col Octavins Coke, of Chowan, and Miss Kate Fisher, of this city. The marriage was very private, only a few of the most intimate friends being present. There were no waiters. Col Coke was accompanied by Gov Jarvis, Col Andrews and Col W L Saunders. Mr T H Briggs, Col B P Williamson, Mr W G Upchurch and Mr A D Jenkins, all particular friends of the bride's family, were present.

Stateville Landmark: From a private letter we learn that the Rev Edmund N Joyner, for several years pastor of the Episcopal Church in this place, now residing at Pittsboro, has been invited by the vestry of St Paul's Episcopal Church, Columbus, Miss, to visit that Parish with a view of extending a call. The vestry very liberally offer to defray the expense incurred by the visit. In case the congregation and Mr Joyner are mutually pleased very liberal inducements will be offered him to take charge of the church. This invitation was extended at the suggestion of Mrs F J Maxwell who met Mr Joyner in Stateville last Summer.

IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY

SENATE

WASHINGTON, April 17.—On the expiration of the morning hour the primary Appropriation bill was taken up. Mr Morgan, of Ala, being entitled to the floor.

Mr Morgan said that heretofore he intended to speak in vindication of the attitude of Southern members of Congress, which had been the object of much unjust aspersion. The South was not responsible for the existence of the question now agitating the public. He had considered it best at present to yield to his friend from Indiana, Mr Voorhees.

Mr Voorhees called attention to what he feared was not generally realized, namely, that Federal interference extends not only to Congressional, but to all State and local elections. Americans citizens, by thus having overseers put over them, were reduced to the condition of slaves.

Mr Voorhees detailed the system of election laws and pointed out the provisions therein dangerous to free ballot, saying that newspapers always take advantage of such laws. Already our people had seen themselves defeated the popular will. Caesar sent emissaries into the provinces to incite disturbances as an excuse to use the army to keep the peace. The same thing might be done, and had been done, by the President of the United States.

Mr Teller followed, and said the Democrats had now sustained the veto power of the President. The proper place to test the validity of the law was in the courts. The Democratic cry for free ballot was inconsistent, as all election trials for the last thirty years had been to the advantage of the Democratic party. He concluded by citing the evidence heard by the Teller Committee as proof of the correctness and justice of his argument.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Immediately after the reading of the Journal the question came up from yesterday morning, on the bill reported from the committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures, to provide for the exchange of subsidiary silver coins for legal tender money, and to make such coins a legal tender in all sums not exceeding ten dollars.

The question was, on motion made by Mr Buckner, of Mo., chairman of committee on Banking and Currency, to refer the bill to that committee, which was rejected.

At the close of the morning hour, the bill went over until to-morrow. An effort was made by Mr Atkins, of Tenn., to have debate on the Legislative bill closed next Saturday. But it was then refused to extend the debate until Friday next.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Legislative bill, and Mr Kelley made a speech against the policy of attempting to coerce the President into signing the Appropriation bill.

At the expiration of Mr Kelley's time, it was, on motion of Mr Carlisle, of Ky, extended fifteen minutes. His speech was listened to with marked attention.

Boys in the Navy.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Senator Garland to day introduced a bill authorizing the enlistment of 750 apprentices and boys in the navy each year, and for this purpose enlarging the present maximum of the total force of the navy to $2,250 persons. The bill also proposes to amend the existing law providing that boys may be enlisted between the ages of 14 and 18 years to serve until they become 21, and that in case of reenlistment within three months after attaining this age they shall be given preference in subsequent appointments of warrant officers.

The Egyptian Difficulty.

PARIS, April 16.—No progress has yet been made in solving the Egyptian difficulty. The French and English Cabinets have taken no determination, and have, therefore, made no proposals to the Porte. It is not believed that the deposition of the Khedive will be attempted. The Republic Francaise says: 'France and England will first demand, through the Sultan, the Khedive's submission to their wishes. This they will doubtless obtain, and, through the same medium, they will impose on the Khedive guarantees against a renewal of such conspiracies as the present one.'

Queen Victoria in Italy.

ROME, April 16.—Queen Victoria and the King and Queen of Italy will meet on Friday, the 18th inst at the Royal Castle of Monza, near Milan. After a walk in the park and lunch the royal party, separating, will return in the afternoon to Baveno and Rome respectively. Their Italian Majesties intended to visit Baveno but there is no palace or villa there capable of accommodating the united parties and their attendants. Queen Victoria, while expressing the pleasure she would derive from a visit of King Humbert and Queen Margherita, intimated her desire to save them inconvenience by going to meet them at Monza. Queen Victoria's visit to Italy will terminate on the 23rd inst. She will arrive in Paris on the 24th, at Cherbourg on the 25th, and in England on the 26th. The statement that the Pope wrote to Queen Victoria welcoming her to Italy is declared to be unfounded.

The British in South Africa

COLONEL PEARSON UNRELIEVED. A Vast Army of Zulus Surrounding Ekowa.

UMBELINI AND COLONEL WOOD. Another Severe Battle with Doubtful Result.

CAPE TOWN, April 1. / VIA ST VINCENT, April 16, 1879. The Colonial Secretary of Natal has telegraphed to the Colonial Secretary of Cape Colony that Cetysayo has sent messengers to Lord Chelmsford with overtures for peace. It is thought, however, that this is merely a ruse to obtain information of the movements of the British troops.

Colonel Wood attacked Umbelini's stronghold on the 28th of March, and captured a quantity of cattle. Subsequently the Zulus retook the cattle, and on the 29th attacked Colonel Wood's camp. The Zulus were repulsed after four hours' fighting; but the British loss was heavy. Seven officers and seventy men were killed, including Captain Campbell and Piet Uys, the leader of the detachment of mounted B.ers, who has several times been mentioned in despatches for distinguished services.

A dispatch to the Standard from Pietermaritzburg says the force which recaptured the cattle from Colonel Wood was 20,000 strong. In the fighting on the day on which these cattle were retaken Colonel Wood's column suffered considerable loss which is not included in the estimate given in a previous despatch. Nearly all of the natives deserted. The loss of the Zulus in the subsequent attack on the camp was immense. The official report of Colonel Wood confirms the statement that the Zulus who attacked him numbered 20,000. The British lost seventy seven in killed and wounded when the camp was attacked. The Zulus in this attack were entirely defeated and pursued a considerable distance.

The Ekowe relief column started on the 28th of March. It is composed of 6,000 men, two Gatling guns, two cannons, several rocket tubes, 113 wagons and fifty-six pack mules. Colonel Law commands the advance guard, consisting of the naval brigades from the ships Shah and Tenedos, two companies of Buffs, five of the Ninety-ninth regiment and the whole Ninety-first regiment.

The wagons are escorted by two companies of mounted natives and a battalion of native foot. Major Pemberton commands the rear guard, composed of 200 men from the Poondie, the Fifty-seventh regiment, a battalion of the Sixtieth regiment and the mounted natives. Lord Chelmsford and staff are with the rear guard. All was well with the column up to the 30th of March.

Colonel Pearson on that day signalled from Ekowa that he could see the head of the column entrenched on Amatudala River. Colonel Pearson signalled on the 27th of March that 150 of his garrison were ill and fifty wounded, and that only 500 of his men would be able to assist the relieving column, for which 35,000 Zulus were lying in wait. Adjutant Davidson of the Ninety-ninth regiment, is dead. The number of the enemy in the immediate neighborhood of Colonel Pearson's position is estimated at 15,000 warriors.

The Standard's correspondent, with the relieving column for Ekowe telegraphs from the Inyoni River, under date of March 30, as follows:—'The relieving column, after the first day's march intrenched here, nine miles north of Tugela River. On mustering to proceed the following morning (March 29) one captain was missing. It is supposed he went beyond the guards and was cut off by the Zulus during the night. A few Zulus have been seen watching the advance from the distant hills, but no fighting is expected, until April 1, as Colonel Pearson signals that the Zulus are concentrated near Ekowe. It is intended to relieve the present garrison at Ekowe with the battalion of the Sixtieth regiment. The garrison will have ample provisions to hold out till the grand advance is made on Undini. The Ekowe relief column is moving by a road which passes through an open country.'

South American War. LONDON, April 17.—The Daily Telegraph publishes the following private telegram dated Lima, April 14, 1879:—'The entire coast is blockaded. The fleet is useless. Peru is accepting favorable terms, and negotiations continue. Pierola is active for peace. Much depends on the reply forwarded to-day.' Possibly the above dispatch is intended to influence stocks.

For the Review.

Mr. EDITOR: You are requested to publish the following, for the information of your patrons and the general public: In order to regulate the practice of Medicine and Surgery in the State of North Carolina the General-Assembly, at the session of 1858-'59 passed an act to establish a Board of Medical Examiners.

Without a license from this Board, no physician who has commenced the practice of his profession in this State "after the 15th of April, 1859, shall practice Medicine or Surgery, or any of the branches thereof, or in any case prescribe for the cure of disease, for fee or reward," nor shall he be entitled to sue for or recover, before any magistrate or court in this State, any medical bill for services rendered." (see laws of North Carolina 1858-'59)

In conformity with the provisions of this act the State Board of Medical Examiners will meet in the city of Greensboro on Monday, May 19th, 79 By authority of the Board HENRY T. BARNSON, M. D. Secy. PETER E. HINES, M. D. Pres't. Salem, N. C., April 15th, 1879.
