The above does not embrace all the SPECIAL BARGAINS we have secured during the four weeks passed in the markets, having spared neither trouble or time in order to accomplish our object. It affords us even more pleasure than it does our patrons to put desirable goods on this market below their actual value as it increases our business and is really the cheapest system of advertising as well as the true policy of extending any business.
We are also offering great inducements in all our regular purchases and can with safety add that at no time have our facilities been equal to the present season, and we are determined to put our regular stock of General Dry Goods on this market at a lower rate of percentage than ever before. See advertisement in Star.

State Tax for 1879.
Our present Revenue Act levies on the one hundred dollars valuation the following tax for the present year:
For general purposes, 12 cents; for Insane Asylum, etc, 6 cents; for Penitentiary, 6 cents; total 24 cents. The School tax levy, 8½ cents, remains the same as formerly. The levy for State purposes this year is 6½ cents less on the one hundred dollars valuation than was levied for the year 1878.

Black Cashmeres worth $1 00—75 cents at Hahn's, Fourth street.
On Fire in Church.
Quite an alarming fire incident occurred in one of our city churches yesterday. It was during the services and a gas jet was burning in the organ loft for the convenience of the organist. One of David's successors a Sam-ist, while bending over his hymn-book got his head too near the gas jet and the consequence was a spurt of flame about a foot high. The young man was very much in love with a lady in the congregation at whom and to whom and for whom he had been singing and the singing was, therefore, on very inflammable material. A lady chorister who was near at hand, seeing the flames dropped her book and by a few vigorous slaps with her hands, crushed out the fire. The alarm did not become general and the department was not called out.

Black Cashmeres worth 90 cents—60 cents at Hahn's, Fourth street.
In this weather all the crows have sore throats, and they moult their lost caws.
A pair of scissors in the hand is worth two ideas in the head—with some paraphernalia.

Ladies used to powder their hair and patch their faces. Now they powder their faces and patch their hair.
Procure it in time if you wish to save doctor bills. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Price 25 cents.
Kid Gloves worth 75 cents—45 cents at Hahn's, Fourth street.

Black Cashmeres worth 60 cents—35 cents at Hahn's, Fourth street.
Skipped.
It has been an open secret for several days past that I. L. Dolby, for some time past proprietor of the Empire House, in this city, had skipped the town. It is said that he raised several thousand dollars, by various means, before he left here, among others by a mortgage for $1,000 on the furniture and fixtures in the House, and that he owes numerous accounts, which he forgot to pay. Of these there is one grocery bill for $350 and another for some $800. It is said that Dolby first went South and that he passed here last Saturday night going North, or which occasion he was joined by his wife. No effort was made to detain him by any one of the parties to whom he was indebted. He skipped successfully and has gone to seek new fields and pastures and people green.

Lonsdale Cambrio worth 15 cents—10 cents at Hahn's, Fourth street.
Resignation Withdrawn.
Rev. Geo. Patterson, D. D., Rector of St. John's Church, who had tendered his resignation to the Vestry, first to the members of the old Vestry, who had declined to accept it, and afterwards to those elected on Easter Monday, was induced to withdraw it and on yesterday, after morning service, Mr. Henry Nutt, Chairman of a Special Committee from the Vestry who had been appointed to confer with Dr. Patterson, read to the congregation their report, setting forth the fact of their conference and the welcome intelligence that he had been induced to withdraw his resignation. The result was very gratifying to the entire congregation, who crowded around their beloved Rector with warm congratulations.

Some Chickens.
We are informed that our friend, Mr. F. A. Newbury, shipped one load of poultry from his store on North Water street to-day which numbered one hundred and forty-one chickens. They were all sold at 30½ cents each.

A Golden Wedding.
The flags over the Imperial Consulate in this city, as well as those on the various German vessels in port, are flying to-day in honor of the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary, the Golden Wedding, of the venerable parents of Mr. E. Peschau the German Consul at this port, which takes place to-day at Oxnahaven, Germany. Mr. Peschau's father is 81 years old and his mother 75. The love and filial duty of Mr. Peschau has been flashed to them to-day over the Atlantic cable.

This is the warmest day we have yet had during the month of April.
City Court.
David Mallett, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was sentenced to pay $10 fine or serve fifteen days in the city prison.
Judy Ann Hunter, a colored wench from Paddy's Hollow, who is a frequent attendant at the bar of the Mayor's Court, was fined $10 for being drunk and disorderly on the streets. The fine was paid and the defendant walked out and is now ready for another row when the occasion offers.

Black straw hats are trimmed with satin bows, black ostrich feathers, and gold tissue forming a ribbon.
Imported dresses, notably Worth's, are distinguished by their simplicity and pure and perfect elegance.
Summer stockings in fine thread are embroidered with tall grass and flowers on the instep in natural colors.
"Bandana" dresses do not "take" very well with refined and cultivated women, but colored folks go into raptures over them.

Low, square-cut dresses of rich black silk or satin, handsomely trimmed with lace and passementerie, are the latest for evening wear.

Sunday School Concert.
We are informed by Capt. W. M. Parker, the Superintendent, that the Sunday School connected with the Front Street Methodist Church will give a concert, principally of Sunday School songs, on the evening of Tuesday, the 29th inst. The music will be under the direction of Mrs. Sallie Poisson, the organist at the Front street Church, and Mr. H. M. Bowden, and will be selected mainly from the "River of Life," a new and favorite Sunday School song book. From all that we can understand a musical treat of unusual interest is to be presented to our people. Fuller particulars will be made known in a few days.

Smoked Sturgeon.
Mr. John Carroll has presented us with a sample of smoked sturgeon. The fish was caught in the Cape Fear, shipped north, smoked, and sent back here. The smoked sturgeon is very fine and resembles both in looks and taste the smoked salmon.
Their Last Shipment.
Messrs. Westbrook & Bros., of Rocky Point, made last week their last shipment of radishes for the season. They sent them to Baltimore, paid 75 cents a barrel freight and got 60 cents a barrel for the radishes. But they could afford to lose a little this time having realized so handsomely on earlier shipments.

The Lutheran Synod.
The Lutheran Synod will hold its seventy-sixth annual meeting, commencing on Wednesday, 30th inst., at Bethel Church in Stanly county. Mr. W. H. Gerkin is the delegate from St. Paul's Church, in this city, with Mr. John Haar, Jr., as alternate. Delegates to the Synod will leave here on Monday, the 28th inst.

A Silver Wedding.
Our esteemed friend, Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D., Pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, in this city, with his good lady will on Friday next, the 25th inst., celebrate their Silver Wedding, that being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the happy day. The occasion is to be one of rare pleasure to Dr. and Mrs. Bernheim and their many friends in this city. Our thanks are tendered for an invitation to be present then.

A Mammoth Newspaper.
Yesterday's New York Herald is a mammoth sheet. It is quintuple in form and carries 79½ columns of advertisements, the aggregate number of notices being $780, or an increase of 2:8 over last week. In the last three quintuple sheets it has printed over 240 columns of solid type containing 11,002 separate announcements, ranging in length from two lines to two columns each. The Herald is against the whole newspaper world!

Linin Crash worth 15 cents—9 cents at Hahn's, Fourth street.
More Goods Discovered.
Boyetto the colored man who was arrested a few days ago for stealing books, etc., seems to have been making preparations for counterfeiting. From his school-house on the corner of Twelfth and Dock streets, a quantity of acids were taken and are in the possession of the officers who arrested him. He is thought by some persons to be a little weak in his upper story, but there seems to be too much method about his "little tricks" to justify any such conclusion.

Black Alpacas worth 30 cents—18 cents at Hahn's, Fourth street.
Magistrate's Court.
Rev. Cesar Newton, colored, was arraigned before Justice Wagner this morning for assault upon a colored woman and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00 and $3.70 costs.

The same defendant was also arraigned before the same Justice upon the charge of misdemeanor and sentenced to pay $3.70 costs and in default of payment of fine and costs in each case was committed to jail.
Laura Haggett, colored, arraigned upon a peace warrant before J. C. Hill, J. P., was sentenced to pay the costs of the case amounting to $6.75.

In a case of assault and battery before the same Magistrate the same defendant was fined $1.00 and the costs $4.25 in default of which she was turned over to the tender mercies of Dan Howard for safe keeping.
Towels worth 12½ cents—6½ cents at Hahn's, Fourth street.

Elevated Railroads, Lines of Stages, Places of Amusement, Depots and Steamers—all these radiate from, or are situated in, the immediate neighborhood of the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, which is now kept on both plans, the American $2.50 or $3.00, and the European plan, $1.00 per day, and upwards. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Grand Central.

A Card.
To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

McMILLAN.—In this city, this morning, 21st April 1879, GEORGE D. McMILLAN, after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 33 years, 1 month and 24 days. The funeral will take place to-morrow (Tuesday) morning at 9 o'clock, from his late residence on Cowan street, thence to Oakdale Cemetery. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.
The deceased was a printer by trade and served a portion of his apprenticeship in the Observer office at Fayetteville, under the supervision of Mr. E. J. Hale, Sr. But the war coming on, like thousands and tens of thousands of other young Carolinians, the subject of this notice, full of youthful ardor, became inspired with a desire to serve his country and leaving home, friends and kindred, beat the early age of sixteen years enlisted in Company D, of the 51st N. C. Infantry, and went with his regiment to the front. How well he behaved as a soldier in the presence of the foe, the honorable scars upon his body, which was thrice pierced by the hostile shots of the enemy, will bear ample evidence. Entering the war as a private, he was one of that little band of heroes who, having participated in the last pitched battle of the conflict at Bentonville, finally stacked their guns at Greasboro by order of Gen'l Des. E. Johnston, the last Confederate military commander in the State, and then turned their weary steps homeward.
After the war Mr. McMILLAN came to Wilmington, and was engaged for many years in following his avocation as a printer, first in the Dispatch office and then upon the Wilmington Journal. After the demise of the Review office where he had been engaged up to the time of his last illness, and where his case still awaited him if it had pleased an All-wise Providence to spare his life yet a little while.

As a companion he was genial and whole-souled, while he was generous to a fault. Faults he had, but who of us in this sublunary sphere are free from them? But the faults of our departed friend were not those that would injure others, and there were such that found ready forgiveness in the eyes of his fellow men.
About two months ago Mr. McMILLAN received Baptism at the hands of Rev. Dr. Paterson, and a few weeks afterwards was confirmed by Bishop Atkinson as a member of Christ's Church. He died calmly, gently and trustfully, in full assurance of a blissful hereafter. His end was peace, and so is his memory peace.

I'LL BE BLOWED IF I DON'T SAY IT!
If it costs me my scalp, BABIES! Bless the Babies! I love to PHOTOGRAPH THE BABIES, and when I go home I love to nurse the Babies, (Ahem! that is when the neighbors send them to see me.) And then I love the babies for their pure innocent hearts. Oh, ho! they remind me so much of myself, and then the Babies don't pay for their Photographs with green parchment or Confederate money either.
Whew! I golly, wouldn't I catch it if them Review people was to put this in the paper. It would take some talk, preaching to make some folks believe that I was not to blame for it. Don't it.
