Very Sad.

Mis Maggie Toon, an accomphished and interesting young lady, while on a visit to Mrs. F. G. Robinson, died very suddenly, it is supposed of apoplexy, on last Saturday afternoon, about tea time She had been well during the day but suddenly complained of feeling very unwell, sank into a chair and died before medical assistance could reach her. She was buried this morning from the First Presbyterian Church.

The Coming Regattas.

The yacht Rosa, of the Carclina Yacht Club, was brought to this city Saturday The Ripple is expected to-morrow and will be followed by the Frolic, Lizzie, Restless, Gipsy and possibly the Carolina and Spray. The first regatta will take place on or about the 26th inst., in the river. The date for the second race has not been decided upon as yet but the regatta will be some time before the middle of the coming month. Several scub races will be sailed during the interim.

One of Ours.

Our good friend, Capt. W. J. Calais, "Buck") fermerly of this city, has been elected Mayor of Old Fort, in McDowel county, of which place he has been a resi dent for several years past. The Commis sioners elected with Capt. Calais are Messrs D. C. Salsbury, A. T. Curtis and A. W. Crawford, all Democrats, of course.

Capt. Calias, who is, by the way, as good an "old reb." as ever flourished on a pound of meal and a quarter of a pound of C. G. L. "Nassau bacon" per diem, runs the hotel at Old Fort, and will give a downright hearty welcome to all who may call upon him this summer.

Kitchin and Russel'.

There is still much talk about the alleged difficulty between Representatives Kitchin and Russell, but yesterday's Raleigh News says, by authority, that it is all the merest nonsense in the world, and that there is no truth in the report that a hostile meeting has been in projection.

We are glad of this, very glad. We don't think Judge Russell is prepared to die yet and whatever Kitchin's practice may be the man who could hit the side of a house at fifteen paces would hardly miss Dan, Russell. Besides, we haven't quite made up our mind, as yet, as to who we should like to have as Judge Russell's successor.

Marine Disasters.

The Russian barque Ecliptic, Captain Johansen, which cleared from this port on the 5th inst., with 3020 bbls rosin for Riga, Russia, encountered a gale when about one hundred and twenty miles out and shipped a sea which stove in bulwarks, cabin-house and broke her rudderhead and started the vessel to leaking. Two seamen were caught by pieces of timber set affoat by the accident and badly injured. The Captain succeeded in reaching our bar with his disabled vesse and vesterday put in below and then taking a tug came to the city to inform the agents, M. ssrs. E. Peschau & Westermann, of the mishap. The agents inmen will go out and are confident of a big structed the Captain to bring his vessel at once to the city, where it is thought she will have to undergo repairs.

Mr. S. G. Northrop expected to launch Mitchell, leaded with a cargo of lumber, ted. The work richly deserves the sale morning in a leaking condition. The encountered a heavy northeast gale; laid te for three days, the port side of the vessel being under water a good deal of the time; shipped heavy seas which finally started the deck load and strained the vessel te such an extent that it opened her seams, causing her to leak. Had to get rid of about one third of the load on deck.

The Captain reports that the condition The daily edition of the Christian of his vessel and crew was such at this time as to make it imperative on him to urday and this port to-day. Captain week's time.

Sailed.

Saturday's Race.

The race spoken of by us on Saturday as in progress at the Fair Grounds resulted in favor of Katie, a bay mare, owned by a young merchant in this city. Her contestant was Billy, a bay horse, the property of another young Wilmingtonian. The race was for best two out of three, mile heats, and was won by Katie in two heats-time 2:481 and 2:461. A fested and there was quite a number of the Grounds.

Grand Lodge Meeting.

Exemption of Apothecaries. The commissioner of internal revenue has decided as follows, under the last clause of section 32, article 46, Revised Statutes, as amended by section 5 o the act of March 1, 1879, which reads as

Nor shall any special tax be imposed upon apothecaries as to wines or spir tuous liquors which they use exclusively in the preparation or making up of medi-

The exemption from special tax as corded to apothecaries applies not only to the sale by them of their medicinal preparations or compounds composed in part of distilled spirits or wines, but also to any and all mechanical appliances and precesses which they may find to be necessary or useful in the preparation or making up of medicines, and that an apothecary, therefore, notwithstanding the fact of his holding a special tax stamp as a iquor dealer, is not subject to special tax as a rectifier on account of his keeping a still or distilling apparatus for use exclusively in treating liquors, &c., employed in the making up of medicines.

Cyclopædia of Literature. It will be welcome news to all lovers of good literature that the new, beautiful and marvellously cheap acme edition of "Chamber's Cyclopædia of English Literature" is to be completed on June 1. Volume IV. is just issued, and the remaining four volumes are to be issued Schooner R. H. Mitchell, Captain and delivered at one time on the date stafrom Savannah for Washington, D. C., it has obtained of nearly 100,000 volumes on the 4th inst., put in at this pert this already, and ought to attain, as it prob ably will, to a round million. The price. Captain reports that when two days out he which has varied at different times, increasing as the publication has progressed, has now been permanently fixed at $2 for the paper (8 volumes complete, nearly 3,500 pages), $3 for cloth, $4.65 for half morecco, gilt top, and $3,75 for the 4 vol. edition in half morocco, gilt top binding A discount of 10 per cent. from these prices is allowed to those whose orders are received before June 1, and a further discount of 10 per cent. to clubs of five or more sent at one time. #### A Test Case.

We learn that Mr. Thos. Edens, a truck gardener, and Mr. A. D. Wessell, a groceryman, of this city, have determined to test the forestalling ordinance recently passed by the Board of Aldermer. Mr. Edens sold a load of veget: bles to Mr Wessell within the hours prohibited by the ordinance and then notified half mile dash afterwards was won by Mr. Williams, Cterk of the Market, who Billy in 1:25. An appeal will be taken to the Superior Court by Messrs, Edens and Wessell and if the case goes against them they will appeal to the Supreme Court.

The Coming Concert.

As will be seen by notice published elsewhere the Concert which is to be given complimentary to N'rs. Kahnweiler, the sweet singer of Wilmington, will surely take place at the Opera House on next Friday evening. It is hardly necessary to assure our readers that no efforts will be spared to present to our people the most charming musical festival it has been their good pleasure to attend in Wilmington. Prof. Van Lear will direct it and this fact alon speaks volumes.

Mrs. Kahaweiler has always been kindly and generous in respondir; to every call heretofore made on her rare musical accomplishments and we trust that our people will show their appreciation of this fact.

'Truth lies in a nut-shell,' and 'brevity is the soul of wit.' To be brief, when the shell is broken, the truth will be discovered that, the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, now kept on both plans, the American $2 50 or $3.00 and the European $1.00, and upwards per day, gives more stisfaction for the same money than any other first-class house in Gotham, An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Grand Central.
