When the poet sings of a fair one who had 'heaven in her eye,' it is supposed he meant, in plain language; that her optics were of a cerulean hue, or, to speak scientifically, that she was a blue eyed beauty.

Mr. Frederick A. DeRosset, M. A., of this city, has been selected as the Orator at the first annual celebration of the Sigma Epsilon Society, of the University of the South, at Seawane, Tenn., which takes place early in June.

Waddell was called upon to fill the gap. As the notice was very short Col. Waddell gave the same address delivered by him in Newbern the next day.

Personal.
We were glad to meet to-day with our young friend, Mr. Jno. D. Sprunt, who has just returned from a three months tour in Merry England and among the hills of Scotland, sojourning for a short time on the native heath of his ancestors' home in the historic land of the Scots.

To Be Opened.

Brock's Exchange is to be reopened by Mr. Cheny, of Robeson county. Mr. R. J. Lewis, of this city, will hang up his sheepskin behind the bar, and will be in attendance to serve his friends and customers. He knows how to "set 'em up."

Point Caswell Crops.

The crops in Pender county, and particularly in the Point Caswell section, are said to be very promising. Corn is the principal field crop there, very little cotton being raised, and this recent cool weather has been good for this crop. The fruit, as we know, has been destroyed, although we understand that Capt. R. P. Paddison has a very fair promise of fruit in his place at Maultsby's Point.

The Courts.

The Criminal Court, His Honor Judge Meares presiding, will be convened in special session next Monday week, the 26th inst.

R. for all points in Western North Carolina, and also with the Atlanta & Charlotte Air-Line for points in Western North Carolina, via the Spartanburg & Asheville R. R.

The Light Infantry.

At the annual meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry, held last evening, the following officers were re-elected for the ensuing year:

Captain—Walter Conroy.
First Lieutenant—Thos. C. James.
Second Lieutenant—H. McL. Green.
Junior Second Lieutenant—W. J. Gordon.

Ensign—W. B. Goodman.
The anniversary of the Company, which falls due on the 20th, (next Tuesday), will be celebrated by a parade and target practice and Messrs. Geo. W. Doyle and R. H. Grant were appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements.

We are truly glad to learn of the numerical improvement, so to speak, of this veteran organization, which has been for so many years the just pride of our citizens. We hope, too, before long to be able to chronicle the fact that this company has reached its maximum strength in point of numbers. If the company ever gets in possession of the Army which rightfully belongs to them, and which we think ex-Mayor Dawson is willing to testify was given to them by the then town corporation of which he was the head at the time, it will be a considerable saving to the company in a pecuniary way.

First Baptist Church.

The annual meeting of the First Baptist Church of this city was held last evening, and there was large attendance and the utmost harmony. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Church Treasurer—Owen Fennell, Jr.

Assistant Superintendent Sunday School—Jas. A. Bryan.
Secretary and Treasurer Sunday School—A. M. Baldwin.

Assistant Secretary and Treasurer Sunday School—Jos. Mitchell.
Librarian—W. P. Oldham.
Assistant Librarian—E. H. Freeman.

If you want to get the best piece of ice in the refrigerator take a nice pick.

Hook and Ladder.

The committee appointed at the last regular meeting of the Hook and Ladder Company to ascertain the best means of celebrating the anniversary of the organization reported last evening. The boys have decided to give a blow-out, but have not settled upon the time. They anticipate a fine time and as they never do things by halves these expectations will be realized.

A Runaway.

A lively runaway started from the foot of Chestnut street this afternoon. A horse kept standing in a dray on which there was a load of bricks started off up street. He turned into Second street, north of Chestnut, came down Mulberry to Water and then quietly brought up near the point at which he started. But there wasn't a brick left on the dray; they had been scattered along the entire route taken by the horse.

The Diocesan Convention.

The annual Convention of the Episcopal Church in this State will begin its labors to-morrow in Fayetteville, and continue throughout the week. Dr. Watson, of St. James', went yesterday on the North States and to-day Bishop Atkinson and Dr. Patterson, of St. John's, with a number of lay delegates, left on the Wave, while the A. P. Hart carried up Rev. T. M. Ambler, of St. Paul's, Rev. C. Brady, of St. Mark's, Rev. Edward Wooten Mr. Tillinghast and a few others.

A Religious Craze.

A colored woman, whose name we could not ascertain, visited yesterday afternoon a number of houses in the Eastern part of the city, bent, as she seemed to think, on a special mission of grace. She would go up to a house and knock at the door and when some one appeared in response would insist upon it that they must leave the doors and front gate open; that the Savoir would appear presently in mortal guise and that He would enter each house where he found the door open. The poor woman should be cared for but we have not yet heard of her being apprehended.

Magistrate's Court.

William Thomas, a colored youth, had L. B. Hart, arrested and carried before J. C. Hill, J. P., for assault and battery. The defendant was required to pay a fine of $5 and costs.

Mr. L. B. Hart then had William Thomas arrested for trespass and carried before another Justice for trial, the result of which was that the defendant was required to pay one penny and costs.

Jennie Rhodes, colored, arrested yesterday for larceny of a valuable gold ring and other articles, had a preliminary trial this morning before a J. P., and was bound over to the Criminal Court in the sum of $100.

Dr. Mendelsohn and His Bride.

The Rev. Samuel Mendelsohn, Rabbi of the congregation of the Temple of Israel, in this city, was married in Philadelphia, on Sunday last, to Miss Esther, daughter of Rev. Dr. Jastraw, of that city. The happy couple are expected here next Thursday night, by the 9:53 train from the North. They will be met and welcomed at the depot by a large number of friends and will then repair to the pretty little residence prepared for them on Chestnut street, between Fourth and Fifth, where it is probable that many others will call and tender their congratulations.

Gene After Him.

A colored individual by the name of Albert Jessup is charged with having stolen last Friday, at Sloop Point, the sum of $31 from Mr. Dugald McMillan. He was supposed to have fled to this city and Chief of Police Brock was on Saturday notified of the occurrence and requested to arrest Jessup, if he could be found. On Sunday morning Mr. H. J. McMillan arrived here, arrived with a warrant for Jessup's arrest, but he could not be found. Capt. Brock, having reason to suppose that he had gone to Fayetteville, telegraphed to that point for his capture and to day received a dispatch from that place saying that the man answering to Jessup's description had been caught there and was awaiting identification. Mr. McMillan left for Fayetteville on one of the boats this afternoon, having been sworn in previous to his departure by Justice Hall as a special deputy for the purpose of claiming and bringing the prisoner back to this place.

Signs of the Chin.
The character of a man, it is said, can be read in his chin.

A pointed or round chin indicates a congenial love. A person with such a chin will have a beau ideal, and will not be easily satisfied with real men or women.

The indented chin indicates a great desire to be loved; a hunger and thirst for affection. When large in women, she may overstep the bounds of etiquette and make love to the one that pleases her.

A narrow, square chin indicates a desire to love, and is more common among women.

The broad, square chin indicates ardent love, combined with great steadfastness and permanence of affection.

The retreating chin is indicative of the want of attachment, and but little ardor in love.

The chin, in its length and breadth, indicates self-control, self-will, resolution, decision, etc.

Carnivorous animals have the upper jaw projecting, while those of the graminivorous nature have the lower jaw projecting.

In a man with a projecting upper jaw will be found large destructiveness and love of animal food; when the lower jaw projects then the love for vegetable food.
