Days' length 14 hours and 25 minutes.
No interments in Oakdale Cemetery since the 17th inst.

There were no interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

There were eight interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week—five adults and three children.

This is the last day of the week, the last day of the month and the last day of the season.

Bishop Atkinson will visit St. John's Church to-morrow evening and administer the Rite of Confirmation.

The Register of Deeds has issued seven marriage licenses during the week—one for white and six for colored couples.

The County Commissioners hold their regular monthly meeting in the Commissioners room at the Court House Monday afternoon, at 2 1/2 o'clock.

Rev. B. R. Hall, of the Fifth Street M.
E. Church, and Rev. Mr. Wiley, of the Smithville Methodist Church, will exchange pulpits to-morrow.

The June term of the Superior Court for this county, His Honor Judge Seymour presiding, will convene in this city on Monday next at 10 o'clock A. M.

We have heard Mr. Canaday's address generously approved by a number of those who read it in yesterday's REVIEW as well as by some who heard it at the Cemetery.

A happy crowd—and it was by no means a small crowd—of old and young folks went down the river this morning on the excursion given on the Passport given by Prof. Agostini.

We understand that Rev. Geo. Patterson, D. D., of this city, will preach the Sermon at the Commencement of St. Mary's School in Raleigh, on the first Sunday after Trinity, the 16th of June.

The Board of Aldermen meet in regular monthly session next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and from now until the cold frosty months will continue to have their sessions in the day time at the hour above named.

It is said that a tablespoonful of kerosene oil, mixed in a gallon of water and sprinkled on the plants in a garden will make the bugs, worms, ants, and other insects "fold their tents about them and silently steal away."

Doctors are to guard human life and bring relief to the sick. So does Dr.
Bull's Baby Syrup; it contains nothing injurious and is always reliable. To be had at all drug stores in our city. Price 25 cents.

Not a case nor a tramp for trial this morning. This, while it speaks volumes for the good order of our city, is dead loads for locals to carry. We fear if something don't turn up soon Mayor Fishblade will have forgotten how to try a misdemeanor, and be at a loss what sort of judgment to render owing to the fact of his being out of practice.

The Journal of Industry.
We were pleased to receive a call this morning from O. Hunter, Jr., one of the editors of the Raleigh Journal of Industry, who visits our city in the interests of his paper. He brings with him letters from prominent citizens and we can cordially commend his enterprise to our people. He will begin the canvass of the city on Monday next and we do hope that the white citizens of Wilmington will extend to him and his enterprise a substantial encouragement.

Personal.
Under this head yesterday's Raleigh Observer says: Gov. Robinson returned from Wilmington and the East yesterday.
The people of the East have waited for an opportunity to testify their appreciation of the sturdy stand he has always taken for their rights and to express to him their warm personal regards. His hearty recognition of their partiality and his genial manner in describing his trip is evidence sufficient that his visit has been a succession of friendly greetings and kindnesses. As soon as he reached here he accepted service in the School bill mandamus case. He will return home to-day.

Off for Europe.
Mr. Julius Hahn leaves here this evening for New York at which place he will take a steamer for Bremerhaven. He will be gone until early in August and will return to this country in season for the Fall markets. During his absence he will keep posted on all that is going on here as he will read the REVIEW every day.

The Excursion Concert.
With clear weather and a moon nearly full, the Cornet Concert Club expect to have a large number on the Passport on the excursion concert to be given by them next Monday night. There will be some excellent vocal and instrumental music and the harpers will be along for the benefit of those who may desire to dance.
It bids fair to prove a tip-top time.

"The Cottage by the Sea." As will be seen by a glance at our advertising columns Mr. C. C. Morse has erected three new and convenient cottages at Greenville Sound, which he offers for rent on reasonable terms. Parties desiring pleasant residences during the hot summer months would do well to call either upon Mr. Burkholder, who has the matter in charge, or Mr. Morse, the proprietor.

Whitsun-Day.
The Festival of Whitsun-day, known as such in the Roman Catholic and Episcopal Churches, occurs to-morrow. This festival falls due ten days after the Ascension of Christ and corresponds with the Jewish Pentecost, or the fiftieth day after the Passover. We are told that the Holy Ghost descended on the Apostles in the shape of tongues of fire and that it was to "teach the Apostles; and to lay all things to their remembrance." The name of the day comes to us through the German, whence Whingsten and Whitsun.
Many erroneously believe that it was originally White-Sunday and that it became abbreviated to Whit-Sunday.

The Lecture on Modern Egypt.
General Colston, at the Opera House last night, in his lecture upon Modern Egypt, introduced his subject by an expression of pleasure at his return to the city of Wilmington, where a portion of his life had been most pleasantly passed.
He then spoke of Ismail Pacha, the present Khedive, and his ancestry, Ibrahim Pacha and Mohammed Ali. He described the present Khedive as a man of high character and possessing great intellectual attainments. In his dress, manners and personal habits the Khedive is thoroughly English. He also gave an account of the sons of the Khedive, one of whom is general-in-chief of the Egyptian forces, but who has never won an enviable distinction as a military genius.

General Colston gave many interesting traditions of the Egyptians of ancient times, and a somewhat detailed account of the habits, customs and social relations of that people at the present day. The laws of divorce are very liberal and inexpensive, the only act necessary being to declare themselves divorced. The parties thus divorced may marry again at pleasure, and there is no impediment to their coming together and assuming again the relations of husband and wife. This they may do three times, after which the wife must not marry her former husband until she has married and been divorced from some other husband. [Chicago editors would do well to make a note of this.] The lecture last night was illustrated by stereoscopic views and also by photographs of some of the most prominent and distinguished men of Egypt of the present day.

Space will not permit us to give more than this very brief synopsis of the very entertaining and instructive lecture, but we learn that the General has quite a number of others prepared upon the same subject, and we hope he may be induced to deliver one or more of them. His opportunities for observation, while in that country, were abundant, and it would be a rich intellectual treat to listen to his relations of Egyptian experience.

The Sunday School connected with the First Presbyterian Church of this city made an excursion on the W. O. & A.
Railroad to Lake Waccamaw this morning. The crowd was quite a large one, all bent on a day of pleasure and recreation, and we doubt not they will pass the day in innocent and healthful enjoyment.

Positive warm, comparative warmer, superlative warmest day of the season.

Ladies Benevolent Society.

At 5 1/2 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon, June 3d, there will be a meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, at which every member is requested to be present.
The Society, we learn, has been considerably cramped for means to carry out its noble purposes of charity, and the object of the meeting is to take prompt and decisive action, to enable it to work successfully. It is to be earnestly hoped that an interchange of sentiments and views at the meeting may result in relieving the Society of the embarrassments under which it now labors and that its career of usefulness may be long continued.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Yates, the mother of Rev. E. A. Yates, Pastor of Front Street M. E. Church, in this city, and of Mr. W. J. Yates, of the Charlotte Democrat, died at her home in Fayetteville night before last. She was 80 years old.

Criminal Court.
The following cases were disposed of by this Court to-day, up to the time of closing our report:

State vs. Martha Jackson, charged with larceny. Verdict not guilty. Defendant discharged.

State vs. Anthony Howe, charged with malfeasance in office. The defendant confessed his guilt in open court. Judgment suspended upon payment of the costs of the case by defendant and his resigning his office as a Justice of the Peace in Wilmington township.

Andrew J. Hogan, convicted of larceny, was sentenced to four years in the County Work House.

Ella Holmes, convicted of larceny was ordered to be held in custody and an officer sent with her to the cars on Monday to see her depart with her mother for her home in Columbia.

State vs. J. W. Hopkins, charged with selling liquor on Sundays. Verdict not guilty.

State vs. Fanny Galloway and Sylvia Carter, convicted of receiving stolen goods sentenced to seven years each in the penitentiary.

The Grand Jury came into Court, made their report, were thanked by the Court and then discharged.

Thermometrical.
From the United States Signal Office in this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:

American Wines.
But few persons are aware of the great amount of grapes raised in New Jersey.
Alfred Speer is known to be the largest wine grower east of the Rocky Mountain.
His Port Grape Wine is the best, and is considered by physicians and chemists as the best wine to be procured. It is ordered to London and Paris, where it is becoming very popular among wealthy families. For sale by J. C. Mundy, P. L.

"Truth lies in a nut-shell," and "brevity is the soul of wit." To be brief, when the shell is broken, the truth will be discovered that, the Grand Central Hotel, on Broadway, New York, now kept on both plans, the American $2.50 or $3.00 and the European $1.00, and upwards per day, gives more satisfaction for the same money than any other first-class house in Gotham. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Grand Central.
