Indications.
WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office of the Chief Signal Officer,
Washington D. C. June 7, 1879.
For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States higher pressure, cooler North to East winds increasing to gales on the North Carolina Coast cloudy or partly weather and local rains are probable.

The Brunswick County Case.
In the suit of S. P. Swain, the defeated Republican candidate for Clerk of the Superior Court in Brunswick county, vs M. C. Guthrie, Democratic incumbent, or quo warranto proceedings, Judge Seymour has decided for plaintiff. A demurrer as to the jurisdiction of the Court was overruled. Mr. Guthrie will appeal to the Supreme Court. Messrs Russell and Ricard appeared for the plaintiff and Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr. Esq., for the defendant.

One Excuse for Eating Onions.
Those who are fond of onions—and the number is legion in almost every community, notwithstanding they persistently decline to eat them—such persons will find an excuse for the habit in the following from an English medical journal: 'A case is now under our own observation in which a rheumatic patient, an extreme sufferer, finds great relief from eating onions freely, either cooked or raw. He asserts that it is by no means a fancy, and he says so after having persistently tried Turkish baths, galvanism and nearly all the poisons and plasters that are advertised as certain alleviatives or cures.'

A Curious Puzzle.
Here is something to scratch your head over. A very curious number is 124,857, which multiplied by 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, or 6, gives the same figures in the same order, beginning at a different point, but if multiplied by 7 gives all nines:
124,857x1=124,857
124,857x2=249,714
124,857x3=374,571
124,857x4=499,428
124,857x5=624,285
124,857x6=749,142
124,857x7=999,999
Multiply 124,857 by 8 and you have 1,142,856. Then add the first figure to the last and you have 124,857, the original number, with figures exactly the same as at the start.

Alumni Association.
At a meeting of the old students of the Wilmington High School, held last evening, the organization of an Alumni Association was perfected with the following officers:
President—John J. Fowler.
Vice President—W. M. Howey.
Recording Secretary—S. M. Empie.
Treasurer—B. G. Empie.
Corresponding Secretary—W. S. DeVane.
A Committee on Anniversary Celebration was appointed as follows: R. B. Hartsfield, B. G. Empie, E. S. Polly, F. M. Agostini, Jr., and W. H. Smaw.

City Court.
The monopoly of the City Hall was broken this morning for the first time for many days with the announcement that there was a case to be disposed of by the Mayor, said case being none other than the renowned and celebrated individual to the police of this city known as Mary Eliza Lively; and right lively she was too, last night about 11:30 o'clock, so the officer says who made the arrest. The facts seem to have been that the defendant, who is a soiled dove, (with the color of a crow) started out for a lark and got in a weaving way, so much so, that at the corner of Second and Market streets last night she was arrested for being drunk and disorderly. The Mayor pronounced sentence of $5 or ten days in the city prison. It may seem superfluous to add, but it is nevertheless true, that the defendant failed to pay the fine and was escorted to her old quarters below, and so endeth the chapter for the present.

Serious Stabbing Affray.
A serious stabbing affray occurred this morning, at about 8 o'clock, in a house on the corner of Mulberry and Nutt streets, between Delafate Towers and Hezekiah Atkinson, both colored. We could not hear the origin of the difficulty, but it seems that there was a quarrel between the two men in the course of which Atkinson struck Towers and knocked him down and was advancing on him a second time with a chair when Towers drew a knife and plunged it into Atkinson's side. The friends of the wounded man then called in Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy who stitched and dressed the wound. Atkinson is seriously but not necessarily dangerously injured. Justice Harris issued a warrant for Towers' arrest and the case will be heard as soon as Atkinson is well enough to appear in Court.
The Register of Deeds issued three marriage licenses during the week—one for white and two for colored couples.

W. C. & A. R. R. to be Sold.
Major D. J. Devane, of this city, has been appointed by the United States Circuit Court, in session this week at Raleigh, as Commissioner for the sale of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta R. R., under foreclosure of mortgage.
Wilmington at Chapel Hill.
Among the speakers on Commencement Day at Chapel Hill was Rober-Strange, of this city, a very promising lad, the son of the lamented Col. Robert Strange. The Raleigh Observer, in a report, pays a handsome tribute to Mr Strange's effort. His subject was 'Compulsory Education' and the Observer says that he made a manly bold and aggressive appeal in its favor.

Personal.
Rev. J. C. Hiden, D. D., formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city arrived here yesterday morning, and is the guest of M. William Larkins, at his residence, on the corner of Dock and Sixth streets. Dr. Hiden will preach in the First Baptist Church to-morrow morning and evening, and on Tuesday evening will deliver his greatly admired lecture on "Shadows," in the Opera House, for the benefit of the Ladies' Benevolent Society.

All Sold.
The agency is over. The four per cent certificates have all been sold. Some $50,000 worth were disposed of at the Postoffice in this city and Col. Brink tells us that the demand was such that he could have sold $100,000 more, if he could have gotten them. The big sales of these certificates were begotten of three causes—a dearth of profitable and secure investments, the small amount of each certificate, which placed them in the reach of all classes, and last, but not least, an abiding faith in the stability of our form of government.

Durham's Best.
Well, the delegates to the Royal Arch Chapter have returned and a right royal time of it they had too, i. e., so say the uncles and the cousins and the aunts and so say they all, we believe. Our informant speaks in glowing terms of the hospitable treatment which they met with in Durham, but particularly of the generous attention given them by Messrs. W. T. Blackwell & Co., who were the bulls of the market in the hospitable line, and we opine that our readers will agree in thinking so, when they learn the fact that Messrs. Blackwell & Co. "they gin a treat" at Chapel Hill in the shape of a barbecue for the Masonic visitors at Durham and transported the brethren in such style from the town of Durham to the University Commencement that the old and the young of the Masonic fraternity who participated in the pleasures of the occasion were transported with delight also. The conveyances which carried the party over consisted of fourteen four-horse wagons, the whole decorated with beautiful cloths and banners containing pictures of stall-fed Durham bulls with the positive injunction printed beneath to 'smoke Durham's best,' manufactured by W. T. Blackwell & Co., or words to that effect, which injunction, we understand, the happy party of reverend signors were literally carrying out, as every man's mouth-piece was ornamented with a fine meerschaum from which the blue smoke from 'Durham's best' was curling upward while the air around was redolent with the elegant aroma and fragrance of Blackwell's & Co's unrivalled tobacco.

This was the style in which the party traveled, and this was the style in which the brass band from the University, headed by the Chief Marshal of the occasion, discovered them when they came out a mile from the University to meet them, and this was the style in which they all entered Chapel Hill to the amusement, admiration and wonder of the natives along the route as well as the inhabitants of the village. If Frank Leslie's artist had just been along to sketch the picture it would have been more amusing still, for then we could all have enjoyed it and 'Blackwell & Co., with their usual enterprise, could have secured the cut, and in future by stamping their tobacco with a picture of the scene added very much to the already large sales of "Durham's Best." As it is none of the Royal Arch Chapter can hereafter ever allow themselves to indulge in a whiff that does not come out of a package on which is stamped Blackwell, & Co's trade mark of a first class Durham bull.

Essays upon the sun and moon come under the head of light literature.

The Superior Court having exhausted the calendar for the day adjourned this morning, about 12 o'clock, until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Bishop Atkinson will visit St. Mark's Parish to-morrow morning and administer the Rite of Confirmation. Services will be held at 11 o'clock. The seats will be free and all are invited.
Quite a number of the Shelybites who exurged to the city this week called in to see us while here and our mail books, especially those of the JOURNAL, have gained handsomely in consequence.

We did not mean to say in an editorial article in yesterday's issue that W. P. Kellogg is now out of a job but that he would soon be out of one, in all probability. "To err," you know, is "human," and this is applicable to the types, as well as to the typos.

The Rich California Banker.
When it became known that one of the richest California bankers had left the Pacific Coast and transferred his base of operations to the New York Stock Exchange, all the shrewd financiers watched his course with keen interest to see how he would succeed. The result has emphatically proved the wealthy banker's sagacity. Beside having a much wider and more promising field to operate in, he is known to have been in several stock combinations that paid immense profits. By the combination method of operating in stocks Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite orders of thousands of customers, in different sums, into one vast capital, and operate them as a mighty whole, dividing profits pro rata among shareholders every 30 days. Capital in any amount from $10 to $100,000 can be used with great success in these pools. $25 would pay $100 profit. $500 would make $5,000 or per 10 cent, on the stock during the month. Messrs. Lawrence & Co's new circular (mailed free) gives two unerring rules for success, and full particulars, so that any one can operate in stocks, and make money. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 75 Exchange Place, N. Y.

American Wines.
But few persons are aware of the great amount of grapes raised in New Jersey. Alfred Speer is known to be the largest wine grower east of the Rocky Mountains. His Fort Grape Wine is the best, and is considered by physicians and chemists as the best wine to be procured. It is ordered to London and Paris, where it is becoming very popular among wealthy families. For sale by J. C. Munds, P. L. Bridgers & Co and Green & Plawer
