Magistrate's Row furnished no news to day.

The City and County tax listing is over and the Assessor is happy.

Steamship Regulator, Capt. Doane, arrived here this forenoon from New York.

The moon fulls next Monday afternoon, just in time for the projected night excursion?

The tops of long kid gloves are embroidered, the embroidery also following the outer seam on the back of the arm.

A new material for trimming summer costumes is the Oriental summer velvet in damasse brocade, which comes in all the new colors.

It calls for great resolution in the young man who parts his hair in the middle to have it cut so short. There'll be no more parting there.

"The Great Commonwealth Circus Equestrum and Nelson's Pantomime Company" (too much name) is booked for Portsmouth on Thursday.

Black is the color most worn by Parisian as well as New York ladies, and it is sometimes difficult to determine whether they are in mourning or not.

A quite new material of silk and wool, with an interceptable stripe, makes up into beautiful costumes, with small figured brocade, in a rich Persian or shell pattern.

The fifth of the series of Family Excursions given by Prof. Agostini will take place on the Passport on Friday next. Particulars will be found in advertisement published elsewhere.

A great many remedies are advertised to bring them before the public, who decide whether the article is good or bad. The good reputation which Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup enjoys is a standing guarantee of its merits. Price 25 cents.

We understand that the Cornet Concert Club will give a moonlight excursion down the river some evening next week, near the full of the moon. Fuller particulars will be announced in advertisement in a day or two.

The Hillsboro Recorder has been removed to Durham and makes its first appearance from that town this week. Capt. Cameron promises new type and a new dress and we think that he is bound to do well. Durham ought to support two weekly papers handsomely.

Indications.

WAR DEPARTMENT, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., June 24, 1879.

For the South Atlantic States, stationary or rising barometer, north to south, east winds, stationary temperatures—only weather and numerous light rains.

The Medical Journal.

We have received from the editors the June number of the North Carolina Medical Journal, which has just been issued from the press, the delay having been for the purpose of embracing the reports of the Medical Society of North Carolina and of the American Medical Association, both of which will be found in its pages. To our unprofessional eye the issue appears to be an unusually interesting one. Certain it is, that in a business point of view it seems very successful, as it scores twenty-five pages of advertisements.

The South Atlantic.

The May number of the South Atlantic, being No. 1, of Vol. IV., is at hand. There are several very attractive articles in this issue. Paul H. Haynes contributes a very interesting sketch of Commodore Tatnall; W. C. Johnstone gives us a very readable paper, relative to travels in the Holy Land; Madame La Rose, a pretty little story, is by Emily R. Jones and D. R. Goodloe writes of the Finance, of the Revolution. The poetry of the number is by Mrs. Margaret J. Preston in Epithalamium; and Atlantis Discovered by Paul H. Hayne. The two serials, Carmalita and John Davidson's Wife, are continued. The editorial articles are very readable.

City Court.

Alderman Planner, Mayor pro temp., presiding:

Oscar Cameron and George Peamor, two colored youths arrested by officer Walker in Brooklyn yesterday for disorderly conduct, were sent below for twenty-four hours this morning by the Mayo pro tempore.

Supreme Court Decisions.

In the Supreme Court, at Raleigh, on Monday, the following decisions were rendered:

Vick & Mebane vs. W. P. Pope and wife, from New Hanover. Judgment reversed. Decision by Chief Justice Smith.

State vs. Charles W. Craig, from New Hanover. Judgment reversed. Decision by Justice Ashe.

Supreme Court.

The following cases, from this district, were called in the Supreme Court at Raleigh, on Monday:

W. A. Rogers, executor, vs. Robert McKenzie et al, from Robeson; report filed and referred.

William Griffin, vs. Josephine Griffin, from Robeson; (2 cases) end of district.

Henry Von Glahn vs. A. J. Delkossel, from Brunswick; (advocari at last term) papers had up to the court.

Edward Kidder vs. T. C. McIlhenny, from Brunswick; end of district.

Duncan McFadyen vs. John T. Council, from Bladen; end of district.

Pinkney B. Fikin vs. J. M. McGougan et al, from Columbus; dismissed at cost of defendants.

D. S. Morrison vs. M. A. Baker, from Richmond; argued by McNeill & McNeill for plaintiff, and McKee & Broadfoot for defendant.

McKinnon & Lilly vs. McKay McKinnon, from Richmond; argued by McNeill & McNeill for plaintiff, and J. D. Shaw and Hinsdale & Devereux for the defendant.

Budding Roses.

This is a simple process by which amateur cultivators often increase their stock. A sharp penknife can do duty for a budding-knife, and the handle of a toothbrush, if ground down smooth, will aid in lifting the bark. From the last of June to the last of August is the best time for this process, as the bark can be more easily raised from the wood. Take a smooth stalk and make a horizontal cut across the bark through to the wood, but not into it. From the center of this cross-cut make another cut straight down the stem and an inch or more in length. These two cuts should resemble a T. Slice off the bud you desire to propagate with one cut of the penknife, cutting it close to the main stalk. Now, with the edge of the spud turn back the bark on each side of the straight cut, and insert the bud on the wood of the branch to be budded, fitting it tightly to the crossed cut; with a bit of soft yarn bind down the bark, leaving a point of the bud exposed. A handful of dampened moss must then be bound round the stem, taking care to leave the tiny point of the bud exposed to the air. In six weeks the wrappings can be removed, but all other shoots must be kept from growing on the budded branch. By this means a rose bush can be made to bear half a dozen different colored roses.

Quick Time of the Ripple.

The yacht Ripple belonging to Mr. Norwood Giles, of this city, left here night before last in command of Mr. John Farrow with a crew of two colored men, on the way to Wrightsville Sound. The purpose in leaving at night was to be at the inlet ready to cross in the early morning, which Capt. Farrow with his little craft accomplished at 9 o'clock, and by 11 o'clock a. m. of the same day was at Masonboro Inlet, but he was not able to enter the Sound until 12 o'clock on account of the tide.

The Ripple did not go to sea over Main Bar, but through what is called by some Buzzard Bay Inlet, a small opening across Smith's Island, about half way between New Inlet and Main Bar. This inlet, or "wash" has only about four feet of water on it at high tide and must therefore be dry at dead low water. It formerly had several feet more water than is on it now and in a few years, owing to the shifting of the sand, will probably have disappeared entirely. It is not, properly speaking an inlet, but merely a low place in the island where the water makes across at high tide.

A pleasant and refreshing rain fell here for about an hour early this morning.

The Open Air Concert.

We are requested to state that the Open Air Concert which was to have been given in the City Hall Park this evening by the Cornet Concert Club has been postponed until Friday night next. A small sum, ten cents, will be charged for admission at the gates.

Election of Officers.

At a regular meeting held by Wyoming Tribe No. 477 Imp Order of Red Men, at their Wigwam, on the 24th sun, buck moon, G. S. D., 388, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

P.—T. W. [illegible], S.—G. [illegible], S. S.—J. [illegible] Dray, J. S.—J. T. Edens.

The Bishop Not Going to Europe.

We learn that the Rt. Rev. Thos. Atkinson, Bishop of this diocese, who left here some ten days or two weeks ago accompanied by Mrs. Atkinson en route for a trip to the old world, has positively decided since his arrival at the north to forego the trip to Europe altogether, and has taken a trip to Saratoga instead, where the venerable Bishop and his good lady are at present sojourning.

This conclusion was reached, we are told, on account of Mrs. Atkinson's ill health.

A Young Sufferer.

We regret to learn that little Johnnie Stienken, who was so seriously burned a few days since by falling into a bin of hot rosin, an account of which we published at the time, is not noticeably improving, and that he is a severe sufferer. His legs and feet are entirely denuded of skin, and he suffers continually from an internal heat, which, together with the terrible condition of his limbs, taxes a fortitude which but few men would possess under like circumstances. He is in unceasing agony, and although he struggles bravely to suppress the evidence of his torture, his moans may be heard nearly every hour in the day and night. We sincerely sympathize with the little fellow, and earnestly hope that a speedy relief may be afforded him.

Heavy Shower on the Cape Fear.

We learn from steamboatmen from Fayetteville that there was a very severe shower, accompanied by thunder and lightning, at Little Sugar Loaf, Bladen county, on the Cape Fear yesterday afternoon, between the hours of 4 and 5 o'clock. At the turpentine distillery of Sheriff Sutton, three men, one white and two colored, were knocked down and stunned by the electric fluid. The Sheriff also had two horses harnessed to a buggy, one of which was knocked down, while the other remained unscathed. The lightning also struck a large pine near the distillery, and in its descent to the ground killed four hogs that were under the tree. The white man who was knocked down, we learn, had the same experience, during a thunder shower, near the same place a year or two ago. If he keeps on he may become inured to electric shocks in the course of time. The shower of yesterday is said to have been one of the most severe which has been experienced in that section for a number of years.

Colored Masonic Parade.

Yesterday afternoon (St. John's Day) Giblem Lodge of A. Y. Masons, colored, of this city, together with Shekinah Lodge of the same order from Charleston, S. C., as visitors, paraded the streets for about an hour. Both lodges presented a fine appearance, and their conduct was in every respect commendable.

After the parade they assembled at the City Hall, where an appropriate address was delivered by R. W. D. G. M., James W. Telfair, of this State, at the conclusion of which the following officers were intalled for Giblem Lodge for the current:

W. M.—George L. Mabson. S. W.—Elijah Lane. J. W.—Robert Nois. Secretary—Thomas Simmons. Treasure—James A. Lowery. S. D.—James P. Green. J. D.—James Love. Stewards—John D. Nixon, John Sheridan. Chaplain—Wm. Phinney. Joseph C. Hill read an original poem, which was well received.

The music was under the charge of W. K. Price, assisted by male and female vocalists.

The Charleston visitors remain in the city as guests of their colored Masonic brethren, to-day, and will leave for their homes in the Palmetto State to-morrow (Thursday) morning.

Miss Hart's School.

The closing exercises of this institution were held this morning, beginning at 10 o'clock. For several days previous, examinations had been in progress, in which the pupils acquitted themselves with great credit. Owing to the feeble health of the Principal, the usual public exercises were omitted, only the parents of the pupils being present, to witness the award of testimonials and prizes. After class-singing by the pupils, the Annual Report was read by Mr. William Calder. The directions for the year are as follows:

In scholarship, certificates of the First Grade were presented to Miss Minnie Holmes and Miss Loula Parsley; of the Second Grade, to Miss Georgie Atkins, Miss Annie Moore and Master George Johnson; of the Third Grade, to Miss Mamie Parsley and Miss Alice Holmes. Certificates of good progress were given to Misses Carrie Myers and Louise DeKosset.

In Department, Certificates of the First Grade were presented to Miss Mamie Parsley, Miss Alice Holmes, Miss Katie Johnson, and Miss Anna Strauss; Second Grade, Miss Loula Parsley, Miss Minnie Holmes, Miss Lillian Bowden, and Miss Flora Willard; Third Grade, Miss Georgie Atkins, Miss Florence Bowden, Miss Lizzie Heide, Miss Hattie Heyer, Miss Carrie Myers, Miss Lossie Myers, Miss Ida Strauss and Miss Almie Willson.

The prizes were awarded as follows: The prize in Scholarship was awarded to Miss Loula Parsley. Prizes in Department were won by Misses Alice Holmes, Katie Johnson and Anna Strauss.

For punctual attendance, by Misses Alice Holmes and Mamie Parsley.

For proficiency in arithmetic, by Misses Annie Moore and Ida Strauss, and Master George Johnson.

For excellence in English definitions, by Miss Minnie Holmes. A dainty little work-basket, the prize for excellence in needlework, was awarded to Miss Hattie Lewis.

An address to the pupils concluded the exercises and the session of 1878-9 was brought to a close.
