These were no interments in Oakdale during the week.

In Pine Forest Cemetery, there were three interments during the week--one adult and two children.

The Register of Deeds reports four marriage licenses issued during the week--one to a white and three colored couples.

Avoid using those remedies containing Opium, Morphine, etc; but when the baby is sick use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup--perfectly safe and always reliable. Price only 25 cents a bottle

We understand that Mr. F. A. Schutte, who it will be remembered purchased the furniture of the Empire House at auction on Thursday, has leased the buildings and will reopen the Hotel at an early day.

They could not stand the pressure any longer and hence they went up street and ordered a double-decked awning with Newbury & Chasten printed on the bow and on the quarters. It is cool enough there now, and we wish that everybody on Water street would go and do likewise.

Some Turtle.
We learn that a sea turtle was captured at Wrightsville Sound last evening which was a perfect monster. Our informant stated to us that the combined efforts of four men were not able to raise it from the ground after it had been brought to the shore.

Indications.
WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office of the Chief Signal Officer
Washington, D. C., July 5, 1879.

For the South Atlantic States, warmer southwest veering in the interior and possibly on the Carolina coast to cooler northerly winds, stationary or rising barometer, warmer, partly cloudy weather, except on the Carolina coast, cloudy weather and possibly light rains.

Information wanted of the whereabouts of WILLIAM PITT, of Baltimore, Md. When last heard of, in August, 1878, he was employed as Foreman in the Machine Shops of G. R. Lombard & Co., in Augusta, Ga. Any information regarding him, will be thankfully received by VOGELER, MEYER & CO.,
Baltimore, Md.

Magistrate's Court.
Before Justice T. M. Gardner, D. J. S. Carter, colored, was arraigned upon the charge of perjury and committed in default of bail until Monday, the 7th inst, at 10 o'clock.
Hezekiah Atkinson, colored, was bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $200 for beating his wife.
John Fisher, colored, was arraigned before a trial Justice for assault and battery upon his wife with a deadly weapon and bound over to the Criminal Court.

Old Securities at Auction.
$47,800 in Confederate securities were sold by Messrs Cronly & Morris, auctioneers, for $1.50, this morning; also about $70,000 in Confederate currency for $1.50. At the same time and place several individual notes were auctioned off at very low prices. One note, for $200, sold for $1.50. This note would be as good as gold but for the statute of limitations. The purchaser will of course take his chances. The sale was made by order of administrators.

The Bonnie Blue Flag.
A gentleman who lives in the Eastern section of the city tells us that as he came down to his office this afternoon he met on the way a squad of the colored Charleston military, and that they were singing with a gusto, and apparently as though it was an old acquaintance of theirs, Harry McCarthy's famous 'rebel' war song, the 'Bonnie Blue Flag.' It doesn't rhyme with 'John Brown's Soul' but yet that fact didn't seem to make much difference to the singers.

Very Sudden Death.
Mrs. Jane Wilkins, of Fayetteville, a near relative to Mrs. Granger and Mrs. J. E. Lippitt, died suddenly at the residence of the former lady, to whom she was on a visit, at Masonboro Sound, on Thursday night of, heart disease. She was apparently well during the day but just before forenoon complained of feeling very peculiar and very soon after died. She was 77 years of age. The remains were forwarded last night to Fayetteville via Hamlet and Sanford.

Colored Base Ball Match.

The game of base ball played yesterday at Hilton, between the Wilmington Mutual and the Victoria Star clubs, resulted in a complete victory for the Mutuals as the following score of the nine innings will demonstrate:

Mutuals.....19
Victoria Star.....4

Henry Nash took the responsible position of umpire, to the satisfaction of all concerned.

On Board the Waccamaw.
The excursion given under the auspices of the Liberman Benevolent Association, yesterday, on the Waccamaw, was a first-class affair, and was enjoyed by a large crowd of pleasure seekers. The Italian string band furnished the music for the dancers, and the young votaries of Terpsichore indulged in the amusement to their heart's content. The boat touched at Smithville and Fort Caswell, making a short stay at each place, and, returning, reached this city at about sunset.

Spoken.
Schooner John Schutte, five days out from Havana, bound to Montreal, was spoken off Frying Pan Lightship, on the 2d instance by pilots from Smithville. She had a stowaway on board, a colored man, and believed to be a slave. They wanted to put him ashore from the pilots boat but this could not be done on account of the quarantine. The Captain of the John Schutte sent ashore his regard for Mr. Heide and other acquaintances here. He reported that there was no ever in Havana when he left there.

City Court.
Carrie Walker, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was sentenced to pay a fine of $2.50 or go to the lock-up for five days.
Fanny Gore, the Empress and Queen of Paddy's Hollow delight, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly. $5 fine or ten days in the City Prison was Mayor Fishplate's sentence and the Queen and Empress swept out of the Court room in the most courtly style (something which she has acquired by her frequent attendance at the Mayor's Court) imaginable and was shown to the quarters prepared for her by a high functionary wearing a star of the Knight of the Club order upon his breast.

This ended the proceedings for the day and the august tribunal of the Mayor's Court dissolved its sitting until Monday, the 7th inst., Anno Domini 1879.

Colored Man Drowned Yesterday.
Between the hours of 11 a. m. and 12 m., yesterday, three colored men in the employ of Messrs. Worth & Worth undertook to come across the river from Point Peter in a bateau, and when about one-third of the distance had been accomplished, owing to the swell in the river, the boat filled. Two of the men, named respectively Gagner Bell and Sam Pickett, undertook to swim to the shore, while the third, named Ben Johnson, clung to the boat until he was picked up by a crew of sailors who rowed to his assistance. Sam Pickett succeeded in reaching the shore but Gagner Bell, either from cramp or exhaustion, was unable to do so, and was drowned before assistance could reach him. The deceased was about thirty-five years of age, and had had charge of a flat for the firm by whom he was employed, and is represented as an industrious and steady man. He leaves a wife and one child.

Colored Boy Drowned at Hilton.
Between 4 and 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, a young colored boy, named Sidney Horsley, aged about 12 years, while in swimming with a party of other boys at Hilton, was drowned. It seems that a young boy of the party who stood on the shore threw sticks into the river for the boys to swim after, and he threw one so far that Horsley, after starting for it turned around to come back without it, when, encouraged by his companions, he made another effort to reach it, but again turned round and made for the shore, and when not more than 20 or 30 feet from land he became exhausted and sunk. Quite a number stood on the shore, some of them men in stature, who either from fright or some other cause made no attempt to rescue the drowning boy. The water was about eighteen feet deep where he went down, and after he sunk for the last time an effort was made to dive down and find him, but it was unsuccessful. The boy has no parents, but has been cared for by an aunt who is cook in the family of Mr. Geo. R. French. The lad has also been in Mr. French's employ for some time past.

The Colored Military Visitors.

The Charleston colored military company, numbering some eighty-four men, under the command of Captain J. A. Williams, arrived in this city by the W. C. & A. R. R., on Thursday night, on the 8.20 train, and were met at the depot by the colored troops of this city, attached to the Fifth Battalion of N. C. S. G. under command of Lt. Col. Geo. L. Mabson, and escorted to their army on the corner of Eighth and Princess streets where they were quartered for the night. The line of march was down Front street and up Market to Eighth and thence to the Armory. The Excelsior colored band, of this city, furnished the music for the occasion, which was pronounced very fine by all who heard it. The soldierly bearing and fine marching of the visiting company was likewise favorably commented upon. The company was also frequently complimented for the good looks of its members, every man from the Captain down to the lowest private in the rear rank being about the color of an octaroon or quadroon.

About 11 o'clock, on yesterday, the line of march was taken up for Hilton, where, as previously announced, the day they celebrate was to be passed under the shade of the beautiful oaks which adorn what was once an old North Carolina homestead. Arrived at the grounds the companies stacked arms and gave themselves up to pleasure and recreation for a short time, some participating in dancing while others strolled through the woods with their fair dulcinea by their sides. At 1.30 the meeting for the celebration of the Fourth was organized by calling W. K. Price to preside and requesting C. P. Blount to act as Secretary. The meeting being thus organized the first thing in order was the reading of the Declaration of Independence by Captain J. C. Hill, of Co. A, of the Fifth Battalion, after which Lt. Col. Mabson, orator of the day, delivered the Oration.

At the conclusion of the Oration, refreshments were served and the visiting military showed their knowledge of Upton's tactics in a fine company drill. There were at least twenty-five hundred people in attendance at the speaking, so we are told, and the strictest decorum was preserved by all present. No spirituous liquors were allowed anywhere on the ground. The day was wound up by a ball complimentary to the visiting military given by the Fifth Battalion, which took place at Maria's Hall, in Giblem Lodge. Captain Williams and his company will, we understand, take their departure on the Southern bound train this evening, and will be escorted to the depot by Lt. Col. Mabson and his command.

Sad Disaster in Beaufort.

It is with great regret we learn, through the Signal office in this city, by a dispatch from the station at Fort Macon, of a heart-rending disaster which occurred in Beaufort Harbor yesterday afternoon, about 2 o'clock. It seems that Capt. Appleton Oaksmith, of Carolina City, a gentleman largely known in that section of the State, attempted, with four daughters and one son, to cross in a small boat from Fort Macon to Beaufort. When about half-way across Bogue Sound the boat capsized and the party were all suddenly thrown into the water. The eldest daughter disappeared at once and has not been seen since, but the others were rescued. It was hoped at first that the disaster would be confined to the eldest daughter, the others having been rescued after having been in the water for some time, but last night, at about 7 o'clock, the other daughters all died. Cautionary signals were displayed at Fort Macon when the sad disaster occurred.
A later dispatch, received to-day, states that the bodies of the three unfortunate young ladies were taken to their home this morning and that efforts are now being made for the recovery of the other.

Hon. A. H. Stephens.

This distinguished Southern statesman arrived in this city yesterday morning on the train from the North, and, there being no sleeping car for Augusta on the regular train, he stopped over until last night. He remained at the depot, where he was visited by a number of our most prominent citizens during the day. He did not come down to the city at all, preferring the comfort of his easy chair and the luxury of the cool breeze under the long shed at the depot. He left last night for his home in Georgia, on the 10.15 p. m. train on the W. C. & A. Railroad.

Marine Item.

The Br. Barque Florence Margaret, Capt Blackley, which cleared from this port on the 28th ult., one week ago today, by Paterson, Downing & Co., with 2,920 bbls resin, for Glasgow, Scotland, is reported in below, having put tack, it is said, on account of the Captain having broken his chronometer.

The Regatta Yesterday.

The regular July Regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club was sailed over the course at Wrightsville yesterday, the Ripple being victorious. The attendance was not so large as usual, though those who were there were very enthusiastic, and seemed to enjoy the day most heartily. We had, as we thought, made arrangements for a full report of the race but our special reporter on the spot must have taken root as he has not put in an appearance up to the time of our going to press. The following yachts were entered and started as written: Bessie Lee, Little Sister, Restless, Rosa, Lizzie and Ripple. The start was pretty and the race bid fair to be very interesting, but on rounding the Inlet buoy on the first course the Lizzie broke down and was withdrawn.
The Rosa's centre board was broken shortly afterwards. She led the fleet and was closely followed by the Ripple when her rigging gave way and she was withdrawn. The race was sailed without any other accident and was finished by the Ripple in about 1 hour, 30 minutes. The Restless took the second prize and the Bessie Lee the third. The prizes were delivered to the winning yachts by Commodore Wiggins, but when it came his turn to present and accept the prize for the Bessie Lee his natural diffidence got the upper hand of him and he blushing took the pickle stand and sent it ashore in a yacht which he thought would not capsize. We have tried to ascertain the exact time made by the yachts but cannot do so for the reason that the Judges' report is in the possession of one of them who is rusticated on the Sound and putting life lines on the Qui Vive.

In Bellevue Cemetery there were no interments this week.

DIED.
On Sunday, June 29th, at the residence of her son-in-law, Dr. Eugene Grisson, Superintendent of the North Carolina Insane Asylum, Mrs. MARY ANN BRYAN, in the 71st year of her age.
Mrs. Bryan was the relict of the late Michael Bryan, Esq., a well known citizen of Brunswick county, and she leaves three surviving children to mourn her loss.
Her was a peaceful and useful life. A humble and consistent Christian for many years, the pathway to the tomb, through many months of suffering, was lit by the hope of a blessed immortality. Having waited long for the summons, a perfect resignation to the will of the Master, she fell asleep in Jesus.
"Thou art gone to the grave but we will not deplore thee,
Whose God was thy Ransom, thy Guardian and Guide,
He gave thee, He took thee, and He will restore thee;
And death hath no sting, for the Saviour hath died."
