Unsympathizing.

We learn that it was with considerable difficulty that sufficient assistance could be obtained to bury the unfortunate Mary Radcliffe yesterday. There were quite a number of colored persons at the house when the driver of the hearse came to remove the remains, and when he asked them to help him they refused, and it was only after much expostulation and coaxing that the colored people present could be induced to lift a hand towards her removal.

 highly commended for soldierly and generally conduct.

Death of Dr. A. E. Wright.

It is our painful duty to record to-day the death of one of Wilmington's most esteemed citizens, which occurred in this city last night at 9 o'clock, after a lingering illness of nine or ten months.

Dr. Adam E. Wright's whose death is here referred to, was a native of Wilmington and was a practicing physician in this city up to the time of his sudden illness by a stroke of paralysis, which occurred in September last. At that time Dr. Wright was Superintendent of Health, for the county and city, a position which he had filled worthily and acceptably for many preceding years.

Dr. Wright was among the first in this city who volunteered in his country's cause at the outbreak of the late war, and accompanied the troops from Wilmington to the For's below, at the commencement of hostilities, in the capacity of Surgeon.
 He was afterwards stationed at the hospital, on post duty, in this city throughout the entire war, and many are the grateful old soldiers, who recollect his kind and pleasing smile, and his tender treatment of them when under his care.

He was a gentleman universally liked, and it can with truth be said of him

"None knew him but to love him, None named him but to praise."

Special Session of the Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met in accordance with the motion for adjournment at the last regular session, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Present, Mayor Fishbale and Aldermen Myers, Flanner, Bowden-Volders, VonGlahn, Foster, King, Lowery and Hill.

The reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

Col. D. K. McTear stated that he had been employed by the Bell Telephone Company to represent their case before the Board of Aldermen, but for various reasons he was not prepared to argue their case, and, in justice, thought the matter should be deferred until he could have important parties present.

Maj. Stedman, counsel for the Wilmington Telephone Exchange, could see no reason why the matter should be put off, and argued that it should be disposed of at this meeting.

Alderman Lowrey moved that the matter be postponed until Mr. Orme, Col.
 McTear's client, arrives, and until called together by the Mayor.

Alderman Flanner moved to lay Alderman Lowrey's motion on the table.

The Mayor explained his reasons for the letter he had written to Gen. Taylor and published by him, and was clearly of the opinion that he was justified in doing so.

Alderman King moved that the whole matter be referred back to the Special Committee, to report to the Board of Aldermen at the next regular meeting.
 Lost.

Alderman Flanner moved that the whole matter be referred back to the Special Committee, to report to the Board of Aldermen at a meeting to be held on Thursday, July 24th, which motion was agreed to.

A petition from the Wilmington Hook & Ladder Company, for aid to buy a horse to replace the one that died on Saturday last, was presented, whereupon, on motion, $100 was appropriated to help the Company purchase another horse.

The Board then adjourned to Thursday, the 24th inst.

A Free Excursion.

The Carolina Central Railroad officials gave the employes at Laurinburg a free excursion a few days ago and left it to a vote of the crowd to determine in which direction the excursion should be, when it was decided by a majority vote that they would all go to Shelby at the head of the road and to Shelby they all went and had a good time generally, returning in excellent spirits, with grateful hearts and willing hands to proceed to work again.
 A pleasant little episode this, in the way-faring and hard working man's life, which will no doubt prove beneficial to employer and employe alike.

City Court.

Frank Baker, colored, was arraigned this morning for disorderly conduct in Paddy's Hollow last night. The Mayor told the defendant to leave $2 or remain two days. The culprit went to a shady nook below in the C. P.

The steamer A. P. Hart left Fayetteville yesterday on her regular trip and is expected here to-night.

Another Assault and Possible Murder.

We hoped yesterday, when we had concluded the account of the murder and suicide of Saturday night, that we should not again be called upon soon to chronicle another chapter of horror and outrage.
 It was a sad, disgraceful and horrifying episode in our history that we hoped might never be repeated, and that for awhile at least our quiet city should be freed from. But to-day we are again called upon to relate another case of brutal outrage which has occurred in our midst.

About 9 o'clock this morning Sam Pickett, colored, one of those who so narrowly escaped drowning on the 4th inst., became enraged with a colored woman named Maria Covington, with whom he has been living in concubinage for several years and assaulted her with a stove damper, an iron instrument about 20 inches in length and weighing about two pounds, inflicting three wounds, one upon the right hand, which was slight and broke no bones, and the other two on the forehead—one to the right and the other to the left of the frontal bone. The woman was knocked down senseless, and an alarm being given Sam attempted to escape. Fortunately a policeman was near at hand, and he gave chase to Sam and finally fired a shot from his revolver upon which the fugitive turned about and surrendered. He was taken into custody and sent to the guard house to await an examination.

While this was transpiring a messenger had been sent for a physician, and Dr. Ed.
 King was soon in attendance, and after something more than an hour succeeded in restoring the wounded woman to consciousness. He then made as critical an examination of the wounds as circumstances would permit, and discovered that the blow on the right forehead had penetrated about 1 1/2 inches, making an ugly gash, but he could not discover that any fracture of the skull had been made.
 The blow on the left forehead caused only a severe contusion without penetrating the flesh. It is the opinion of Dr. King that the wounds are not necessarily fatal, but may eventuate in death, through supervening fever or from the shock upon the brain. The result may, he thinks, be safely predicted within the next 24 hours.

This, we learn, is not the first time by many that Sam has thus maltreated this woman. He has been willing to marry her, but she has not dared to marry for fear that he might be even more brutal should he be clothed with legal authority over her. Recently she has become converted and admitted to membership in one of the colored churches. Since then she has felt more keenly the disgrace of the position she occupies with Sam, and fearing to marry him had determined to leave him—being more fixed in the resolution from the fact that he was hostile to every religious feeling of hers. He was angry and quarrelsome if she attended any of the ordinary meetings of the church, and the outrage this morning was the result of these circumstances.

We are under obligations to Dr. King and Sergeant Davis, and Mr. Scharpt, of the police force, for kindness in furnishing us information in the above case.

Non Arrival of Fayetteville Steamers.

No Fayetteville steamer has put in an appearance at this port since the departure of the Waco on Friday last. The steamer D. Marchison, of the Express Steamboat Line and the North State, of the Cape Fear and People's Steamboat Company are both overdue. It is all owing, we presume, to the extreme low stage of the river. Our Fayetteville friends and steamboatmen ought to pray for rain, and we will all try and do the same. But if the clouds don't open pretly soon we will have nothing but a sand bar between here and our up-country friends. Oh! for a goodly shower of moistening drops from above. Old Probs promised us rain last night, but went back on his promise and we are still left dry and thirsty. The very grass is dying for want of the cooling drops.

Amateur Press Association.

The third Annual Convention of the N. C. Amateur Press Association will be held at Goldsboro on the 21st inst. (next Monday) This Association is composed mainly of young men of literary tastes and habits, and some of whom have manifested decided ability. In the tender of our thanks for an invitation to be present, we give them our best wishes for their success in the arduous and thorny fields of journalism.

Reception of the Visitors.

We learn that Gen. J. S. Richardson will accompany the Sumter Light Infantry on their trip to our city, and it is expected that his staff will also be of the party.
 The Wilmington Light Infantry, Captain Walter Coney, will turn out to receive the South Carolina soldiery, and possibly the Whiting Rifles and the Cape Fear Light Artillery may participate. It may be said that Gen. Richardson is the Representative in Congress from the district in which Sumter is located, and that he is the first Democrat who has been elected to that office from that district since the war.

Alabaster Ornaments.

There is nothing prettier than graceful little vases and caskets of alabaster, and few household ornaments more trying to one's temper, because of the difficulty in keeping them clean. They may be thoroughly and easily renovated by cleaning them with a weak solution of aquafortis prepared in the proportion of two ounces to a pint of filtered rain water. Apply with a paint brush, wash thoroughly and dry in the sun.

Personal.

We had a pleasant visit this morning from Mr. J. A. Harrell, of Weldon, Editor and Proprietor of the Roanoke Farmer, published at the above named place. Mr. Harrell is here only on a short visit, and returns to Weldon by the Northern train this evening.

Contributions of an interesting character have been received, but have been necessarily crowded out of this issue by press of matter. They will appear tomorrow.

Honored and Blessed.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well-known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of disease that most all other remedies could be dispensed with many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt and to-day the discoverers of that great Medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.

Success in the Stock Market.

Few people understand how large fortunes are amassed so rapidly in stock operations. Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., have just published "two unerring rules for success," and full details, so that any one can operate.— Mailed free. Their new combination system of dealing in stocks is wonderfully profitable. By this method thousands of orders, in various sums, are pooled into one immense capital, and co-operated as a mighty whole, thus securing to each shareholder all the advantages of vast capital and best skill. Profits divided every 30 days. $15 would make $75 profit, $100 would return $1,000, or 10 per cent on the stock in the month, and so on, according to the market. A New York Fashion Editress and prominent newspaper correspondent, made over 375 per cent profit on an investment, Oct. 5th, 1878. Many others are doing as well or better. Large or small amounts can be used with equal proportionate success by this system. All kinds of stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 67 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.
