Easterly winds have prevailed to day.
No house is big enough for two wits to live in together.
The wild oats of youth change into the briars of manhood.
No one is ever fatigued after the exercise of forbearance.
That civility is best which excludes all superfluous formality.
Kindness is the golden chain by which society is bound together.
The postage stamp knows its place after it has been licked once.

A house without newspapers and books is like a house without windows.
Let us always be cheerful if life is a burden, let it be a burden of song.
An indiscreet person is like an unsealed letter, which everybody can peruse.
Hon. R. R. Bridgers, of this city, was at the St. Nicholas Hotel, in New York, Friday.

Queer, but it's all right for hotel-keepers to treat their guests with incivility.
Life appears to be too short to be spent in nursing animosities, or in registering wrongs.
To act upon a determination made in anger is like embarking on a vessel during a storm.
Those who criticize most severely the works of others seldom can produce any themselves.
Why is a newspaper like a tooth-brush? Because every one should have one of his own, and not be borrowing his neighbor's.

An appropriation of $1,000 made by the Board of Aldermen, and placed in the hands of the Health authorities, would not be a bad outlay.
The Steamship Regulator will leave for New York this week on Friday, the 25th inst, one day earlier than usual. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue.
Young men who make regular visits Sunday nights, with several sandwiches in doring the week, may properly be said to belong to the "Press Association."

The diseases of Babyhood are so rapidly weakening that the quickest means should be used to check them. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup is the unfailing remedy for these complaints. Price 25 cents.
Excursions are now in order. The Isis took a party of colored excursionists up the river this morning, and there will, we believe, be one every day this week.
From the steamboatmen of the Cape Fear, we learn that there are but eighteen inches of water on some of the shoals between here and Fayetteville, with the water still falling.

Mr. H. H. Crowson has sold the Morganston Blade to Mr. J. H. Hallyburton. Mr. Crowson has published a good paper, and we heartily wish him success in whatever he may undertake.
Today is the anniversary of the first battle of Manassas, fought in July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, when M'zzer Zach Chandler from Michigan, came out to see the fight, and then turned tail and run, all the way back to Washington.
One of our types, while roaring through the woods yesterday in the vicinity of the city, found a huge skin which some snake, apparently a rattlesnake, had discarded. It is over five feet in length and is perfect.

Burglaries are on the increase now and are probably that it will not be long before one of them runs plumb against a little round piece of cold lead and a coroner's inquest will be found necessary. The man who enters another man's house in the dead of night places his life at the mercy of the other.
Skipped the Town.
Maria Covington, who was principal witness against Sam Pickett, and the injured party in the case, has skipped the town, and was not on hand at the Mayor's Court this morning. It is said she was last seen on Eagles' Island heading for Brunswick county.
More Burglary.
The residence of Mr. W. M. Hays, on Seventh, between Mulberry and Walnut streets, was entered and burglarized early yesterday morning. The villains tried first one side of the house where the windows were secured and then the opposite side, where they effected an entrance. The lights were not all out in the house until 1 o'clock yesterday morning and the robbery therefore occurred after that hour. Nothing was known of it until the family awoke in the morning when it was discovered that the pockets of the three gentlemen in the family had been gone through with and every particle of money they contained, with the exception of one cent, was gone. In all the burglars secured $33.50. It is a right heavy loss to Mr. Hays and his sons.

Freaks of Lightning.
We learn from Mr. F. A. Newbury that during the storm of last Thursday evening, which raged with such severity at Magnolia, and other places along the line of the W. & W. Railroad, the lightning struck his house, shivering one of the posts and knocking off quite an amount of plastering. There were in the room at the time, and within a few feet of where the electric fluid descended, four persons, one of whom, Mrs. Benj Cooper, was knocked senseless and the child which was in her arms was thought to be killed, but fortunately they were only severely shocked. The other persons in the room, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Barden, escaped without any injury whatever. It was certainly a narrow and miraculous escape from death.
City Court.
A vagrant tramp who was arrested on suspicion by the police Saturday night, was released upon condition that he turned his back on this city before sundown.
The case of a colored woman charged with larceny, continued from Saturday, was dismissed.
Sam Pickett, colored, having revived from his sudden conversion fit, was arraigned upon the charge of assault and battery with a deadly weapon upon the person of Maria Covington, colored. The evidence in the case the Mayor thought justified sending the prisoner up to the Criminal Court, which was done, and the defendant bound over in the sum of $100 justified bond for his appearance at that time.

Jumped his Bond.
Hezekiah Atkinson, colored, the same who received a very nearly fatal stab under the fifth rib, or somewhere thereabouts, by Delafate Towers, another colored individual of Paddy's Hollow, some time since, and who afterwards was arrested upon a warrant for beating his wife, has left the city and county, possibly, for the county's good. But then the law ought not to be cheated, and by the defendant's leaving the town, there are two cases to come up before the next term of our Criminal Court which will have to be continued and possibly go untried. We mean the case in which the State is prosecutor against Towers for his assault with a deadly weapon upon Atkinson, and the case against Atkinson for maltreating and brutally beating his wife.
The escaped prisoner was out on bond and we believe a justified bond at that. We think this a good opportunity for a wholesome example to be set where parties will go sureties for such trifling characters, to require the bondsman to pay the whole amount of the bond. If this is done then the escape of Atkinson may, possibly, rebound to the county's good. Of course the money can be collected because the bond was a justified bond and no one can sign a justified bond unless he makes oath, and swears solemnly before God and man that he is worth a certain amount of money over and above the amount stated in the bond.
His Honor, Judge Mearns, and Mr. Solicitor Moore, we believe, will see to it that the matter is properly attended to, and Col. Wm. L. Smith, Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, will, we know, be very glad to have the county treasury reinforced by the snug little sum of one hundred dollars.

Unmailable.
The following unmailable postal matter remains in the post office in this city:
Elizabeth Moody, Albertson P. O. Duplin county, N. C.
Found in the mail from the North, without address, 24 yards wide cambric edging and 24 yards thread insertion.
Postal card, beginning with "Am on board Waccamaw, returning from Smithville" &c., without address.
Postal card, beginning "Dear Lillie," and signed "Your loving Aunt."
The Public Schools.
The recently elected School Committee for Wilmington Township duly qualified on Saturday afternoon before Justice Harris. The Committee for the Second District organized by electing Mr. Jas. H. Chadbourn, Chairman, and Walker Mearns, Esq., Secretary. The Committee then reappointed the same teachers as last year, viz:
Union (white) School—Miss M. E. Cook, Principal; Miss Isabella Leet, Miss Julia Stevenson, Miss P. W. Fanning.
Williston (colored) School—Eustace E. Green, Principal; Mary W. Howe, Isabella Howe, Mary E. Norwood, Annie M. Taylor, Emma McKeller.
The Committees for each District in Wilmington Township then appointed Walker Mearns, Esq., to take the census of all children from six to twenty-one years of age in this township, including the city.

The Commercial.
The Commercial Hotel, formerly the Empire House, which has just been opened, is now fully under way. The rooms have all been thoroughly overhauled, ventilated and cleaned, the furniture polished up and repaired, and replaced, when necessary, polite and experienced assistants engaged and everything done which is necessary to start the house on a new and prosperous footing. The cuisine will be looked after carefully and the bar and billiard rooms are both again running on full time. Mine host Schutte believes that it is well that if a thing is to be done that it should be done well, and he is therefore determined to spare no pains to please those who may favor him with their patronage.

The Fire Yesterday Morning.
The alarm of fire was sounded about 2 o'clock yesterday (Sunday) morning. I was found to proceed from the extreme Southern part of the city, which was lit up by the glare of the flames. It caught in a dwelling house on Mearns street near Third, and then worked its way down to Second street, consuming six houses in all. Four of these houses were the property of Oato Bunting, colored, and another belonged to Nancy Gause, also colored. They were small frame dwellings and were all occupied by colored families. Oato Bunting's loss is said to amount to about $300 on which there was insurance in Mr. Norwood Giles' Agency, in the Phoenix, of Hartford, for $500. Nancy Gause's house was worth probably $300 and she was insured also with Mr. Giles, in the Orient, of Hartford, for $200. The fifth house was owned and occupied by an old colored man named Cesar—whose loss, amounting to some $200, was entire, as he had no insurance, so far as we can ascertain. The origin of the fire is unknown.
There was a threatened fire this forenoon near the corner of Fourth and Dock streets. The kitchen attached to the residence took fire but a couple of buckets of water put it out. There was no alarm.
There was another slight sprinkle of rain here this forenoon but it scarcely left a trace on the ground.
Prof. Agostini's ninth excursion will take place on the Passport, on Friday next, to Smithville and the Ports.
Let every man in the city organize himself into a board of health and thoroughly clean up and disinfect his own premises.

Honored and Blessed.
When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well-known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of disease that most all other remedies could be dispensed with many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt and to-day the discoverers of that great Medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.
