When a poor man contracts the gout he feels that nature has simply aided insult to injury.

The Shelby excursionists leave us this afternoon en route for their various homes in the interior.

Carolina Lodge No. 434, Knights of Honor, meet to night for the purpose of conferring degrees.

The boys are coming out of water in undressed uniform these days. They get 'dressed' when they get home.

No matter how bad and destructive a boy may be, he never becomes so degraded or loses his self-respect sufficiently as to throw mud on a circus poster.

One of the disagreeable features about being near sighted is that a man is in danger of mistaking his wife for another woman, and being polite to her.

Johnny says his mother makes a great cry if his little sister goes out without her shade hat. She don't want her to get freckled, but she doesn't seem to care a bit how much his father tans him.

Sorrows gather around great souls as storms do around mountains; but like them, they break the storm and purify the air of the plain beneath.

Knowledge is the right bower, and one of the showiest cards in the pack, yet in the game of life check is the little joker that is oftentimes the winner.

We have heard of a young lady in this city who refused to dance with her lover because he was bow-legged, saying "she didn't like to waltz in brackets."

With sandals on her feet, a close fitting bathing suit, and an oilskin cap for her head, a woman can enjoy surf bathing without getting wet in the least.

Taken as a whole, this has not been a remarkably favorable year for mosquitoes.

"A positive benefit to young children and infants" is the popular verdict for Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Sold everywhere at 25 cents a bottle.

Indications.
WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office of the Chief Signal Officer,
Washington, D. C., July 24, 1879.

For the South Atlantic States warm South to West winds, falling barometer, followed in the Northern portions by cooler North to East winds, rising barometer and areas of rains.

More Clouds than Rain.

We had a slight rain here to day which made us all feel good for about three seconds, but as has so often been the case of late the clouds then gave us the go by.
It was evident, however, that our friends in Brunswick must have had some refreshing showers, as the clouds passed over to them.

No Mayor's Court.

There was one arrest for drunkenness by the police last night, but the Mayor being still confined to his house from sickness, the case was continued and the party recognized for a future hearing, which was the case also with the two colored female belligerents who were lodged in the Guard House yesterday and day before.

On His Own Hook.

Mr. Jacob Greenwald, who has been engaged in business in this city for a number of years past, has left us for Baltimore where he purposes to establish a business for himself. He will often visit Wilmington and will offer for sale to the merchants of this city goods in his line.
Mr. G is a clever young man, has a thorough business education and we wish him that success which his energy deserves.

The Obstruction.

We suggest that the Chamber of Commerce, through its regular river and harbor committee, or a special committee, take steps to urge upon the government authorities an examination of the channel through which the Regulator passed on her inward trip this week, with a view to locating and removing the obstruction on which she struck. It is possible that some portion of a blockade wreck has been washed, or settled, into the channel and if so it should be raised at once and this obstruction to navigation permanently removed.

A Happy Family.

There is a gentleman living in this city who is the happy possessor of a female cat which is the proud mother of a litter of kittens, just newly born, and in the same building and compartment where this happy family exists, is an old hen who is setting upon a nest of eggs. Now it so happens in the course of cat or kitten nature, that the mother occasionally gets hungry like other creatures of the earth and goes out in search of food, leaving her young to themselves, barring the company of the old hen, and our informant states that no sooner do the kittens begin to cry and mew after their maternal's departure than the aforesaid old hen assumes a sort of maternal protectorate over them, and leaving her nest goes to the kitten bed and spreads her wings over them, just as she would over her own brood of chickens. This is a new kind of step mother or mother-in-law, that we never heard of before. Considering the natural antipathy which exists on the part of birds or fowls towards cats generally, the incident related above seems a little remarkable.

Appleton's Journal

For August has several excellent papers.
A very fresh and interesting article, entitled "Moose-Hunting in Canada," by the Earl of Dunraven, is likely to be widely read in this country, and to greatly stimulate the zest for this sport. A wholly different kind of paper is Matthew Arnold's "Wordsworth," which is full of suggestion and admirable criticism. From Mr. Grundy's "Pictures of the Past" are selected "Reminiscences of Patrick Bran-well Bronte," and "Leigh Hunt and his Family;" there is a paper on "The Come-die-Francaise," just now so generally discussed; also an article on "The Mirabeaus;" then follow some capital "Wandering Thoughts about Germany;" "A Cordish Saunter," full of entertaining description of a strange country; a New England story, by S. G. W. Benjamin, entitled "Out of the Depths," suggestive extracts from the writings of the German philosopher Schopenhauer, under the title of "Schopenhauer on Men, Books and Music;" and translations by Swinburne and others of a number of poems by Gautier. The editor discusses "Patriots abroad," rebuking certain Americans who misrepresent their country in Europe; denies the "Wisdom of Leaders;" differs from Mr. Hamer-ton as to the common perception of the "Poetry of Distance;" and glorifies Fenimore Cooper in some remarks upon "The Objective Novel." There is a long review of Trollope's Thackerary, and notices of other "Books of the Day."

Accidental Shooting of an Innocent Man.

On Saturday last Randall Jordan, colored, escaped from Mr. H. E. Schriver, Constable of Cape Fear Township, who had him under arrest on the charge of assault and battery. Since that time the escaped prisoner has successfully evaded the law. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Schriver heard that Jordan was at his house, a short distance from Castle Hayne, and summoned Wm. Jones and Jno. Dudley, both colored, to assist in the capture of Jordan. The course of procedure agreed upon was that the three should surround the house last night. Each man was given a stand and strict injunctions were given that neither should leave without giving some signs or warning. Jones for some reason left his stand and ran down the road towards Mr. Schriver's. Jones had his pistol in his hand and Mr. S., thinking it was the escaped prisoner bearing down on him for the purpose of a fight, ordered him four times to stop. Jones made no reply, but kept on his course when Mr. S. took aim at his legs and fired. He then halloed for Jones telling him he had shot Jordan and ran a shot distance to a house near by for a lamp. Upon his return Dudley sang out, "We have killed Jones." Mr. S. was so much surprised and grieved that he would not look at the dead man but went to his father's house and sent assistance to Dudley. This morning he came into town, reported the case and gave himself up to the authorities. He is now under arrest awaiting the decision of the Coroner's jury. The unfortunate man, Jones, was shot through the side and died in less than five minutes.
He was about 47 years old and leaves a wife. During the excitement which followed the shooting Jordan made good his escape and is now at large.

Some think if poverty is a disgrace, mended stockings are a darned shame.

Released and Rearrested.

Maria Wortham, colored, was released from the Guard House this morning at the expiration of her sentence of five days imprisonment and in one hour's time was arrested again upon the same old charge viz, disorderly conduct. An officer was then sent with her as escort out of the limits of the city.

The Regulator.

The steamship Regulator, which, as reported by us yesterday, went ashore on Main Bar, on Tuesday evening, has discharged all of her cargo at her wharf in this city, and it is found that not even a grain of corn was wet. The leak was immediately under the engine room, and consequently readily got at without disturbing the cargo. By dint of keeping the pumps going, and by plugging the leaks, the water was kept down. The ship will go on the ways here at Messrs. Cassidey & Ross' yard, where the necessary repairs will be at once made. In the meantime the steamship Tybee, Capt. Crowell, will take the place of the Regulator on the line, so that there will be no detention to freights or interference with the regular trips.

Facts About the Human Body.

The average man measures about five feet three and one-half inches. The weight of the average male adult is one hundred and forty pounds. The human skeleton consists of more than two hundred distinct bones. There are more than five hundred separate muscles in the body, and an equal number of nerves and blood vessels. The skin contains more than two million openings, which are the outlets for an equal number of sweat glands. Each perspiratory duct is one-fourth of an inch in length, which will make the aggregate length of the whole about nine miles. Every adult man has fourteen hundred square feet of lungs; or, rather the mucous membrane lining the air cells of his lungs, if spread upon a smooth, plain surface, would cover an extent of fourteen hundred square feet. About two-thirds of a pint of air is inhaled at each breath in ordinary respiration.
The full capacity of the lungs about 320 cubic inches. A man breathes 18 times a minute, and uses three thousand cubic feet or about three hundred and seventy-five hogsheads of air per hour. The weight of the heart is from eight to twelve ounces. It beats one hundred thousand times in twenty-four hours. An amount of blood equal to the whole quantity of the body passes through the heart every minute. The stomach daily produces about 9 pounds of gastric juice for the digestion of the food; its capacity is about five pints.

St Swithin's Day.

The popular superstition concerning St. Swithin's Day is well known--that according as the weather is wet or dry on that day it will be wet or dry for the succeeding forty days. Pains have been taken of late years to verify or impugn the popular belief, and as the 15th day of this month (St. Swithin's) was dry, and there is already something of a drought prevailing, it may be worth while to look at the result of the investigation. St. Swithin's Day was wet in 1841, and there were twenty-three wet days in the forty succeeding it. It was dry in 1842, and twelve rainy days out of the forty following it. It was wet in 1845, with twenty-six rainy days, and dry the next year, with twenty-one wet days. Wet in 1851, 1853 and 1854, with thirteen, eighteen and sixteen wet days respectively. Dry in 1850, 1852, and 1855, with seventeen, nineteen and eighteen rainy days, while in 1860, when St. Swithin's Day was dry, all the succeeding forty were wet but nine. On the whole, in the twenty years from 1840 to 1860 more rain fell in the forty days after St. Swithin, when July 15 was fair, than when it rained. But there is doubtless a general truth at the bottom of the superstition, for meteorologists tell us that the character of the summer is commonly determined by that of the spring preceding it, and that a change generally takes place about the middle of July. If the spring has been dry it is more likely July and August will be wet, and vice versa. Last, St. Swithin's was a dry day, followed by month of exceptionally clear weather.

What are the Profits?

This is the absorbing point that is of chief interest in every business transaction.
By the combination system of operating in stocks, Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, N. Y., unite the orders of thousands of patrons, in various sums, into one immense amount, and operate them as a mighty whole, thus obtaining all the advantages of the largest capitalists and best skill.
Profits are distributed pro rata among shareholders every month. In this way large gains are secured in short periods, and capital from $10 or $15 to $50,000 can be used with equal proportionate success. $20 will make $100 in 30 days. $150 will pay $1,500 profit, or 10 per cent. on stock, and so on, according to the market. A citizen of Troy made $315 74 on an investment of $50. Many customers are doing better.
The new circular has "two unerring rules for success," and full details so that anyone can operate profitably. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, Exchange Place, N. Y.

Honored and Blessed.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well-known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of disease that most all other remedies could be dispensed with many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt and to-day the discoverers of that great Medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.
