VIEWS AND REVIEWS.

The Sherman boom in Maine turned out to be a complete fizzle.

Dr. Glenn, the candidate of the Anti-Monopolists of California for Governor, owns 55,000 acres of land in one county in that State, and large tracts in Oregon and Nevada.

The wife of Chief Justice Waite, of the U. S. Supreme Court, while alighting from a carriage in Hadesyde, Conn., on Wednesday afternoon, fell and badly fractured her leg below the knee.

Twelve millions of dollars are invested in Coney Island improvements. Ten years ago $5,000 would have bought the whole island. About $2,000,000 more will be dropped there this year.

A Maine political speaker mentioned somebody as a Shylock and an audi asked who Shylock was. "If you don't know," the orator scornfully replied, "you'd better go home and read your Bible."

A busy man at Columbus, Ohio, keeps a photograph ready for use in his office and, when anybody begins to tell him a long story, he says, "Just take it into the instrument, and I'll listen to it by and by."

When John Sherman concluded his campaign in Maine in behalf of Civil Service Reform he was so exhausted that he had to be hauled away in a Government revenue cutter bearing the attractive name of Grant.

A delegation of the 110,000 people of Massachusetts who supported Ben Butler last year have asked him to run again saying they are of the same mind this year. He answers that he, too, is of the same mind; and consents.

The leading New York gambling houses are connected by telephones, and when the police come to one place all the rest are notified. This saves the police from previously giving notice themselves, which they have had the credit of doing.

The trouble at West Point is over. The order summarily dismissing six cadets for hazing had the effect of restoring good order, so that extreme measures will not be necessary toward six other cadets who were accused of participating in the hazing frolic.

Queen Victoria has sent to the ex-Empress Eugenie a frame made of violets in amethysts for the last photograph of the late Prince Imperial. The garland is surmounted by an eagle, which holds in its talons a tri-colored streamer on which is written in golden letters the motto, "Not lost, but gone before."

Capt. Eads is an extremely fortunate man. On the basis of the last report of Capt. Brown, the engineer officer in charge of the jetties, the War Department has ordered Eads to be paid the additional $500,000 provided by the law. If Eads maintains the channel, there will be large additional amounts coming to him hereafter.

Typhoid fever has almost assumed the proportions of an epidemic in the southwest part of Terre Haute. There were two deaths on Wednesday and one last week, and twenty-six persons are down with it now, nearly all the cases being within the small area of the third ward. The doctors disagree as to what is the local cause of the malady.

An English widow who has figured during the last four years in London as an active partisan of the woman's rights movement, an inmate of a lunatic asylum and the author of a series of letters on the iniquity of the Zulu war, which she had placarded all over London, has made herself particularly attentive to the six Zulus now on exhibition at St. James' Hall, and announces her desire to marry the best looking of their number.

The colored brethren claim to hold the balance of power in Ohio, commanding, as they say, 20,000 votes. But although they have always voted with the Republican party and pay taxes on $15,000,000 of property, complaint is made that they get none of the offices. Some of the colored leaders have improved the pending campaign to call the attention of the negro voters to this neglect, and they suggest that now is a good time to make the power of their ballots secure them their share of standing room at the public crib.

Nilsson still speaks lovingly of Americans. The American correspondent of a Metropolitan journal said the other day: "Some of the dearest friends I have in the world are there—they are all my friends, are they not? I assure you, I adore Americans, and I want you to say so. And don't forget to give them my love and say I shall be sure to go and see them as soon as I can." It is now determined that she will not visit America before the fall of 1880.

THE VACANT MISSIONS.

There are now two important foreign missions which have become vacant, and for which hungry political aspirants are clamoring. The mission to the Court of St. James, which has become vacant by the resignation of Minister Welsh, and the mission to Russia, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Stoughton.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Welsh, our minister to England, should feel compelled to resign, for he is one of the few of our representatives in foreign countries who respect the honor upon the United States. Against his name at least there has never been brought the first stain or reproach. As he was appointed from Pennsylvania, the political leaders of that State are impressed with the idea that to them properly belong the right to name his successor. The Republican organization of the State is very anxious to secure the position for Mr. Quay, who is chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee, and which he of course controls. He is a man of ability as a political wire puller, and it is in doubt whether Mr. Hayes will see fit to appoint one to such a responsible position, whose only claim to consideration is embodied in the fact that it is the desire of those whom Mr. Quay controls and that he is a successful machine politician. Wayne McVeagh, another notable politician of the "Key State," is also named for the place, and it is thought that Mr. Hayes looks very favorably upon him. It is also said that George Washington Childs, of the Philadelphia Ledger has a very good chance for the appointment. Mr. Childs is a man of education and character, and has never been mixed up in any of the dirty partisan work with which the leading politicians of that State have been defiled.

In the appointment to the Russian mission there are several applicants, but as yet there is doubt as to who will be the recipient of the honor. Mr. Hayes is a very uncertain man, and in all probability some of his best friends will be disappointed when the appointments are made. His "amiable obstinacy" is a source of much discomfort and annoyance to those who would be glad to wield an influence over him.

THE SCATTERED NATION.

Anent the recent action of one Mr. Corbin in denying to persons of the Jewish race the use of his hotel at Manhattan Beach for no other reason than that they are Israelites, we do not know that we can express more fully, or in stronger language, our condemnation of such narrow-minded intolerance, more befitting the middle ages than the year of grace 1870, than by quoting with every sentiment of approval, the following extract from Theophrastus Such, the last work of George Eliot. Had the "Scattered Nation" no other defender than this ablest of essayists, the authoress of Daniel Deronda, they could still well afford to treat with contempt the envious defamations of any class, whether publicans or sinners.

In the seventeenth chapter of Theophrastus Such, entitled, "The Modern He! He! He!" George Eliot says: "These anti-Judaic advocates usually belong to a party which has felt itself glorified in winning for Jews the full privileges of citizenship, laying open to them every path to distinction. At one time the voice of this party urged that differences of creed were made dangerous only by the denial of citizenship—that you must make a man a citizen before he could feel like one. At present, apparently, this confidence has been succeeded by a sense of mistake; there is a regret that no limiting clauses were insisted on, such as would have hindered the Jews from coming too far and to too large proportions along those opened pathways; and the Roumanians are thought to have shown an enviable wisdom in giving them as little chance as possible. But then, the reflection occurring that some of the most objectionable Jews are baptized Christians, it is obvious that such clauses would have been inefficient, and the doctrine that you can turn a Jew into a good Christian is emphatically retracted. But clearly, these liberal gentlemen, too late enlightened by disagreeable events, must yield the palm of wise foresight to those who argued against them long ago, and it is a striking spectacle to witness minds so panting for advancement in some directions that they are ready to force it on an unwilling society, in this instance despairingly recurring to medieval types of thinking—insisting that the Jews are made viciously cosmopolitan by holding the world's money bag, that for them all national interests are resolved into the algebra of loans, that they have suffered an inward degradation stamping them as morally inferior, and—'serve them right,' since they rejected Christianity. All which is mirrored in an analogy, namely, that of the Irish, also a servile race, who have rejected Protestantism, though it has been repeatedly urged on them by fire and sword and penal laws, and whose place in the moral scale may be judged by our advertisements, where the clause, 'No Irish need apply, parallels the sentence which for many polite persons sums up the question of Judaism:—I never did like the Jews.'"

TOO TRUE.

We copy the following from the Washington Post, and submit it to our readers without comment: It is a melancholy spectacle to see a federal judge roaming about the country the role of an itinerant demagogue, boasting of his political influence and what it can accomplish, and trying to work up a boom for himself to the Radical nomination for the Vice-Presidency. The judicial ermine dragging through the mire of a low stratum of partisan politics is disgusting to decent men of all parties. The man who is thus degrading his high office is Judge Settle, of North Carolina, and we have no idea that he will ever settle down into a quiet and well-tended member of the United States judiciary. One lesson that this babbling teaches is, the impolicy of putting demagogues on the bench. Mr. Hayes has shown a strong inclination to follow Grant in this regard. In one notable instance, the Senate has thwarted his purpose to reinforce the partisanship of our judiciary. The same policy on the part of the Senate, in all future cases, will do much to elevate the character of that important department of the Government,

Be wise and Happy.

If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or humbug cures, all that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments—you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for this, the great, wise and good will tell you, is Hop Bitters—rely on it. See another column.

LIFE IN A BOTTLE. The Most Valuable Medical Discovery Known to the World—No More Use for Quinine, Calomel or Mineral Poisons—Life for the Blood, Strength for the Nerves, and Health for All.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC Believing that by cleansing the blood and building up the constitution was the only true way of banishing disease and being troubled with weakness of the lungs, catarrh, very much broken down in constitution, &c., and after trying the best physicians and paying out my money for many kinds of medicines advertised without finding a permanent cure, I began doctoring myself, using medicines made from roots and herbs. I fortunately discovered a wonderful Bitters or Blood Purifier, the first bottle of which gave me new life and vigor, and in time effected a permanent cure. I was free from catarrh, my lungs became strong and sound, being able to stand the most severe cold and exposure, and I have gained over thirty pounds in weight. Feeling confident that I had made a wonderful discovery in medicine, I prepared a quantity giving them away to sick friends and neighbors. I found the medicine effected the most wonderful cures of all diseases caused from humors or scrofula in the blood, Impudence, Bad Stomach, Weakness, Kidney Disease, Torpid Liver, &c., &c. The news of my discovery in this way spread from one person to another until I found myself called upon to supply patients with medicine far and wide, and I was induced to establish a laboratory for compounding and bottling the Root Bitters in large quantities, and I now do vote all my time to this business.

It was at first backward in presenting either myself or discovery in this way to the public, not being a patent medicine man and with small capital, until I am getting bravely over that. Since I first advertised this medicine I have been crowded with orders from druggists and country dealers, and the hundreds of letters I have received from persons cured, prove the fact that no remedy ever did so much good in so short a time and had so much success as the Root Bitters. In fact, I am convinced that they will soon take the lead of all other medicines in use. Nearly one hundred retail druggists, right here at home in Cleveland, now sell Root Bitters, some of whom have already sold over one thousand bottles.

Root Bitters are strictly a medical preparation, such as was used in the good old days of our forefathers, when people were cured by some simple root or plant, and when calomel and other poisons of the mineral kingdom were unknown. They act strongly on the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels regular and build up the nervous system. They penetrate every part of the body, searching out every nerve, bone and tissue from the head to the feet, cleansing and strengthening the fountain springs of life, hence they reach all diseases by purification and nourishment. No matter what your feelings or symptoms are, what the disease or ailment is, use Root Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable, use the Bitters at once. It may save your life. Thousands of persons who die from the country are already using Root Bitters. They have saved many lives of consumptives who had been given up by friends and physicians to die, and have permanently cured many old chronic cases of Catarrh, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and Skin Diseases, where all other treatments had failed. Are you troubled with sick headache, costiveness, dizziness, weakness, bad taste in the mouth, nervousness, and broken down in constitution? You will be cured if you take Root Bitters. Have your humors and pimples on your face or skin? Nothing will give you such good health, strength, and beauty as Root Bitters.

I know that jealous physicians will cry humbug because my discovery cures so many of their patients, but I care not. It is now my desire and determination to place my Root Bitters as fast as possible within the reach of all those suffering throughout the world. Sold by who sell and retail druggists and country merchants, or sent by express on receipt of price, $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles $5.00. For certificates of wonderful cures, see my large circular around each bottle of medicine. Read and judge for yourself. Ask your druggist or merchant for FRAZIER'S ROOT BITTER, the great Blood Cleanser, and take no substitute. He may recommend because he makes a large profit. G. W. FRAZIER, Discoverer. 338 Superior St., Cleveland O. For sale by J. C. Munds and T. S. Burbank, Druggists, March 26th cow-daw

A Sure Cure for Piles. A SURE CURE for the blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams (an Indian remedy), called Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst old chronic cases of twenty-five and thirty years' standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotion, instruments and electrocures do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching (particularly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for Piles. It is used by private parties and nothing else. I consulted physicians in Philadelphia, Louisville, Cincinnati, Indianapolis and this city, and spent hundreds of dollars, and found no relief until I obtained a box of Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment some four months ago, and it has cured me completely. JOSEPH M. RYDER, Cleveland, O. "Has done me more good than all the medicine I ever tried, and I have spent more than $100 with doctors, besides medicine I am sure cost me more than $40."
